An Open Letter

Chellis Fellowship Fund

The tremendous number of complaints about the Bookstore has flourished at a rate of approximately 50% per day, according to the student-run Chellis Fellowship Fund. It was initially agreed upon that the fund would be used to help the financial burdens of those students who have been affected by the Bookstore's closing. It was mutually agreed upon that the fund would be used to extend the return date to Oct. 19. It is impossible to see how this fund would benefit the student.

If you still feel that you have a special cause or have not been fully satisfied, please see me at 11, 115 Commonwealth Ave., before 5 p.m. for further assistance.

A study of the New Hampshire Institute of Technology, under the guidance of Professor Hackett, and the connection of the New Hampshire Institute of Technology, under the guidance of Professor Hackett, and the future of education. Keep in mind that the education system is the key to the future of any country.

In the article "On Education" by Dave Buckwell, it is stated that education is one of the most important aspects of any society. The author argues that education is the key to the future of any country. This is in line with the statement of Professor Hackett that education is the key to the future of any country.

Last Wednesday, Sept. 30, I was given the opportunity to attend a lecture given by Mrs. Carol establishments on the topic of suicide. Many of your readers will recognize the name Carol, who was once a student here at Brandeis University, is now living in a new city. The title of her lecture was "Suicide: An Art."

Carol noted that many of the students who commit suicide are the "sleeper" type. She said that these are the students who seem to be doing well, but suddenly, they decide to end their lives. These students often have a great deal of stress and pressure in their lives. They may be dealing with issues such as peer pressure, academic pressure, or personal problems.

Carol emphasized the importance of recognizing the warning signs of suicide. She noted that students who are thinking about suicide may exhibit changes in behavior, such as withdrawing from friends and family, or becoming more isolated. They may also express feelings of hopelessness or worthlessness.

Carol also discussed the importance of seeking help for those who are struggling with suicidal thoughts. She noted that there are resources available on campus and in the community, such as counseling services, hotlines, and support groups. She encouraged students to reach out for help if they are feeling lost or alone.

Carol's lecture ended with a call to action. She urged students to be proactive in their efforts to prevent suicide. She encouraged them to reach out to their friends and family, to check in on each other, and to be there for one another.

Suicide is a complex issue, and it is important that we continue to have open and honest discussions about it. We must work together to create a supportive and understanding community, where no one feels isolated or alone.

HEAVY TRAFFIC
by Philip Heckett

If your girlfriend is attracted to the Wolf Disney genre of cartoon plots, "Heavy Traffic" is not the kind of animated feature you'll invite her to.

"Heavy Traffic" is one of the latest of a parade of shorts that stink away at sex, religion, and racial denigration. It is a strong New York comedy that is unremarkable. It certainly won't bore you. If you sit in for an hour, you can see it at the Chez. Complete in downtown Boston.

PAPER MOON
by Mary Chris Kennedy

"Gimme my $200," sneers Addie Pray, "I don't have your $200."

"Well - git 'im!" Adgie Pray.

If you've seen PAPER MOON you have already recognized this bit of a scene with Tutie and her father, actor Roy O'Neal. Director Peter Bogdanovich has had prior experience in making a dramatic comedy experience in making a dramatic comedy. This one is successful, clever, cleverly and relentlessly threatening. The filming was all too become at the Missouri and demanded tremendous energy from all the cast. They all succeeded - their wiry performances and hope as principles are at the root of next year's ceremony will be done on location in Missouri and BENJAMIN AND "Head" and "Man With Guitar" the films that have been in the "people" with his playing happy go-lucky with "I'll be your Dixie Girl," a scene you've seen PAPER MOON and you know it, too. It's a black-comedy cartoon.

THE RASPBERRIES

Well, the truth did slip it.

Two of these aren't 'an average, 4 kinds from each album and in general, it really isn't too good. A line outtake.

- I'M A ROCKER, LAST DANCE, and MONEY DOWN seem to indicate a shift from the 'zebra-stripe:s' syndrome that has characterized their earlier tunes. This marks the third consecutive year that the total awards for the fall exhibit have reached 30,000.

Entries for this contest will be accepted through October 15, 1973. All entries must be accompanied by the name of the entrant and the name of the library in which the book was captured. The BAA will make the final selection of the winners.

DILEMMA OF A "DUM-DUM" FRESHMAN

By Maude Silver

Opening a door doesn't make a difference, right? Wrong. It's a 'closed' world for you. You step through two doors in the Union and you go down the Union. The first two sets of doors in front of you are the doors which lead to the gym. Take these doors, you'll never go wrong. But be careful! You're opening the door to a whole new world. This happens to be 5th year when you walk through the senior class of the United States.

The celebration of the 18th annual fall exhibit of the Berkshire Museum Art Association (BAA) has been chosen for the BAA award. This marks the third consecutive year that the total awards for the fall exhibit have reached 30,000.

Entries for this contest will be accepted through October 15, 1973. All entries must be accompanied by the name of the entrant and the name of the library in which the book was captured. The BAA will make the final selection of the winners.

Opening a door doesn't make a difference, right? Wrong. If it was a bed before you opened the door. But be careful! You're opening the door to a whole new world. This happens to be 5th year when you walk through the senior class of the United States.

The celebration of the 18th annual fall exhibit of the Berkshire Museum Art Association (BAA) has been chosen for the BAA award. This marks the third consecutive year that the total awards for the fall exhibit have reached 30,000.

Entries for this contest will be accepted through October 15, 1973. All entries must be accompanied by the name of the entrant and the name of the library in which the book was captured. The BAA will make the final selection of the winners.

GOLF TEAM

The Bridgewater State College men's golf team was successful in its first match of the season by beating Stonehill College, 5-1. Low score for the Bears at the Foxboro Country Club was Bruce Handy's one over par 73. This summer Sophomore Dick McGovern suffered the sole defeat of the day. The victory was especially sweet as Bridgewater avenged its only loss of the 1973 Spring season. Handy also represented the school in a nationwide golf tournament in Southern California.

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM

Bridgewater State College unveiled its 1973 cross country team last Tuesday in Framingham and captured the title on its home course as a result of nearly 105 miles of practice in 10 days. Last year BSC had lost 38 to 19. Framingham State 1972-73.

Four freshmen led the Bears across the finish line. Peter Gregory, while giving up first place to Framingham, came across the line first for Framingham. He was followed closely by Carl Venable, Mike McCabe, and Ernie Chaves, giving BSC 2nd, 3rd, 4th, and 5th places. Chaves was the key for Framingham. He had to go out in front and blocked out four Framingham runners who were bunch right behind him. Co-captain Chuck Marotta closed out the scoring finishing 6th overall. Running Shorts: Bridgewater's first five runners all averaged better than 5:50 per mile for the 5.3 mile course. The team had worked hard for the opener, logging nearly 80 miles of practice in 10 days. Bridgewater State will not open at home until October 4.

THE NUMBER ONE KILLER

You don't mean to be. But you are. The numbers are simple. Latest available figures show that 8,000 American people between the ages of 15 and 25 died in alcohol related crashes. And almost all the drunk drivers who caused these crashes were also under 25. 1,380 died in combat. 3,420 committed suicide. 2,731 died of cancer.
