ATTENTION!

The following students have been selected at random for a 10 minute questionnaire. The Self Study Committee is holding this survey in order to evaluate the goals of this college.

The students listed are asked to report to the Horace Mann Auditorium in Boyden Hall at one of the following times:

Thursday 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. Friday 12 p.m. and 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Your cooperation is needed. The design of the study requires every student, if possible, to participate.

'You're A Big Boy Now'

We're Sorry!
The Verse Choir "Winter Festival" Tuesday Dec. 15, 1971 in the Festival Choral Hall, the Verse Choir will present a collection of music designed to complement the Christmas service of the Parish of St. John the Evangelist, the music to be heard in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine.

The Verses Choir, under the direction of Mr. David Romano, will perform a program of music from the Baroque, Classical, and Romantic periods, as well as a modern work, completed in 1943 by Benjamin Britten.

The program will include music by composers such as Mozart, Beethoven, and Brahms, as well as a selection from Britten's "War Requiem." The choir will be accompanied by the University of Massachusetts Choral Society, under the direction of Mr. David Romano.

The concert will be held in the Festival Choral Hall, and admission is free. The performance will begin at 8:00 p.m. and will last approximately 90 minutes.
Five Records Fall As BSC Swim Team Opens Season

Bridgewater’s swim team opened its dual meet schedule last Saturday, and lost a swan-ker to Babson College, 57-55. The meet went down to the last relay with the Bridgewater freestyle relay of Parmenter, Fountas, Germain, and Morell losing to Babson by 60 of a second.

Babson was ahead most of the meet. The score was 55-41 Babson leading just before the final event. It was an exciting meet all the way, with the large crowd feeling the tension down to the end. Results:
