Alphaville Upsilon Sponsors Queen

To all concerned clubs, organizations, departments, and students of Bridgewater State College:

This is to inform you that the Brotherhood of Alpha Upsilon has taken upon itself the task of furnishing the College Community with its Annual Homecoming Queen.

We are not seeking nominations from any area of college life, provided that the choices are substantiated, and deserving of sincere consideration. Each nominee must fill requirements in the areas of:

1. Social involvement
2. Appearance
3. Personality

A ballot vote by the students will limit the number of nominations to 5. These 5 will be selected by the committee consisting of three alumni, three faculty, and three students. Due to the Brotherhood’s organizational involvement we do not control the final decision one will nominate or suggest to members of the community. Nomination papers can be picked up at the Brotherhood of Alpha Upsilon Fraternity House or information areas assigned to the Brothers of Alpha Upsilon and must be returned to these places by Monday, Oct. 31.

Final selection will be announced at the Bridgewater-carrying game.

The tradition of Homecoming Queen is something the Brotherhood, as well as many students, do not want to see end. Please show us your support in this important event.

Suggestions or nominations may be submitted to the committee at the Brothers of Alpha Upsilon Fraternity House or by stopping by at any time.

Letters Senior Spirit

After spending 3 years here at B.U.C., I feel that we are so fortunate to have Lord Jesus they have probably been the ones who have made the most of their time. Although the world will always be their home, I think that the three years here at B.U.C. have been the most important years of their life so far.

One’s senior year is probably the most exciting, yet most overwhelming. Whether we will continue our education or take a job, our life is about to change for sure.

I bet that since it is our last year here, we would want to take advantage of the facilities on our campus to the fullest extent. If you have not yet used the Health Center, Career Services, or any other campus service, now is the time to do so.

While I may not be able to attend the commencement ceremony, I do hope to make it a point not to leave school without writing a resume, even if it is just a simple one. The University is also offering a variety of workshops and seminars to help students prepare for their future careers.

As for the future, I believe that we should make it a point to stay in touch with our classmates and professors, as they will always be a part of our lives.

Field Hockey Splits

by Cheryl St. Ours. The Bridgewater State College Women's Field Hockey team was triumphant in their final two games of the fall season on November 7 and 8. The team was defeated by a score of 3-0 by the Western New England College on November 7 and then went on to defeat Lasell College 3-2 on November 8.

Fire Alarms at the Hill

by Denis M. Knight, Staff Writer. Because the lines formed so early, unforeseen problems developed. Students attempted to outwit one another for a better position in line. People began to try and push to the front of the line, but were stopped by their own classmates. By noon, lines of students were seen coming out of the doors inside the Auditorium and then pushing their way to the front of the ticket line.

The tickets that were sold Monday were exclusively for BSC students. BSC students were allowed to purchase 2 tickets per person. However, this rule has been ignored by many of the students. Some students were even trying to distribute the tickets they had purchased to other students.

The lines started forming at 11:00 a.m. at the Student Union Auditorium Box Office. By 2:30, the line was out to the street. Students who came after 2:30 were not allowed to purchase tickets. The lines would not break up until the show was over.

The Fire Alarms at the Hill are the result of a lack of consideration on the part of the students. The Fire Alarms at the Hill are a source of frustration for many of the students. The Fire Alarms at the Hill are a source of frustration for many of the students. The Fire Alarms at the Hill are a source of frustration for many of the students.

Coughlin, Chairperson of Mass PIRG stated, "If people in line had been more considerate, many of the problems could have been avoided. I didn't get there till 2:30 because I was in a mid-semester examination, but when I got there, I made sure that the Fire Alarms at the Hill were not used."

"We have to be aware of the consequences of our actions. We have to be aware of the consequences of our actions. We have to be aware of the consequences of our actions."

Coughlin declared minutes, or shortly thereafter. However, the Fire Alarms at the Hill have lasted well over an hour. Coughlin stated, "Students are prime victims of the Fire Alarms at the Hill."

The keynote address will be delivered Friday evening by Professor Howard Zinn, Boston University teacher in Political Science, author of several books, and author of the current hit play "Emma" in Boston. There will be a student-faculty social held in the Rat on Thursday, Nov. 3, from 4:30 to 7:00. Stop by and "down a few" with your favorite prof.!

ECAC Nominees

Charlie Raino and Paul Vespaziani were nominated for ECAC player of the week, two weeks in a row. Raino, enterprising goalie, Charlie Raino did not make a mistake at the barrier during this game. Raino made a total of 154 saves in the first one and 150 in the second. He is said to have a mind of his own and makes decisions in a split second. His performance has been so consistent that he has been given the title of "The Wall." Raino can be counted on to make big saves and has been voted the player of the week twice, both times for his part in the success of his team.

Paul Vespaziani, on the other hand, has been a consistent performer for Brockton. His 2.50 GAA and .902 save percentage have earned him the nomination. His ability to read the game and anticipate the plays has been key to his success. Vespaziani is a leader on the team and has been instrumental in the team's recent success.

Jassim BaqerISA Treas.

This is Jassim Baqer from Kuwait, who is a student at Bridgewater College.

Jassim decided to study in the US after a recommendation from his Physics Education Department of Kuwait.

He moved to Boston to attend BSC and his first year, he didn't have any difficulty in adjusting to the American way of life.

The cost of living in Kuwait doesn't require large amounts of money, which results, e.g., in lower parking costs as well as very low telephone bills.

The cost of living in Kuwait is much more expensive than in Kuwait, which is not a part of India.

If he had stayed in Kuwait, he says, "I would have never been able to do things that I am doing now, because in Kuwait you can call as much as you want for $50 a month, whereas in America you pay twice as much."

Bridgewater State skated to a 1-0 victory in a scrimmage game against the University of Rhode Island Friday evening, consistently skating, outshooting, out hitting, and outskating the URI. The Bears, before a crowd of 250 fans, gave the URI Rams a sample of the Bridgewater hustle and bump as they totally dominated the game throughout most of the stanza. Yet, BSC just could not beat the URI goaltender. We went scoreless throughout the period despite the Bears’ 31 shots on goal.

In a 10 minute second quarter, BSC and URI bounced back and forth with possession of the puck. The Bridgewater defense butting the Rams about handling any attempts by URI to gain control.

The third period, BSC saw red! Turning the heat on, firing a total of 36 shots on goal, the bears finally put one by the URI goalie as Jake McDermott dug the puck out of the corner and passed to Paul Kelly, who then drilled a slapshot that was tipped into the URI net by right wing Ed Dalton. He scored the only goal of the game.

URI came up with a short rally, but was once again squashed by the BSC defense sending the Rams back to the hills scoreless.

BSC will be playing its second scrimmage game Saturday evening on Oct. 29 at 7:00 p.m. against Merrimack College at Merrimack.
