Alma Mater

O loved Alma Mater we greet thee,
Thy daughters and sons from afar,
As often we pause in our toiling
To hail thee, whose children we are.

Alma Mater! Alma Mater!
Safe for aye in mem'ry's Shrine
Alma Mater! Alma Mater!
Praise and love be ever thine.

With strong, steady hand dost thou lead us,
Thy powerful arm is our stay;
Thy light is our beacon in darkness,
Which ever will lend us its ray.

Oh, may thy fair name live forever,
Be deeply impressed on each heart;
That we in our trials and triumphs
May ne'er from thy guidance depart.

Dedication

*And thou art worthy, full of power;
As gentle; liberal-minded, great,
Consistent; wearing all that weight
Of learning lightly like a flower.*

... Alfred, Lord Tennyson

ANNABELLE M. MELVILLE
Ph.D.
History

Because you, Dr. Melville, are the living theme of this book, we have chosen to dedicate our "ALPHA" to you. You have "WORKED HARD, PLAYED HARD, and PRAYED HARD" — for us and with us, for our Alma Mater, and for yourself. In so doing, you have won the sincere respect, gratitude, and proper admiration of each member of the Class of 1957.

For many years given in true devotion to the teaching profession, we praise you. Because of you we have chosen to climb until we attain the heights of education for which you so nobly gave yourselves. Because of you we grew in a physical, mental, practical, and aesthetic sense. May the years ahead reward you.

And now my heart is sore.
All's changed since I, hearing
at twilight,
The first time on this shore,
The bell-beat of their wings
above my head,
Trod with a lighter tread.*

*Yes, in some far-shining sphere,
Conscious or not of the past,
Still thou performest the word
Of the spirit in whom thou dost live . . .
Prompt, unwearied, as here!
Still thou upraisest with zeal
The humble good from the ground,
Sternly represses the bad!
Still, like a trumpet, dost rouse
Those who with half-open eyes
Tread the border-land dim
'Twixt vice and virtue; reviv'st,
Succorest! — this was thy work,
This was thy life upon earth.*

O that we might forever hear his good counsel . . .
O, what learning is!

STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE AT BRIDGEWATER

Once again it is my pleasant privilege to express my greetings to the graduating class at Bridgewater. I am happy in your happiness, contented in your contentment and ambitious in your ambitions, now that you have come to the turning in the road, a road that can lead to success or failure according to the good will and the determination of those who travel it. Your Alma Mater has prepared you conscientiously and thoroughly for the life of teaching. She has in no sense glossed over or minimized its difficulties and its problems, on the other hand she has not magnified the unpleasantnesses that are inevitable no matter what our choice of life may be. She has given you a philosophy that we trust will take you far, guide you wisely and lead you safely into the enjoyment of your profession.

As you grow in your work you will come to appreciate the education which you have acquired at the knees of your Alma Mater. Bridgewater has prepared you not only for earning a living but for living as well. The cultural values which your professors have emphasized and which we hope have gone into the making of your character and the shaping of your personality will do much to fill your future with the glories of teaching well and the glories of living well.

May I exhort you to go on with your studies since no man ever knows enough to take full advantage of what the good life has to offer him. Be humble in your knowledge but be proud of your heritage, a heritage that is shared with you by thousands who have gone before you spreading the Bridgewater spirit. Remember always to live by the spirit rather than by the letter.

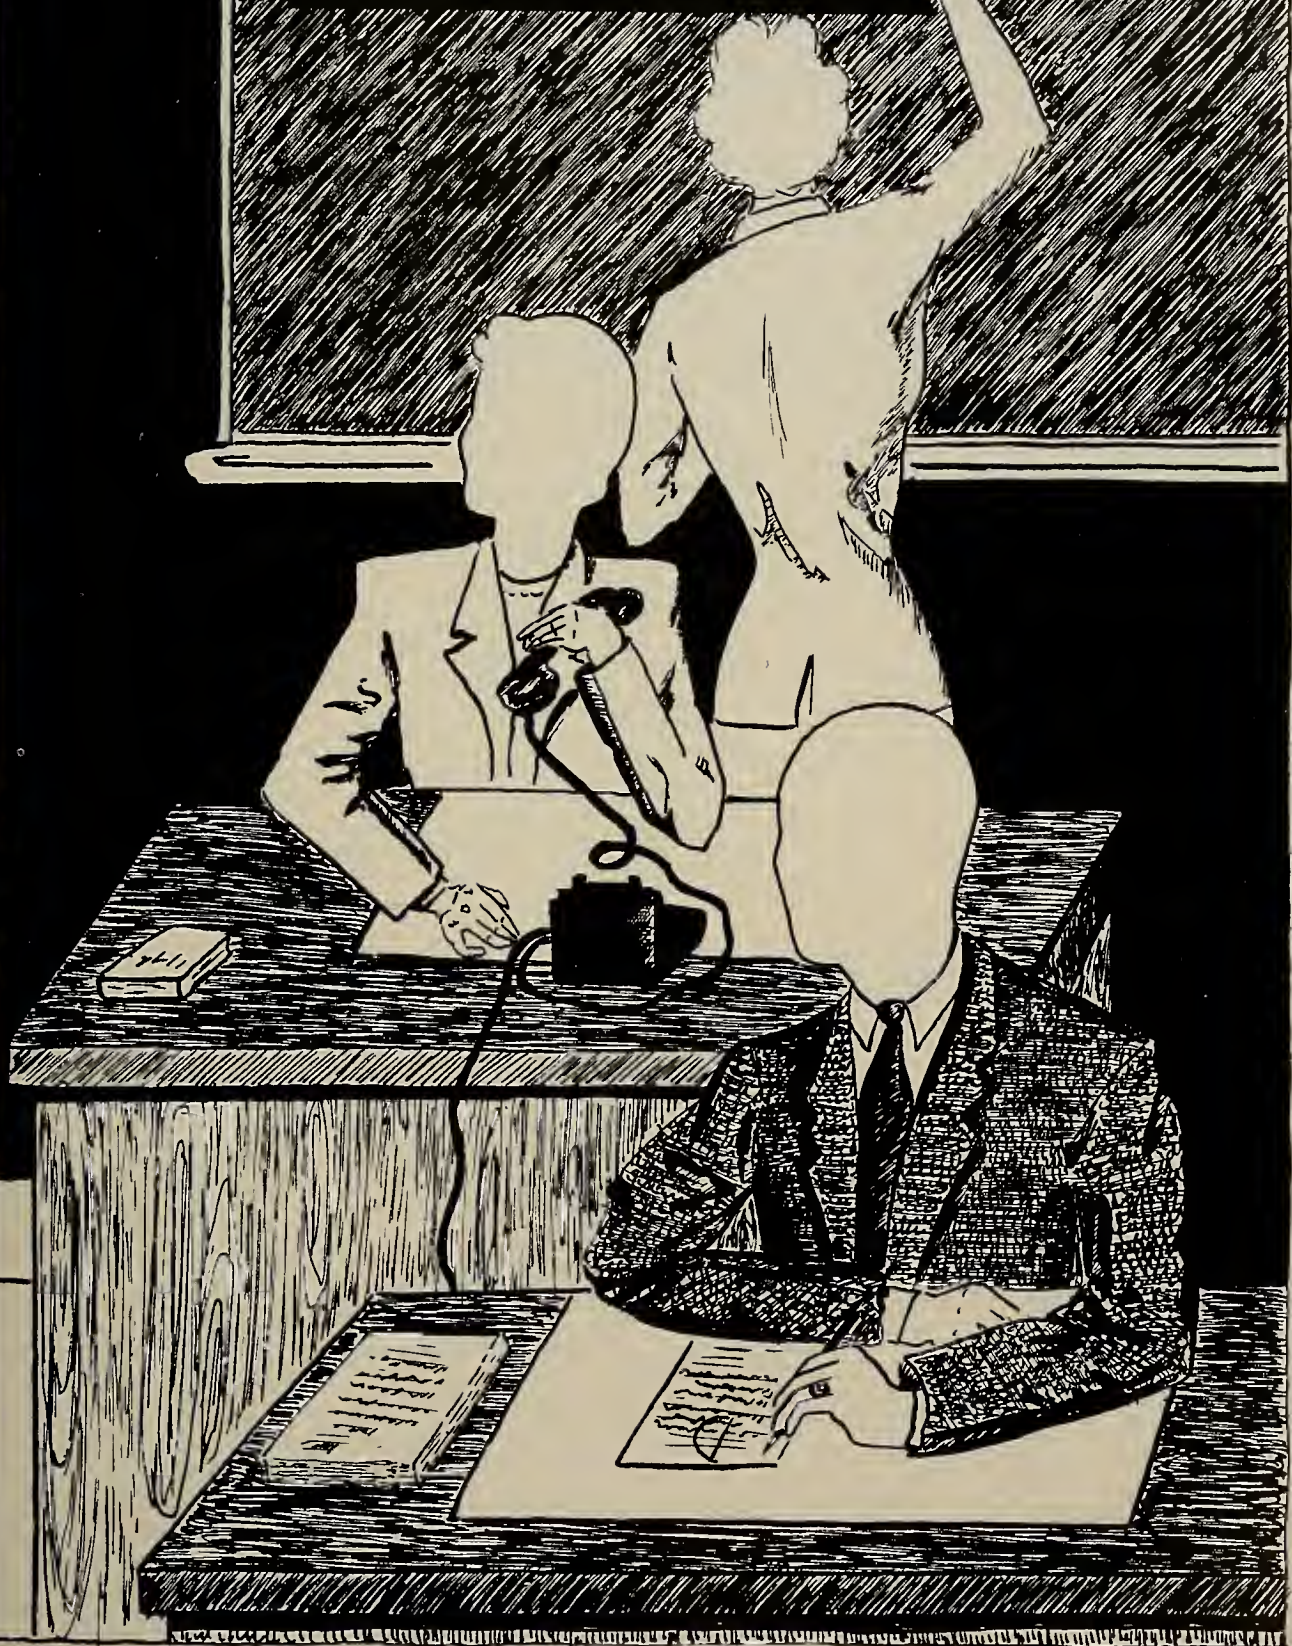

The children whom you meet in the classroom and in the playground will be your most solemn and sacred responsibilities. Don't treat these responsibilities lightly. Accept them rather as an opportunity granted you to help make the world a better place through the preparation of better men and better women, who can think straight, image vividly and act nobly.

May I ask you to take with you from the college your Alma Mater's fondest hopes for your success and happiness. With her Godspeed go her prayers that you may be worthy of the calling for which she has prepared you.

Cordially,
Clement C. Maxwell

Junior Prom

The Juniors' "Big Night" . . . the Junior Prom held in the Band Ballroom of the Sherry-Biltmore Hotel . . . Freddie Sateriale provided the music and all of B.T.C., the dancers . . . a most memorable occasion for all!

S.C.A. Formal

Dreamworld was the setting for the annual S.C.A. semi-formal held November, 1956. A wonderful evening of dancing to the music of Jerry Benard's Orchestra . . . providing memories galore for all.

Mardi Gras

"What happened to the gym?" was the exclamation on February 11, 1956. For, complete with George Wallings and his Orchestra was the Riviera at the height of Carnivale-time.

"Carnivale a Nice" sponsored under the direction of Marlene Brady and the French Club was the scene of many contests, gay costumes, engaging entertainment and delicious French pastry. Reigning over the affair was Chuck Haller '56 and Joan Shea '57.

All too soon Father Lent appeared to end the festivities.

Under the most capable guidance of Miss Rita Couture, these officers were able to make the 1956 Mardi Gras the greatest that Bridgewater has seen.

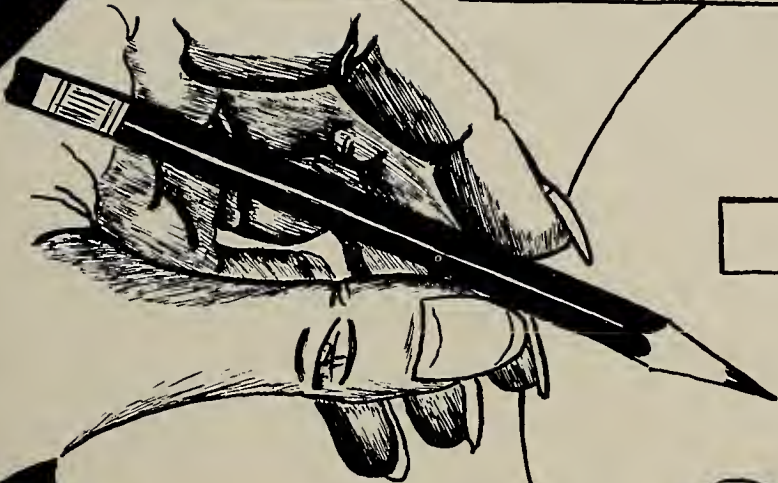

Christmas Banquet

Christmas-time again! Following a sumptuous banquet, the Glee Club concert and traditional caroling, was a most impressive and moving dedication of the Carillons in honor of Dr. John J. Kelly, late president of the college, and the S. Elizabeth Pope Lights.

Glee Club Concert

The spring night rang out with the sounds of the combined voices of the Women's Glee Club of the Bridgewater Teachers College and the Men's Glee Club of Worcester Polytechnic Institute. The occasion: the annual Spring Concert on April 12, 1956, in the Horace Mann auditorium. A reception was held in Tillinghast Hall immediately following the concert.

"The Personal Touch"

Two sailors, Wily and Al, accidentally become stowaways on the luxury liner, U.S.S. Sardine. Their hilarious involvements in order to avoid detection are complicated by Al's romance with Sue and Anastasia's determination to hook the ship's steward, Milo Millstone. The boys manage to exonerate themselves by retrieving the diamond necklace which the villainous Vladimir Borscht had stolen from the wealthy Lady Chumly.

Pailles, R. Henley.

For the second consecutive year the Bridgewater soccer team completely out-classed its opposition by capturing the conference titles in both the Southeastern New England Coastal Conference and the New England Teachers College Conference. Led by the spirited drive of Captain Bob Haggerty, the booters compiled an impressive record of eleven wins, one loss, and two ties. Next season Coach Swenson faces the problem of replacing such standout performers as Joe O'Brien, Ed Denton, Jack Andre, Bob Dickie, Stu Olson and Jim Christie.

Here — Our Fine Faculty

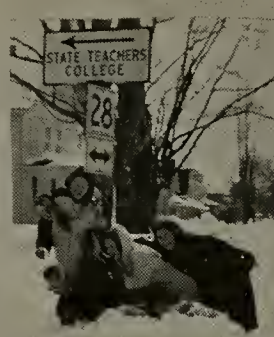

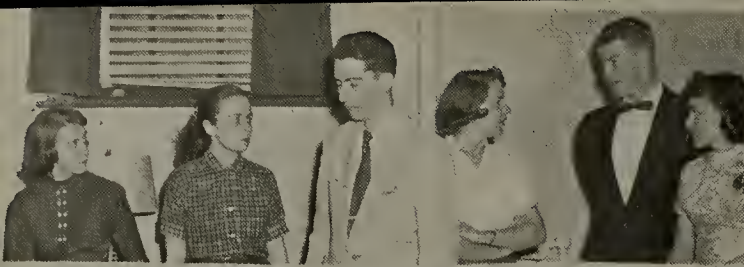

Miss Agnes Condon of the House Staff—retired in 1956. Our best goes with her.

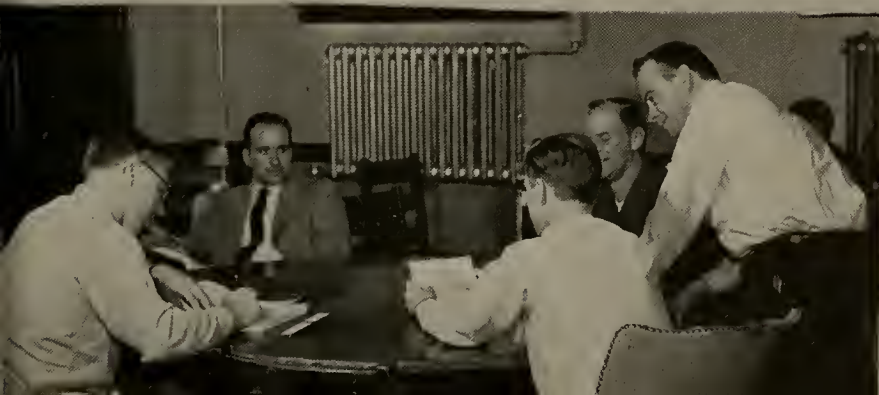

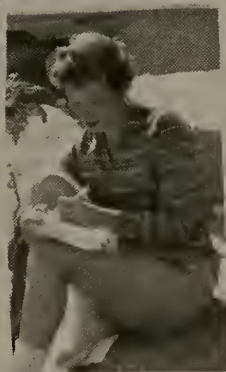

Here — Our Sober Seniors

*To our Moms and Dads — who made
all this possible —
a sincere thanks!*

Here — Our Unpredictable Underclassmen

The Editorial Staff wishes to extend its deepest appreciation to Miss Constance Baldyga—for service given above and beyond the call of duty. For a job well done—our sincere thanks.
