Pool Sets Spring Schedule

Vol. LII No 6

Bridgewater State College
March 29, 1979

Calendar

by Sue Avril

A meeting was held Tuesday March 27th in the library. The Academic Policy Subcommittee met to discuss the proposed schedule for the spring semester.

As a result of recent collective bargaining among the librarians, a figure of 360 days (excluding summer) was arrived at for the school year at B.S.C. The present calendar includes about 146 teaching weeks.

Dean President of Administration and Finance Churchill had a proposed calendar for an equal division of the sessions (90 days) for the committee's review. According to the calendar, final exams for the first semester would be taken after the Christmas holiday, and the second semester would begin January 16th. Spring break would be held from March 17th through March 22nd. Classes would end on May 18th and final exams would be held May 19th through May 23rd. This would account for the

Rock at 25

Part VII: 1975-1978

Introduction by J. McDowell

Rock at 25 will be known as the "year of the groundbreaking," the year that gave us The Rolling Stones, Led Zeppelin, The Who, Queen, and Aerosmith. Artists like the "Blue" Bruce Springsteen, Dire Straits, the Grateful Dead, and Bob Dylan began making money and he was able to buy a house in New Jersey. The Grateful Dead turned into a major force on the road and they would eventually play in front of hundreds of thousands of fans. The Eagles released their first album and became one of the biggest bands of the decade. The Eagles would go on to sell millions of copies worldwide and they would eventually become one of the most successful bands of all time. The Eagles would release their first album in 1972 and it would eventually go on to sell over 20 million copies worldwide.

Program Committee:
“Sleeping Beauty” Is in Boston

by J. McDonald

Psst! There is a secret society known as the “sleeper group” that meets in the early hours of the morning. The members are known to be those who have never heard of the great American composer and conductor, Thomas Waller. This was the first time the secret society had been revealed to the public.

Waller was born in 1904, in Greenwich Village, New York City. He began his professional career as organist at the church organ. He studied classical piano and played the church organ. He was one of the most prolific composers of his time, and his music has been performed in concerts around the world. He was also a great pianist, and his music has been performed at the highest level in many countries.

In 1920, he met his mentor, the great American documentary photographer, J. McDaid. For more information, please call Shawn McGivern or the Contact Information and Reservations Department at 620-1220, ext. 244.

The Family Performance Center will be presented; April 6, Trent Arterberry and Studebaker present.

April 4--Barbara Mettler Creative Dance Company

April 5-8--Boston State College Choral Festival. Over 250 singers are expected to participate in the afternoon of activities planned, including BSC students, faculty, and alumni.

April 17--Solemn Vespers Chorus and Orchestra, 8:00 p.m. in the Student Union Auditorium. Sponsored by BSC Student Union Board of Governors and Program Committee.

May 2--The State College Choral Festival. A large number of people have come to Tusco from across the United States to participate in the annual State College Choral Festival. The Festival is an opportunity for many years as well as a member of the State College Choral Society’s Women’s Chorus.

July 1--The State College Choral Festival. A large number of people have gone to Tusco in recent weeks for an extended period of time, with great discussion and enjoyment.

The highlight of the show occurred in the second act with Ben Harvey slithering snakelike across the stage to the audience’s attention. The audience was amazed by the performance. The audience’s energy was increased by Fats Waller. A man of gargantuan appetites, his piano, on a track, played by Thomas Waller, was born in Harlem. His parents were reared in Harlem. He was the Devil’s music.
