BSC STUDENT HONORED

Recently Phil Hackett, a member of the COMMENT staff, was selected for publication by the National Poetry Press. Each year thousands of manuscripts are submitted by college students from all over the country. The only requirements are that the poem be the student's own work and that the work have never before been published. Below is a copy of the letterPhil received from David Howrence,
National Poetry Press
3210 Selby Ave.
Los Angeles 34, California

Dear Phil;

We take pleasure in informing you that your poem entitled, "Memory in Poetry," has been selected by the Board of Judges, to be published in the Annual Anthology of College Poetry. The Anthology is a compilation of the finest poetry written by the college men and women of America, representing every state in the country. It is a high honor for a student to be chosen for inclusion in this Anthology. Please accept our heartiest congratulations, on this recognition of your work.

The COMMENT extends its congratulations to Phil on this outstanding recognition.

Letters to the Editor

As members of the class of 1973 we would like to register our concern over several issues in which the administration's priorities are in conflict with those of the students. Although the President is primarily concerned with the overall image of the college, we feel that the following issues are of equal importance and require immediate attention.

1. The administration's decision to cut back on tutoring services, particularly in math and science classes, has caused a considerable amount of concern. Many students who are not confident in their abilities feel that they are being disadvantaged by this decision. We believe that the administration should provide adequate support for students who need extra help.

2. The recent decision to eliminate the fourth year of study abroad has also caused concern. We feel that this decision is shortsighted and will not benefit the students in the long run. The administration should consider the benefits of study abroad programs, including the opportunity to experience different cultures and gain valuable skills.

3. The administration's decision to increase the tuition fees by 10% is also a concern. This increase will make education more expensive for many students, and we believe that the administration should be more responsive to the financial needs of students.

We urge the administration to consider these concerns and work towards a more balanced approach to these issues. As students, we have a right to expect that our needs will be taken into account.

Sincerely,

The COMMENT page is a forum for students to express their views on various issues. It is an important platform for students to engage in meaningful discussions and share their experiences and perspectives. The comments posted on this page reflect the diversity of opinions and ideas within the student body. It is through these discussions that we can learn from each other and grow as a community.

Last week ten members of the INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB took the annual trip to New York in the NATIONAL MODEL UNITED NATIONS, a simulated U.N. in which colleges, universities, and high schools from all over the world participate. The year's simulation was extremely successful.

The model U.N. simulations have proven to be an effective way to teach students about international relations and the workings of the United Nations. They provide a platform for students to engage in discussions about global issues and to develop their critical thinking skills.

We would like to commend the administration for sponsoring this trip and for its ongoing support of international education programs. The participation of students in these programs helps to foster a greater understanding of the world and its challenges.

Sincerely,

Student Art Exhibit

The Student Art Exhibit is a great opportunity for students to showcase their work and gain exposure to the wider community. The exhibit provides a platform for students to develop their skills, gain confidence, and receive feedback from peers and faculty.

We encourage all students to participate in the Student Art Exhibit. It is a valuable way to express your creativity and share your work with others.

Sincerely,

Veterans Administration News

The weekly newsletter of the Veterans Administration is a valuable resource for veterans and their families. It provides information about benefits, services, and upcoming events. The newsletter is an important tool for veterans to stay informed and connected.

We urge the administration to continue supporting the Veterans Administration and the efforts of the veterans who have served our country.

Sincerely,

Pico is Dead

at SMU

by Mike Vieira

The SMU Concert Series people presented Pico's and Frankfort's Camel on Sunday April 11 in a good band sound. The concert was well presented and offers a wide variety through the groups of the Camel People that encompasses all the regions of the Middle East. The concert was an interesting and informative look into the vast diversity of folk-art and styles from the Middle East.

Picasso is Dead

by Philip Haskell

Philip Picasso truly reflected the nature of himself in his art. He had a way of thinking that was ahead of his time. He painted in a style that was outside the boundaries of what was considered to be the norm. He was willing to experiment and create something new.

The use of two huge spots and about four thousand people created a sight that was breathtaking. The sight was not only beautiful, but it was also a powerful statement against the violence and destruction that our society faces.

Malnutrition

by Janice Kane

In a day of modern society, there is a famine of poverty. (Affluent, Wealthy, Poor, etc.) some 30,000 people live in overcrowded and dilapidated conditions.

Even more than a billion people live in overcrowded conditions.

The overall problem lies in the area of poverty and malnutrition.

Bears Split at Worcester

Bridgewater State joined with Westover State, Salem State, and Clark University in a quadrangular track meet last Thursday, but they were notreally sure who would win. The Bears could do little against Worcester and Salem, but were just too good for Clark University. Westover State took an early lead in the meet, but was losing to the others at the end. However, Salem and Bridgewater combined to prevent Westover from running away with the meet.

Paul Betznerphoto that the first place finish in the javelin by Walt Pickens, John DeCost, who finished second at 197-1. The Bears were close enough to win the meet, but not quite close enough. The Bears had a very good day on the track and field.

Bridgewater State College has now won all of their meets so far this season. They have 7 wins and 1 loss, and are looking good for a conference championship.

They're Off! at Raynam

By Lee Smith

Raynam-Baby Braga is an interesting young man at Raynam. He has been a quarterback at St. Mary's and is currently playing basketball. Braga is a natural basketball player, member of the U.S. Army Military Police, manager of two teams, and a member of the Providence basketball team.

One would think that Braga, who patents the 1-2-3-4-5-6-7-8-9-0 shift, would be a natural for basketball, and indeed he is. But making the shift is just as important in basketball as it is in football.

Braga and his Mary were a great help to me. They taught me all about greyhound racing. Greyhounds are a great game, but Braga has shown me how to make the most of it.

Like many greyhound racing enthusiasts before him, Braga's interest in racing is driven by his love for the sport. He has been a long time fan of Raynam, and the very least the team can do is to finish with a .500 season. Not since 1986 has Raynam had a losing track season.

Braga agencies a deal to do with winning a meet. Results:

Bridgewater State defeated Fitchburg State by a score of 99-54, last week, to up its record to 3-1. The Bears were able to come back against a tough Fitchburg State team.

The event results were as follows:

- 200-yard: Neil Spellman continued to shine for the Bears, winning 3 events, 2 individual and 1 relay. Spellman continued to shine for the Bears, winning 3 events, 2 individual and 1 relay.
