This is what Yahweh asks of you:
only this, to act justly,
to love tenderly,
and to walk humbly with your God.
Micah 6:8

In this season of simplicity and joy
let me express my gratitude for your presence and my prayer for your peace
at Christmas.

God bless,

Jean St. Andre

New Copy Center to be established at BSC

A copy center is being established for the students at BSC. The Center, which is in the Student Union, will be available to the students on Monday through Friday from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm.

The location of the copying machine will be in the storage room across from the snack bar. Multiple copies will be available to every student, and the price is a ten cent per copy.

It will be a walk in service and shall also supply more job opportunities for students. The other press shall also be located there for people who wish to purchase the paper.

Students Going Bald

NASHI, N.Y. — An unknown number of Bridgewater State College students have been affected by a mysterious skin ailment which is being called "AGGLE."

According to a source at the admissions office, the "AGGLE" is a condition characterized by balding, loss of hair, and skin rash. The condition is believed to be caused by a fungus that is spread by close contact with infected students. As of yet, there is no known cure for the condition.

Christmas is ...

Christmas...truly a special time of year for almost everyone—and to everyone the emotions it provokes are unique, the memories it stirs different.

Christmas is...

Sharing love with friends, braving the storm to find that "special" tree, picking out the runt of the litter but transforming it into something beautiful, Christmas is catching the first snowfall, watching the faces of kids sitting on the laps of a hundred Santas from Bridgewater to Boston, Christmas is window shopping in Boston, watching Frosty the Snowman and Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer on television, listening to Little Drummer Boy by the Mormon Tabernacle Choir and picking out that "special" gift for someone you love. Christmas is hanging tinsel, the warm greetings of strangers, eggnog and Christmas cookies. Christmas is opening presents on the night before with someone you care for, having the family come home for the holidays, a cold nose and a warm heart. Christmas is a warm fire and frost on the windows, a piece of cake for Santa and carrots for Rudolph on a plate near the tree, a home-made stocking and a time for reflection. Christmas is carols sung the night before, thoughts of the Christ child and having a snowball fight. Christmas is toasting with friends, finding just what you want under the tree and making "angels" with your arms in the snow.

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

1979 Horror - Scope

Since 1795 we've gathered our Blue Magueys for Cuervo Gold the gentle way. It's the old way. And still the best.

At Cuervo we know that there is only one way to make Cuervo Gold perfect. The way we've been doing it for more than 180 years.

That's why people still savor our fields of Blue Maguey plants. And why nulas are still used to bring these precious plants to the distillery. For tradition is still the most important ingredient in Cuervo Gold.

This is what makes Cuervol Gold truly special. Next, on the roche, with a splash of soda, in a perfect Suavita or Margarita, Cuervo Gold will bring you back to a time when quality ruled the world.

Cuervo. The Gold standard since 1795.

Job Opportunities

Wrentham State School

At the present time, Wrentham State School would like to offer the possibility of Part-Time Employment to interested students.

Wrentham State School is a school by approximately 1,000 mentally retarded children and adults and approximately 2,000 personnel.

Presently direct care positions are available. Providing care to individual and group living arrangements, the safety and health needs of our residents will be a major responsibility. Positions are available for the following shifts: 8:00 A.M. to 12:30 P.M., 12:30 P.M. to 4:30 P.M., and 4:30 P.M. to 11:30 P.M.

Applicants should have a basic knowledge of mental retardation and an understanding of the needs of mentally retarded individuals.

If interested, please contact the School for an application.

Christmas is... Sharing love with friends, braving the storm to find that “special” tree, picking out the run of the litter but transforming that tree into something beautiful; Christmas is, indeed, a contemporary. It is a celebration of people, of love, of hope, of a new beginning. It is a time to give and be given. It is a time to be with family and friends. It is a time to be free from the worries of the world and to live in the moment. It is a time to share the gift of love and joy with those we love. Christmas is...a time of warmth, of happiness, of peace. It is a time to be with family and friends. It is a time to be free from the worries of the world and to live in the moment. But it doesn't matter. If you ask me, Christmas is the most overrated holiday of the year. It's a time when we all get trapped in the glib, bland, impersonal aspects of modern life.

As a Christian, I believe that Christmas is a time to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ. But what I see is not the birth of Christ, but rather the birth of consumerism. It's a time when people go in debt to buy gifts for others, only to realize that what they bought doesn't mean anything to the person they bought it for.

I hate Christmas. I hate it for a lot of reasons. Mostly because of what it represents. A time when people are forced to be happy, even if they don't want to be.

The Mother Box

Bazz, Humbug!

by Bob Brickey

We're hearing you, you know? That this week was supposed to be some sort of holiday pickup for the box office. It isn't, it isn't some sort of holiday. It's something else altogether. Beginning with the London Symphony Orchestra's epic "Days of Future Passed," (done with fitting the Yes format), and ending with 'excellent version of Christmas carols, "Let Our Gladness Know the World."' We're told that for the first time in a very long time, audiences just don't take to massive doses of new material. They played "Time Waits for No Man" from the album "Seventh Sojourn," released in 1972. Since then, they've been asked to let their fans "see them." Monday, December 8th at 8 pm. The Moody Blues Give a Christmas Suite. Admission is free and tickets are welcome!

Attend Tonight's Madrigal Feast

The Creative Dance Group assisted by students from dance classes will give its fourth annual Christmas Processional of dance, song, banners, bagpipes, bells and students from dance classes will give its fourth annual Christmas Processional of dance, song, banners, bagpipes, bells at the Surprise Community Center. Come enjoy the unique entertainment for the whole family. The concert will feature the Surprise Community Center’s Madrigal Feast, Medieval music and the St. John’s Players. Enjoy an immersive experience with Christmas music, dance, storytelling, and medieval culture. The concert is free and open to the public.

Jubilate to Perform on Sunday

The annual Winter Concert of the Jubilate Choir will be held at 8 p.m. on Sunday, December 21, in the Surprise Community Center Auditorium. The Winter Concert is one of the highlights of the second season of the Jubilate Choir, a group of students from a variety of high schools in the Surprise area. The program will open with three traditional Christmas carols: "Hodie Christus Nata Sat," "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel," and "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear." The audience will be invited to sing along to the carols. The program will also feature a variety of student vocalists, soloists, and instrumentalists. The concert is free and open to the public.

Christmas Concert is Tomorrow Night

This Saturday! The immortal Christmas Carol is being presented by the Surprise Community Center. The concert will feature a variety of Christmas carols, including "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel," "Hark the Herald Angels Sing," and "Silent Night." The concert is free and open to the public.

Moody Blues Give Excellent Live Performance

The Moody Blues concert was a hit! They played a circuit of "big hits" from their albums, including "Nights in White Satin," "Flair," and "Legend of a Mind." The band lost their balance while performing "Ride My See-saw," but that didn't stop the audience from enjoying the concert. They performed most of their Threshold of a Dream material, and surprisingly effective drumming throughout, and Ray Thomas sang his famous falsetto. For the last encore, the group was rushing through the "Big Chill" and "Psychotic Reaction," but thanks to Moraz and his keyboard skills, they were able to finish the show. The audience was impressed by the band's performance, and they left the concert feeling they had received their money's worth.

"Christmas Carol" is Saturday!

1978-79 BSC Wrestling Team

Wrestlers Second in Meet

The Bridgewater State University's wrestling team opened their season with an impressive start. After a 1-1-0 start to the season, they won both their meet against New Hampshire and Maine last week. The Bears are now in second place in the New England Division of the M.A.S.C.A. Conference behind Amherst College. They have a chance to move up with their performance in the Paul Bunyan Classic where they will take on conference rivals Fitchburg State and Salem State.

Powers, Ogilvie on Star Team

BSC's cross-country team has had a great start to the season. Powers and Ogilvie have been standout performers.

Women's Swim Team Ties Cross

The Bridgewater State University's women's swim team tied Holy Cross College on Wednesday night. The Bears have had a strong season so far, winning three of their six meets.

Squad head coach John Kauffman has been pleased with the team's performance. He said, "The squad has really been working hard and it's paying off. The meet against Holy Cross was a tough one, but we came out on top. The team is looking good and we're excited for the remainder of the season."
