NEW YOUTH MOVEMENT
FOR WORLD PEACE

Since World War II, interest in world peace has increased. This is evident in the activities of the New Youth Movement. One of the goals of the movement is to educate young people about the importance of world peace. Through various events and discussions, the movement aims to inspire young people to become active in promoting peace.

DRAMATIC CLUB PLAY

A play directed by Miss Grace Buckland was presented during Alumnae week-end. It is titled "The New Vanguard." The play is about the change of women's roles in society, particularly in the workplace. The play was well-received and was attended by many former students and faculty members. It is an important step in promoting awareness of gender equality.

ALUMNAE-SENIOR
HOOSIER GAME

The senior class played a basketball game against the junior class. The seniors won 12 points to 10. The game was a fun event that brought the students together.

NEW NOTED EDUCATOR VISITS STATE NORMAL SCHOOL

November 27—Doctor Dana W. Wagner, a noted educator of Detroit, returned to our school to speak before students and faculty. The visit was arranged by the Dramatic Club for the New Youth Movement. Wagner shared his insights on world peace and education. He emphasized the importance of education in promoting peace and understanding.

DAMASCUS, NOVEMBER, 1977

The visit was arranged by the Dramatic Club for the New Youth Movement. Wagner shared his insights on world peace and education. He emphasized the importance of education in promoting peace and understanding.

A NOTE FROM THE LITERARY EDITOR

AN APPEAL TO THE STUDENT BODY!

This is to appeal not to serve, but to think about the need for some normal bulletin boards. Many students feel that the lack of a bulletin board is a disadvantage because it is impossible to keep up with the more important things. The board should be in a prominent place in the school, as students are apt to visit it often. The bulletin board should be well arranged and have the student's notice printed in large letters so that it can be read easily.

CLUB NOTES

THE GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club is a club that has been formed to give students an opportunity to participate in musical activities. The club meets weekly and sings a variety of songs, both classical and contemporary. The club is open to all students and welcomes new members at any time.

JOKES

Miss Oldfield: "There must be a mistake. I ordered a milk shake and they gave me a milk shake." Mr. Oldfield: "No, that's correct. It's a milk shake.""

AN APPEAL TO THE STUDENT BODY!

This is an appeal not to serve, but to write. Each of you should write at least one story, one article, one poem, each of which shall be submitted to our Literary Editor, Miss Dorcas Snow. Each story, article, or poem should be sent in the form of a manuscript, double spaced on one side of the page, and typed on plain white paper. All materials will be returned if requested by the student. Authors who submit their work will be given credit.

The Battle of Leipsic where Napoleon was defeated by the English and Germans.

The modern youth rebelled. This was an occasion for great celebration, for it was the hundredth anniversary of the meeting. They resolved that "The sign of the times is given" and "The youth of Germany are fully determined to mould their own lives, to bear responsibility and their desire for truth." This is the philosophy of the "World Peace." Twenty-five countries of the world joined twenty-one American students were represented.
