LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

I have received a letter for my daughter, an incoming freshman, requesting her service on the CAMPUS COMMENT. You evidently had not been informed, she wrote, that she is now in Liberia, Africa as a Peace Corps Volunteer. She just returned from there as a nurse and had seven children - first graders. Living conditions - comfortable, I know if she were home she would be very happy to assist you.

Sincerely,

C. McNamara

Curtain Coming Up

The Charles Playhouse plans to open its 10th Anniversary Season with a production of William Congreve's comedy, "Love for Love" on Sept. 22nd. So far the response to the Resident Professional Theater's subscription play has been sound as if she is very happy there and the children are very eager to learn. She has seventy children - first graders.

The new faculty in the Humanities Division are:

- Anthony C. Cotev, B.A., M.A. (University of Minnesota), History
- George W. Tihone, B.A., (University of Montana), English
- Eugene U. Solot, B.A., (University of Minnesota), Economics
- Edmund T. Fanning, Miss Daryl J. Schoenmehl, M.A. (Columbia University), English
- Robert D. Parker, B.A., (Colby College), English
- Mary A. Newell, B.S. (University of Illinois), Modern Foreign Languages
- Mary Daryl Jean Schoenmehl, B.S. (University of Illinois), Modern Foreign Languages

Mephistopheles was thinking of becoming a math major, but was discouraged when a former faculty member told him that reservations were needed to get into H. Hilton.

M. notes with delight the watchfulness of the Man from B.S.C. With any luck of our usual students are new sale from TIBURON, BAGE, and cars lacking parking permits. M. just heard the new Comment's Casto... "Oh, give us a home, where commerce may roam!"

Mephistopheles has decided that the new Student Union will actually be a parking garage.

Speaking of Sports

More coaching talent, the largest number of returning veterans in BSC's football history, and the promise of a wide-open offense make Bridgewater football look good for the coming season. The Bears open against the Springfield College JV squad Monday, September 19. New Assistant Coach Pete Mazzaferro, a former coach at Centre College, Beaver Falls, Pennsylvania, says the Springfield game will probably be the toughest for the Bears, but Mazzaferro is confident, however, that BSC football is definitely on the upgrade.

Assistant Coach Pete Mazzaferro, the starting general, Monday, will be directing a multiple "T" formation attack. Paul Stellas, a Sophomore will be Bremly's backup man. Four-year-man Jeff Fleming (Co-Captain) at center and back Joe Capuni at the veteran list. Receiver Ed O'Neill, fullback Tom Simonetti, tackle Scott Kiley at ND, Pete Rowe and Bill Clifford should come through with enough talent to make this a good football season for the Bears.

Some long awaited student body support of the team might make the difference this year between a supported scoring bear attack and an unsupported slumping bear attack.
