Bears baseball team wins four out of five

By Byron Hayes

The Bridgewater State College Bears baseball team played five games in as many days, and came away victorious in four of them. The team defeated Roger Williams College 16-9 Saturday afternoon, and split a double-header with Worcester State College Sunday afternoon. Bears played on the Lancers’ home territory, but came away with a victory. The game was called early, due to a heavy rain that fell most of the afternoon.

Junior pitcher David Bishay, who threw a complete game against Roger Williams Saturday, lost his shutout on a single in the bottom of the sixth inning against Worcester State. Both teams scored two runs, and combined for 15 hits. Worcester State had a 1-0 lead in the top of the first inning, but the Bears scored two runs in the bottom of the first to take the lead. The Lancers scored a run in the second inning, but the Bears responded with another two-run inning in the bottom of the second. Worcester State scored a run in the top of the third inning to pull to within one run, but Bears scored three runs in the bottom of the third to take a 6-2 lead. The Lancers scored a run in the top of the fifth inning, but Bears scored two more runs in the bottom of the fifth to take a 8-3 lead. Bears scored two runs in the bottom of the sixth inning to make the score 10-3, and the game was called due to the inclement weather.

Bishay, the winning run, making the score 7-6.

In the second game of the day, the situation was reversed. Going into the bottom of the sixth, Bridgewater was up 6-5. The Lancers tied the score, on a single in the bottom of the sixth, to send the game into extra innings. In the top of the seventh and final inning, Jim DeMarco reached first on a walk by Worcester State pitcher Jeff Davey. Andy DeSantis, who had already batted in two runs, scored on the single, and came home on a Bridgewater single. In the bottom of the seventh inning, the Bears scored two runs, to win the game 8-6. The final game was played the same way, as the Bears won 6-2.

The margin of votes between the two candidates was close, and one- hun­ dred votes separated them. Rossi accumulated 364, and Medeiros had 321. Other con­ ditions of the race, according to the position, were unchanged.

According to John R. Burns, III, a Bridge­ water State College student, and an independent, on Tuesday, the expected outcome of the vote was a close result. The independent is a member of the politically independent group, and is not affiliated with any political party.

Congress holds emergency meeting

Student Government Association Chairman of the Congress Patrick Pearce called an emergency meeting of the Congress to discuss legal matters and determine the wording of a referendum question which will appear on the voting ballot this Tuesday and Wednesday.

At their Tuesday night meeting, the Congress voted to recall a lawyer to seek further legal advice against the Board of Trustees for their imposition of the $125 deficit assessment fee. Robert Bush is the lawyer who has been retained. As of yet, no contract has been determined. The contract would be determined at a later date through a contingency plan, and SGA President Marcia Medeiros would work out the contract. It would still have to be determined if Bush would accept the SGA's case.

Numerous members of the Congress wondered whether or not the students will see this as a viable access for the Congress to take the Congress. They will meet this afternoon to attempt to place on the ballot a referendum question, asking students if they would approve of this course of action.

The Student Government Association would like to remind students that Final Elections will be held this Tuesday and Wednesday, April 26 and 27, respectively. Elections Director Lisa Clary urges all of the student body to get out and vote.

Bake sale for homeless to be held

A group of students from the Social Work Department will be holding a bake sale this Tuesday and Wednesday outside of Burrill Avenue Academic Building from 7 a.m. until 3 p.m. The money raised will be used to help the hungry and homeless people in the area.

The second location for the bake sale will be at the tables across from the Bookstore from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. This group is encouraging everyone on campus to show up and help them raise money for the homeless and hungry.

As soon as I finished Advanced Training, the Guard gave me a cash bonus of $2,000. I'm also getting another $5,000 for tuition and books, thanks to the New GI Bill. Next, I'll need to get to the State of Ohio and complete my full 80-hour training.

And if I take a college loan, the Guard will help me pay it back—up to $1,500 a year, plus interest.

It all adds up to $18,000—or more—for college for just a little of my time. And that's a heck of a better deal than any car wash will give you. THE GUARD CAN HELP PUT YOU THROUGH COLLEGE, TOO. SEND YOUR LOCAL RECRUITER FOR DETAILS, CALL TOLL-FREE 800-638-7600, OR MAIL THIS COUPON

When my friends and I graduated from high school, we all took part-time jobs to pay for college.

They ended up in car washes and hamburger joints, putting in long hours for little pay.

Not me. My job takes just one weekend a month and a week or two a year. Yet, I'm earning $18,000 for college.

Because I joined my local Army National Guard.

They're the people who help our state and local communities during emergencies like hurricanes and floods. They're also an important part of our country's military defense.

So, since I'm helping them do such an important job, they're helping me make it through school.

I thought that I would never be able to go to college because college was just too expensive.

But then I heard about the Guard. They have a program called the Guardian Student Loan Program. It's a way for me to go to college without having to pay for it.

International Saudi financier arrested as accomplice
Adnan Khashoggi, the sometime Saudi financier once reputed to be the world's wealthiest man, was arrested Tuesday on charges he helped Ferdinand and Imelda Marcos flee riches stolen from the Philippines.
The jet-setting arms merchant, allegedly the man who helped the Marcoses escape, was seized by police at an elegant downtown hotel, said Pierre Schmitt, assistant director of the Swiss Federal Police Office. Schmitt said the arrest came shortly after the US Embassy taped off Swiss authorities.Khashoggi was taken to jail and denied his arrest.
Khashoggi, the Marcoses, five other people and a Californian bank were indicted in connection with a US District Court in New York.
The indictment accuses the couple and Marcos aides of laundering more than $100 million from the Philippine treasury to buy real estate and expensive objects in New York.

Claim of achievement of nuclear fusion
A scientist said Tuesday that a confirmed, simultaneous test of a University of Utah (Utah's claim to have achieved nuclear fusion in a jar of water proved the energy released did not come from a chemical reaction.
Robert Huggins, Stanford University professor of particle science, and his experiment using palladium electrodes in jars of heavy water and plain water in a giant tank produced energy that may have resulted from fusion.
Huggins said he can't be sure the energy is nuclear fusion, but in certain, it is not from a chemical reaction.

Mayor says hospital will be test of Bush's commitment
In Boston, Mayor Ray Flynn's administration plans to appeal directly to President George Bush to win $170 million in Federal financing for Boston City Hospital, officials said Monday.
Mary Nee, director of the mayor's Office of Capital Planning, said Flynn will push to make the new hospital an "example" of how Bush can meet his commitment to inner cities.
Nee said the application will be submitted in four to eight weeks, about a month later than the city's original target deadline of April.
Flynn and city officials have said that funding for the new hospital has been jeopardized by state budget cuts which have weakened the city's financial position.

Boating accident takes two men's lives
A boating accident claimed two men's lives Monday in the rough waters in South Shore Hospital. Richard Kelley, 18, was rescued at South Shore Hospital in Quincy for exposure and released. The spokesman said Richard was below deck when the boat capsized and has no idea what happened.
Petty Officer Paul Lawton of the South Shore Guard Station, said the mouth of the North River has been a dangerous spot for years.
"I'm sure we'll do something about it, especially after Monday's accident," Lawton said. "I have a warning flag may be used in the future when the weather is rough.

The selection of L. Gov. Evans Murphy to be the keynote speaker at this year's commencement ceremony has been the source of some amount of controversy at Bridgeview, SGA, in recent weeks.

When asked his opinion on the issue, Chancellor of Higher Education Franklin Jenifer stated that he was a graduate senior, and Murphy had been invited to speak, he would be "welcomed.

Chancellor calls Murphy good choice

The chancellor added that Murphy's dedication to enhancing the field is evident in the "Blueprints 2000" plan for education development.

The Board of Trustees announced the selection of Murphy at their March meeting, an announcement which prompted complaints from various students and faculty. Representatives of CKEES also voiced disagreement with the decision.

Don’t forget to vote

The Student Government Association’s Primary elections are finally over. Now, the remaining candidates’ positions focus on their final exams. As their attention shifts, so should the students.

According to a recent poll, a number of students are not aware of upcoming elections. The poll shows that many students turn out in recent memory. This shows one point: that those running for a position in the Student Senate have lost their interest in who will stand for the upcoming year.

The second point which may now result, however, is that students will vote, since they have already approved “yes.”

Students have the right to the realization of their political ideas, so let us not forget to vote.

Congressman expresses views on return of MassPIRG to BSC

To the Editor:

The return of MassPIRG to Bridgewater State College will be a benefit to the campus. We should all come together and support this return because of the benefits that MassPIRG will provide.

The benefits of MassPIRG will be evident as they implement their programs on campus. They will help students become more informed about important issues. They will also help students become more involved in the community.

MassPIRG has a strong track record of success. They have been successful in many areas, such as protecting the environment, ensuring access to quality health care, and promoting economic justice.

We should all be grateful that MassPIRG is returning to our campus. Let us all come together and support this return.

Supporter for Hall questions candidates

To the Editor:

While speaking with several people on campus, I have heard that they are concerned about the upcoming student council elections. They believe that the candidates do not represent the needs of the students.

In my opinion, the candidates do represent the needs of the students. They have shown their commitment to the campus community and have demonstrated their ability to address the concerns of the students.

I urge the students to vote for the candidates who have shown their commitment to the campus community.

To the Editor:

I am writing in response to the article that appeared in your newspaper last week. I would like to set the record straight and to explain my position on this matter.

As you may be aware, I have been involved in several controversies over the past year. Some of these controversies have been baseless and unfounded. However, there have been instances where I have been criticized unfairly.

I would like to assure you that I have always acted in the best interest of the students and the college community. I have always been transparent and honest in my dealings.

I would also like to take this opportunity to express my gratitude to the students who have supported me throughout this process.

Sincerely,

President of MassPIRG at BSC speaks out against an ‘organization’

To the Editor:

I am writing to express my concerns about the recent events involving MassPIRG at Bridgewater State College. As President of MassPIRG, I have always been committed to promoting democracy and engaging students in the political process.

Unfortunately, recent events have called into question the integrity of MassPIRG. There have been allegations of unfairness and impropriety in the way MassPIRG has been operating on campus.

I would like to assure you that MassPIRG has always operated in accordance with the highest ethical standards. We are committed to being transparent and accountable to the students.

I urge the students to support MassPIRG and to participate in the democratic process.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
Don’t forget to vote

T he Student Government Association’s Primary Elections are finally over. Now, the remaining candidates are focusing on the final stage. As their attention shifts, so should the students.

According to a recent poll by the Editor-in-Chief, a majority of the students either already voted or will vote before the final votes turn out in memory. This shows one point: that students are interested in who will be leading for the upcoming year.

The second campaign which may now result, is that students will forget to vote, since they have already voted “already.” Student opinions don’t change much. The first time they vote is to determine the finalists for one of the four positions. The next time is the all-important one.

The second time voting is for the selection of the candidates who will represent their views as Student Trustees, who will make decisions concerning the student’s money, as SGA Congressmen, and how the SGA will run the school. It is the last vote that President. But, this choice can only be made by voting.

The candidate’s main selection has centered around the fact that they want “opponents. Now, he has to do something about these letters. It is their interest to show how they will work with the administration and what they will do if they win. These students need a say in the day to day actions of the college. We have seen the changes that this process can be facilitated. The only way to do this is if students get out and vote.

Hall “thanked” for his efforts and actions

To the Editor:

I love you all. I’m sorry about the way I’ve been acting. I’m looking forward to being able to see you again soon. I’m looking forward to the day when we can all share in the same experience.

Hope to see you soon,

Congressman expresses views on return of MassPIRG to BSC

To the Editor:

My name is Kirk VanZyde and I am currently a Congressmen in the U.S. A. I would like to express my thoughts on the return of MassPIRG to the BSC campus.

After being away from the BSC campus for a few years, I am excited to see the progress that has been made on the campus. The MassPIRG office has been a valuable resource for the students and I am looking forward to their return.

The MassPIRG office has always been a strong advocate for the students. Their work has been instrumental in bringing attention to important issues on the campus.

I support the return of MassPIRG to the BSC campus and look forward to their continued work on campus.

Supporter for Hall questions candidates

To the Editor:

I am a supporter of your candidate, and I was surprised to hear you question their qualifications.

I believe that your candidate has the experience and knowledge necessary to lead the school.

I am concerned that you may be overlooking the importance of quality education in our schools.

I hope that you will reconsider your stance and support your candidate in the upcoming election.

Student accuses Strausz and newspaper of "lack of ethics" and "bias in journalism"

To the Editor:

I believe it is important to have a fair and impartial press in our schools.

I have noticed that there are some inaccuracies in the newspaper’s coverage of our school.

I believe that the newspaper should strive to provide accurate and balanced information to the students.

I hope that the newspaper will take my concerns into consideration.

Appreciating those who volunteer their time and energy to Girl Scouts

To the Editor:

It was a Girl Scout volunteer who inspired me to become active in our community.

I have volunteered with Girl Scouts for several years and have had the opportunity to see firsthand how important volunteering is.

Through my volunteer work, I have learned the value of giving back to my community and the importance of helping others.

I encourage others to consider volunteering with Girl Scouts or any other organization that aligns with their interests and values.

President of MassPIRG at BSC speaks out against an ‘organization’

To the Editor:

I am the President of MassPIRG at BSC, and I would like to speak out against an organization that I believe is misleading our students.

This organization is using deceptive tactics to gain support and influence students on our campus.

I believe that it is important for students to be aware of these tactics and to make informed decisions about their involvement in any organization.

Sincerely,

International night attracts big crowd

It was an evening filled with sharing recipes, dances, and songs.

By Chris Carwell

If this is not a typical story, I do not know what. Last year I went to the International Night as a typical college student, excited and filled with the best intentions. This year, I returned, still excited, but with different expectations. I wanted to experience the love that goes into preparing these events, the passion and the hard work that goes into it. This year, I was moved by the passion and dedication of the people involved.

International Night was a night of celebration, a night to bring people together from all over the world. It was a night to share cultures, to learn from each other, to celebrate diversity.

The dance floor was filled with people of all ages, dancing to music from around the world. The food was amazing, a taste of every culture represented. The performances were incredible, each one a masterpiece of art and culture.

The night was a success, and it was all thanks to the hard work and dedication of the people involved. I am grateful to have been a part of it, and I look forward to attending next year's International Night.
How does it feel to be someone with AIDS?

Barbara Evans, AIDS Coordinator for Bridgewater State College Health Services and the AIDS Task Force, has invited a person living with the AIDS virus to speak to students, faculty, and staff Tuesday, April 25 at 10:50 a.m. The Person with AIDS Speakers Program (PWASP) is a collaborative effort between Health Care of Southeastern Massachusetts and the Department of Education and is based on a similar program operated by the city of San Francisco. The program has also received strong support from the Department of Public Health. Bridgewater State College is one of the first colleges in the region to take advantage of this new AIDS education effort.

◊ Dance

A great deal of time and effort went into this year’s dance program that had to be put on hold. This has been the best production that the BSC Dance Company has ever done. Each year they continue to grow, improve, and dare to go beyond the usual dance. The solos, Dance of Apsara and Awakening were also well performed.

The evening consisted of a dinner, multicultural entertainment, and a dance. Most of the food was prepared by students with dishes such as squid dishes, a Chinese noodle dish, two Italian pastas, Cape Veridian turnovers, and several desserts. Half of the entertainment was performed by members of the college. It ranged from the intricate moves of the Indian dancers and mime show, to the folk music of the Scottish, Irish, Canadian, and Chinese players, to the modern-day love song written and performed by students. But for those who waited, the final act was the exotic and unusual Cape Veridian dancers who came from a Boston high school to perform. The International Night has become such a success, that the International Club is planning to put together a recipe book for those who want to continue the theme into finding the special international foods in cooking.

Sigma Chi donates time and money to scholarship and clinic

By Doug Eckert

Society staff

The Sigma Chi Fraternity, in conjunction with the events of their fundraiser Derby Day, will be holding their first annual blood drive. The event will take place on the quad in front of Dewey Hall on Friday, April 28 at 1:00 p.m. The proceeds of Derby Day will be "selling bail bonds" to students, friends, and families in order to raise money for a scholarship.

The scholarship will be awarded to a woman who is self-sufficient and shows financial need.

This scholarship is set up in the memory of Terry Austin, a student who passed away last year. Austin was involved with the Sigma Chi sorority, and worked hard to earn enough money to get through college. It is in that spirit that the scholarship is being awarded.

All students are encouraged to stop by and support the students involved in the fund-raising for this scholarship, the Chao Wallace Court, and the Children’s Clinic, by sponsoring girls in this and many other events during Derby week.

When talking to Derby Day co-chairman Dave Rosebush, said, "If we could get 200 students to sign up to participate in these events.”

Derby Day consists of many different events and contests to determine who will be the week’s winner. Derby Day will be held on Saturday April 29 at 11 a.m. behind the Kelly Dorm. Rosebush welcomes all students to come watch and cheer them on, in the fun and exciting events held on Derby Day.

“The Department of Education wants to continue to help schools and colleges raise awareness and educate students. This program seeks to introduce the campus community to a person with AIDS to help them understand that they are, indeed, vulnerable should they engage in various unprotected behaviors,” explained Randy Yates, Health Care’s coordinator of the PWASP program.

There's more than one litter problem in your neighborhood.

They never asked to be born. But their mother's owners figured the local animal shelter would surely find them good homes. They didn't realize that most of the 13.5 million unwanted animals put to death each year are not strays. They're puppies and kittens born in nice homes like yours that have to be killed to make room for more.

Having your pet spayed or neutered is the only way to reduce the sad number of ownerless dogs and cats destroyed this year. It will also increase your pet's chances of living a longer and healthier life. That responsibility is yours alone. You'll never stop your pets from acting naturally. But if you love them, you'll have them fixed.

Talk to your veterinarian. Or contact the MSPCA for a free information packet on birth control for your pet.

Women’s Rugby defeated by Brown

The Women's rugby club played a tough game Saturday in which they were defeated by Brown University 0-5.

The opening minutes of the game were an indication that it would be a long, hard hitting game. The Brown scrum was active early on as Bridgewater's scrum failed to gain any territory.

Their third player played off as a Ward, scrum half, pushed in the half for four points. The conversion kick by Allen was good.

Bridgewater's scrum work and Brown's defensive ability were apparent in the first half but were unable to score due to Brown's solid play. In the second half Bridgewater got their second win, a long, hard hitting game. The final score was 0-5.

The primary elections for the position of Student Trustee were won by a handful of candidates, including the new Student Government Association President, who was one of the candidates. The primary elections were held on the Campus Center last Tuesday and Wednesday.

The margin of votes between the two leading candidates was close, and the margin of victories was only about 54 votes, or 54%. The candidates were Michael Roebuck, who was in the lead with 255 votes, and Christopher Conceli, who was in second place with 235 votes. Roebuck's win was much deserved, as he had garnered a significant lead over Conceli in the primary elections.

The Election Board was pleased with the high voter turnout, with more than 300 votes cast out of 400 total voters. The results of the election were announced on the campus website, and the winner was officially announced on Thursday.

The Conceli campaign was left with a sour taste, as they had hoped to win the position by a wide margin. However, they were quite pleased with the support they received and the younger demographic they were able to attract. They plan on using the experience gained during this campaign to run for other positions in the future.

Franklyn Jenifer addresses Trustees
Chancellor defends proposed tuition hike

The Chancellor of Higher Education and President of the College, Dr. Franklyn Jenifer, addressed the Trustees in a special meeting on Thursday afternoon. The Chancellor provided detailed information on the proposed tuition hike, which was to be implemented in the fall semester.

The Chancellor explained that the tuition hike was necessary to meet the financial challenges facing the college, including increased costs for facilities maintenance and technology, as well as rising costs for faculty salaries and benefits. The Chancellor emphasized that the tuition increase was only a small portion of the overall budget, and that the college was committed to finding ways to reduce costs and increase revenues in other areas.

The Chancellor also addressed the concerns raised by some faculty members, who expressed concerns that the tuition increase would disproportionately affect lower-income students. The Chancellor acknowledged these concerns and assured the faculty that the college would continue to provide financial aid to students who needed it, and that no student would be denied access to education based on their ability to pay.

The Trustees voted unanimously in favor of the tuition increase, and the Chancellor assured the faculty that the college would continue to work towards finding ways to reduce costs and increase revenues in other areas.

The full text of the Chancellor's address can be found on the college website.
