SCA ELECTIONS MAY BE HELD AGAIN

When SCA elections were held May 2nd of this year a bomb scare occurred. The ballots were not counted for the next day, May 3rd, a technologically controlled convention procedure dictated them. Reballot a week later, the SCA delegates allocate and an election sequence has been questioned and may be held again.

Right now we have an official SCA commission board; Dammy Kehl- berger, president; Gail Guiteau, vice-president; Brent Dilley, secretary; Bob Crouch, treasurer.

"Tender is the Night" From

"Tender is the Night" is June first for the seniors of SCA, for that is the theme and the night of their Senior Prom. It will be held in the Louis XV Ballroom at the Sunnset Hotel on Commoween Avenue where the extravagance will be supplied by the Ruby Newmann Or- chestra and the favors will be stamped glassware. The table prices are set as follows: conferred $5.00 for single persons and persons $10.00 for couples. These prices are inclusive of taxes and prices.

The tickets will be set up for eight people so seniors are urged to buy them. The tickets will be issued for four each of the eight tickets. They will be sold at 10th and 20th.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Most of us at Bridgewater are aware of the Drama Club, an organization performing for the cultural life of the college, that has been active for many years. The standards of its performances are high and the presentations are well received. This must be said of our drama club also. Some of the students who have made a great contribution are the actors, directors, and designers who have contributed to its success.

Dr. John Taylor

President of the Drama Club

Volume of registration tabled the association invited the SCA to planning and the control of Kingman Center.

The association does not deny that the drama club is an important organization for the student body. It is recognized for its efforts to provide entertainment and to enhance the cultural life of the college. It is also recognized for its efforts to encourage students to participate in extracurricular activities.

Political Philosophy

Charles K. Varnet

Every student at this college will become a voter in the next few years. It is expected that many of these students will be first-time voters. The political philosophy of these students will be shaped by the political events of their time. The political philosophy of these students will be shaped by the political events of their time.
