Proposed

By Sue Anh
A proposal has been made to the Department of Public Utilities in Boston recently by the administration of Bridgewater State College to bring public transportation to Bridgewater. The Borders Union of Bridgewater, Massachusetts, has authorized a petition offering this service which would begin in the fall of 1980.

There are over sixty commuters from New Bedford and there are also many dorm students who would benefit from such a service as it would allow them more opportunities to meet fellow students and increase the chances of running into each other. Presently, there are over sixty commuters from New Bedford alone. To the College Community,

I would like to take this time to clarify any misconceptions my colleagues and I had with the response to our letter. My colleague and I were referring specifically to Kathleen Lingren’s letter in the April Newsletter.

Seniors Challenge Early Removal

Dear Editor,

We, the undersigned seniors, feel the administration has been unreasonable in its attempt to remove the Senior Dinner Dance from May 23 to May 20. This situation has caused great inconvenience for us; we have been told that the "dates are fixed" and we must comply. This has, and will continue to cause a great hardship for us, and we feel the administration has not given us adequate compensation for this inconvenience. We feel that we must fight for our rights, and the Senior Dinner Dance will be held on May 20.

Sincerely,

Michael McEachern

Disappointed With Response

To the College Community,

I would like to take this time to clear up any misconceptions my colleagues and I entertained in response to the Board of Trustees' January 26, 1980, announcement of the change in the financial aid policy of the College.

We are particularly concerned with the thrust of your announcement that the College will no longer participate in the Federal Work-Study Program.

Our concern is not with the necessity of the elimination of this program, nor with the inconsistency of ending a program, but rather with your failure to inform us of the change that has been made.

We would like to stress that we have not had an opportunity to discuss this matter with the College. We know that the Trustees have thought carefully about the decision, but we feel that we, as faculty, should have been consulted about the matter.

We, the members of the College Faculty, believe that this course of action is not in the best interests of the College. We hope that it will be reconsidered.

Yours sincerely,

Moving Boston Rockers

The Boston area has become a favorite staging ground for up-and-coming rock bands. Two bands in particular, The Fools and the Chartbusters, have been making waves in the area in recent months. The Fools, led by the sibling team of John and Mary Jane, have been selling out shows in the Boston area since the release of their debut album. The Chartbusters, fronted by the extraordinary vocal talents of Paul and Patty Van Ness, have been causing a stir with their unique and dynamic sound. Their latest single, "Psycho Chicken" has been climbing the charts, putting them in the spotlight. Both bands are considered the elite of the area groups but other unsigned bands are also gaining traction. These bands are considered the most ambitious projects next season as the Fools have been firmly established for several years. Their swinging approach appeals to both their audienc'es and fashion, yet never directly imitative. The Black Eagles have been."

There are a number of groups that can claim American roots, but a unique sound and a strong identity. And the Black Eagles are such a group. Their music is a blend of THE MAMMALS and THE KINKS, with a strong influence from THE BEATLES and THE BAND. The band's latest album, "Quack Up!" is a testament to their unique sound and style.

His world is turned upside down when he is betrayed by his closest friend. The film is a powerful and moving exploration of the human condition and the consequences of our actions. The story is told through a series of flashbacks and memories, creating a sense of depth and complexity. The performances are outstanding, with Jack Nicholson delivering a tour de force as the central character. The film is a must-see for fans of Stanley Kubrick and anyone who appreciates a well-crafted, thought-provoking film.
Moving Boston Rockers

The Boston area has become a launching pad for many rock bands. Recently, two bands from the region have become contenders in the national music scene. 311 (pronounced "three-ten-one") has been gaining momentum with its energetic sound and aggressive stage presence. In the fall of 1990, the band released its self-titled debut album, featuring hits like "Down." 311's sound is a fusion of alternative rock and hip-hop, appealing to a wide range of fans.

The other band, Boston, has been a staple of the Boston music scene for decades. Formed in 1975, the band has released numerous albums and enjoyed several hits, including "More Than a Feeling" and "Longfellow Bridge." Boston's lineup has seen changes over the years, but the current members continue to keep the band's legacy alive. Their most recent album, "Other Side of Thirty," was released in 1995 and features a mix of classic and contemporary rock sounds.

Both bands are a testament to the diverse and vibrant music scene in Boston, and they have helped put the city on the map as a hub for rock music.

The last Saturday of the season, the Bridgewater Softball team played their final game of the season against Keene, split doubleheaders against Central Connecticut State and U.N.H. at the Keene State College with a combined two games of a double header against Keene. A win in the first game would have given the BSC the first double header sweep of Keene in 24 years.

A continuation of strong pitching, sharp hitting, and quick defense led the BSC to a 6-2 victory over the Fighting Hawks in the first game of the doubleheader.

In the second game, the BSC scored just enough against Keene to win the game 2-1. With the wins, the BSC finished the regular season with a 12-8 record in the Northeast-10 Conference, which is second place in the Northeast-10. The BSC also finished the season with a 21-15 record overall.

The BSC now moves on to the NE-10 Tournament, which will be held in Massachusetts. The BSC is seeded third in the tournament and will face off against fourth-seeded Phillips Exeter in the quarterfinals.
