Understanding It?

Since returning to campus for the second semester in this, the Bicentennial year, I can't help but sense a wave of cynicism that seems to have descended upon the campus. The most blatant example of this is the overwhelming success of the Chemistry Club's "Bull" T-shirt sale.

This gigantic, deeply etched logo is a paradox to the political and social conditions of the campus. It is a battle cry for the student, but the only battle being waged is the staged war against the "intolerable" T-shirt.

The mere thought of this comic spectacle causes crosses Wednesday night in the main auditorium to be filled at 11:00 a.m., a free hour for the entire campus. There was a Senior Class "reunion meeting" in the U. S. Citation. About 177 "members" were registered in the class of '76, but perhaps only 30 of them were really there.

I was embarrassed and disgusted, seeing there to be no sense, have work on Student Teaching, or making the meeting. My impression of this class is that the majority are the class when only in its advantage or pleasure. The crime example of this will be senior week, that is, it doesn't exist. Also, if the speaker isn't up to the regulations or standards of a "Come May Senior," he/she will be the one most critical and offend. Well, let me say this person may - Can it, because you have absolutely nothing to say. I've heard your opinions been cackled and even begged for, for all right. The open question with those who are members now is "What is it with this class?" The obvious answer is that but for a few, this class as a whole is out at it all. And this lack of support or even a semblance of unity is going to end because of the lack of co-operate and support, the class has not enough money to put on the senior week activities it could. Again, there are going to those rollling about how the class doesn't do anything. Well, what can it do? The whole thing I'm to shape up, gang, there may not be enough time, but there should be at least some effort made. Find out who to get in touch with and find out what you can do. Become a "member" of the class of '76, it could be a great class.

Thank you,

Kathy Dessent-Class of '76

being short handed. If a re-established reorganization bill were passed, the effect would not appreciably change. Chancellor would not longer be needed. However, does not seem concerned with this threat, and he does not see the need for reorganization of the state colleges with the University of Massachusetts. He states, "I'm con- fident we can go and do the job not and see, and not colleges. There should be some sort of "inter-departmental sharing of resources. I can see the need for that. But more on." He mentions other issues are for greater efficiency and centralized duplication within the system.

The Board of Trustees has requested $66.8 million for Fiscal Year 1977. The Fiscal 1977 budget is prepared using guidelines which require that 55% of the total funding of Fiscal Year 1976 be continued in Fiscal Year 1977. The state's total funding for education and human services, with 30% of the physical plant included, is $268 million.

The current operating budget for the state's higher education system was finally approved by the legislature and signed by the governor last month for a total of approximately $268 million. A sum of $268 million has been requested.

Following are highlights of a statement made by Dr. John C. Murphy, Acting President of the Massachusetts State College System, at the conference on Educational and Cultural Affairs held at the Commonwealth's Old City Hall. "I have seen many highlights of the past, but the most significant highlight is the beginning of a frightful journey five years ago. It is a beginning. Nothing is ever a beginning. It was a beginning for me and my family. I was only 13 years old, listening to my father's distress as an AA meeting in Randolph. For four years, I had been the last man in the family to attend college. Ninety percent of the students work while attending college, earning at least part of their tuition and book costs and living expenses. A majority of the students in the Massachusetts State College System was a college graduate in spring 1975. The major in the first 50 years of the System's operation was a student in the beginning of a frightful journey with alcohol which lasted for twenty-two years.

In 1975, I heard a quiet voice reading, 'Don't look back, not knowing what was happening to me.' For me, there was no turning back. I had adjusted the AA program, a way of life. She had no program, a way of life. She had a program, a way of life. She had a program, a way of life.

We are familiar with the saying "something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue." It seems that a mixture of these is what is needed when it comes to meeting the needs of today's students. One of the most important aspects of higher education is the housing situation面临严重的挑战。在过去的几年，大学一直在增加的住宿费，使学生面临越来越大的压力。Jorday Rondiulé与学生讨论了这个问题，认为这是一个非常明显的事实，他提到与学生在一起的好处是非常明显的，因此，他正在从事一个项目，该项目的目标是帮助学生获得大学的住房。Jorday Rondiulé说，他正在与学生一起工作，以帮助他们解决他们面临的问题。
Career Counseling:

by Justice Demery, Career Counselor

The problem of a college education is being seriously considered by students and parents. The dues and services of a college club are paid for by the college. That time could be spent learning something which is much more easily learned rather than paying money on dues and books. The same could be said about gaining an education.

Guide to Money for Higher Education

Town and College Join Together to Spruce Up Visiting Nurses Headquarters

Bridgewater—The Visiting Nurses Association building on College Street is wearing a fresh coat of paint.

"This was a real cooperative venture in which local business people, citizens, and students worked together to accomplish an important civic project," says Mrs. Stanley Hatch of the Visiting Nurses Advisory Board.

Mrs. Hatch says the Advisory Board has been deleting fog, given the limited financial resources of the Visiting Nurses Association.油漆 painters generously offered their services to help and offered supplies of paint and equipment," she relates. "At the suggestion of one of the members the Board decided to contact the College and determine if perhaps some students would be willing to assist in the painting."

The Office of Student Affairs at BSC, under the direction of Dean of Students Dr. Rose L. Brumbaugh, quickly contacted the Alpha Phi Pi fraternity, Alpha Upsilon Pi fraternity, and Jameson House. Several members regarded it with enthusiastic "yes" and planning for the project got underway.

With paint and equipment supplied by Fairbanks Hardware in Bridgewater center, and labor supplied by the BSC students, the task was completed in one weekend.

Saturday, and the building has a fresh, new look. "It is certainly an improvement," says Mrs. Hatch.

Dr. Adrian Brandt, President of the College, applauded the success of the town-campus project.

"It is in keeping with the cooperative spirit of the College and the town of Bridgewater," he said.

Norman Workman, a member of the Alpha Upsilon Pi fraternity, said that the students enjoyed working on the project and were happy to have been able to help.

"We see this type of activity as an important part of our efforts to be good neighbors. We're glad that we were asked to lend a hand," he stated.
Jimmy Carter

Governor Carter also commented on the Middle East. He said that he supports sovereignty for Israel but would not support military and in the form of troop. He says it would be a bad thing for the welfare. Wages would have to be for training and getting people to work. If the people in the Carter believe that they should help their government, that they are not people.

Carter went on to talk about a winter film which has many major and much too overused tropes. He pointed to the Navy bus past for many many hundreds and generals compared to their number of ships. He is one of these few who is on the other side of the management.

Carter said the winter film “The Winter Soldier” is being sold for 25¢.

Rumania or Bust

Charlies Society in its attempt to raise $50,000 for a three week trip of Rumania has started fund raising. Immediately there are two activities going on. The first is a cafe which will be drawn next week. The prizes are one of hard paper for first prize, a case of wine for second prize and a case of beer for third prize.

Tickets are 10¢ each and three for 25¢. The other activity is a candy sale. Members will be selling the candy until March 15th. However, some candidates may have a much larger appeal and wider appeal than others. Carter in his appeal is to a wide spectrum, being an early civil right advocate in the South. While he has a good record of conserving the infrastructure in his state.

We have a few expanded film series that begins on Sunday, January 22, with the movie "It Happened to You," starring Jack Lemmon. This filmic montage kicks off our next Sunday night "Film Series." One month later, on February 19, "M*A*S*H,'s"s Navy Juanita the nurse" will be shown. All slides will be in the U. Demonstration Room at 7:00 for only 60¢. Our blockbuster films will be on February 26 and March 5 on Tuesdays with two showings at 3:00 and 7:00. George C. Scott opens the series in "Day of the Dolphin," on January 30. This movie is an award-winning film that should not be missed. Picture blockbusters include the Marx Brothers in Animal Crackers and "Fuzzy Love."

Looking Ahead

The Ensemble Theater

Remembering... and...

by Cheryl Buslmy

Those who were lucky enough to see the Ensemble Theatre last semester (DEC 6) will remember it as an exciting and colorful presentation. This semester, the Ensemble Theatre is offering even more exciting and refreshing events. The students have put in a lot of hard work to prepare for these productions, and the results will be outstanding.

The Ensemble Theatre will be performing "Moonchildren" on January 22, 1976, directed by Mark Carter. This play is a unique and entertaining piece that will leave the audience on the edge of their seats. The ensemble will also be performing "Midsummer Night's Dream" in early March, directed by Cheryl Buslmy. This production will be a wonderful opportunity to experience the magic of Shakespeare, and the ensemble's interpretation will be both humorous and thought-provoking.

The Ensemble Theatre is also sponsoring a series of play-going trips which they will be offering at the University of Vermont in the area in May. Once again, we are offering trips to New York City for the day on Saturday, April 17, to see Broadway's biggest show, "A Midsummer Night's Dream," directed by William Shakespeare. The price is $15.00, and the bus leaves at 7:30 a.m. on Thursday, February 19. So, if you happen to be in the area and are looking for something to do, these trips will be a great opportunity to explore the vibrant theater scene in New York City.

The Ensemble Theatre is a student-run organization that is dedicated to providing high-quality productions and events for the university community. They are always looking for new members and volunteers to help with their productions, and anyone interested in becoming involved is encouraged to attend their meetings and rehearsals. The Ensemble Theatre is located in the Student Union, and you can find them on the second floor.

BSC SWIMMERS IN FLORIDA

Over Christmas break, seven BSC Swimmers attended the annual College Coaches Swim Forum at the Swimming Hall of Fame, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. (Alan Johnson, Bill Fletcher, Mike Acarbaqui, Rick Battistini, Paul Stapleton, Jim Gardner, Sandy Harris and Rose Bruehl, manager.) The session included, in addition to the forum, an intensive training program which included two workouts, seven days a week as well as distance workouts in the ocean. Various films and lectures were presented by olympic and world famous swim coaches. The forum was attended by college teams from all over the country, as well as swimmers representing various Canadian and European swim teams.

Rick Battistini, who arrived in Florida before the other team members, represented Brigadier in the traditional East-West Swim Meet, in which swimmers from the Eastern U.S. college competitors against collegiate swimmers from the West. Both sides swam the 14th meter 1 Individual Medley, and qualified for the finish with his own personal best time, which he improved on again in the finals and scored points for the East.

There would be a seniors' varsity swim meet against Albany State University Saturday afternoon at 2:00 in the Kelley pool.

Come cheer for BSC!
