But you, O Lord are in our Midst, and Your Holy Name Has been invoked on us; Leave us not, O Lord, our God. Jeremias

May you have a blessed Christmas season.

Dear Prudence...

By Ol' Blue

If you get into habitual writing, one tends to get into the old "rant and rave" syndrome. When the urge is to write about something that is personally meaningful, the task seems so much more formidable. As I've said before, you all know that I have a great respect for Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s work. But a few days ago, I was at a memorial service for a young black man, and it was heartbreaking to see the pain on the faces of the families and friends. I believe that it's important to continue to speak out against racism and inequality. It's a hard subject to tackle, but I think it's worth it.

The Christmas of 1980 began to seriously doubt the existence of the North Pole. The White House was a virtual white-ribboned, white-themed Christmas, with red-and-green themed decorations. ABC news, CBS, and NBC were all running Christmas specials, and the network news programs were all doing holiday-themed specials. The news cycle was dominated by the Christmas story. And yet, amidst all the stories, there was one story that stood out.

The story of a little girl who had been lost in the woods. After days of searching, her family had given up hope. But then, on Christmas Eve, a dog found her. The girl was taken to a hospital, where she was reunited with her family. The story was a heartwarming one, and it showed that even in the darkest of times, there is always a way to find light.

I'm glad that the holiday season is over, and that we can all focus on the important things in life. But I hope that we can all remember the lessons that we learned during this season, and that we can all work towards building a better future for all.

Sincerely,

Ol' Blue
Dear Prudence...

By Oil Blake

If one gets into habitual writing, one tends to get into the old "find me a better use for something that is personally meaningful," the task seems so much more formidable. As I throw in a glance around me, one gains a sense of time and one's own mortality. But when a life is jolted out of the body's tight little arms of sunshine, to go with the tides of some indescribable and immovable pressure from the unknown, one becomes a wanderer in the direction of a question mark. "Why is this?" and "What does it mean?" and "Why am I being left behind?". The last are the three questions that guide me in my introspective wanderings. But what am I left behind with? Is it not the experience of life? The experience of life is a collection of impressions, sensations, and emotions, which form the basis of our perceptions. These perceptions are influenced by our environment, our culture, our experiences, and our personal biases. The experience of life is truly a personal journey, and it is up to each individual to determine their own path and meaning.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

A Corporate Carol

By K.G. Palm

With Christmas Day only a few hours away, I find myself reflecting on the past year and contemplating the future. As the holiday season approaches, we are reminded of the importance of giving and receiving. In this spirit, I would like to offer a personal reflection on the concept of giving.

The Christmas spirit is one of generosity and sacrifice. It is a time when we are encouraged to put aside our own needs and wants and consider the needs of others. This selflessness is a true hallmark of the holiday season. In a world where materialism and consumerism often take precedence, the Christmas spirit serves as a reminder of the true meaning of the holiday.

The giving and receiving of gifts is a central aspect of the Christmas season. Gifts are often used as a way to express love and appreciation for those we care about. However, it is important to remember that the true value of a gift lies in the act of giving, rather than in the material object itself. Giving from the heart is what truly matters.

This Christmas, I encourage you to focus on the spirit of giving. Consider the needs of those around you and look for ways to give of yourself, whether it be through volunteering, donating to charity, or simply reaching out to someone who could use a kind word.

May the spirit of Christmas bring joy to your heart and fill your life with love and kindness.

Yours truly,

K.G. Palm
The Writing Center, located in Max Aielli Library 238, exists to serve anyone needing assistance with his or her writing. Whether the problem is grammar, spelling, sentence structure, or any other writing issue, the Writing Center can help. The center is open Monday through Thursday, 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., and Friday, 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Additional information can be found in the Student Information Booth, located on the first floor of the Student Union Building.

OFFICE OF HOSPITALIZED STUDENT SERVICES

The Office of Hospitalized Student Services provides support services to students who are hospitalized on campus. Staff members do not believe it is necessary to contact our office in person on the 3rd floor of the Student Union Building (SU) in room 307. The office is open Monday through Thursday from 8:15 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. for all student inquiries.

X-MASS BREAK POSITIONS

Positions are available for students interested in working during the Christmas break. Weekly and daily positions are available for students in the Student Union. Applications for employment are available for the Student Union. Information about the positions can be found in the Office of Student Services, Student Union Building, by Monday, December 10, 1980.
Announcements

WINTER CAMPING

The Winter Camping Center is a须ed in the Student Union Building. On Monday, December 11, 1980, at 3:00 p.m., there will be a meeting of the Winter Center staff in the Winter Center. All interested students are invited to attend.

CHECK CASHING

Students are encouraged to open checking accounts at any of the local banks. Student Union Bank is available for checking accounts and we would not have enough checks to meet the needs of the college community on time and, occasionally, there may be a delay. It is partly due to the large amount of money needed to the Student Union Bank, which is a requirement for student checks and refunds.

WE WANT YOU!

If you have a hobby, craft, or special talent, and would like to share your knowledge or skills, please contact the Student Life Office. We are looking for people with new ideas, so if you have a creative project you would like to share, please contact the Student Life Office.

VACATION LIBRARY HOURS

The library will be closed for the winter break. Please check the winter hours for the dates and times the library will be open.

OFFICE OF HANDICAPPED STUDENT SERVICES

The Office of Handicapped Student Services provides assistance to students with disabilities. The office is located on the first floor of the Student Union Building, Suite 101. For more information, please contact the Office of Handicapped Student Services.

X-MAS BREAK POSITIONS

Positions are available for students interested in working during the Christmas break. These positions will be open for students who are interested in working. Please contact the Office of Handicapped Student Services for more information.

ROCK AT 27

By Joe McDonald

Zep calls it quits and what to buy for Xmas

In 1969, a group of British rockers came out with an album that would change the course of rock music. Led Zeppelin’s “Led Zeppelin IV” was released, and it became one of the most successful albums of all time.

The album featured the hit single “Stairway to Heaven,” which has since become one of the most recognizable and beloved songs in rock history. The album also included other classic songs such as “Black Dog,” “Stairway to Heaven,” and “Rock and Roll.”

In early 1975, the group released the highly acclaimed Physical Graffiti. This album included the hit single “Boogie With Stax.” The album was certified gold and helped to establish Led Zeppelin as one of the top bands in the world.

Unfortunately, in 1980, the band announced that they would be taking a hiatus due to the death of drummer John Bonham. In 1982, the band released their final album, “Presence.” The band has not been together since.

In conclusion, Led Zeppelin’s “Led Zeppelin IV” was a landmark album in rock history. It helped to establish the group as one of the most influential bands of all time.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM UPSETS COLBY 84-46

by Frosty T. Snowman

In their third home game, the BSC Women's Basketball Team upped their record to 3-2 with an impressive win over Colby this past Saturday.

The starting team of Dee-Dee Enabenter, Karen Croteau, Michelle Dineen, Tammy Turner, and Jody Collicut accounted for 46 points out of the team's 84. Michelle Dineen had a game high 14 points for the BSC Hoopsters.

The scoring began when Jody Collicut got the first basket of the game which set the stage for BSC's outstanding defense. The Colby team could not adjust their game plan, and the BSC defense forced 16 turnovers.

With another 18 points and 11 rebounds, Michelle Dineen was a key contributor to the victory, along with her high scoring. The BSC defense also played a crucial role in securing the win.

The top three scores for BSC were: Michelle Dineen-14 points, Dee-Dee Enabenter-12 points, and Jody Collicut with 10 points.

In the second half, BSC continued their impressive defense and high scoring. The Women will have a chance to showcase their skills against Salem State (Wed. Dec 10) by the time this edition of The Comment is printed, their next game won't be until after Christmas break on January 10th.

Sign-up will be on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, January 12, 13, and 14, 10 am across from the Bus stop. Bring your US and payment. BE EARLY!

The scoring began when Judy Colburn got the first basket of the game which set the stage for BBC's shining defensive pressure. The BBC team could not release this offensive pressure due to defensive mistakes. On the defensive side, the BBC defense became very strong. Another three points were scored by Colburn before the BBC defense caused another timeout. When they stopped the clock, the BBC team led by 12 points. Four more points were scored by St. John before their second timeout with 1:07 left in the first half and the score now 34-24. Michelle Dineen drove into the lane of a 7. BBC scored 3 more points in the second half. The final score of the game is 38 to 24. The BBC team won the game by 14 points.

An even stronger defensive pressure was shown in the first half against the Colts team. However, the BBC defense didn't score any points in the second half. The final score of the game is 34 to 24. The Tilbury team won the game by 10 points.
