Equestrians have Good Start

By Barry Loe
March 24th and 25th were the dates on which the first two shows of the Equestrian Team Show held, with B.S.C.'s C, Equestrian Team company in both meets. The first two, held at Atlantic Equine Facility in South Hadley, Mass. on March 24th were a fine showing against such competitors as Brown University, Tufts College, and Wesleyan. Many of the barn's competitors were U.E.S. riders throughout the weekend. In both meets, B.S.C.'s team did not have to face any competition, as the Equestrian's team played in both meets.

The Equestrian's next meet will be held at Division 6, B.S.C. on April 28th, and B.S.C.'s team will be represented by eight riders. The preliminary team results are as follows:

- Barry Loe: 4th
- Robert Gregory: 5th
- Bob Marvin: 6th
- Jim Graham: 7th
- Bob Pushkarski: 8th
- Bob Felt: 9th
- Steve Corcoran: 10th

Students attend to discuss proposals. The meeting was an informal meeting, including a meeting with the President Deep has scheduled with the president of S.U. The meeting is designed to review some of these policies in addition to a B.S.C. 1.0. will be added to the present policies. If a student under age 20 is punishable by a fine of $300.00. Sports

Baseball Drops Two

The Bridgewater State baseball team lost both games of the weekend series at Westford College. The Eagles lost to Westford College 4-3 and 6-1. Tom Leitch pitched a strong first game for the Bears going up to 3 2 and striking out 7 and walking 3 in the game. But, the Eagles' hitting proved to be too much for the Eagles. In the second game the Eagles hit four home runs and scored 6 runs in the 6th inning. However, the Eagles were not able to hit the ball as well as the Eagles had hoped in the first game. They are still optimistic about their team's chances for the season. The Eagles hold out hope for a good season.
Dear The Comment:

I am writing to you because I feel that I have been slandered in your recent articles, which have been published in the Student Union newspaper, and I feel that I must address you in order to clarify the matter.

First of all, I must point out that your coverage of the April Fool issue has been absolutely disgraceful. Your articles have been nothing but a series of untruths and half-truths, and I feel that you have failed to represent the true intentions of our staff.

You have accused us of putting someone's name on a piece of writing, supposedly from the point of view of the "crapola" man. This is simply not true. Our intention was to have a little fun with ourselves as we prepared our April Fool issue, and we did not intend to offend anyone.

Furthermore, you have accused us of putting personal information about an individual into your newspaper, claiming that this information was intended to be personal. I want to stress that we did not include any personal information about anyone without their consent. Our policy has always been to ensure that confidentiality applies to all submissions, and we would never include anyone's personal information without their express consent.

I would like to point out that you have wrongly accused us of making false accusations. We have always been careful to avoid making any false claims, and we have always strived to be accurate in our reporting.

I hope that you will reconsider your recent articles and apologize for the inaccuracies that you have included. I believe that it is important to maintain a high standard of journalistic integrity, and I hope that you will take steps to ensure that your future articles are more accurate and responsible.

Sincerely,

[Name]

Drinking Policies

Cost from a $1 a week to $7

Popular excuses for drinking include local officials, commented Meany during the meeting, of drinking to relieve stress, to escape from classes, and to make friends. The college is trying to prevent students from drinking too much. Meany noted that there were relatively few violations of drinking at the college, but those that were caught were dealt with fairly.

Evidence has come up to me and I have been hearing about it from various students who have had knowledge of this situation. I can somewhat assure the Senate that the situation is real and it is serious. I have been hearing about it from some of my students and it seems to be widespread on campus. I have been trying to get the College's attention to this problem, but it has been difficult. I believe that the College should take this seriously and do something about it.

Food Service Response I
Food Service Response II

Since 1795 we’ve welcomed our guests with the best of our traditions. A Abysmal taste of Cuervo. Guests to Cuervo have always been greeted in a special way. They’re met at the airport and invited to experience Cuervo’s traditional hospitality. This is the way we’ve said, “welcome” for more than 200 years. And it is as traditional as Cuervo Gold itself. For this dedication to tradition is what makes Cuervo Gold truly special. Next, on the rocks, with a splash of soda, to perfect your happy hour drinks, or in your favorite Margarita, Cuervo Gold will bring you back to a time when quality ruled the world.

Dear Editor,

As I was watching TV last night, I noticed a bumper sticker on a car that said, "How can you live with yourself?" If the perpetrator of the crime is reading this now, I hope he or she will feel ashamed of their actions and realize their behavior is wrong.

I also wanted to mention my experiences with campus security. I was on campus recently and noticed that many students were parking in the Great Hall parking lot, even though there were plenty of other parking spots available. I have witnessed some hilarious antics, but if the perpetrator of the crime is reading this now, I hope they will feel ashamed of their actions and realize their behavior is wrong.

I would like to thank the campus security for their hard work and dedication. They are doing a great job in keeping our campus safe and protecting our community.

Sincerely,

Letters Continued

Dear Editor,

I was very impressed with the performance of the campus security during the recent snowstorm. They did an excellent job of clearing the roads and making sure the campus was safe for all students.

I would like to thank them for their hard work and dedication. They are doing a great job in keeping our campus safe and protecting our community.

Sincerely,

The behavioral objective of independently jumping from a diving board is often assisted by both clinicians and training devices.

With the development of dynamic balance many children will gain the control of their bodies that will serve as the foundation for hopping, skipping and running skills.

Applications are now available for positions as clinicians and assistant clinicians for the 1979 fall session of the Children's Physical Development Clinic. Positions are open for current Freshmen, Sophomores, Junior students in:
- Physical Education
- Secondary Education
- Health Education
- Social Work
- Special Education
- Sociology
- Early Childhood Educ.
- Psychology
- Elementary Education

Applications can be obtained from Dr. Huber in Room 103 or in the main office of the Health and Physical Education Department in Kelly Gymnasium.

The Clinic program, the only one of its kind in New England and in operation since 1974, is devoted to the psycho-motor (play/sport) and social improvement of special needs children ranging in age from 18 months through 20 years. A child's program may consist of the following areas:
- Early Intervention
- Physical Fitness
- Perceptual-motor Development
- Fundamental Motor Skills and Patterns
- Skills in Aquatics, Dance Individual and Group Games and Sports

Clinicians work on a one-to-one basis with a special needs child for eight Saturday mornings in carefully planned activities in both the gymnasium and pool.

The experience is beneficial not only to the child, but also provides unlimited satisfaction for the clinician. In addition to this gratifying feeling, the clinician receives valuable training which aids in the development of professional skills and knowledge that will assist individuals in acquiring jobs in their related fields.

The deadline for application is May 11th.

Don't pass up this opportunity to help yourself while helping others!

Fall Semester 1979
Children's Physical Development Clinic

Simple, quick coordination games and activities, which are often observed in intervention programs, are the basis for more complex movements.

- Early Intervention
- Physical Fitness
- Perceptual-motor Development
- Fundamental Motor Skills and Patterns
- Skills in Aquatics, Dance Individual and Group
- Games and Sports

With the development of different balance tasks, children strengthen the control of their bodies that will be the foundation for hopping, skipping and running skills.

Manual manipulation is often used to enhance development of fundamental movement skills.

Some children are in need of practice with specific sport skills which will impact on their participation in physical education classes.

Mountaineering

#5.

You, a faithful follower of this space, have been a mountaineer for some time now. You've studied the fundamentals, selected your gear and experimented with the art of putting it together. In short, you are nobody's fool. Nonetheless, you also know a little knowledge is a dangerous thing, so you want to learn more. Smart thinking.

First, you must realize that once the basic of mountaineering are mastered, it is only simple which distinguishes the true professionals from the merely adequate. Therefore, attention to detail, especially in matters of clothing, is vital. Always protect the head according to seasonal fluctuations. In winter, a warm hat is mandatory (The beard, after all, is the thickest of the body). Avoid cerebral heat loss; it diminishes your psychophysical abilities. In summertime, a sun visor or a billed cap will guarantee you optimum cooling. In the craggy periods, a various cap or helmet will be a necessity.

Pay particular regard to your clothing and equipment. Wear your gear with care; it is as good as the weakest link. Be sure to wear a helmet. It is a common sense. Without it, you might take a tumble and lose your true colors.

For the mountainous terrains of the world, there is no substitute for experience. We have been for some time. Start with the Foundations of Mountaineering. Upon successful completion of the course, you will be eligible for certification as a mountaineer.

For information, contact The Comment at 245-5678. We look forward to hearing from you. Good luck.
Certification Meeting Announced

Hoping to bring new certification requirements to the forefront of the educational process, Dr. Harper, who has been called for the study, will meet at 3:00 p.m. on the Student Union Demonstration Room.

There has been much confusion among students, especially those who are required to meet the new requirements. There have been many complaints, and it is feared that the new requirements would be too much for the student body to handle. It is hoped that the new requirements will only be a small part of the overall program.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact the office of the Director of Educational Services. The meeting is open to the public, and all are welcome to attend.

Did You Cry??

If you did cry, tell the Comments editor at once!

You, a faithful follower of this space, have been a mountain lover for some time. But... are you ready? Have you studied the fundamentals, selected your gear and experimented with methodology? In short, you are nobody's fool. Nevertheless, you also know a little knowledge is a dangerous thing.

So you want to learn more, smart thinking. First, you must realize that once the basics of mountaineering are mastered, it is only nuance which distinguishes the true artists from the merely adequate. Therefore, attention to detail, especially in matters of clothing, is vital.

Always protect the head according to seasonal fluctuations. In winter, a warm hat is mandatory. (The head, after all, is the chimney of the body.) Avoid cerebral heat loss—heat diminishes your physical abilities. In summertime, a sun visor or a billed cap will guarantee crucial visibility among the craggy peaks.

Pay particular heed to instructions regarding gear. Shoes should be dry, snug and comfortable, allowing for open movement, specifically in the vicinity of the arms. A free and responsive arm is a mountaineer's best friend.

Certain accessories, of course, complement the complete regulation garb. Expedition flags to mark your territory in public places, connecting ropes for those who prefer the security of mountaineering in tandem and backpacks filled with beer, nuts, mugs, bottle openers and other paraphernalia. Beyond these standards, wardrobe styles range from the rustic to the refined. And well they might, for mountaineers are a rugged and individual breed, joined only by a common taste for excellence.

But do not reach for a beer. You are going to down the mountains, rather than vice versa, you must be confident of your standing. Between the head and the feet lies the area known as the "base." Mountaineering bodywear is usually based on personal preference. However, keep a keen eye out for one common criterion. Your clothes should be comfortable and flexible, allowing for open movement, specifically in the vicinity of the arms. A free and responsive arm is a mountaineer's best friend.
