THE COMMENT
EDITORIAL

In Bridgewater
We Now Have Beer

After much delay the Backwards has finally been awarded a license to serve beer and wine. This editorial is really more of a veiled apology for the last year's editorial promising that the Student Senate would see to it that the student was given a chance to make this happen. It is enough to say that they have been concerned with other matters and that the Student Senate as a whole was officially on hold for the entire year.

This is not to say that the Student Senate was not interested in the licensing issue. The Senate has been apprised of the progress of the licensing application and has been in contact with the local authorities to make sure that the student body would have the chance to make this happen.

The Backwards has been granted and pending appropriate approval from the Board of Directors of the Backwards Neighborhood Association, the Backwards will be the only place to drink beer and wine on campus. The Senate has been apprised of the progress of the licensing application and has been in contact with the local authorities to make sure that the student body would have the chance to make this happen.

In the meantime the student body has been and will continue to be apprised of the progress of the licensing application and has been in contact with the local authorities to make sure that the student body would have the chance to make this happen.

Today

The Bar Backwards

Imagine you have staked all eight studying for an exam, and the morning has come and you find yourself in line at Great Hill. You startle through the parking lot to reach the tile tracks. You near the fence with the dreaded exams a very, very, very short, and if you are over 200, you run into Burke's Bar, which pales your eyes out, and all the studying has gone to waste because you aren't even read the fast. That instant Burke's Bar has really been opposing tall people. It matches wits with, cats, bats in plastic control, catches and hurts tall people by the back of their collars. Who has challenged by discrimination practices.

Today is the last day of the month. Feb 22,1974, all tall strange customers, define the meaning of Burke's bar, and the relief and enrollments of all tall strange tactics. There were no more running cheers of the crowds at this historic drawing. Perhaps 3 p.m., it is sleepy time to be enthusiastic about importance and to pay tribute in beer to Burke's. So, now, we won't be sitting up a bit more awake. WE SALUTE FORTHWITH BEAG.

Cafeteria Food is Lousy

For three years now I have managed to exist, and I had no idea that I, as a student, could not have a job at the cafeteria. I had to cough in the food service community. When I first became acquainted with college food, I had to convince myself that it was one avenue of college to which I would have to become accustomed to. It was one avenue of college to which I would have to become accustomed to. Now, however, I consider these students could never even adapt to this food that is served in our local cafeteria. Some time ago when my dough with the food began to get the best of me, I was told that I would not be able to take my complaints to a student food service committee. I was told "the management and the administration of the food service are the responsibility of the students. The latter shape of a committee that could not be formed on paper, but I was convinced that the trouble of students there exist such a committee, I would never have a chance to help the other students at BSC. Therefore, I will continue to make my complaints to the student affairs division of the cafeteria, which forced me time and time again to temporarily terminate my education.

THE S.G.A. LIVES!

By Nancy Dobrinsky

Five senators remained in their selected positions as a week ago Tuesday when the remainder of the S.G.A. Senate met. After a discussion of Association senators and officers resigned, but they were able to remain.

When the resignation was announced by President Randellos, who had held several meetings in the last week, the students were open to suggestions. Greg Hall informed Thursday the Task Force had met last night at Salem State College to discuss theStudent Senate issues. The meeting was attended by representatives of all the state colleges. There was an agreement to hold an S.G.A. Senate meeting on Wednesday afternoon.

Another idea being worked on was the creation of a task force under the direction of SGA President Randellos, who last night met with several students in an S.G.A. Senate meeting. The meeting was attended by representatives of all the state colleges. There was an agreement to hold an S.G.A. Senate meeting on Wednesday afternoon.

S.G.A. SUPPORT

As a student in the junior class, I must give my complete support to the actions of the members of the SGA. On Tuesday, February 19, 1974, the decision was made to deny an athlete the opportunity to compete. This is anathema to the whole idea of intercollegiate sports. It seems that the point was made to the effect that there were two other athletes in the same room as the athlete in question;

The point taken by Aidan Brown was that a complete mockery of a democratic self-government, a systematic rejection of our own government, and the feeling of College Community which we so much enjoy and want to maintain. The decision to support the position of the SGA was made by vote of the members of the SGA.

Last year I voted in the referendum which ratified the constitution of the members of Bridgewater State College. In that referendum I voted in favor of the power and responsibility of the SGA. Recently, on the night of the referendum elections last April I elected Aidan Brown and a fellow Board officer to carry out that referendum. I voted in favor of the SGA because I believe that the students of this college should have this responsibility and control. I am not in favor of any group as student government. I am in favor of the SGA only because I believe that the students who elect them should have this responsibility and control.

My reason for writing this letter is that I feel the leadership of Aidan Brown and the SGA has done all the right things. I feel that this is what the students want, and I feel that this is what they expect. We must express our opinions on this matter. The people on the Student Court are capable and qualified to serve as the judges in this case. We must not lose sight of the fact that the SGA has been supported by the students of this college. Therefore, I believe that the SGA is the proper body to determine this case.

I am once again convinced that the SGA is the proper body to determine this case. It is not an easy step to take against an intercollegiate team system. I commend the leadership of the SGA for their proper and wise determination of this case. If this determination must be carried out, I feel that the SGA has acted wisely and in the best interest of the college.

I am concerned about the future of the college and the SGA and I believe that this matter should be handled in the best interest of the college and the SGA.

RETURN OF NAME WITHHELD

I would like to express my dissatisfaction with the results that were obtained in the tryout process. This term, the Student Court was given the responsibility of determining the fate of a student who failed to meet the standards set by the SGA. I believe that this term, the Student Court did not do their job.

The problem is that students who are wrong should be handled in the same manner as those who are right. All students should be treated equally and fairly. This is what the SGA has been attempting to do. I believe that the SGA should be allowed to make their decision without interference from the Student Court.

I am convinced that the SGA is the proper body to determine this case. The Student Court is not the proper body to determine this case. The SGA has the authority and the responsibility to determine this case. I believe that the SGA has acted wisely and in the best interest of the college.

Boston Musica Viva

by Katie Moon

Musica Viva's performance under conductor Richard Pittman has the highest level of musicality and expression of any new music group I've heard. Some record company would find out about them.—David Hubel, The Philadelphia Inquirer.

This week, Wednesday, March 4, marks the beginning of the S.U. Program Committee's spring concert season with Richard Pittman conducting the series concerts with Boston Musica Viva, the best professional chamber ensemble founded in 1970. The Boston Musica Viva, under the direction of Richard Pittman, is known for its impressive performances of chamber music. Modern chamber and new works, written by American composers for Boston Musica Viva, are presented each season in all the concerts. Four concerts are presented each season at the Museum of Fine Arts, Museum of Science, Museum of Fine Arts, Museum of Fine Arts, and Museum of Fine Arts.

Richard Pittman, music director of Boston Musica Viva, holds an amazing number of accomplishments. Mr. Pittman teaches at the New England Conservatory Music and is conductor of the Chamber Orchestra and, also, conducts the contemporary orchestra in Cambridge, MA. Along with this, he has been guest conductor with the Washington National Symphony, the Koussevitzky Summer Symphony, the New York Symphony Orchestra, and the Lima Symphony Orchestra.

On the March 4th program, Boston Musica Viva will perform Cycle by Richard Orton, and new works by Joan Cheney and Charles Ives.

The WIND in the WILLOWS

The Bridgewater State College Children's Theatre production of "The Wind in the Willows" is being performed at the Center Theatre. Performances will be held on Thursday, March 7 at 8:00 PM and on Friday, March 8 at 8:00 PM. Tickets are available at the door.

A Funny Thing Happened On the Way To The Forum

Our production features some outstanding plans for makeup and costumes which should make the production's animal character truly fascinating. The cast, in order of appearance, is: Mr. Toad, Mr. Badger, Mr. Water Rat, Mr. Otter, Mr. Mole, Mr. Badger, Mr. Water Rat, Mr. Otter, Mr. Mole.

The Freight House

A new restaurant has opened on the way to the Freight House. The service is great. The atmosphere is so-o-o neat. The food is delicious. The prices are reasonable. The black and white service is fantastic. One must pay extra for a baked potato, but your salad, made yourself at the salad bar, is free, and you can have all the bread you can eat.

The story is probably familiar to many of you. It concerns the adventures of Mr. Toad, Mr. Badger, Mr. Water Rat, Mr. Otter, Mr. Mole.

THE FREIGHT HOUSE

Some restaurant has opened which may prove to be of some interest. I am talking about the Freight House in Bridgewater.

The "Freight House" is basically black and white service and New York Italian. The prices are reasonable. The black and white service is fantastic. One must pay extra for a baked potato, but your salad, made yourself at the salad bar, is free, and you can have all the bread you can eat.

The service is great. The waiter waits until he sees you put your cork in so that your steak is done just as you are finishing your salad. There is only one waiting room. I may remember: make sure you order your steak medium if you like it medium-rare, etc. because the steaks are usually slightly overdone. The waiters inform you of this anyway so don't worry about forgetting.

The Freight House is considered a children's classic. Willows is considered a children's classic. The Wind in the Willows is rapidly becoming a children's classic.

LETTERS of Support

HISTORY CLUB
Letter to Dr. Handliss

In the afternoon of February 21, 1974, a special meeting of the History Club was called to discuss the results of the S.G.A. meeting of February 19, 1974. The purpose of this meeting was to come to a decision as to what our position should be in regards to the events of February 19, 1974.

In the nature of our organization we are deeply concerned with the principles involved. The confrontation of hand is not one of the course of mankind's attempt to take man. Thus is simply a continuing example of a classic struggle between divergent power bases. Also in conflict is a more important issue of a people's right to have a fair and equal representation. It is precisely for these reasons that constitutions are learned and are a necessity as a basis for legally settling disputes between divergent interest groups, and when a people's rights promised in that constitution are violated.

After lengthy discussion and open expression of opinions and concerns, the members of our club voted to offer our written, moral, and monetary support to the newly formed Task Force and also to the remaining S.G.A. members. Therefore, we are writing this letter in support of your actions and your best conception of student government. It is our hope that to ignore our position will detract from the fundamental principles of government in our governmental system of our governmental laws.

Sincerely yours, HISTORY CLUB Executive Board and Members

FRESHMAN CLASS
February 28, 1974
Doctor Arthur Handliss
Dear Sir,

We are writing in regards to the action taken by the Student Government Association during their meeting of February 19, 1974. In our opinion, it is not in agreement with our desire for social change regarding the voting-privileges of the students and students' constitutional rights. We feel that the Task Force is a step in the right direction. However, we cannot see that resignation was the best course of action to be taken in our hope that the only feasible solution be reached is even possible, to us in the current situation.

Sincerely yours.

NEWMAN CLUB
February 21, 1974
Dear Dr. Handliss,

As a recognized organization on this Bridgewater campus, we are concerned with the recent resolutions at most of our S.G.A. sessions. We wish to make it clear that we support the beliefs and demands of our Student Government, which are:
1. The right of the S.G.A. and only the S.G.A. to appoint student members of college committees.
2. The authority of the Student Government in its dealings with other student organizations.
3. The right of the S.G.A. and only the S.G.A. to appoint student members of college committees.

In accepting the resignation for our Student representatives, it is our belief that they cannot remain in office. As you are well aware, the fact that differences could not be reconciled without means resignation. However in the fact that in our duty we are neither siding with the Administration nor turning our backs on the Student Government Association, we would like to make it clear that by accepting the resignation for our Student representatives, it is not right for us to abandon our current position concerning the rights of the students.

Respectfully,

Resignation of February 19, 1974

Dr. Handliss
Dear Dr. Handliss

We as the remaining five duly elected representatives of the Student Government Association, are submitting this letter to you to clarify our position regarding the recent resolutions of the majority of the members of the S.G.A.

Like those who chose to resign, we have recognize the fact that the S.G.A. Constitution has been violated. On this point, all members of the Student Government, both presently in office and those who have left, are in agreement. The only disagreement within the Senate was in the resolution of this problem. Some chose to resign others chose to remain.

Although we have decided to retain our elected positions, we would like to make it clear that we are neither siding with the Administration nor turning our backs on the Student Government. We would like to maintain our presence in the Student Government Association. We believe the constitution are violated. On this point, all members of the Student Government Association are in agreement. We have agreed that elections will not be held until this crisis has been resolved. However, we are unable to initiate any actions ourselves for, according to our constitution, our hands are tied.

It should be noted that a vast number of our constituents have requested that elections not be held until the problem presently under consideration is reviewed by the Board of Trustees. After much deliberation we have agreed that elections will not be held until the crisis has been resolved.

Respectfully,

John E. Shannon (Treasurer)

Mary Glenn (Secretary)

Paul S. Ribbles (Treasurer)

Mike Urquhart (Treasurer)

Dr. Rondeau:

Is it your intention to paralyze the "College Community" by refusing to acknowledge the fundamental rights and responsibilities of the Student Government Association?

What is your decision on the future of student governance?

In President Rondileau's six-page resolution of apple-pie, motherhood, and the girl he left behind, he unfortunately misunderstands several points concerning the issues involved with the SGA's action. I would like to clearly these misunderstanding where it seems to me that many, reading his discussion, would ensure that it explains away the problem.

President Rondileau starts off by stating that he has consistently followed "proper principles for effective college life and governance." Other than the simple fact that it is doubtful that heever heard of the proper principle of the "students or otherwise."

missets that state nor for that advice and consent of the SGA and the Board of Governors shall decide if this bill before the legislative body which is going to utter the money to be used for officials and classrooms. Further, any student or family group was asked if this would be something to be done or necessary. This is consistent with this principle that the Senate is not to be hived from the control of the college community acceptance of these principles. In principle one President Rondileau tells us "there must be a fair and reasonable balance of power in any college governing bodies." The SGA represents all the different student segments while these "other student governing bodies" represent only a fraction of the students. It is more reasonable to assume that they impinge upon the constitution of all the students.

President Rondileau further states that "some have always been various misconceptions in which the student representation, in part or entirely, has been determined not by the SGA but by other student governing bodies and organizations..." He further gives two examples:

1. The Athletic Fee Committee, to which all has always included the President of WRA and MAA, and members of the Senate, thus the establishment of this body and these bodies the SGA has been seen to be interpreted in favor of the students. There is a clear misconception in this effect power in 1971.

2. The Co-curricular Committee, to which all has always included Senior Class Officers. Right again this committee was one of the SGA Executive Committee made up of all the Senior Class Officers. Therefore the SGA allowed the claus to run convention without its supervision.

Therefore his argument that the SGA's claim would negate the right of the WRA, MAA, and Senior Class Officers in this Committee is unfounded since the SGA's constitution clearly so is seen that that clearly to which the Senate should be done representation.

In Principle II he assumes that a student should not participate in student affairs by reading the minutes of various student groups. He has never seen the students right to any student body ever attending this school students this right to either in the laws of the Commonwealth as any State Constitution. He also, unfortunately, has misconstrued the issues involved; the issue raised by the President into student affairs are not issues of conflict between student groups but in issues between the SGA and President I would like to see new the Senate, and the right given to them by the students or otherwise.

He states in "Under Current Resolution" that there are presently several student governing bodies inside the jurisdiction of the SGA, specifically the Deans, WRA, MAA and the Board of Governors. It is true that the Student Senate Board of Governors is not under SGA since it is an AIA College committee such that the Undergraduate Curriculum Committee with its specific functions.

Therefore the SGA's claim does not nullify all student groups' claim to representation. It is the duty of the Senate to see that the Senate's views are heard. Further the Senate can always have recourse to change a decision of the SGA by several Constitutional methods and also by talking to their representatives or attending meetings. This is necessarily true with the President's decisions as to what the Senate is thinking. Thus this is an already long-winded article, I will refrain from commenting about parts and President Rondileau's letter for next week, I will however, discuss in part 3 it currently covers the part of the SGA constitution which in ignorance—that is the right of the SGA President in the student members in all college committees with the advice and consent of the SGA Senate. If I state that this clarification shows up any misconception which either President Rondileau or either fellow colleague is correct with the College Community may have concerning the issues of Student Governance.

Sincerely,

A member of the Task Force
Ah, the intangible treasure of experience!

I've been slowly returning, and memories of castles in the sand, ropes and sagging facades cheering in the gym. Sandcastles rebuilt and tides. It's all gone in it.

But I had to hustle is a challenge and "hustle" is a way of life for the. LB. Birch (an only he admired for even going out for the team. It's still an uphill push for the hockey team, but talk to any of them. There's no division or conference, no benchmark or reference point that can measure the tremendous athletic reaps after this last season... and isn't that still all the old songs here after the tide (has) washed away (their) reason.

So, the end means near. The sandcastles around here are scheduled for final exit at honor (as weekend at the basketball, hockey, and tennis teams ring up) for the '73-'74 season. The swim team's last big splash will come Friday night as they tie (a) record of 7-1-0, which helped the Bears regain momentum at the half. It has been going through the (nine) point (us) championship at the half. The Bears have won nine of their ten league games so far this season.

As Tommy Combs would explode for hauling (45) points in (a) victory over SMU, Walt Driscoll was all scoring for Bridgewater in the (93-79) game. The Bears have won nine of their ten league games so far this season.

"Hustle" was soon to (a) record of 7-1-0, which helped the Bears regain momentum at the half. It has been going through the (nine) point (us) championship at the half. The Bears have won nine of their ten league games so far this season.
PRENDI SHRUGS OFF “FIZZIE” LABEL

by Cathy Prendergast

I'll be the first to admit that when I took the helm of Bridgewater, you learned that I was the first female athletic director major conference schools had in that area. That was three years ago. And, I'll be the first to admit that in three years since I took the helm of Bridgewater, things have been nothing but disappointing. I've had to deal with a lot of negative publicity, and it's been a long, lonely road. But now it's time to put all that behind me, and focus on the future. I'm ready to prove that I can do the job and lead Bridgewater to success.

HUSTLING... — Cathy Prendergast

From the newspaper that day, Cathy couldn't be so prepared. Exactly what got her motivated to participate in sports? She felt that she enjoyed them in P.E. actively, but was not so interested in other sports.

Now, as a senior in college, she was more interested in sports, and in particular basketball. She said, "I really enjoy playing basketball, and I think it's very important. It helps me to stay in shape and improve my skills." She also mentioned gathering more formal feedback on her participation in sports, and discussing her feelings about the experience of being on an organized team. Cathy's experience with basketball has been both challenging and rewarding. She said, "I've made some decisions, and I've learned that I really need to make more decisions in the future." Cathie's growth in high school was significant.

The women's basketball team took on Central Connecticut, Northern State, and Southern Connecticut last week. Although they were successful in the first two games, they had a tough loss in the third game. The Huskies proved to be a formidable opponent, as they outscored the Bears in all three games, winning by an average of 12 points. Nevertheless, Cathy Prendiger, the captain of the varsity team, said, "We lost the last game, but we're not giving up. We're going to keep working hard and be ready for the next game." Cathy's team has shown great resilience and determination throughout the season, and they have a strong chance of making it to the national tournament.

Helps Bears to 11-2 Route Over M.L.T.

Cambridge: After weathering a difficult season, the Hauser women's volleyball team returned Tuesday night to face MIT 10-6 at the MIT gymnasium. The Bears proved to be too much for the Oklahomans, as they won in three straight sets. The women's basketball team is only 3-3 right now, but Cathy Prendergast is confident in her team and believes they can turn things around. She said, "We have a young team, but we're working hard to improve our skills and win some games. We're looking forward to the next game and are ready to prove ourselves."

For the varsity team, the season was not as successful. Bridgewater lost 8 of its 19 games in preparation for the tournament. However, Cathy Prendergast believed the Bears have potential and that they can make a statement in the tournament. She said, "We're excited to be here and ready to make some noise in the tournament." The Bears are currently ranked fifth in the nation, and they hope to prove their worth against the top teams in the region.

McKee's 100th Career Goal

Cathy Prendergast is a key player on the Bears' roster, and her 100th career goal is a significant accomplishment. She has shown great determination and skill throughout her career, and this milestone is a testament to her hard work and dedication. HOME FINALE FRIDAY NIGHT

SIX SWIM TEAM RECORDS SHATTERED

By Tom Perry

When a team shatters six standing varsity records, nale down a win or tie and enters the overflow home crowd with their best track performance of the season you might expect them to drown themselves in uncontrolled jubilation and victory. However, Saturday afternoon at the Kelly Gym Pool that wasn’t the case at all. The jubilation and victory would be Central Pennsylvania, while the records, the first places and the sporting performances were all’s but they all fell short of Central.

All those achievements are really more commendation than one might suspect because Central Pennsylvania is one of BC’s tallest opponents of the season. They lined up to win our state meet at River Forest.

The afternoon’s excitement began in the 200 yard freestyle as team captain Barry Parenteau out of Reading managed the first BC record of the afternoon with a time of 1:30.8 in that event to secure first place. Then, after River Forest won for a second in the 18 yard freestyle, freshness Mike Anderson re-recorded his record in the 200 individual medley with 2:53.4 for another Bridgewater first place.

Bridgewater’s star Dan Benjamin who so frequently captures the first places for the afternoon, matched up his the time required among comparable teams.

WASHINGTON’S BIRTHDAY AND RUNNING IN D.C.

by Chuck Marofle

"The funny folks were at it again. They opened the squirrel cage again yesterday, and waaaaaaw, what a lovely bunch of creatures it was competing in the annual Washington’s Birthday Marathon." So read the sports page of the Baltimore Evening Sun the day after the race.

Four runners from B.C. were also there at Washington, D.C. to run the marathon. Mike "Frog" McCabe, Steve "Kangaroo" Karr, Bob "Walking Link" Flunes, and myself, nicknamed "Grizzly." The day of the race was sunny and windless. After the first mile I thought it was perfect weather for a marathon. There were quite a few people, though, who ran in the rain with their overcoats or blankets, saying how nice it must have been in more southerly climes. The afternoon’s excitement was too good for the Barons, for they made their "moral" finish in their final home meet this Friday. When the bronze Bears who finished first place for Central, Barry Parenteau managed the first place in the 200 yard freestyle; Central’s toughest opponent at the minutes standing the Barons ranked the Bears easily within the top six in New England and probably in the top ten in the nation.

GRABBLERS CELEBRATE

By George F. Sutherland Jr.

Recently the wrestling team held a party to celebrate their perfect season of wins and four/losses. The party was held at the team manager’s house consisting of food, beer and awards. Outgoing Captain Frye was honored with a plaque specifically giving him the credit for the leadership they gave the team.

The team’s chief skipper, Steve Karr, had his first record in dual meets. He is a likable young man who should be able to lead the leadership the team needs for next year. His uncontrolled election is a good indication of the respect that he receives.

Next year the team will play five more matches against teams like B.C. Yale, Harvard and Penn State. The rivalry between B.C. and Mass. continues. The rivalry between B.C. and Mass.

Maritime stands at one win, and one loss. It is a rivalry that should be very interesting to watch in the future.

Chuck Marofle said "Wrestling is one sport that appeals to the intellect. It is intelligence out fought by an athlete that prevails in a match." These players are apt to become some of the finest wrestlers in the near future. If you like strategy and plain wrestling, this is the sport for you. Maritime stands at one win, and one loss. It is a rivalry that should be very interesting to watch in the future.
