Campus Comment, February 17, 1966

State College at Bridgewater

Follow this and additional works at: https://vc.bridgew.edu/comment

Part of the Education Commons, and the Social History Commons

Recommended Citation

This item is available as part of Virtual Commons, the open-access institutional repository of Bridgewater State University, Bridgewater, Massachusetts.
Students and Faculty

Bleed-In for Viet Nam Troops

One hundred and eighty-seven pairs of blood were collected by Bridgewater faculty and students for the boys in Viet Nam, as the "bleed-in" program was spearheaded by Jim Acconando and Joe McDonald, on Feb. 9, at Fitzgibbons Hall.

Mr. Brad Riachik, a local Red Cross official, arranged with the Bridgewater faculty to initiate the "bleed-in" completely on the prior day. It was a small thing that might help reverse the apparent trend toward demonization of American soldiers in South Viet Nam. The outcome was certainly encouraging. Mr. Jim Acconando after the "bleed-in", "we are very grateful to all who were unselfish enough to come down and give their blood."

Similarly, a second "bleed-in"-jesperingly, for 130 students whose class schedules or commuting arrangements prevented their staying to donate later in the afternoon has been set for April.

DUTCHMAN FAVORS WITHDRAWAL OF TROOPS FROM VIET NAM

In Viet Nam, the United States is engaging in an "unethical way," which "nobody can win," said Dutch Journalist, Mr. Oltman, in an address to the students and faculty of Bridgewater State College, on Feb. 8, in the Horace Mann Auditorium.

Mr. Oltman said that he wished "they would send President Johnson a helicopter to get shot at" over some ward in Viet Nam, he would remember what it is going on in Asia.

Mr. Oltman compared Asia to a sponge that will absorb, in death, giant, young American soldiers, unless, he felt, leaders "get the message" that Asians do not want more trouble in their countries.

Mr. Oltman said that the United States has built a "pyramid of states" around itself as a protection from Communism, and it would not be surprising that Red China wants to build a similar pyramid with North Korea, South Vietnam, Laos, Cambodia, and Thailand - to protect itself from the United States. Mr. Oltman thinks that "it is too late now to keep the "dominoes" (South Vietnam, North Vietnam, Laos, Thailand) from falling from Communist hands. He believes that just as the Dutch historians were right who predicted in 1957 that the Dutch would lose control over Indonesia, (despite the Dutch politicians' belief that their power in Indonesia was secure), so, now, American politicians who say that the United States can't win in Viet Nam are probably right further.

Way Down Yonder

Miss Peggy Dooley and Tom Stoddard were crowned Queen and King of Mardi Gras last Fri. at Nantucket High School in the gymnasium. A crowd of about 200 attended the galas and loudly enjoyed the bicentennial.

With New Orleans at Bridgewater as the theme, French students, led by Miss Peggy Dooley, blended the gym with streamers, lanterns, and the signs "Mardi Gras" and "Chicken Pie." The nimble, from the retreating Japanese. Mr. Oltmans pointed out that while the Dutch were surprised to be defeated by the Japanese in World War II, Americans were surprised to be defeated by imaginable nations, who had salvaged a few weapons and tanks, which the Americans have given us a similar message to stay out of the affairs of other Asian countries. He said, "These people (the Vietnamese) do have a damn election they are being guided by Communists or not. They have to do it alone,"

Lever, Mr. Oltman believes that the United States was "setting on the wrong horse" in trying to get into a war in Viet Nam, and "it is too late to do that."

Dutchman, Mr. Oltman, who was approached (rather tactfully) for an interview this week, refused, saying, "I think it's great and just what I applied for." Even the most rigid disciplinarians exempted students who were interested for freshman and probationists.

Kingsmen Perform in Gym Tonight

The famed Kingsmen will perform tonight at 8 p.m. at the gymnasium. Admission is 50 ¢.

Phenomenal success has been attained by the Kingsmen with recordings of "Lonely, Lonely," "Jolly Little Giant" and "Little Lotta Loo Loo".

Dear as you call us with (write reasons) for the performance. The drop-out certificate is the SCA function, so support your student government, and find some good entertainment at the gym.

(Continued on pg. 5, Col. 2)

COMING EVENTS

FEBRUARY
16 Town-Council Committee 6 p.m.
20 P.E.M. Club - 6 p.m.
22 Herodotus Talk - Tilly Recreation Room 7 p.m.
23 Mardi Gras - G.H. 8 p.m.
25 Basketball-S.M.T.I.-home - 8 p.m.
27 Newman Club Movie - Science Lecture Room - 7:30 p.m.
28 Debate Club Cake Sale-Botinda - 7 p.m.

MARCH
1 Freshman Assembly - 12 p.m.
2 Football-Plymouth - 8 p.m.
3 Newman Club Coffee Hour - Newman Center 8-11 a.m.
4 Model General Assembly - Room 305
5 Washington's Birthday - No Classes
6 College Community Relations Council - 4 p.m.
7 Herodotus Lecture-Tilly Reception Room - 7:30 p.m.
8 Basketball-B.C.-away - 8 p.m.
9 Basketball-M.I.T.,(home - 8 p.m.

Crowell, Elected Editor

1966-67

February 17, 1966

STATE COLLEGE AT BRIDGEWATER

Next Deadline Publication

FEBRUARY 25

Vol. XL No. 8

1886-1966

STATE COLLEGE AT BRIDGEWATER

February 17, 1966

Dutchman Favors Withdrawal of Troops from Viet Nam

In Viet Nam, the United States is engaging in an "unethical way," which "nobody can win," said Dutch Journalist, Mr. Oltman, in an address to the students and faculty of Bridgewater State College, on Feb. 8, in the Horace Mann Auditorium.

Mr. Oltman said that he wished "they would send President Johnson a helicopter to get shot at" over some ward in Viet Nam, he would remember what it is going on in Asia.

Mr. Oltman compared Asia to a sponge that will absorb, in death, giant, young American soldiers, unless, he felt, leaders "get the message" that Asians do not want more trouble in their countries.

Mr. Oltman said that the United States has built a "pyramid of states" around itself as a protection from Communism, and it would not be surprising that Red China wants to build a similar pyramid with North Korea, South Vietnam, Laos, Cambodia, and Thailand - to protect itself from the United States. Mr. Oltman thinks that "it is too late now to keep the "dominoes" (South Vietnam, North Vietnam, Laos, Thailand) from falling from Communist hands. He believes that just as the Dutch historians were right who predicted in 1957 that the Dutch would lose control over Indonesia, (despite the Dutch politicians' belief that their power in Indonesia was secure), so, now, American politicians who say that the United States can't win in Viet Nam are probably right further.

Mr. Oltman believes that the United States doesn't need to worry about the "dominoes," when its Seventh Fleet in the Pacific carries 400 22,000 pound nuclear bombs - the equivalent of 40,000 lbs. of T.N.T. T.N.E. for every person in Red China.

Mr. Oltman thinks that the United States should be spending more on permitting world peace by refunding diplomatic recognition of Red China. He protests to Kraushaar's-fundamental attitude toward capitalism as a result of his visit to the United States in 1966, and postulated that a similar charge might possibly take place in Mao Tse Tung's, war he is invited. Mr. Oltman said that we should not wait until the Chinese Communists have the ballistic capability to establish friendly relations with us. Mr. Oltman ended his speech with an exhortation to the students to "show the sneakers and blue jeans face of America to the world."

Through the Peace Corps and student exchanges, he said, "if the youths of Asia and America could get together, they'd love each other... and the youths of tomorrow would sympathise their political beliefs."
OPEN FORUM
Sex and the Play-Boy Philosophy by Reverend Bernard L. Thomas

In this age of Freudian analysis let me clear the account from the second "bleed-in" to be held (tentatively) in April. Of course it's all good clean fun, though the board would be willing. The nature of redemption is not yet apparent, so let me clear the account from the second "bleed-in" to be held (tentatively) in April. Of course it's all good clean fun, though the board would be willing. The nature of redemption is not yet apparent.

A letter of protest

Dear Sir:

I am going to my State College to write a paper with intention of becoming a teacher, a good teacher, and now the Massachusetts Teachers Association has stepped onto the school system in which I hope to teach. I, as a member of the association, am in the last year of my teaching experience, and I feel that the organization of the schools is good because it takes into consideration the circumstances that a student must fall. However, I am "too easy to deceive the board." I am told.

He said he thinks the board should have a student on it because the situation more adequately communicates between the student and the board. For instance he questions how far the students want on probation. A woman student who is currently on probation today that "I couldn't go to school," asked him what caused such a radical change from a former attitude. He answered that it might cause a student to fail. However, if the student is able to continue and make good progress, he thinks that the board would be justified in making good progress. The nature of redemption is not yet apparent.

Dear Editor:

I am writing this letter to congratulate James Accamando and Joseph McDonald who are students who have experienced these struggles found in the "I couldn't go to school." He said he thinks the board should have a student on it because the situation more adequately communicates between the student and the board. For instance he questions how far the students want on probation. A woman student who is currently on probation today that "I couldn't go to school," asked him what caused such a radical change from a former attitude. He answered that it might cause a student to fail. However, if the student is able to continue and make good progress, he thinks that the board would be justified in making good progress. The nature of redemption is not yet apparent.

A letter of protest

Dear Sir:

I am going to my State College to write a paper with intention of becoming a teacher, a good teacher, and now the Massachusetts Teachers Association has stepped onto the school system in which I hope to teach. I, as a member of the association, am in the last year of my teaching experience, and I feel that the organization of the schools is good because it takes into consideration the circumstances that a student must fall. However, I am "too easy to deceive the board." I am told.

He said he thinks the board should have a student on it because the situation more adequately communicates between the student and the board. For instance he questions how far the students want on probation. A woman student who is currently on probation today that "I couldn't go to school," asked him what caused such a radical change from a former attitude. He answered that it might cause a student to fail. However, if the student is able to continue and make good progress, he thinks that the board would be justified in making good progress. The nature of redemption is not yet apparent.

A letter of protest

Dear Sir:

I am going to my State College to write a paper with intention of becoming a teacher, a good teacher, and now the Massachusetts Teachers Association has stepped onto the school system in which I hope to teach. I, as a member of the association, am in the last year of my teaching experience, and I feel that the organization of the schools is good because it takes into consideration the circumstances that a student must fall. However, I am "too easy to deceive the board." I am told.

He said he thinks the board should have a student on it because the situation more adequately communicates between the student and the board. For instance he questions how far the students want on probation. A woman student who is currently on probation today that "I couldn't go to school," asked him what caused such a radical change from a former attitude. He answered that it might cause a student to fail. However, if the student is able to continue and make good progress, he thinks that the board would be justified in making good progress. The nature of redemption is not yet apparent.

A letter of protest

Dear Sir:

I am going to my State College to write a paper with intention of becoming a teacher, a good teacher, and now the Massachusetts Teachers Association has stepped onto the school system in which I hope to teach. I, as a member of the association, am in the last year of my teaching experience, and I feel that the organization of the schools is good because it takes into consideration the circumstances that a student must fall. However, I am "too easy to deceive the board." I am told.

He said he thinks the board should have a student on it because the situation more adequately communicates between the student and the board. For instance he questions how far the students want on probation. A woman student who is currently on probation today that "I couldn't go to school," asked him what caused such a radical change from a former attitude. He answered that it might cause a student to fail. However, if the student is able to continue and make good progress, he thinks that the board would be justified in making good progress. The nature of redemption is not yet apparent.

A letter of protest

Dear Sir:

I am going to my State College to write a paper with intention of becoming a teacher, a good teacher, and now the Massachusetts Teachers Association has stepped onto the school system in which I hope to teach. I, as a member of the association, am in the last year of my teaching experience, and I feel that the organization of the schools is good because it takes into consideration the circumstances that a student must fall. However, I am "too easy to deceive the board." I am told.

He said he thinks the board should have a student on it because the situation more adequately communicates between the student and the board. For instance he questions how far the students want on probation. A woman student who is currently on probation today that "I couldn't go to school," asked him what caused such a radical change from a former attitude. He answered that it might cause a student to fail. However, if the student is able to continue and make good progress, he thinks that the board would be justified in making good progress. The nature of redemption is not yet apparent.
February 17, 1966

STATE COLLEGE AT BRIDGEWATER

Page 3

by Armand Marchand

The Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Film-{}

er's production of "The Loved One," based on Evelyn Waugh's novel, has been described as "something to see, something to believe, and something to savor."

This is the ultimate in sick comedy and satirical sarcasm and the most brilliant, sickly-sweet comedy that has come along in a while. It is also the ultimate in morbid humor and absurdity.

The plot of "The Loved One" is based on Evelyn Waugh's novel "Decline and Fall," and it features the same cast of characters from Waugh's work. The film is directed by Charles Chavity and produced by MGM.

The story centers around a young man named Lawrence Shipton, who is trying to make a name for himself in the fashion industry. He meets a woman named Helen and falls in love with her. However, Helen is already married to a wealthy businessman named Charles "Bam Bam" Callahan.

Shipton decides to work for Callahan's company, but he is not interested in the work. He instead starts his own fashion design business and becomes successful. However, his personal life is in shambles. He is estranged from his family and his lover, Helen, has left him.

In the end, Shipton is left alone in the world, and he realizes that he has been living a life of illusion. He decides to commit suicide and ends his life in a bathtub.

The film is a dark and macabre comedy that deals with themes of love, death, and the absurdity of the fashion industry. It is a must-see for fans of the genre and for anyone who enjoys a good laugh at the expense of the wealthy and powerful.

by Patricia Foley

"Do Nothing to Win"

Some of the Breedway silk rember when there was a two legged living thing on campus,

outside of a few shy pagans,

the one who has three legs, four arms, and a tail. We don't know much about them, but we do know that they are exclusively a part of the student body. They are the students who are interested in the Fine Arts Club and the American Society of Thomists.

The Fine Arts Club meets the first Tuesday of each month in the art room at 7:30 p.m.

The club is open to all students, and the meetings are open to the public.

The American Society of Thomists meets on the third

Monday of each month in the library at 8 p.m. The society is open to all students and is a philosophical society.

Both clubs are involved in the promotion of the arts and philosophy on campus.

The Fine Arts Club has planned a series of art exhibitions and workshops during the semester. The American Society of Thomists has planned a series of philosophical discussions

during the semester.

The clubs are looking for new members, so if you are interested in either club,

please attend.

Silver Scholarship Offer Exceeds $2000

During the months of February and March, the State University of New York at Binghamton held the annual Silver Scholarship competition. The competition is open to all students who are majoring in the arts.

The competition was held in the University's auditorium, and the judges were Dr. John A. Young, Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, and Dr. James O. Dwyer, Dean of the School of Music.

The competition was held on March 7th, and the winning entry was "The Time of the Year," by Linda A. Bingham. The winner was awarded a scholarship of $2000.

The competition was a success, and the university is planning to hold it again next year.

by David L. Barger

"Three to One" Tryouts

"Three to One" is a musical comedy that opened on Broadway in 1962. The show was written by John Kander and Fred Ebb, and directed by James Lapine.

The show tells the story of a school for boys in New York City. The school is in trouble, and the students are trying to save it by putting on a musical.

The musical features music by Kander and Ebb, and book and lyrics by John Kander and Fred Ebb. The show starred David Burnham, Mary Tyler Moore, and Robert Morse.

The show was a hit on Broadway, and it won three Tony Awards. It has been revived several times since its original run, and it is still performed today.

The show was a critical and commercial success, and it helped establish Kander and Ebb as a major team in the world of musical theater. It is a must-see for fans of the genre and for anyone who enjoys a good musical.
Salem State College led by the 28 points of John Galacris defeated the Bears 86-72 at Bridgewater February 15. The first half belonged to the Salem team as they outscored Bridgewater 46-33. The Bears stayed within a winning distance, though, for all of the first half. Scoring by Dan Phelan and Ken Brennan, and the heads-up defensive play by Al Petipas and Steve Adherison kept the Salem team within about 20 points of the visitors before half-time.

The opening minutes of the second half saw Salem out-score Bridgewater 13-2 to come within three points, 48-45 of tying Salem. Stanfor, and Galacris scored four points that first five minutes scoring the extent of the Salem scoring. Scores by Phelan, Brennan, Anderson, and Petipas and several steals and interception passes by Anderson constituted the Bridgewater drive. For the next six minutes or so, the Salem lead oscillated from three to ten points. The two teams switched baskets after that keeping the score about ten or eleven points in Salem’s favor. At the four minute mark of the second half the Bears narrowed the lead to nine points, but that was the last time Bridgewater threatened. Basket by Whalen and Galacris put the visitors decisively out in front. The two teams scored 40 points apiece in the last two quarters. Better play in the first quarter by Bridgewater could have put them in a column.

Dan Phelan was high scorer for BSC with 19. Brennan, Fairbanks and Anderson followed with 11, 14 and 12 points respectively.

Phelan hit 15 field goals in 22 attempts an impressive semester exam hibernation to trounce Willimantic 74-63. Phelan scored 34 points as he hit 15 field goals in 22 attempts an impressive 72% shooting. He hit 19 of 20 free throws for an 83% clip in the game for Willimantic.

Player of the Game is Dan Phelan (15-4-34), Warren rf, Fairbanks lf 4-3-11, Lucius rf Petipas ig 5-7-17, Kilgour 19 0-1-1, Anderson lrf 19. Totals 26-11-63.

BSC - Phelan rf 15-4-34, Warren rf, Fairbanks lf 4-3-11, Lucius rf Petipas ig 5-7-17, Kilgour 19 0-1-1, Anderson lrf 19. Totals 26-11-63.

Bears Trounce Willimantic

Led by sharpshooting Dan Phelan, the Bears came out of their weekly game hibernation to trounce Willimantic 74-63. Phelan scored 34 points as he hit 15 field goals in 22 attempts an impressive 72% shooting. He hit 19 of 20 free throws for an 83% clip in the game for Willimantic.

Player of the Game is Dan Phelan (15-4-34), Warren rf, Fairbanks lf 4-3-11, Lucius rf Petipas ig 5-7-17, Kilgour 19 0-1-1, Anderson lrf 19. Totals 26-11-63.

BSC - Phelan rf 15-4-34, Warren rf, Fairbanks lf 4-3-11, Lucius rf Petipas ig 5-7-17, Kilgour 19 0-1-1, Anderson lrf 19. Totals 26-11-63.

A full court press in the early moments of the game forced Willimantic to turn the ball over repeatedly, while the Bears took their time. They worked the sphere around and waited for the openings. These tactics paid off with a 43-27 half time lead. As the scores showed a 30% shooting average from the Willimantic line.

Bears Trounce Willimantic

Led by sharpshooting Dan Phelan, the Bears came out of their weekly game hibernation to trounce Willimantic 74-63. Phelan scored 34 points as he hit 15 field goals in 22 attempts an impressive 72% shooting. He hit 19 of 20 free throws for an 83% clip in the game for Willimantic.

Player of the Game is Dan Phelan (15-4-34), Warren rf, Fairbanks lf 4-3-11, Lucius rf Petipas ig 5-7-17, Kilgour 19 0-1-1, Anderson lrf 19. Totals 26-11-63.

BSC - Phelan rf 15-4-34, Warren rf, Fairbanks lf 4-3-11, Lucius rf Petipas ig 5-7-17, Kilgour 19 0-1-1, Anderson lrf 19. Totals 26-11-63.

Bears Trounce Willimantic

Led by sharpshooting Dan Phelan, the Bears came out of their weekly game hibernation to trounce Willimantic 74-63. Phelan scored 34 points as he hit 15 field goals in 22 attempts an impressive 72% shooting. He hit 19 of 20 free throws for an 83% clip in the game for Willimantic.

Player of the Game is Dan Phelan (15-4-34), Warren rf, Fairbanks lf 4-3-11, Lucius rf Petipas ig 5-7-17, Kilgour 19 0-1-1, Anderson lrf 19. Totals 26-11-63.

BSC - Phelan rf 15-4-34, Warren rf, Fairbanks lf 4-3-11, Lucius rf Petipas ig 5-7-17, Kilgour 19 0-1-1, Anderson lrf 19. Totals 26-11-63.

Bears Trounce Willimantic

Led by sharpshooting Dan Phelan, the Bears came out of their weekly game hibernation to trounce Willimantic 74-63. Phelan scored 34 points as he hit 15 field goals in 22 attempts an impressive 72% shooting. He hit 19 of 20 free throws for an 83% clip in the game for Willimantic.

Player of the Game is Dan Phelan (15-4-34), Warren rf, Fairbanks lf 4-3-11, Lucius rf Petipas ig 5-7-17, Kilgour 19 0-1-1, Anderson lrf 19. Totals 26-11-63.

BSC - Phelan rf 15-4-34, Warren rf, Fairbanks lf 4-3-11, Lucius rf Petipas ig 5-7-17, Kilgour 19 0-1-1, Anderson lrf 19. Totals 26-11-63.

Bears Trounce Willimantic

Led by sharpshooting Dan Phelan, the Bears came out of their weekly game hibernation to trounce Willimantic 74-63. Phelan scored 34 points as he hit 15 field goals in 22 attempts an impressive 72% shooting. He hit 19 of 20 free throws for an 83% clip in the game for Willimantic.

Player of the Game is Dan Phelan (15-4-34), Warren rf, Fairbanks lf 4-3-11, Lucius rf Petipas ig 5-7-17, Kilgour 19 0-1-1, Anderson lrf 19. Totals 26-11-63.

BSC - Phelan rf 15-4-34, Warren rf, Fairbanks lf 4-3-11, Lucius rf Petipas ig 5-7-17, Kilgour 19 0-1-1, Anderson lrf 19. Totals 26-11-63.