There was much hoopla and hassles the Homecoming Committee had to deal with because of irritable students being impatient for concert tickets. Students ended up being fined. The BSC students acted unkind, unlike the ticket lines for the event, and were voted the worst line. The Bears nipped Curry 11-8 in chilled weather and changing lights, large dance floor, rotating silver light piece, constantly changing lights, large dance floor, rotating silver light piece, constantly changing lights, large dance floor, rotating silver light piece, constantly changing lights, large dance floor, rotating silver light piece. The same night however another tournament took place at the Holyoke Hall. According to my talks with the responsible professors, they are very interested in what's happening on the Bridgewater campus. As it turned out everything was well prepared and they were very happy to be involved. The Forensic Society is very glad to have a new team and they are very proud of the team's most recent tournament which took place at the West Bridgewater College. The team competed for the first time and won the tournament with trophies to cheer the speech officers. The University of New Hampshire, New Hampshire State College, Northeastern University, and the University of Maine were some of the teams that participated in this tournament. The team's most recent tournament took place at the University of Maine and their opponents were the UMaine, New Hampshire State College, Northeastern University, and the University of Maine. The team was very happy to win and they are looking forward to competing again in the future.

Editorial

President Carter may have thrown the change of the calendar away, but our own beloved President Kennedy has a photo of that very event framed in the Oval Office.

The passage he will be using the change of the date, and for those who will spend their birthday on Tuesday morning, it will be a good sign.

Let’s explain what will happen. President Kennedy’s birthday will be Monday, December 27. President Carter’s birthday is Monday, January 19. This means that the Monday that Carter will spend in the Oval Office will be the end of the twenty-fifth of January and the beginning of the twenty-sixth, the first day of the twenty-sixth.

And what about Carter’s birthday? It will be celebrated on Monday, January 20. This means that President Kennedy’s birthday will be Monday, January 20, and President Carter’s birthday will be Monday, January 21.

The American people are happy to know that these changes will be made in the calendar, and that they will be in place by the time the American people go to the polls for the next election. When the American people go to the polls for the next election, they will have the choice of two presidential candidates, and the American people will have the opportunity to choose the candidate that they think will best represent the American people.

AMAZING KREISIK

by Doug Schorr

The Amazing Kreisik, son of the late German author and cartoonist, Konrad Kreisik, has just opened in his first television appearance. The program concentrates on Konrad's personal life and views. The show is a unique blend of biography and television humor. The program will be on the air every Sunday night from 10 p.m. to 11 p.m.

The Ensemble Theatre will present its first one-act play on November 10 and 11 at 8 p.m. The play is "The Enormous Room" by Saul Bellow and was entirely written by the cast and directed by Steve Heslep.

The second half of the performance was devoted to a discussion of the play's effect on the audience and theater-goers. One member of the group said it was powerless to change the way they thought about the play. But at the beginning of the show, the stage manager's name was seen in a corner of the room. After the performance, the audience was invited to talk about the show's effect on them. A man said it was an evening well spent, with the music being very loud and the lighting dim.

The show was directed by Steve Heslep and was entirely written by the cast and directed by Steve Heslep.

The show will be on the air every Sunday night from 10 p.m. to 11 p.m.

The movie "Lord of the Flies" will be shown on Thursday, Nov. 17 from 7-9 p.m. in the Library Lecture hall. Admission is free and is open to everyone. For more information, call the SGA office on the third floor.

The ISA council on aging needs one or two people to set up a volunteer program. Volunteers will be needed to help seniors find a local church or community center to meet in. The council will be looking for volunteers who have experience working with seniors.

The Slavic Studies Club (CCK) invites everybody to a good look at the language which still can be learned. The free lecture will be given by Dr. Petti of Stonehill College. The lecture will be given on Wednesday, November 23, at 2 o'clock in the Student Union Green Room. The lecture will be given in English, but there will be an interpreter. Besides the English, there will be a Chinese interpretor.

Students of the sky-diving club at Boston State College are looking for volunteers to help set up the equipment. Volunteers will be needed to help set up the equipment, and will be given a free lecture on Monday, November 14, 8 p.m.-10 p.m. SU 205, boy's room.

If you are interested in these volunteer opportunities, come see Dean Y. Dixon.

Branco Field Goal

A tough Bear combined with a solid kicking game resulted in Branco Field Goal State (Saturday 1:30 at Daily Field). A tough Bear combined with a solid kicking game should the Buccanneers lose to New Haven on Saturday and the Bears defeat Boston, giving the Bears an 11-8 lead which proved to be the final score. The game and the Bears were in business again, to Coppola pass completion) and covered 36 yards. Christopher scored again on a 6 yard sweep to the right side of the goal line. The Bears were on top 8-0 just 1:42 into the first quarter and the Bears seemed to be in control of the game.

Defensive halfback Rich Reddick made a tremendous interception in the second quarter and the Bears were in business again. The score in the 3rd quarter showed up as Bridgewater took the air and the Bears scored again for a 11-8 lead. Bridgewater's secondary, excellent against Curry's receivers and Gary Mace, Phil Clough, in charge of the long punting game, continued to spread the ball around Curry territory. However, Curry's Bob Clark intercepted a Scott Armstrong pass to stop the drive.

The Bears continued to spread the ball around Curry territory and Donny Cann intercepted a pass and set the Bears up in good field position. The Curry defense was able to stop the Bears on the next two drives and the Bears were forced to try a 45 yard field goal. The kick was blocked.

The Bears were able to get a field goal on their next possession but fumbled. on the punt. Ray O'berg was called an to do "some of the things that didn't quite work" for the Bears. "We got a break as they fumbled on their second possession," said Coach Mazzaferro.

Bears Have Shot At Co-Championship

by Doug Milhollin

A tough Bear crew combined a solid field hockey game with an SCC divisional field hockey game at BSC, defeating U-Mass 3-1 to open the SCC season.

With the win, BSC J.V.'s were handed their first loss of the season. The game remained at a scoreless tie for most of the game.

The Arts
Ensemble Theatre News

The Bridgewater State College Drama Club recently presented "The Skin of Our Teeth," directed by Doug Schorr. The production was performed in the Student Union Auditorium on November 16th and 17th.

The play is set in a large house where a family named Antrobus lives. The family is known for their tendency to move every year because of various problems, such as happiness, a sick mother, and even a mind reader.

The evening will be sure to bring a smile to the faces of all who attend, as it is a holiday mood that can be enjoyed by all who attend. The performance is at 8:00 on stage in the Student Union Auditorium. Tickets are $2.50 for Bridgewater State College Staff and $2.00 for the general public.

SOCIETY/SOJAL WORK CLUB
The concert, "Lift Thine Eyes," will be performed on Friday, November 11th at 8:00 p.m. in the Library Lecture Hall. Admission is free and open to everyone. There will be a $2.00 donation for anyone who wishes to support the event.

The Student Union Program Committee reserves a free table for all who attend, and they helped to add an extra dimension to the show. In fact, Star Bars was so professionally run that our commentaries could not have been better. The audience and hearing aids have no more than 80 dB.

The most amazing thing to me was the fact that these people were playing the Beatles and Chicago as well as their own music. The Student Union Program Committee reserves a free table for all who attend, and they helped to add an extra dimension to the show.

Montessori school in East Bridgewater! BOl<

I'm not sure what you mean by "a good reason." It seems that you might be referring to a Montessori school in East Bridgewater. However, I don't have enough context to determine the exact meaning or relevance of your statement.

I've included the following keywords: Montessori, school, East Bridgewater, BOl<.
