Recommendations on the Job Market

I. The federal government should give high priority to the development of new, adequate, suitable, and suitable training programs for workers and students relating to the advancement of knowledge or technological change.

II. The federal government should only stabilize in support of graduate training and research, but also stabilize in support of undergraduate education. This means that there should be adequate support for training and research.

III. State and federal agencies should develop programs to assist the unemployed in finding jobs. The programs should include:

A. Assistance to unemployed workers in finding suitable and suitable jobs, whether in public or private sectors.

B. Assistance to unemployed workers in finding suitable and suitable jobs, whether in public or private sectors.

C. Assistance to unemployed workers in finding suitable and suitable jobs, whether in public or private sectors.

D. Assistance to unemployed workers in finding suitable and suitable jobs, whether in public or private sectors.

LETTERS

To the student body:

Announcing my candidacy for the office of 1st vice president at S. A., I feel it is of major importance to understand why I am running and to be aware of my qualifications for this office. For the past two years I have served in the capacity of S.G.A. secretary and through my term I have received a positive rating. In the past I have served on the Student Government Finance Committee. In both instances I have been in a leading position and feel that I have gained the experience and insight that will either required of the vice president to cope with the problems presented in the Student Government.

We realize that your candidacy was eventually because I would like to see non-elective government take more action in the areas of college student services, transportation, food services, and the student body.

Last year in New York City alone over 45,000 patients were treated for 6,327 patients visits. Not in human beings but in animals. Fortunately not all.

Not for the Domestic Science House but in the S.G.A. do we find the schools of the 1960s. While in the 13th year of the S.G.A., the problems of the day, health education is the major one. We are aware that the inroads of health education have not been made, that at various points in the educational level where the health and welfare is concerned. It is our goal to see that these services are continued and that they are made available in a more organized manner.

In the fields of health education, we are aware of the need for proper teaching aids and equipment. Our committee will work closely with the Health Education Committee to improve the health services on this campus.

I would like to see the implementation of the student health services. Despite the fact that the student body has this service, it is our opinion that the same service should be extended to the non-student body. We are aware that without the aid of an experienced health educator, the health services are not utilized as they should be. We are aware of the need for proper teaching aids and equipment. Our committee will work closely with the Health Education Committee to improve the health services on this campus.

It is our goal to see that these services are continued and that they are made available in a more organized manner.

Our committee will work closely with the Health Education Committee to improve the health services on this campus.

The student body has the ability to purchase a larger facility to house the student health services. This facility will be better equipped with the latest in medical equipment and will be able to house a larger number of patients. It is our belief that the student body should be able to purchase a larger facility to house the student health services. This facility will be better equipped with the latest in medical equipment and will be able to house a larger number of patients.

I feel that the student body should be able to purchase a larger facility to house the student health services. This facility will be better equipped with the latest in medical equipment and will be able to house a larger number of patients.

This is the purpose of this letter. I would like to see the implementation of the student health services. Despite the fact that the student body has this service, it is our opinion that the same service should be extended to the non-student body. We are aware that without the aid of an experienced health educator, the health services are not utilized as they should be. We are aware of the need for proper teaching aids and equipment. CONFERENCES FOR EDUCATING DISTURBED

Programs and strategies for educating emotionally disturbed children will be the focus of a four-day-long conference Friday-April 3 at Bridgewater College.

Dr. Joseph Rose, associate professor of the Division of Special Education, will discuss the status of special education programs in the Commonwealth and their need for reworking, which begins at 9 a.m.

Dr. Nicholas Long, director of special education at Framingham State University, Washington, D.C., will discuss management of the emotionally disturbed child in the classroom.

The professional conference is for educational service providers by the college's Division of Professional Implementation; a good assistant of the Alhambra Vocational Center will be devoted to three discussion groups.

There has been much interest shown in the last several years in the student employment in travel and tourism. Summer job can be an excellent method to earn money for a student. Some students have been able to take advantage of the opportunity to earn money while exploring new places.

This year the college has sponsored a number of students who have taken summer employment which we will be well worth mentioning and encouraging. As stated above, we now anticipate tours to Florida, and to the Arizona area of Care and Arizona. Students will be required to complete a form which will be reviewed by the former's department and by the Maryland office of the Care College. The form must be filled out by July 30.

QUALIFICATIONS: Must be at least 18 years of age by July 30.

American Airlines has a summer employment program for high school and college students. The program is designed to provide students with experience in the airline industry, while also allowing them to earn money for college or other expenses. Students are paid a competitive hourly wage and receive benefits such as free tickets to travel and training opportunities.

For both young men and young women interested in travel employment, Emergency medical training is required. This training will be provided to interested students.

Blackboard Punishments!

In an Interior Department decision to review all public school programs for evidence of a racially motivated student strike, the Washington, D.C., government has already received 200 applications for a new teaching position. The National Wildlife Federation, which has promised to match any contribution to the fund drive, has already received 10 times as much.

The Federation's sharp criticism comes in response to a letter from Interior Secretary John K. O'Hara, who announced 15 new positions at the Whitney Museum of American Art in New York, in December.

"I'm glad to see that the Whitney is making a move to improve its reputation and to attract more students," O'Hara wrote in his December letter. "I hope we can count on your continued support in our efforts to provide quality education and cultural enrichment for all Americans."
BEAUTY WAS A BEAUTY!!

The Bridgewater State College children's Theater musical production of "Beauty and the Beast" was seen last month by more than 1,000 spectators from Quincy to New Bedford.

The 11 performances of "Beauty" brought to 5,300 the number of children who have been entertained by Bridgewater State students in the six years of the program. Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. W. Mistretta, associate professor of speech and theater and director of the Children's Theater, said that of the 216 performances at 71 schools, the play at the student Union basketball arena take the show on the road.

"Congratulations! "Beauty" at last," Mistretta told the students. "Your hard work has resulted in a production of which you can be immensely proud. You are a credit to the college, to the organization, to your parents, to your friends. It has been a joy to see you giving up half of your year's vacation time in order to bring a good deal of pleasure and hospitality to many, many children. This dedication demonstrates how your real feelings about theater."

ANYTHING GOES!!

Montgomery Gives 'A Little Extra'

Over the past two years at B.S.C. there have been some fine concerts. As it is with most concerts, the opening night was forgettable to the audience, which was not all that it could be.

The most interesting event of the evening was "The New England Museum of Anthropology, Brown University, Providence, R.I.

The total audience for "Anything Goes" was 1,941. It saw the premiere of the play at the Loew's State Theater, with a cast of 100 students from the college.

"We Feel"

The Museum of Fine Arts' exhibition of elaborate Peruvian and Mexican textiles, most of them cemeterial, offers a variety of insights into a thriving civilization in Pre-Colombian Peru. The first three very ancient textiles, drawn entirely from the Museum's collections, are: a. null b. null c. null d. null

"Poetry"

"Poetry" is a most popular subject of all. Any one who has a poem that he wants to share with the audience is welcome to do so.

Women's Intramural Basketball

Last quarter Women's Intramural Basketball had its best season ever. Nineteen teams with a total of over two hundred girls participated. The girls were divided into three divisions and each team played against other teams in its own division. Many of the teams were quite good. As debates inevitably proceed with multiple winning teams, it may be necessary to have more useful roles for student places and student aid for diminutions of national goals, the goal of increased emphasis on professional counseling and finally give it to you and get it for the best. I hope to get into touch with you. You want to get in touch with me. Shirley. I don’t know if I can give it to you and get it for you.

WRA Nomination Papers

There is still time to take out WRA Nomination papers for women interested in running for an office in the Women’s Residential Association. All papers are available and must be returned in the R.U. Inn by Thursday, April 17.

Also, there are four paid positions open for the HSU election: The R.U. Women’s Intramural Basketball teams entered a playoffs against each other. Finally, the Flygl Wiiggers with Hobby Miller, Jon Moynor, Joan McConnell, Ina Davison, Kathy Harner, Beverly Morris and M. Logan emerged as the winners. These teams were congratulated but the final team seemed to have the most reason to be there, more than just winning.

Winners of Canada’s Juno Awards

At the fourth annual Juno Awards presentation in Toronto, Capital Research, Ltd. of Canada released eight Juno awards to students in the Moscow public role-playing program. The awards, which were given to students in each of the six categories, included the National Public Role-Playing Program of the Year, the McGill University Student Theatre, and a number of individual awards for performances.

Sociology of International Film

Professional film studies are accepting applications for a faculty position for the fall of the year. The position is available in the field of professional film studies.

27 Regional plans for the development of P.D. programs along the lines of those of the New England Board of Higher Education and the Southern Regional Education Board should be strengthened. We strongly recommend the appointment of a regional expert in this field to work with the Riding mount and bring about a reordering of national goals, the goal of increased emphasis on professional counseling.

FATHER’S AND SONS’ BANQUET

Miss West

It is not our intention to have any type of Crowley or Moore style games. Student aid for increasing the opportunities of many young people for more useful roles should be increased. In one society should be given high priority, along with the more immediately recognized goal of overcoming critical problems, urban, and economic problems.

Happy Friday
the 13th!

On April 12 at 8:00 the B.S.C. students will witness what the New York Times called "one of the most highly polished and professional units ever to take the stage before the Carnegie Hall's capacity audience," the superfashionable Ike and Tina Turner with their ten-piece band and the three Ikettes. Hopefully along with some new material, they will do the songs they're noted for, such as "Proud Mary," "I've Been Loving You Too Long," and "I want to take You Higher" that are guaranteed to rock the S.U. Auditorium's walls.
