NEW YOUTH MOVEMENT
FOR WORLD PEACE
SUBJECT OF TALK

December 27—Doctor Dora Wagner, a noted educator of Germany, introduced her. MISS MC.Eachran told the story of education in America. During her visit to this country, D. Wagner has become more interested in the position of women in education. She believes that the woman of today is more interested in her own development than in that of the boys.

CHAPEL EXTRAVAGANZA
The chapel program Wednesday afternoon, December 27, was presented by the Alumnae and Senior classes. The program was under the direction of Miss McEachran and Miss Robb.

ALUMNAE-SENIOR HOCKEY GAME
A thrilling and emotional game was played between the Alumnae and Senior classes for the championship of the year. The game was played on the football field before a large and enthusiastic crowd. The Alumnae won the game by a score of 4-2.

DRAMATIC CLUB PLAY
The first Dramatic Club production of the year was presented on December 20. The play was "The Man in the Moon." The cast was well received by the audience.

Do you believe in signs? Do the girls in the dormitories believe in signs? As you walk down the corridors of the dormitories, do you notice any changes in the behavior of the students? Are they more quiet or more active? Do you think the signs have an influence on their behavior?

NOTE FROM THE LITERARY EDITOR

AN APPEAL TO THE STUDENT BODY!

This is an appeal not to serve, but to listen. Through your own ears and through your eyes, you can hear and see the story of the school, the story of the school that you are a part of. The school that you are a part of is the story of the student body, the story of the student body that you are a part of.

The student body is the heart of the school. It is the heart of the school that makes the school what it is. It is the heart of the school that keeps the school alive. It is the heart of the school that makes the school a place that we all want to be a part of.

The student body is the heart of the school, but it is also the heart of the community. It is the heart of the community that makes the community what it is. It is the heart of the community that keeps the community alive. It is the heart of the community that makes the community a place that we all want to be a part of.

The student body is the heart of the school and the heart of the community. It is the heart of the school and the heart of the community that we all want to be a part of. It is the heart of the school and the heart of the community that we all want to listen to.

The student body is the heart of the school and the heart of the community. It is the heart of the school and the heart of the community that we all want to hear and see. It is the heart of the school and the heart of the community that we all want to listen to and learn from.

The student body is the heart of the school and the heart of the community. It is the heart of the school and the heart of the community that we all want to be a part of. It is the heart of the school and the heart of the community that we all want to listen to.

BOULDER BULLETINS

In the world of Boulder there are many different groups and organizations. There are groups that focus on different interests and hobbies, and there are organizations that work towards different goals. Within the Boulder community, there is a large emphasis on multiculturalism. Many Boulder residents are part of different cultural groups, and Boulder has a rich and diverse history.

One of the groups that works towards multiculturalism in Boulder is the Boulder Multicultural Group. The Boulder Multicultural Group is a group that brings together people from different cultural backgrounds and encourages the sharing of different perspectives and experiences. The Boulder Multicultural Group hosts events and workshops that promote understanding and appreciation of different cultures.

The Boulder Multicultural Group is just one of many groups and organizations that contribute to the multicultural atmosphere of Boulder. Other groups and organizations in Boulder include the Boulder Film Society, the Boulder Book Festival, and the Boulder Historical Society. These groups and organizations work towards different goals, but all share a common goal of promoting cultural understanding and appreciation.

The cultural diversity of Boulder is one of its greatest strengths. The city's residents come from all over the world, and each person brings their unique perspective and experiences to Boulder. This diversity creates a rich and vibrant community that is open to different ideas and perspectives.

The Boulder Multicultural Group is just one example of the many groups and organizations that contribute to the multicultural atmosphere of Boulder. Whether you are interested in cultural events or organizations that promote understanding and appreciation of different cultures, Boulder has something to offer. Come out and join in the celebration of Boulder's diverse community.

THE NORMAL FROG

CRACKINGS FROM THE FROG IN THE CAMPUS POND

With the advent of spring, we can expect a resurgence of the campus pond. The frog's return is a symbol of new beginnings and renewal. As the pond fills with life, so too do our spirits.

The frog is a delicate creature, and its survival is dependent on our care and protection. Let us take this time to appreciate the beauty of nature and the importance of preserving it for future generations.

The Normal Frog is one of many symbols that represent the spirit of the campus. It is a reminder of the连接 between nature and education, and it serves as a reminder of our interconnectedness.

The Gentle Art of Conversation

THE STORY OF THE FROG

Mint Davis (playing a role made up in the breeze) "What's wrong, mint?" she asked, in astonishment. "What's wrong with you?"

Mr. Student: "The great celestial bodies just won't appear."

Mint: "But I thought it was the season for celestial bodies."

First Student: "That girl's in a funk again."

Second Student: "Then all you have to say is she's a poor地质."

SPORTS

HOCKEY

All hail the champions! Our hockey teams have climbed to the top of the league and have earned our respect. They have shown that hard work and dedication can lead to success.

The hockey teams have been a source of inspiration for all of us. Their determination and resilience are a testament to the power of teamwork and perseverance.

The hockey teams have also been a source of pride for the school. They have represented the school with honor and dignity, and have brought us together as a community.

THE GENTLE ART OF CONVERSATION

It is the story of the frog in the pond. The story of how the frog managed to survive in the midst of so many challenges. The story of how the frog learned to adapt and overcome.

Mr. Teacher: "The great celestial bodies just won't appear."

Mint: "But I thought it was the season for celestial bodies."

First Student: "That girl's in a funk again."

Second Student: "Then all you have to say is she's a poor geological."
