something new!

An Open Letter to the College Community
The Arena is a journal page in The Comment presented by the Political Science Club. The purpose for the journal is to provide information to students of Bridgewater State College.

Our organization's purpose, as stated in the constitution, is to promote political interest and knowledge among the students of Bridgewater State College. The information provided in the journal will specifically assist the students of our college and beyond our campus boundaries. The political arena is here to help you learn more about the political issues that affect your life.

The Arena is not intended to stoke cautious opinion on any account. However, political science is a vital discipline whose knowledge should be shared. Therefore, the political science club has made this journal possible and we hope this will assist you.

Get Involved!

by Barbara Wilson

Are you the type of person who likes to learn about politics and political life? Do you enjoy discussing the political issues of the day? Would you like to be a member of a club that deals with political science and political issues on a regular basis? Then you should consider joining the Political Science Club.

We are a club that meets on a regular basis to discuss political issues and to work on projects related to political science. We also plan to host events that will allow us to interact with other political science clubs at other colleges. We are open to all students, regardless of their major, who are interested in political science.

We meet on a regular basis, usually on Wednesdays at 7 PM in the Science Building, Room 202. If you are interested in joining our club, please come to our meetings or contact our club president, Namir Ali, at namir.ali@bridgewater.edu.

First Annual Patriot's Day Marathon!

by Jen Kupfer

What's the latest accessible race at Bridgewater State? The question is easy. First Annual Patriot's Day Marathon! There will be plenty of races to choose from, but none will allow you to run on the Quaker Center, which will be held April 18. Be sure not to miss out on this exciting event.

The marathon will be held on campus, starting at the location, and ending at the finish line. The marathon will start at 9:30 AM and finish at 3:30 PM. The course will be approximately 26 miles long, and will include a 10K and a 5K race. There will be water stations every 1.5 miles along the course.

It is recommended that you bring your own water and snacks, as there will be limited food available on the course. The course will be marked with signs and volunteers will be on hand to help guide you. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact the Bridgewater State Marathon Committee at 508-538-3333.

The cost to participate in the marathon is $30 for adults, $20 for students, and $10 for children under 12. Registration will be held on April 12th from 4 PM to 8 PM at the Registration Center on the main level of the Student Union.

All proceeds will go to the John P. Bolling Scholarship Fund. This fund is designed to help students who wish to pursue a career in the field of political science. The scholarship is named after John P. Bolling, who was a long-time teacher at Bridgewater State University and a member of the Political Science Club.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact the Bridgewater State Marathon Committee at 508-538-3333.

Wells has incorporated this creative dancing. Thus, each event is presented in conjunction with the work of others. Both paintings, prints, decorative arts and antiques are featured.

The thursday, March 31 lecture at 2 pm, sponsored by the Creative Dance Center, will be entitled "Creative Dance as a Tool for the Student Union, the performers as well as a trio of officers. The members of the group were interested in the world of dance, and they wanted to be part of it. They felt that dance could be used as a medium for education and social change. They also realized that dance could be used to express their own ideas and emotions. In the end, they decided that dance was the way to go. They started practicing every day, and they soon found that they loved it.

Summer Institute on Film, Video and Multimedia

BOSTON: The University Film Study Center will sponsor the 7th Annual SUMMER INSTITUTE ON FILM, VIDEO AND MULTIMEDIA from June 19 through July 27. The institute offers a unique opportunity to study a specific area of the media arts with leading artists and professionals. Students will be able to participate in workshops and seminars on film, video and multimedia, and will have the opportunity to produce their own work. The institute is open to all levels of experience, and no prior knowledge of film or video is required. For more information, call the University Film Study Center at 547-4280.

Proposition Opens New Musical

"A Fable," a new musical by Robert Rossen, opens at the 5th Street Theatre, 411 W. 43rd St., Los Angeles, Calif., on March 24, directed and choreographed by Hal Prince. The production is geared toward young audiences, and is intended to be a vehicle for the talents of the young performers who will star in it. The musical is based on the fairy tale "The Little Prince," by Antoine de Saint-Exupery, and is adapted for the stage by the writer and director. The music is by Andrew Lloyd Webber, and the book is by Andrew Lloyd Webber. The show will run for 26 weeks, with a closing date of June 30.

Lecture/Discussion on "American Pastimes"

Two special events in connection with the exhibition "American Pastimes" will be held at the Bowdoin College Art Museum on March 21 and 23. On March 21, a panel of experts will discuss the topic of "American Pastimes," and on March 23, a lecture by a historian will be presented on the same topic. The exhibition "American Pastimes" opens March 21 and continues through April 20.

"Dear Uncle Warinner"

Letters must be received at the Boardman Theatre Company by March 22 to be included in the performance of "Dear Uncle Warinner" at the University Theatre on April 7. The play, which is based on the life of World War II military hero Henry Warinner, is being presented as part of the Theatre Department's "Theatre in the Schools" series. The play is directed by John Kiley, and the cast includes several BSC students. For more information, contact the University Theatre at 665-2225.

Roundabout

by Ol Blim

The theme of this musical is that life is just a game, and that we need to be more creative in our approach to it. The musical features a cast of characters who are all trying to find their way in life. They are all struggling with their own problems, and they are all trying to find a sense of purpose in their lives. The musical is very stylized, and it is very much a commentary on the world that we live in. The musical is very much a commentary on the world that we live in.

Former BSC Student in Professional Dance Company

by Loree J. Campbell

Loree J. Campbell, a fortunate survivor graduating from BSC in June 1976, is currently teaching at a more advanced level in a uniquely positive way the basic science of dance. She has been employed by Encore Music as a member in 1975-76 professional dance group in Tucson, Arizona.

In my studies in BSC with dance organizes and music, I learned the basic principles of dance through the unique and practical experience of being a professional. Loree J. Campbell was the only one who taught the course who was an active and enthusiastic performer. The emphasis in this approach is in-depth individual technique and movement training rather than taking on traditional formal movement. It is in the belief in the importance of each individual student that encourages genuinely creative dancing. Thus, each individual dancer can find a style and a style with all of all.

Lecture/Discussion on "American Pastimes"

Two special events in dance research and music offerings were presented in conjunction with the Blackstone Art Center a month ago.

The exhibition dealt with the historical development of American music from the Jackson Age to the present. It also included a selection of prints, paintings and other visual arts. Among the featured works were a selection of photos and a four-page program on the evolution of the American dance industry in the 20th century. The program also listed the names of more than 100 major dance figures in American history.

On Monday, April 17, the New York City Opera joined with the Boston Symphony Orchestra for a special evening of dance and music. The program featured a selection of works from the New York City Ballet, including "Swan Lake," "Nutcracker" and "The Nutcracker Suite." The performance was conducted by conductor David Warriner with the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

Summarized by Tom Friedman

Agnes DeMille's "The Pink Door," a new musical based on the novel by Doreen Cannon, will be showcased at the New York City Opera on Tuesday, April 17. The musical is set in the early 1900s and follows the lives of a group of young women as they navigate the challenges of growing up and finding their place in society.

Propositions for a New Musical

"A Falstaff," a new musical based on the Shakespearean play, will be presented by the New York City Opera on Tuesday, April 17. The musical is directed by Joel Grey and features a score by William Schuman. It is set in the early 1900s and tells the story of the bumbling knight who is brought back to life by a group of women.
