SELF STUDY UNDER WAY

The 300 students listed in this week's COMMENT have been selected by the Self-Study Committee for a survey of the attitudes connected with the college. The survey will be conducted by Paul D'Agostino, David Campbell, and Dr. Herbert J. Greenwald for the Self-Study Committee.

Dr. Greenwald told the COMMENT that the procedure for the survey will be the same as for the students selected to answer the Horace Mann Auditorium by the committee to define the goals of this college.

This is the first survey that has been done by the Self-Study Committee. Other projects of this body are trying to understand the objectives of the teachers. For this study the committee has designed a survey for teachers and administrators from local schools to determine the goals of this college.

The Self-Study Committee is holding this survey in order to evaluate the programs they have been doing by the Self-Study Committee to understand the objectives of this college. The survey will be conducted by Paul DuCott, David Magee, and Dr. Greenwald.

The students listed are asked to report to the Horace Mann Auditorium by Thursday 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. and Friday 12 noon and 2 p.m. and 5 p.m. Your cooperation is needed. The design of the study requires every student, if possible, to participate.
