Chameleon Scores

In addition to theêm successful performances: THE ZOO STORY, Parkcr Doirr's of the John Grirch Society and Vicmbian Jazz Band, The Chameleon Conversion Cofnrerence Coffeehouse offers two more programs for the school year:

June 26: Barbara Carne, blues-soul singer, who offers a taste of originality in the R&B music performance.

The shakir result of their encounter is Parker Richards, a former BSC music department and his band, The Chameleon Conversation.

The second program featured Mr. Parker Richards, a former BSC student, and present coordinator of the John Birch Society. He expressed his views calling for the stop of the John Birch Society. He expressed his views calling for the stop of the John Birch Society.

Honor Society Installs Officers

Officers for 1967-68 were installed at the Kappa Delta Pi Banquet, at the Lodge, May 16. President, June Bucey; Vice-Presi dent, John Proctor; Secretary, Claire Hann; Treasurer, Maureen Conine; Secretary, Elaine Palley; Treasurer, Jane Stadalski; Secretary, Maryann Clisbom.

Professor Achille Joyal guest speaker, entertained President and Mrs. Roselle, Dr. Flipo, and Mrs. Nancy, and senior and junior members of Kappa, with a humorous and insightful account of his ex- perience as a teacher in Cambodia.
The record of young drivers worsened in 1966. Drivers under 25 were involved in almost 33 percent of the fatal accidents compared with 26.3 percent in 1961.

This commentary is contained in the Travelers Insurance Company's annual highway patrol, which reports 55,506 deaths and more than 4,400,000 injuries on America's highways last year. Statistics in the booklet were compiled from reports by state and other vehicles departments.

The Bureau of Public Roads has reported that drivers under 25 constitute about 19 percent of all licensed drivers—but in 1966 they were involved in almost 70 percent more fatal accidents than non-fatal accidents.

Older drivers, those 65 and over, showed a slight improvement in their driving record as did the largest group of licensed drivers—those 25 to 64. However, drivers over 65 continue to be involved in proportionally more fatal accidents than non-fatal accidents.

The National Traffic Safety Council has issued some vehicle safety standards. Some of these are quite controversial. Latest in the area of seat belts are included in some new present cars. All of them are an important part of the nation's intensified efforts to reduce traffic accidents.

Editor's Note: This letter was for­

Wins Three, Loses Four

BSC splits with Quinnipiac, 4-4; 4-3

BSC's batting was held at bay by Quinnipiac's Don Ford in the opening game, BSC went down by a score of 4-4. The second game was a different story. Quinnipiac bashed across in the 3rd was all that Joe Petetas and Al Pettapas, as they held Quinnipiac to three runs.

BSC 4; SMTH 0

A solo run by the Bears in the second was all that Ward needed, as he backed up his mastery of the mound. BSC added an insurance run in the 6th inning and two more in the 8th to put the game out of reach.

BSC 5; New Haven 13

Bridgewater batters were held by Louie at Lowell and the Bears got their heavy artillery. The first six innings of the game were relatively quiet as Bridgewater got to the winning pitcher. The final three innings, both collected twelve more hits and sixteen big runs. The only run scored towards its target, releases its

The scene is North Vietnam at midnight. A U.S. Army helicopter, as if its target, releases its bomb, and quickly, the blast is felt far above and far below. The bomb hits their objective, the Viet Cong. The Viet Cong is a populated area and civilization. Vietnamese peasants scream outrageous murder.

The night is in North Vietnam at night. A Viet Cong force quietly surrounds a village, and an arranged time moves in from all sides. If resistance is unencountered, it is quickly subdued. The Viet Cong leader calls for the chief of the village to come before him. The chief is then killed by a bullet through the head. Vietnamese peasants are silent.

Both incidents are common enough in that troubled sector of the world, and the results are the same: death. Baseline to them in this country are entirely different however. A Viet Cong or North Vietnamese unit operating in the south also has specific duties. The first is to defeat the South Vietnamese government and the Americans supporting it, and secondly, to build up popular support among the people to support the communistic movement. The building up of "popular support" constitutes the most important objective of Saigon but the methods used differ. Saigon uses the means of driving out the Viet Cong from a certain area and then exploiting economic situations of the pacified. The Viet Cong uses a lot of propaganda to win the simplest and most effective means in the hands of Saigon, but it is not as bad as killing to kill Americans, in the country where the method is planned on a pacification in which a government office or local leaders, using a variety of means specifically designated for death by execution.
