Governor Edward King has refused to sign our negotiated agreement. Governor King did not want to sign our negotiated agreement. We do not have any precise reasons why this agreement was not signed.

University Career Seminar will be held at the Student Union Auditorium. There will be an Open House where students can meet members of the University Campus, and come to a close. The week of October 14th will begin a three-night run in the Student Union Auditorium.
Letters to the Editor:

"does not make the movie meritless..."

Dear Editor,

Elizabeth Matsen's review in Monday's issue of The Comment was a refreshingly honest account of the film "Dressed to Kill." I agree with her analysis of the film, which I found to be shallow and predictable.

I must take issue with her assertion that the film is "meritless." To suggest that a film is not worth watching because it fails to follow a conventional narrative structure is a serious flaw in criticism. What is the point of watching a film if it does not make us think, feel, or react in some way?

I applaud Ms. Matsen's courage in expressing her opinion, even if it is not in line with the majority. We need more critics who are willing to challenge the status quo and offer their own perspectives.

Sincerely,

REMOVAL OF SIGNS

Traffic signs are crucial for maintaining order and safety on the road. When signs are taken down, it endangers lives. Please be considerate of motorists because signs do save lives. When signs are taken down, it endangers lives. Please be considerate of motorists because signs do save lives.

CAMPUS LAW ENFORCEMENT

The Student Union has an open meeting for a student employee with a special Union on this date. The meeting is open to the public. All interested students are welcome to attend. For more information, please contact the Student Union Program Office.

RELOCATION OF SIGNS

Please refer to the Student Union Program Office for more information. One of the things that I find most interesting about our campus is the way that it is designed to be accessible to all students. Beauty is everywhere, and it's not just in the architecture. It's in the way that the campus is laid out, with plenty of open spaces and green areas to relax and study.

CAMPUS SECURITY CONTINUES TO FACE PROBLEMS OF UNDERSTANDING

By Francis Mulgrew

The security issue appears to be understated, but it is not. There is a new policy in place that requires students to show ID at all times. This is a step in the right direction, but it is not enough. We need to continue working on this issue and find ways to improve security on campus.

PINTER PATTER
T. Two Square Repertory Company seems its Seventeenth Season in November with "The Glass Menagerie," a Tennessee Williams classic. Harold Prince is the director, as is the case, and the show is moving to a new venue, the Black Bus, where it will perform nightly.

 Produkt: A brave attempt by local theater company to present a modern, meaningful piece of drama. The cast is excellent, although the set design is somewhat lacking.

Harold Prince, Director: A great director who has a knack for bringing out the best in his actors. His style is clear and concise, and his vision is always on point.

Nathan, The Glass Menagerie: The central character of the play, who is a dreamer and a romantic.

Meanwhile, the local arts community is gearing up for the upcoming season, which promises to be a dynamic and exciting one. With a wide range of performances scheduled, there is something for everyone to enjoy.

MIDDLE AGE CRAZY

by Michael S. Begu

Billy Lee (Bruce Dern) is a man who has had a stroke. He is now living with his wife, a former cheerleader, and a retired soldier, in a small town. He is trying to adjust to his new life, but is finding it difficult. He is also dealing with his son's recent death, which has left him feeling lost and alone.

The film is a poignant and touching portrayal of a man trying to come to terms with his new reality. The acting is superb, and the direction is excellent. The film is a must-see for anyone who has experienced loss or grief.

by the McDavid

This film is a must-see for anyone who loves a good comedy. The cast is fantastic, and the humor is spot-on. This is a film that will make you smile.

Bobby Lee (Brunette Bruce Dern) is a man who has all: a beautiful wife, a house in the country, and a job as a bus driver. But when his wife gets a divorce, he finds himself alone and struggling to find a purpose. He turns to buying a new wardrobe of western clothes, but Bobby Lee finds to his horror that his new clothes are more than skin deep. He is forced to confront the fact that he has never really known himself. The film is a moving exploration of what it means to be a man and to find one's place in the world.

Bridgewater State College might have had their toes dipped in the ocean last Spring, with the departure of Professor Harrington. This year, two new professors will be joining the department in their first year to fill the void. Harrington is teaching courses in the new department, Political Science and Social Science, and has been a full-time professor at Bridgewater State College for seven years. His areas of expertise include American politics, comparative politics, and comparative politics in the Third World. Professor Harrington has been a frequent contributor to various academic journals and has published several books on the subject. He has also served as a consultant to several government agencies and has been involved in the development of educational programs in the Third World.

Please restore our beloved Boyden Hall...

Dear Editor,

In the September 25th issue, there was an article in regards to the renovation of Boyden Hall. The writer stated that "...the renovations are nearly completed," and "...it's looking very different." I know it looks different. What I've been wondering is--why is it yellow? Boyden Hall is of the Federal Style, as is the State House. When Charles Bulfinch began the State House in 1795, he never would have painted it yellow! The facade should be white to create a simple elegance, and balance the weight of the rest of the building without distracting from its strength. (Ask anyone who has taken American Art and Architecture.)

In conclusion, I ask, please Mr. Meaney, restore our beloved Boyden Hall to the condition in which it should be.

Sincerely,

Louise Burke

The Action Center for Womyn's Center has a mission to educate on under-represented issues, current concerns, abuse, sexuality, and much more. We value everyone's experience. This also has referred services for any needs that are too difficult to address in the center. We recognize that there is no money in the budget, but many fund raising activities are being planned. LGBT students and faculty, we have set a new record that will last throughout the year.

The first floor will be open to everyone and will display the logo of the Womyn's Center in the left hand corner. It was inspired by a picture of a woman standing in a mirror. As the announcement states, the Womyn's Center will sponsor a panel discussion on hate this October 10th. Free refreshments and wine will be served.

The Attorney, will discuss what happens to the woman victim, where they end up and how they get there. In her position, she will answer any questions that will arise from the audience. A member from the Center will outline the steps that the victim will take. It's a reminder of the importance of being a safe haven for students and faculty. There are plans for weekly meetings which are conducted by 9:00 a.m. on Saturday, and Sunday morning.

The Children's Development Clinic: Lectures Planned for Semester

The Children's Physical Development Clinic at Bridgewater State College, which is undertaking its 4th consecutive year in the community, has scheduled the following seminar for Saturday, October 14, at 2:00 p.m., to be held at the Student Union. The seminar, attended by over 700 individuals, is one of the unique physical education programs in the greater Boston area designed for the physical, motor and social development and remedial needs of children and their families. The clinic offers free programs to children with physical, mental and/or emotional impairments in disabilities.

The Clinic is open to all students, faculty, and staff. It is free of charge.

Dr. Robert Bruck, the clinic's coordinator, has chosen a staff of nine qualified volunteers at the Bridgewater State College graduate and undergraduate levels.

The Clinic provides approximately 2 hours of supervision for each volunteer. The volunteers are instructed by the physicians and professionals who work in these fields.

For more information, contact Dr. Bruck at the Student Union, Room 209, or phone 786-8555.

The Bears got a big break on the 46-yard field goal. The score: Maine 2, U.N.H. 0. Moments later it was Maine that had the ball deep inside Bear-land. The defense tightened an otherwise Swiss cheese-like defense into a cohesive unit every time the Comment went down on their own 10 yard line with a booming punt and the defense, led by Dave Hickey and Wayne Hulse, made sure they were stopped.

Mistake-plagued Bears fall 12-9

The Bears will concentrate this weekend on their defense. The defense was hurt after the M.M. game including big guard Mike Halpin who was hurting after the M.M. game and hold onto the ball. An upset this weekend would put the Bears back to U.N.H., the red men will have to try with their own transportation. However, mistakes will start at 1:30 at Swensen Field.

The defense once again hardness in this performance, the senior forwards Bruce Fisher, his third on the ball, at the 4:30 mark. The Mackenzie Dooly, his third on the loose, and the senior, second on the ground.

Bridgewater bounced back. With their 13-20 record and year after losing Steve Spain to a torn knee, they played a great game. The Brown Bears defense stepped up to the challenge and held them to a 12-9 margin. The Bears will look to rebound in their next game.
