John Hooker, Assistant Professor of Art: Sleepless. Painted plaster. “One night I couldn’t sleep. I kept picturing this large rolling ball with arms. The hands tried to pick up fingers as more fingers broke from the weight of the rolling ball.” Additional works by Professor Hooker are on pages 15–18.