Jim Henry explained to the S.C.A. the two pressures which S.C.C. could obtain a building:

1. Capital Outlay and Grant money to be voted on by the House and Senate, Representatives Morrissy and Murphy have drafted such a measure.

2. Dormitory Authority: A government Commission of nine members, who are to look into the number of students and finance buildings. At this time, two of the members have not yet been appointed by the Governor.

Exempt Letter to the Editor from James Henry, Pres., S.C.A.

In the last quarter of this year was the construction of the Student Union building. In the past, the lack of “Bridgewater Spirit” has been attacked and rejected so far. However, with the dedication of the building and the financial red tape.

Representative Robert Teigher speaking to the Board of Trustees talked of “stewinginahotclass.”

DOUG LAY

Douglas Lay is seeking the office of President of SCA or Junior History major from Merrittville.

He has proposed the following aims:

1. The Social Activities Committee must be restructured. To present form, the committee is too large. The Social Activities Committee has proven itself ineffective. I propose a smaller group whereby the Social Activities Committee will be composed of delegates from each class. These delegates shall be elected and it will be their sole purpose to work on social activities, concerns college objectives and building design committees, Members of the library committees that went to the State House for the town librarian and the new SCA delegate for the town librarian.

2. The Social Activities Committee must be restructured. The committee is too large and ineffective. The committee is composed of delegates from each class. These delegates shall be elected and it will be their sole purpose to work on social activities.
