In the 1997-1998 academic year the Bridgewater State College Canadian Studies Program will celebrate its twenty-fifth anniversary. Since its inception, the Canadian Studies Program has grown into one of the most respected in the country providing a range of activities including conferences, lectures, cultural events, field trips and educational outreach. Under the direction of Dr. Anthony Cicerone, the Canadian Studies Program offers an interdisciplinary course each year which gives a broad overview of our neighbor to the North. Currently, the Canadian Studies Program is attracting new interest as both students and faculty devote their attention to enhancing the understanding of Canada and developing closer national and regional ties. In recognition of twenty-five years of Canadian Studies the Bridgewater Review is highlighting the work of noted Canadians. In this issue, the Honorable Kurt Jensen's photos of Labrador and the artistry of Ken Kirkby and Ingrid Wogrinetz are featured. Congratulations to Dr. Cicerone and the Canadian Studies Program.
