In 1972, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts had a sucessful run for governor. This year, our state could show that it is possible for the people of this state to control their government. The Governor's office as the motivating force behind King's decision to reopen negotiations.

Turning to the actual agreement, the proposal is a $1 per hour increase, roughly $10 to 15 per hour, which is a bit more than the plan for the smart voter will vote for the right man, not for brokerage politics. With these SSC people involved in the world of education groups. and showed a potential disruptive situation will come to a tentative agreement, an agreement that the governor's office as the motivating force behind King's decision to reopen negotiations.

The proposed faculty strike was called off November 1st, a move that proved us wrong.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir,

I am a student who does not enjoy the traffic through the living area. I feel the parking lot at the time the students are going to class and returning is an unbearable noise and the people are too close. It would be nice if the administration would consider adding a very small parking lot in the main floor of the Student Union.

Share of Education Costs

Summary

The proposed law would limit property taxes and state taxes and would increase the state share of local education costs.

The act would limit local property taxes in the years 1981 through 1984. These local limits would be reduced by any excess taxes actually imposed over the tax limit for the preceding year. The state tax limit would be reduced by any excess taxes actually imposed over the tax limit for the preceding year.

The proposed amendment would change the procedure by which the Legislature declares a state of emergency. It would allow the Legislature to make such a declaration by a voice vote, rather than by a recorded vote, as now required. The amendment would require the counties to provide a summary statement showing on their grade reports its total number of students, the number of students present in each class, and the number of seats available.

The amendment would also require the counties to provide a summary statement showing on their grade reports its total number of students, the number of students present in each class, and the number of seats available. Bears Slosh To 6-6 Tie

by Dusty Chapeau

A tremendous downpour and unyielding winds made playing conditions close to intolerable as B.S.C. battled and swam its way to a 6-6 tie dropping them out of a share of first place. Wins by league leaders Maine and Mass. Maritime dropped Bridgewater to a second place standing. A faithful student and alumni crowd braved the elements all the way through a drenched but scoreless first half before the weather became just too unbearable. The home field advantage seemed non-existent throughout as the two teams played in a desolate second half atmosphere.

But the game was not without its bright moments. Freshmen running backs Mike Magrath and Chris Lupinski turned in two of the best performances of the year. Magrath, who scored B.S.C.'s only touchdown, ran for 99 yards on 19 carries. Lupinski, who is second in the nation in rushing, ran for 178 yards on 32 carries.

Mary Ellen Hennessey crowned Homecoming Queen by Dean Deep in midst of downpour.

B.S.C. fell behind early in the third quarter when a Nichols linebacker picked off a Kevin Cobban pass and sloshed 50 yards down the sidelines for the Bisons' only score.

The defensive unit was almost flawless again even without the aid of valuable Capt. linebacker David White. The Bears defense was led by senior linebacker Mike Shavers and sophomore linebacker Chris Lupinski. The defense held Nichols to 275 yards and 6 first downs and forced the Bisons to turn the ball over 4 times.

Strike Called Off

by Oil Blass

The proposed faculty senate strike format seems doomed by Wednesday's faculty vote to keep striking. The majority of faculty members who attended the vote rejected the agreement that had been reached between the faculty and the university management on Thursday. A proposed house demonstration was called by the student senate to show support for the faculty strike.

Rumors have been heard that the students planned to protest the agreement with the university management. A vote by the students Wednesday seemed likely to turn out in favor of the faculty strike.

An all-night negotiation session was held to reach an agreement on the problem of student involvement in the strike. The faculty strike has been a major issue for the university management. The negotiations have taken place in an atmosphere of tension and conflict.

Social Services Offered

The Massachusetts Health and Social Services has received an offer of help from the Massachusetts Mental Health Council. The offer is to help the university management in its efforts to settle the strike. The council has offered to provide counseling services to the faculty and the students.

The council is aware of the tension and conflict that have been present in the strike negotiations. They have offered to provide counseling services to both sides in order to resolve the conflict.
