Bridgewater State College
S.G.A. -- O.K.

Katie Hinkle

The Student Government Association deserves a well earned round of applause for its "new face." Many long awaited changes benefiting students here have been initiated by the S.G.A. this year. Already, changes that will affect student attitudes positively and make attending BSC a little snapper and enjoyable.

Buried in the S.G.A. Notes of last week's issue of the Centurion was an item referring again having complaints against the president, by Thomas Hickey. The complaints received were presented at a meeting on Thursday, Oct. 1 when S.G.A. members, met with Dr. Hickey. Mr. Paul Nettleton, a former student of Mr. Hickey's remade a second grace period for further book returns was requested. The S.G.A. Board itself does have valid complaints against members of the faculty and the departments who order books and then find them worthless in a classroom setting.

The mark up on used books is necessary for the Bookstores to break even. Books are bought at 25%, of its original cost and resold at 50%, last year's S.G.A. Bookstore.

Chellis Fellowship Fund

A special drive to raise money for the Barbara A. Chellis Fellowship Fund at Bridgewater State College will take place from November 3-10, said associates announced today.

The fellowship is a fund which would be made available to a graduate of BSC pursuing advanced work in the field of English, and it is named in honor of the late Barbara A. Chellis. Dr. Chellis was a member of the College's English Department from 1945 to 1967.

A native of Wyomissing, Dr. Chellis was a B.A. graduate of Simmons in 1922; in 1931 she received her M.A. at Boston University and three years later she became one of the first people to receive a Ph.D. from the English Training Institute. She was regarded as an authority on nineteenth century American Literature.

SUICIDE

by Beryl Evick

Last Wednesday, Sept. 26, I was given the opportunity to hear a lecture given by Mrs. Carol Carlin on the topic of suicide. Many of you readers will recognize her as she was once a student here and is now teaching English.

Theodore of Arcy, degree in psychology and had accumulated an impressive list of credentials. For example, she has worked teaching the Brucken Police, at the Academy, and participated in the Council of Youth. Mary, and has had experience teaching for the Suicide Prevention board, thus, now she lives with her husband and two teenage daughters in East Bridgewater, and has told me that she someday plans to complete her graduate work in psychology. She also gives lectures for various schools, groups, and colleges, which is why she has been, and hopefully will continue to be able to hear her speak here at our college.

Her lecture was very interesting, and brought the "issue" of suicide out from behind the curtains where it has been hidden from too many people. I was able to get a hold of the child's reports. At this point, the doctor awoke staggered out on the day, and seeing the situation decided, "let him jump," the child jumped to his death.

Mrs. Carlin added that many of the needless suicides in children can be prevented by a simple and basic procedure--the parents taking positive interest in their child. This can help a great deal, for there are certain suicidal tendencies that show themselves. These include self-consciousness, loneliness, and general the more widely published children. These factors come into the case, because children have very fragile egos, and can't bring themselves out of depressions because they can't have a certain something they are looking for in a similar manner. This can be identified by a child that thinks that he or she will never have anything, and this can be identified by killing himself, he will return to a better world. Also, she said that for various reasons, most children have, at one time, wished death upon a parent. If a parent dies or commits suicide voluntarily, even though it is merely intentional, the child may think that he caused the death, and will blame himself for it. He may then commit suicide as a means of joining the parent, thereby holding the guilt feelings.

At this point, she stressed that Suicide is a disease that schools have not yet to come to grips with. In 1951, several of the first young men to report to the U.S. Army were reported to be suffering from a disease known as "sociopathic personality disorder." The disease is characterized by a lack of social conscience, an inability to cooperate with others, and a tendency to lie and steal. The disease is found most often among adolescent males, and is more common among those who have had a history of delinquency or had been in trouble with the law. It is believed that the disease is caused by a combination of biological and psychological factors, and that it can be treated with a combination of medication and behavior therapy.

Review:

JOHN SEBASTIAN

"MAGICAL CONNECTION" by Jeanne Tappey The world of Jake Tittewfter in concert is "magical." From the minute he steps onto the stage to greet his audience his voice was gentle and happy. The audience responded. The concert ended after two hours. The seating was comfortable. The acoustics were perfect. The lighting was soft. The sound was balanced. The audience was enthusiastic. The concert was a success. The audience gave a standing ovation.

HEAVY TRAFFIC

by Philip Hackett

If your girlfriend is attracted to the Wolf Dance games of various kinds, "Heavy Traffic" is the kind of condemned feature you'll invite her to. If you're not the kind of guy who digs or doesn't dig the kind of material L'escro Brouck interpreted so honestly, then "Heavy Traffic" isn't for you. It's a slow drive for you either. "Heavy Traffic" is the latest venture of Ralph Brouck, who created "Plotch." The film is set in a small town.

Philip Hackett's French films included "Tiddles," "Madagascar," "Papillon," "George Grosz," "Juno Cito," and "Cigarettes and Butter." He fascinated Jacques Lipchitz, a major poet. Cigarettes built their lives. Lipchitz's sculpture became less naked and more graceful. His figures to geometric planes and "Joie De Vivre" and "Fingers" were major works of his during this period.

"Return of The Prodigal" was one of his alphabetical pieces. "American Sculpture The Valley" is a neomodernist sculpture that he created for the International Exhibition in Paris in 1917. The son of a wealthy family in Montparnasse, he was discharged for medical reasons and returned to Paris later. GOLF TEAM

The Bridgewater State College fall golf team was successful in its first match of the season by beating Stonehill College, 5-1. Low score for the Bears at the Foxboro Country Club was Bruce Handy's one over par 73. This summer Sophomore Dick McGovern suffered the sole defeat of the day. The victory was especially sweet as Bridgewater avenged its only loss of the 1973 Spring season. Handy also represented the school in a nationwide golf tournament in Southern California.

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM

Bridgewater State College unveiled its 1973 cross country team last Tuesday in logging nearly 105 miles of practice in 10 days. Bridgewater State College rivals to win by a 24 to 31 score. Last year BSC had lost badly, 38 to 19. Framingham State.

Four freshmen led the Bears on the course. Peter Gregory, coming first in 28:57, won the first place. Gregory led the Bears to victory, coming across the line first for 2nd place and blocked out four Framingham runners who were bunched right behind him. Co-captain Chuck Marotta closed out the scoring finishing 8th overall. Running Shorts: Bridgewater's first five runners all averaged better than 5:50 per mile for the 5.3 mile course.

THE NUMBER ONE KILLER

You march against war. You fight for clean air and clean water. You eat natural foods. You practice yoga. You are so much for life. And you are so much against killing.

It would be unthinkable for you to kill another human being on purpose. So then, why is this happening?

You don't mean to do it. But you are. The numbers are simple. Latest available figures show that 8,000 American people between the ages of 15 and 25 died in alcohol related crashes. And almost all the drunk drivers who caused those crashes were also under 25. 1,380 died in combat. 3,420 committed suicide. 2,731 died of cancer.

It's incredible, but one of the most dangerous things you can do is to have a few bottles of wine with friends and drive home.

You can change it. You have to.
