"Most hyperactive children are of normal intelligence and normal ability and have no neuro-motor problems, just a large amount of energy which needs to be released. By James Gilbert when he addressed Bridgewater State College's Children's Developmental Clinic.

Dr. Gilbert spoke on the subject of 'Developmental and Educational Approaches to Hyperactive Children.' He also defined hyperactivity as being a distinct syndrome that affects children and adolescent children."
Benjamin Franklin once observed that "knowledge is power." This sentiment rings true in the context of education. The ability to question, analyze, and critically think is a powerful tool. For students, this means being able to ask challenging questions and engage in meaningful discussions. It is through this process that students not only gain knowledge but also develop a deeper understanding of the world around them.

However, this does not come without challenges. Students often face hurdles in their pursuit of knowledge. For example, the process of learning can be overwhelming, and students may feel discouraged by their inability to grasp complex ideas. Additionally, the pressure to perform well can be intense, leading to stress and anxiety. Despite these challenges, it is crucial for students to persevere and continue to seek knowledge.

The Comment, a student-run newspaper, serves as a platform for students to express their thoughts and opinions. It provides a space for discussion and debate, allowing students to engage in meaningful conversations and exchange ideas. As such, the Comment is a vital component of the educational experience, fostering a culture of critical thinking and open-mindedness.

In conclusion, the ability to learn and question is essential for personal and societal growth. Students must be encouraged to embrace challenges and seek knowledge, even when it is difficult. By doing so, they not only gain valuable insights but also contribute to a broader understanding of the world. The Comment, as a platform for student voices, plays a crucial role in this process, providing a space for open dialogue and intellectual exploration.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

I am writing to express my concern about the recent decision to cut the budget for the student newspaper. As a student, I believe that the newspaper is an important resource for keeping the student body informed about campus events and issues. I urge the administration to reconsider this decision and find ways to support the newspaper.

NEW TRENDS IN FEDERAL EMPLOYMENT

I, along with many of you, am familiar with the role of the Federal Government in our lives and the employment opportunities that it provides. Some common employment opportunities include clerical work, administrative work, scientific research, and technical work. However, the Federal Government is also involved in a variety of other areas, such as education, health care, and environmental protection.

There are several new trends in Federal employment that are worth noting. One of these trends is the growing use of technology in many Federal jobs. This includes the use of computers, the Internet, and other forms of electronic communication. Another trend is the increasing emphasis on diversity and inclusion in the workplace.

For instance, the Federal Government is working to ensure that its workforce is more diverse and inclusive. This includes efforts to hire more women, people of color, and individuals with disabilities. The Government is also working to create a more inclusive workplace culture, where all employees feel valued and respected.

In addition to these trends, the Federal Government is also making efforts to improve the job satisfaction of its employees. This includes providing better training and development opportunities, as well as creating a more supportive and flexible work environment.

If you are interested in pursuing a career in Federal employment, there are several resources available to help you. The Federal Government has a website that provides information on job openings, qualifications, and application procedures. You can also find information on Federal employment from various career counselors, employment agencies, and professional organizations.

In conclusion, Federal employment offers a wide range of opportunities for those interested in pursuing a career in government service. With the increasing emphasis on diversity and inclusion, the growing use of technology, and efforts to improve job satisfaction, the Federal Government is a dynamic and exciting place to work.

Outraged and Dismayed!

Dear Editor:

I am both outraged and dismayed by the statement that the SGA has chosen to disregard the language. I believe that the SGA's decision to disregard the language is a significant misstep in its efforts to promote the well-being of students.

Discipline is a necessary component of the SGA's mission, and it is imperative that the SGA provide a clear and consistent framework for addressing disciplinary issues. The SGA's failure to address the language in a timely and appropriate manner undermines its credibility and effectiveness.

Furthermore, the SGA's actions regarding the language demonstrate a lack of respect for the rights and freedoms of students. The SGA's failure to address the language in a timely and appropriate manner undermines its credibility and effectiveness.

I urge the SGA to take immediate action to address the language and to provide a clear and consistent framework for addressing disciplinary issues. Only through a commitment to the principles of fairness and justice can the SGA demonstrate its commitment to the well-being of students.

Outraged and Dismayed

Dear Editor,

I am both outraged and dismayed by the fact that the student body has chosen to live in a daydream, a daydream of the language of the school. I think that was the real hidden agenda of the students. Instead of expressing the very real threats and problems that they want, they have chosen instead to advocate for language issues. They have chosen to stay silent on the real issues that affect their education. They have chosen not to fight for the things that are truly important, such as a better administration and a better budget. These are the real issues that need to be addressed.

NATIONAL MUSIC MUSE OVER
The recent M.O.J.O. concert by the M.O.J.O. House at the Madison Square Garden was a huge success, with the crowd of more than 20,000 people enjoying the music of the world-renowned blues band. The band played a mix of classic and modern blues tunes, including hits like "Sweet Home Chicago" and "I Can't Let Go." The energy was electric, and the crowd was cheering and dancing throughout the performance. The M.O.J.O. House is known for their high-quality sound and excellent production, and this concert was no exception. The band's musicianship was top-notch, and they performed with great passion and skill.

MIT Student Life in MUSE OVER

The recent MUSE lecture series at the Nuclear Physics in the Madison Square Garden and the Museum of Non-Existent Things was a huge success. The lectures featured renowned physicists discussing fields ranging from quantum mechanics to string theory, attracting audiences of 500 to 700, with an additional 250 watching via simulcast in various venues around the city. The lectures were followed by a Q&A session, with topics ranging from the origins of the universe to the implications of quantum entanglement. Many attendees reported feeling inspired and excited by the cutting-edge research being presented.

Bears Beat Plymouth State

The Comment October 25, 1979

Bears Beat Saturdays New England Conference yard-line. Facing a strong wind, punter Dave Hickey's kick went State Panthers had great field Seconds later, Flynn scored from Plymouths fine down by safety Mike Rogers. BSC Bears, behind a great performance by fullback John Hooper rallied in the second half to defeat Plymouth State University. The Bears capitalized on turnovers and strong defensive play to secure the win.

The Comment October 25, 1979

Plymouth State off the board as he made the score 7-0 at 10:41 of the 1st quarter. Later in the quarter the Bears took the opening kickoff but were held at their own 20, Bob Lee ran 22 yards. On the very next play, John Hooper led the way as he was all over the place.

Early in the fourth quarter Plymouth State traversed the field, but the Bears defense held firm. The Bears took the ball at their own territory and forced a punt. The Bears then took over on the 36 yard line. Hooper was again on the move and the recovery was made by Tony Costello.

Plymouth State was forced to punt in the 2nd half and the Bears offense took over. From there, Hooper scored a touchdown. The Bears took a 14-0 lead at 9:56 of the 3rd quarter.

On the next series of downs, the Bears drove down field and were able to score another touchdown. After a short gain, Mike Shaver got tackled and went out of bounds at the 32 yard line. A penalty and another tackle on the Bears forced the punt. The Bears were again going for it on fourth down.

Following some great blocking, Hooper scored his second touchdown and kicked his 3rd point after to up the score to 21-0.

On a 4th and one situation Mike Rogers' big stop turned the ball over to Plymouth State. This led to a score, but the Bears defense held the Panthers deep in their own territory and forced a punt again as Jeff Hawkins and Dan Owens to make the final score as Tom Graving passed 3 times to move the football until with just 3:18 left, Tony Costello named the ball at the 5 yard line. The Bears took only two plays to score as Hooper ran to the four, and tailback Jim Hachey scored off the right side of the line. The Bears take the win over Plymouth State.

In the fourth quarter Plymouth State traversed the field, but were denied by the Bears defense.

Plymouth State was forced to punt in the 2nd half and the Bears offense took over. From there, Hooper scored a touchdown. The Bears took a 14-0 lead at 9:56 of the 3rd quarter.

On the next series of downs, the Bears drove down field and were able to score another touchdown. After a short gain, Mike Shaver got tackled and went out of bounds at the 32 yard line. A penalty and another tackle on the Bears forced the punt. The Bears were again going for it on fourth down.

Following some great blocking, Hooper scored his second touchdown and kicked his 3rd point after to up the score to 21-0.

On a 4th and one situation Mike Rogers' big stop turned the ball over to Plymouth State. This led to a score, but the Bears defense held the Panthers deep in their own territory and forced a punt again as Jeff Hawkins and Dan Owens to make the final score as Tom Graving passed 3 times to move the football until with just 3:18 left, Tony Costello named the ball at the 5 yard line. The Bears took only two plays to score as Hooper ran to the four, and tailback Jim Hachey scored off the right side of the line. The Bears take the win over Plymouth State.

In the fourth quarter Plymouth State traversed the field, but were denied by the Bears defense.

Bears Beat Plymouth State

By Tony Connolly

Despite a 120-point lead with only two outs of the second inning, the BSC Bears, behind a great performance by third baseman Alan Roper, rallied to score a series of runs in the second inning. The Bears then went on to win the game, 10-0.

The Bears took the opening kickoff but were held at their own 30-yard line. They soon moved to the 25-yard line, where the Bears' quarterback, Bob Lofgren, passed the ball to his teammate, Ed McGill, who ran it in for a touchdown.

Bridgewater State's Cross Country squad ran their record to 7-1 as they easily defeated Eastern Nazarene. "Guido" DeGeralamo who finished second in the race, said, "We're really enjoying working with this group, and we think that our potential is unlimited." The Bears' next two finishers, Bridgewater's Lofgren, who finished fifth, and Eastern Nazarene's McGill, who finished fourth, were pleased with the race. They noted, "The race was easier than we anticipated, and we're happy with our times.

On Sunday night, the Bears hosted the Massachusetts Maritime Academy, and the Bears won, 10-1. "Coach Laverty really enjoyed working with this group, and we think that our potential is unlimited," the Bears' mentor stated. "They're a strange bunch of kids, who simply cannot be matched."

Professor Visits China

In March of 1979, Ms. Thérèse Taché was invited to China as a guest speaker at the Chinese University in Shanghai. She was asked to give a talk on the role of women in society and the importance of higher education. Ms. Taché delivered an engaging and informative presentation, which was well-received by the students. She talked about her experiences as a professor and a researcher in the United States, and her insights into the challenges faced by women in the academic world.

Ms. Taché also visited other parts of China, including Beijing, where she met with Chinese scholars and researchers. She was impressed by the country's rapid economic development and its commitment to higher education. Ms. Taché's visit to China was a valuable opportunity to learn about the country's culture and its educational system.
