Bridgewater State College
B.O.S.T. Off To Good Start

by Sue Auci

"It's a total community project, sponsored by Student Government and the Office of Student Services. Everybody wins in the end. Everybody comes out ahead when it's over. " said Sue Auci, who will be working in the office of Student Employment Referral this year.

The non-work study program has had a very successful response from students, who have jobs even out in the temporary one, but she hopes it will be repeated next year.

The Bridgewater Public Library is open Monday through Friday, 9-5, and Saturday, 9-1.

Bears on Rampage--Come Home at 4-1

by Darby Chappell

The New Haven State Bears aren't. As a matter of fact, they are roaring louder than ever. After all, they have won three consecutive league victories entering Monday's game against Nichols.

Assistant Coach Bill Mullen and Keith Benoit of the Bridgewater Town Selectmen have set up an Advisory Open Forum on the status of the Faculty contract. The Forum, leading by Charles Angell, will address the group and answer all of your questions.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Where is the outcry against the administration and the students from the factory onto college campuses across the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and the rest of the nation? As a concept of education is in the service of the working class? When the reality is that many of these students are working during their course load, and concerned about the cost of their education.

Sincerely,

Nancy L. Silva
Chair of the Board

Request for Transportation

Dear Administrator, Faculty, and student body,

First, this is not a proposal to replace the current transportation system, but rather to add a new system to help alleviate some of the problems that currently exist. I understand the need for a new system, and I am urging all students who are interested to voice their opinions.

Sincerely,

Janice Gabaree

How to stretch your college dollars.

You don't have to be a math genius to figure out how to save money. Here are some simple tips to help you stretch your dollars:

1. Budgeting
   - Make a list of all your expenses and prioritize them.
   - Track your spending to see where you can cut back.

2. Comparison Shopping
   - Shop around for the best deals on necessities like clothes, food, and transportation.

3. Second-hand Items
   - Consider buying second-hand items like clothing, books, and electronics.

4. Cooking at Home
   - Eating out can be expensive. Try cooking meals at home.

5. Public Transportation
   - Use public transportation instead of driving, especially in urban areas.

6. Energy Efficiency
   - Reduce energy consumption by turning off lights and unplugging electronics when not in use.

7. Free Activities
   - Look for free or low-cost activities in your area, such as hiking, walking trails, or local museums.

8. Student Discounts
   - Take advantage of student discounts offered by many restaurants, entertainment venues, and attractions.

Remember, the key is to be mindful of your spending and make informed decisions about how to allocate your money. With a little effort, you can stretch your college dollars.
Announcements

CASH CHECKING
57 cents weekly will be given to student residents who deposit any amount in the campus cashiers. All checks will be mailed to the student residence hall at the end of the month. This is payable due to the large number of cash held by the Student Union because of the event.

INTERNATIONAL NIGHT
The International Student Association is sponsoring an international Night Dinner and Entertainment Thursday, October 22, 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. in the Student Union Ballroom. Tickets will be available for $2.00 at the Union Information Booth. Only 900 tickets will be sold.

RAFFLE WINNERS
Winners in the first annual Quad Site raffle are; 1st prize (lube job) - Mary Saurman; 2nd prize (Crystal Cafe dinner) - Donald Condry. 3rd prize (sausage) - Jim Mantolos; 4th prize (Case of beer) - Kathy Belleville; 5th prize (book) - Donald Keay; 6th prize (Quad-S T-Shirt) - Jean Pesa; 7th prize (lunch with Don Johnson) - Susan Donnelly; 8th prize (Lunch with Dick Adams) - Susan Donnelly; 9th prize (Quad-S publications) - Jean Pesa. The Quad-theatras also participated. Watch for news concerning the Scholarships.

MASCARADE PARTY
On October 17, the Student Union will be having the first annual Mescaline Masquerade Party. The band will be "Numbers". The party will begin at 8:00 in the Ballroom. Tickets will be available for $1.75 at the Student Union Information Booth for $1.75. Prizes will be given for Best Costume, Masquerade, and Most Original Couple or Group. This event is sponsored by the S.U. Program Committee.

INTERNATIONAL NIGHT
October 22, 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. in the Student Union Ballroom. Tickets will be available for $2.00 at the Union Information Booth. Only 900 tickets can be sold. This event will feature a live band, "Numbers". The students will be able to enjoy various international cuisines, as well as cultural entertainment. The event is open to all students and will be a great way to experience the diversity of our world.

How to stretch your college dollars.

You don't have to be a math genius to figure this out. Basic money management principles can help you get the most bang for your buck. Here are some tips to help you stretch your college dollars.

1. Organize your finances.
   - Set a budget and stick to it.
   - Keep track of your expenses and compare them to your income.

2. Reduce your expenses.
   - Cut back on non-essential purchases.
   - Look for cheaper alternatives, such as second-hand items.

3. Earn extra money.
   - Consider part-time jobs or internships.
   - Apply for scholarships and grants.

4. Save for emergencies.
   - Build a contingency fund to cover unexpected expenses.

5. Plan ahead.
   - Don't overspend on the weekend.
   - Plan meals and activities ahead of time.

6. Take advantage of student discounts.
   - Use your student ID to get discounts on food, entertainment, and more.

7. Stay informed.
   - Check your financial aid awards and understand your options.

8. Seek help.
   - If you're struggling, talk to your financial advisor or a counselor.

9. Don't borrow unnecessarily.
   - Consider alternative sources of funding.

10. Stay focused.
    - Keep your eyes on the prize and stay committed to your financial goals.

By following these tips, you can stretch your college dollars and make the most of your financial resources.

Children’s Clinic Receives Speaker on Diabetes

The Diabetes Clinic, Treatment and Exercise, used the services of Ms. Geraldine Lanzikos, who works as a Diabetes Clinic Nurse, Standard Memorial Hospital, at the Children’s Physical Development Clinic on Saturday, October 11th.

“Diabetes is our so-called foreign policy consists mostly of wishful thinking, meaningless generalities, vague expressions of goodwill and the empty rhetoric that characterized the nation’s foreign and defense policy. This is all good clean political fun—the latest version of the celebrated “missile gap” of the 1960 campaign—but it means that the issue of national security has been reduced to its most childlike and irrelevant form. The President’s mismanagement of the nation’s foreign and defense policies is an economic disaster. This cannot be allowed to happen, and the President must be voted out of office on November 3rd.”

Ms. Lanzikos also stressed the importance of maintaining a presidential relationship when discussing the crucial need for a strong military. She further stated, “We need a strong military because it is an essential part of our national security. Without a strong military, we cannot protect our country and our way of life.”

Ms. Lanzikos also made the point that the President has failed to explain, in specific terms, how he plans to strengthen the nation’s military forces. That’s fine as far as it goes—but it does not address the need for a strong military. It is not good enough to say that we need a strong military without explaining how it will be achieved.

NOSEFARTU: THE VAMPIRE

Werner Herzog’s homage to the 1920s Nanuq classic has become an instant classic in itself. Eschewing cheap effects, the film achieves a sense of diabolical and terror that is uncanny. There is Beauty and the Beast quality to NOSEFARTU, that is personified by the fabletastic magnificence of Klaus Kinski as the Count, and the eternal Lislade Lamide Asdrub as his principle victim. Herzog’s imagery is masterful and haunting.

MY BRILLIANT CAREER

Franco Brusati's tender comedy of the trials and successes of a young author growing up in the bush country of Australia at the turn of the century. A young man not satisfied with the role society has assigned him, he flees home in order to better understand himself. From the director of "Two for the Money" and "A Simple Story", "My Brilliant Career" is a highly recommended film.

B.E.S.T. Off To Good Start

by Sue Acci

"It's a total community project," commented Student Government Association President Joe Digges, as the Student Government Association held its first meeting of the semester. "Everybody's got a role in the end. You're all going to have to work on the same thing together," Digges said.

The S.G.A. has been working with the town of Bridgewater to plan a "Bridgewater Day" that will take place in the town center on Saturday, October 25. "It's a community project called B.E.S.T. (Bridgewater Economic Support Team)," Digges explained. The week-long program involves developing a sense of community and encouraging students to reach community goals.

"I think it's going to be a great event," Digges said. "We're going to have a lot of fun." She added that the event will include a variety of activities, such as a craft fair, a bake sale, and a raffle.

Job Locater Program Instituted

by Isaac Flight

On September 27th, Dan Ives formed the Job Locater Program, organizing the Student Employment Research Service from a small office in the Student Center. The program was established to aid students in finding jobs, particularly during the fall and winter months. The largest part of the program's income comes from the registration of students who are seeking employment. Other projects include helping students find internships and those who need assistance with resumes or letters of application.

"It's not just about finding a job," Ives said. "It's about giving students the tools they need to succeed." He added that the program is open to all students, regardless of their major or background.
