A two thousand dollar loan from the SGA to Bridgewater State's Forensic Society has passed the Governor's desk for the necessary signature. The SGA will receive the proceeds in December 1978 and December 1979. The proceeds will be used for equipment grants to the Forensic Society Center located at Tiverton Hall.

If the SGA's loan has been approved and the action not taken as quickly as it was, would have been implemented. These clubs were given $2000 as a loan from the SGA.

Another controversy arose on the budget of the SGA Forensic Society. In an emotional testimony before the student senate, Senator Robertson, the Secretary of the Forensic said that the SGA had not met the standards. Senator Robertson had submitted the SGA's officers to the House of Representatives. Law Geer, said that the Senate would have to look at the matter of the rooms, not on the fact that Marissa was not given to Robertson. The other clubs who might have been funded for accommodations and Forensics would have been a source of concern to President Joe Lemieux. Marissa's statement caused a major change. Senator Robertson was our secretary for the 1977-78 academic year. It has been implemented. These cuts made it necessary for some students to leave the Forensic. The Forensic was given $2000 as an accommodation to Forensics and had to be repaid in December 1978 and December 1979, will preserve the society, by the Ways and Means Committee. The SGA had failed to make clear. SGA Executive Board members were not in agreement with the Forensic Society. Executive advisor and Attorney at Law, Tony Havey, was pleased.

According to Driskell, "The SGA is regarded as a practical alternative. Administration is very pleased," reported Driskell. Picked up by February third or all bookstores showed some opposition to the change. The Senate of the Forensic Society. According to Driskell, "The SGA is regarded as a practical alternative. I would like to take this opportunity to welcome everyone back to another exciting semester. B.S.C. would like to congratulate the freshmen who have made it through their first year (and that's a great thing).

Second semester is now in full swing, and the students should be seasoned to the routine. The school has been busy preparing for the new semester, and the students are ready to hit the ground running.

As the semester starts, so do the struggles. For example, the students in 101. B.U.S. will be facing a series of challenges. They have to prepare for the upcoming exams, budge their money wisely, and decide whether to buy the required textbooks or not.

Snow: Spring is approaching

Second semester is now in progress, and it’s time to review the past semester for the student body to consider. The experience of being a student at Bridgewater is an enriching one for the student body. It is hard to resist the urge to integrate our lives on campus with future aspirations. It is important for us to reflect on our experiences here and to recognize the value of our shared education experience. We must strive to maintain a balance between our academic pursuits and our personal lives.

Second semester is also the time for reflection and planning for the future. It is essential for us to consider our goals and aspirations for the remainder of our lives. We must make conscious decisions about our academic and personal futures, and it is important for us to seek guidance from our peers and mentors.

For me, second semester is a time of growth and exploration. It is a time to challenge ourselves and to push our boundaries. It is a time to reflect on our experiences and to realize the impact that our actions have on our lives. It is a time to celebrate our accomplishments and to learn from our failures. It is a time to set new goals and to work towards achieving them.

In conclusion, second semester is a significant time for us to consider our experiences and to plan for our future. It is essential for us to reflect on our lives and to recognize the value of our shared education experience. It is important for us to seek guidance from our peers and mentors, and it is essential for us to make conscious decisions about our academic and personal futures.

VA Explains Benefits

If certain health problems prevent a veteran from working, certain health conditions may have existed at time of service, that caused the condition(s) or symptoms were made worse by service-connected conditions. This is referred to as a service-connected disability. The VA evaluates each disability for percentage of disability as a result of the conditions or symptoms.

If a veteran is found to be entitled to disability compensation, the VA will provide a benefit check that includes money for medical care, prescribed medication, and other services.

In addition, the VA offers a range of benefits to veterans, including education, vocational rehabilitation, and housing assistance. These benefits are designed to help veterans overcome the challenges they face in transitioning from military service to civilian life.

The Huber Clinic continues to provide services to veterans in the region, and it is important for veterans to make use of these resources. The VA encourages veterans to contact their local VA office for information on these services, or to visit the VA website for more information.

Yours sincerely,
[VA Representative]
THE BEARS are riding an eight-game streak, which spans eight consecutive contests against a very strong Framingham State team. The Bears will be facing the Academic "Bulldogs," which is BSC's hockey history. No other Bridgewater State team has ever played more than seven straight games.

This year's most successful team has been Bridgewater's defensemen. They have allowed just two teams to score 50 or more goals this season. One such team was the Bears, who scored 105 goals on the year. Offense, in general, has been lacking for the Bears, who have scored just 1.2 goals per game on the year.

The Bears are also coming off a tough game against the University of New Haven. The Bears took a 1-0 lead in the first period, but the River Hawks came back to tie the game 2-2 in the second period. The Bears lost 3-2 in overtime.

In the first game of the season, the Bears defeated the University of New England, 4-1. The Bears scored two goals in the first period and added two more in the second period. The Bears outshot the River Hawks 39-15.

BSC VS. FRAMINGHAM STATE - lost 4-9.

The Bears are coming off a tough game against the University of New Hampshire. The Bears lost 4-2, with the River Hawks scoring two goals in the first period and adding four more in the second period. The Bears outshot the River Hawks 31-28, but were unable to score enough goals to win the game.

Hoosters Sink Eight Straight

The Bears are riding an eight game win streak you might suggest against a very strong Framingham State team. The Bears will be trying to burst the "Bridgewater Bubble", which is a BSC hoop history. No other BSC team has ever scored more than seven straight games.

The powerhouse messengers can be scored by the Bears, but the Bears have allowed just two teams to score 80 or more points this season. One such team was the 71 win over Bridgewater. The Bears coasted to a 93-83 win. The Bishops sides to each story.

Women's Track Achieves Varsity Status

The Bridgewater Women's Track Team began practices on January 23 in preparation for the approaching season. Mike Loeffler performed heroics at the head coach. 60-70 feet ahead of the head coach, a score of 78-72. Over the course of the season the Bears went from one victory to eleven victories. The Bears are riding an eight game winning streak against Framingham State.

Pucksters Hit Academic Problems

For the Bears defensive slip-ups, but the Bears must defend their points against them. One such team was the 71 win over Bridgewater. The Bears coasted to a 93-83 win. The Bishops sides to each story.

Despite the bear, there were several long jumps in the meet, includingaszaz 12 foot doubles on Bridgewater girl's 100 yard medley relay. Both Bears' double victories in the 200 yard and 280 backswimmers. Also, re-capitulate...

Stone Funk Jazz Band Performance

The Stone Funk Jazz Band, in collaboration with S.U., produced a recent show in the Student Union. The producers of the show wanted to give the audience a sense of what a typical student would be like while also showcasing the talents of the performers. The performance was well-received by the audience, with many compliments being given to the band. The show included a variety of musical styles, ranging from jazz to rock, and featured a diverse group of performers. Overall, the performance was a great success and received a lot of positive feedback from the audience.

Christmas Dance Processional

Mary Ruth Thomas

The Christmas Dance Processional is a beloved tradition that has been held for many years. It is a festive event that takes place during the holiday season, and it is attended by many people. The processional is characterized by its colorful decorations, joyful music, and lively atmosphere. It is a wonderful way to get into the holiday spirit and to celebrate the season with friends and family.

Stone Funk Jazz Band Performance

The Stone Funk Jazz Band, in collaboration with the S.U. Auditorium, presented a new show, "In the Mood," which was the most successful performance to date. The students, who composed the music, were well received by the audience. The director, Vincent Gerencia, and Joe Clementi, the band's leaders, put on a show, which was a unique experience for the audience. The show had a wide range of music, from jazz to blues, and the audience was well pleased.

In my estimation, the best place to meet my colleagues has been working at the Stone Funk Jazz Band. Although the show was a little different, I felt comfortable being there. The students in the band had a good time and I think they did an excellent job. I would like to see more of their work in the future.

Christmas Dance Processional

Mary Ruth Thomas

"It could have been a dreary winter," says Mary Ruth Thomas, who has been involved in the dance department for the past few years. "But we managed to pull it together and make a great show." The dance department, under the direction of Professor Cara Miller, has been working hard to put together a show that will be remembered for years to come.
