Giving Voices to Children Who Were Refugees

Maddie Jacques

This website provides an insight into children who were refugees. You will read about:

- Important organizations that play a key role in helping them when they arrive in America
- Experts in the field who can speak directly from their experiences with refugees
- Along with one expert who was personally a refugee herself.
- There are also books that educators can use to help their students understand who refugees are and what they have been through
- Lesson plans to along with those books for multiple grades.
