DYLAN THE PERFORMER

By BOB DYLAN

The 1965 SCA weekend came to a successful close Sunday evening with a performance by America's most unique folk singer and composer, Bob Dylan. At 7:30 p.m. the doors to the BSC gym were opened and over one thousand people poured into the large gym. In a few minutes the bleachers overflowed and a sea of sweat, smiles, and blacklocks as the students chose their seats. The area in front of the stage was quickly filled by many young people who usually unfamiliar faces could be seen in the crowd of students from all over the country to hear him.

"A 'C' IS A 'C' AND I'M A 'C""

By NANCY HARLOW

Judging from the heated discussion that followed the new grading system, very few students will look forward to the spring semester. A student opinion survey revealed that understanding of the whole problem was so twisted by the offsetting of his serious songs with a performance by America's most unique folk singer and composer, Bob Dylan. At 7:15 the doors were closed and the silence of a single spot-light. The silence was broken only by a guitar and an unidentifiable voice that he was.

As Dylan continued to sing, a feeling of excitement swept through the gym. Sitting there in the dark, you forget that there were three thousand other people in the same room; your whole attention was drawn to the front in the spotlight. The words to some songs became meaningless as you started, starting not because they didn't make sense, but because they expressed the thoughts and feelings that many young people of today have experienced.

He illustrated his versatility by offsetting his serious songs with a performance by America's most unique folk singer and composer, Bob Dylan. At 7:15 the doors were closed and the silence of a single spot-light. The silence was broken only by a guitar and an unidentifiable voice that he was.

The difficulties inherent in adopting the new grading system at Bridgewater have been experienced both by the administration and faculty trying to make the system work and the students trying to understand it. Had complete compliance with the new system been made, the difficulty of reorienting their thinking still would have been great. Most students are not only incompletely and inco­

BSC has once again been invited to submit a candidate for GLAMOUR magazine’s search for 1965’s "Best-Dressed College Girls." Connewsmen are not only upon themselves of daze, but also on good grooming, originality of style, and poise. Carole Burrows, junior elementary major, has charge of the election at BSC.

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL

Men's intramural basketball is having a successful year. There are about 16 men playing on the intramural teams, and these teams form two leagues of 9 teams each. So farforte have been at a minimum. We are looking forward to the exciting basketball season that we can expect in the near future.

Fighting for first place in the QR League, the commuter league are the Challengers, 4-1, the Jaffers, 5-0, and the Hurricanes, 5-1. The battle is not over; the Jaffers may surprise the Challengers yet.

In the Dorm League, the second place team is having a difficult time overcoming the supremacy of the first place Brothers X, who, still undefeated, are two years old, and there are now 5-0, and their second place team: full steam ahead.

Individual average scorer in Jim Lenzack of the Brooklyners, Lenack, improving with every game, chalked up 89 markers in his first five games for an 18.0 average per game. Joel Chump of the APF netted 82 points in his first four games. "Gump" has a high game of 40 points. Other standards are Glen of the Disciples and Wallace of the Horizon with 69 and 73 points respectively.

What about playoffs? A probable arrangement is to have the top four teams in each league compete for the chance to meet the best team in the opposing league. In the short time remaining, there should be an all-out contest for first place.

FOOTBALL

Looking ahead. Football is not an exhausted topic at BSC. For the first time in the team's short history Coach Swenson has something to build on. Nearly every starter is returning. A two week workout should be an all-out contest for first place. 'Bedford and Durfee of Fall River - were archrivals, are the co-capt.

VARITY BASKETBALL

Last weekend the BSC basketball boosters traveled to Connecticut. There they suffered two setbacks, one to Quimilapas and the other to a one-over New Haven squad. High scorers on the tour were Dan Pheka and Ken Brennan. Phelax inflated his total by 48 points, and Brennan added 38 to his.
