New Agenda: Northeast Administrative History

The New Agenda: Northeast was co-founded in the Spring of 1987 by Mary Lydon, President of the Massachusetts Association for Health, Physical Education, Recreation, and Dance; Mary Pratt, Past Vice President of the Division for Girls' and Women's Sport for the Massachusetts Association for Health, Physical Education, Recreation, and Dance; and Mark Colon, Education Director for the New England Sports Museum. It was based upon the national New Agenda, established in 1984 through the efforts and leadership of the National Association for Girls and Women in Sport, an Association of the American Alliance for Health, Physical Education, Recreation, and Dance. The purpose of the organization is to provide and support the advancement of girls and women in sport. This includes annually inducting women of New England into a Hall of Fame.

New Agenda: Northeast Scope and Contents Note

This collection consists of four series focusing on women's physical education and pre-arranged by the organization upon donation. Contents include material on the history of the organization, material focusing on Title IX and its implementation and results, and material on the organization's annual hall of fame inductees and conferences. A list of annual hall of fame inductees can be found in the box and folder list of the collection.

Related collections include the Massachusetts Association for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance Records and the Mary Jo Moriarty Collection.
