Many Interesting Comments | In Answer to Questionnaire

A survey is being conducted among the graduates of this college. The purpose is to give data which will assist the authorities in rendering every possible service to the recent graduates and make available information of interest to all.

A personal record blank has been mailed to each graduate of the last ten years. It is a questionnaire of teaching records, additional study and special interests. These are a few of the interesting comments compiled in this survey.

   "Became engaged in October, 1937. Will be married in June 1938."

   "Has traveled South, Little Rock, Arkansas, across United States."

   "Mother of a lively two-year-old son who likes my passwords and insecurity more than any of my four years."

   "In Lawrence, teachers must pass an examination to be put on an eligible list of 25."

5. Archibald Boylen Shum—1935.
   "Years in Dudley School will be few and interesting. I have had the satisfaction of developing first a junior high school, then a junior high school building."

   "Although I come down to Puerto Rico August 16th and enjoy teaching, and think the island beautiful, I would prefer teaching in New England, due to the poor living conditions here. The people speak only Spanish except when in the English department."

   "Those who are interested in teaching in Puerto Rico should consider the following: (1) Personnel, (2) Climate, (3) Environment, (4) Health, (5) Ability for adaptation."

   "I should like very much to become a general classroom supervisor."

New Scholarship Committee | Complete Points System

A new standing committee has been created in the Student Co-operative Society which has been named as a committee of seven for the purpose of elevating the academic standing of Bridgewater graduates. The group, called the Scholarship Committee, will consist of: Carl Sullivan, William Nolan, Doris Molineaux, Elma DeNest, Ruth Chadwick, Alva Martinelli, and Edward Baldwin. On the first step, revision of the point system for the purpose of further reorganizing the manner of giving a student a high mark and the clubs to which he can belong are very important and will be announced at an early date. Work has also begun on other aspects of real importance. These changes will be announced to the body when some definite agreements have been reached and plans of organization decided upon.

Work of State Department in Rural and Vocational Schools | And Teachers Colleges

It is felt that the students of a state college such as this should be more familiar with the work being carried on in the field of education by the state department. At the present time rather extensive research is being carried on in connection with rural schools. The number and location of such schools is of especial interest to those who have thought toward the prevailing conditions in many localities. Those who have studied and have distributed such data as is known in many of the vocational schools. Even the curriculum of the Teachers Colleges is the process of going through certain definite changes. It is being advocated that academic training be eliminated from the state for those who cannot afford to go to a liberal arts college and yet do not wish to be teachers.

It is felt by many authorities that such knowledge should be acquired before entering the teaching profession.

No small number of times we have heard the comment, “We could do so much better if we only had more material in our library with which to work.”

Well, here is one answer that speaks for itself. Fifty dollars were recently spent in adding new books, magazines, and newspapers to the library to aid the students.

For example, the complete daily edition of the New York Times is available. Formerly, the Sunday edition alone had been purchased.

In November, the All Division of seniors returned from outside practice teaching to college classrooms on Monday, January 21. Some of the girls appeared both sober and dignified in their young lady “hair dos,” while a few of the men were well done, evoking innumerable favorable comments. Earl Haggerty as Yum Yum Tucker and Kay Flaherty as his wife, Grace, were perhaps the most effective. The laughs, tears, and breakdowns of their first year. One well-prepared junior went to take her economics exam and finished two-thirds into it before she discovered it was the senior sociology exam she was answering for. Looking Ahead

The Men's Club was host to a formal dance in the gymnasium. White jacketed men and their attractively gowned guests danced from nine until one a.m. The insignia of the Men's Club, a flaming torch which was one side wall, and gay colored streamers hanging from the lights lent a festive air to the occasion.

The faculty and student members of the faculty and student members were present on the dance floor. President and Mrs. Miss Pope, Mr. and Mrs. Davson, and Mr. and Mrs. DiNardo were host to a formal dance in the gymnasium.
