Golfer's end season

Baseball team wraps-up season

This year's Bridgewater Baseball Team was a success story, according to Coach Ed Copp. "We had a great season, especially considering the talent we had," Copp said. "The team was able to compete at a high level and bring home several victories." Copp praised the team's dedication and teamwork, which he said were key factors in their success.

Tennis team rebuilds

The BSC Men's Tennis Team ended their season the past Friday with a win in the New England Championship match. The team was composed of four returning players and one new addition. The team's overall performance was good, but could have been better if there was more consistency in their performances. Overall, the team finished in 11th place in the NECC.

S.U. to Change I.D.s

Negotiations at the Student Union have been initiated in order to eliminate many headaches for both students and teachers. The current system for I.D.s has been found to be inefficient and outdated. The new system for I.D.s will be implemented, it is hoped, by the end of the academic year. The new system will be more user-friendly and will allow for easier access to information.

Arruda to Help with RI Bay

Joseph Arruda, a retired military officer and former science teacher, will be working with the Rhode Island Bay Foundation to develop a large mussel farm. Mr. Arruda has been involved in mussel farming for many years and is well-known for his expertise in the field. He will be using his knowledge and experience to develop a sustainable mussel farm that will benefit both the local economy and the environment.

BSC to Start Equestrian Club

A new equestrian team will be formed at Brookdale State College. The team will be coached by a former professional rider who has extensive experience in the sport. The team will be open to all students, regardless of experience, and will provide an opportunity for students to become involved in a team sport that has a rich tradition.

Brewer Speaks at BSC

Joseph Brewer, a former diplomat, spoke at the BSC Student Union last week. Mr. Brewer, who served as a U.S. ambassador to Lebanon, spoke about the importance of international relations and the role of diplomats in promoting peace and understanding. He encouraged students to pursue careers in international relations and to be prepared to work in a variety of settings.

Jaycees at BSC

People in all walks of life seem to have an inherent desire for tightly organized groups that employ high-pressure salesmen. They also recognize something that is redundant or unnecessary.

What do these points have in common? They all are made in reference to an announcement in the paper pertaining to their group wishing to place an announcement in the paper pertaining to their group, present their sales pitch. One salesman approached the SGA senate to officially recognize something that is redundant or unnecessary.

Brewer at BSC

"To know what you're asked from a D. U. P. L. Smith, the first will not be enough. It will probably be the last. The men may be taken seriously until they have been found out. These men might be considered in proportion to their position in the U. P. S. O. M. Toward the end of the discussion, Ambassador Brewer came up with a question for the students. "Are you concerned about a certain understanding of events? Were there any questions while waiting many others. Never did the men once fall to the point of not having the discussions?""
Brewer at BSC

Brewer showed his concern that the boycott was starting against young people in the U.S. in the mid-’60’s. “U.S. citizens were inside Vietnam, but it wasn’t until the American public saw them, fully aware of the effects of the increasing and related events. It was an analogy, comparing European and American attitudes towards millions.” An American보도 from a U.S. publication that it is going to pay his respects to the president of the politician, he will do, "I think this day must have opened an umbrella shop recently.”

Homecoming

Although it is only May, Homecoming will be upon us before we know it. The reason for this correspondence is to get our various organizations familiar with what can and has to be done with Homecoming. Our organization will begin on Thursday, May 11 at 6:00 p.m. The meeting will be held in Toomey in rooms 205, 206, and 207.

Program Committee Events

11:11 on the head “Spring Ball” will be in the Student Union in the early evening of May 11th. Want to see what the award-winning student dance troupe can do? Then you’ll want to be there. Food and refreshments will be served. Program starts at 7:30 p.m. It is possible to vary his daily schedule.

Spring Concert is Tomorrow

The Bridgewater State College Choral Society is excited to announce the annual Spring Concert on Friday, May 12 at 8 p.m. in the Student Union Auditorium. The concert will be the Choral Society and its subgroup, the American Singers, performing together.

Music scheduled to be performed includes works by composers such as Mozart, de Vries, Schuman, McGough, Pettersen, Stravinsky, Goodman, Barber and Thomas. The program also includes a tribute to Robert Craven, a member of the cast of "The Wiz."

The concert is free and open to the public, and is the perfect opportunity to enjoy a night of musical entertainment.

The Student Union Program Council presents Jonathan Edwards and Aztec Two Step Coming

Jonathan Edwards and Aztec Two Step will perform at the Student Union Program on Tuesday, May 11 at 7 p.m. The concert will be held in the Student Union Auditorium and is open to the public.

No Exit: planned to the last detail

by Karen Daffin

When I arrived at the theater, I was the last person to be seated. I had missed the introduction and opening remarks. The audience was already subdued, waiting for the performance to begin. As the lights dimmed, the stage was revealed with its elaborate set and props. The performers took their places, and the music started. The audience was captivated by the performance and the energy of the actors. The show went on until the last moment, and the audience was left wanting more. What a fantastic performance! It was truly a night to remember.

Spring Concert is tomorrow

The Bennett Student Union Program Committee will present "Spring Concert is Tomorrow" on Friday, May 11, from 8 p.m. to 10 p.m. in the Horace Mann Auditorium. The concert will be under the direction of Christopher Millo, assistant professor of music. The concert will feature the Bennett Student Union Chorus and the Bennett Student Union String Ensemble. The program will include a variety of classical and contemporary music. The concert is free and open to the public. For more information, please contact the Concert Committee at 800-777-5665.

FREE AND CONFIDENTIAL LEGAL ADVICE
Every Wednesday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Society of Student Government Officers

The celebration featured a variety of performances, including music, dance, and poetry. The students were dressed in festive attire, and the atmosphere was energetic and lively. The event concluded with a fireworks display, which added to the overall excitement of the evening.

The concert featured performances by a variety of artists, including guitarists, pianists, and vocalists. The performers showcased a range of musical styles, from classical to contemporary. The audience was captivated by the talent and skill of the performers, who delivered outstanding performances throughout the night.

The Student Union Program Committee looks forward to hosting future concerts and events that will bring the community together and provide opportunities for cultural enrichment. For more information about upcoming events, please visit the Bennett Student Union website or contact the Concert Committee at 800-777-5665.

The Bears started this season with a new coach, Jim Nosel, and a new atmosphere. The Bear's team is more than a year older and more experienced. Their first meet was against Villanova University for the third annual E.A.I.A.W. switches to three divisions, look forward to regionals. Looking back at the past season, it was a rebuilding year for the 1978 Bears team, making large holes that will be hard to fill by Coach Lussier.

Mary Considine, the team's new head coach,带队 to the championships, won by the 1979 Bears team, making large holes that will be hard to fill by Coach Lussier.

SPORTS

Trackstars boast 6-0 record

A new clock, in an ornamental cabinet, showed the exact time of 1:15 p.m. The audience sat in silence, waiting for the signal to begin. The air was thick with the anticipation of the races. It was the final day of the annual track meet, and the athletes were ready to give it their all.

The first event was the 100-meter dash. The runners were poised at the starting line, their muscles taut. The starter gave the signal, and the race began. The athletes sprinted with all their might, each one vying to be the first across the finish line. The tension was palpable.

Next came the 200-meter dash. The runners took their positions, their legs warmed up and ready. The starter gave the signal, and the race began. The athletes ran with all their strength, each one determined to win.

The third event was the 400-meter dash. The runners were determined to take their time, to conserve their energy for the later events. The race was a slow burn, with the athletes running at a steady pace. The tension was still palpable.

The fourth event was the 800-meter run. The runners were determined to pace themselves, to go as hard as they could without getting too tired. The race was a test of endurance, with the athletes running at a steady pace for the entire distance.

The final event was the 1500-meter run. The runners were determined to give it their all, to go as hard as they could for the duration of the race. The tension was high as the final stretch began, with the athletes pushing themselves to the limit.

The track meet was a success, with the athletes giving it their all and the audience cheering them on. The atmosphere was electric, with the tension palpable in the air. It was a day to remember.
