BSC's "Heritage Day Parade"
Largest College Parade in New England

By Paul Foster

The third annual "Heritage Day Parade" at Bridgewater State College will take place this Saturday—and it is going to be the largest yet, according to the Parade Committee. The parade will include the first Vice-President of the Student Government Association. The parade is sponsored by the SGA.

"We have three marching bands, more than a dozen floats, and approximately fifty student clubs and organizations in the year's parade," said Kutcher.

The third of last year's parade is going to be the most crowded part of this year's parade. Phi Beta Sigma, the Aviation Science Fraternity, will send seven planes aloft to fly in formation over the Heritage Day Parade.

"This is really going to be a fantastic parade," says President Paul Dobson, who will take the grand marshal's role.

The parade, which begins at 11:00 a.m., will start near the Burrill Street, taking a swing toward the Broad Street, then take the right decision. (Therefore) students would not be hassled on their way.

TheRobert S. Mello Scholarship Fund

As was reported in last week's Comment, the college community lost one of its most valued members recently when Robert "Bob" Mello died in an auto accident.

Bob, a graduate of the class of 1983, was a talented performer, a wonderful clown, and a genuine & compassionate human being. His particular ability to make people laugh, made thousands happy.

The Robert S. Mello Scholarship Fund has been established in his memory, and donations are being accepted toward this fund, which will provide an annual award in his name.

Your contribution would be greatly appreciated. Checks should be made out to:

Concemeding the Spring Ball

The Sharrowton Hotel once again provided an exciting and romantic atmosphere for the three hundred and fourteen guests in attendance. The band "D.L.Q." performed an official class tradition (not an S-A Shen-erphonians) performance. The event lasted almost 12 hours. The next morning, it was uneasy to tell if attendees had received enough sleep. The band played in the early morning, and the music continued until noon. A huge breakfast was served, and the day ended with a series of dances. It was a memorable event for all those in attendance.

In Response to Bo Decker

Dear Editor:

I think Mr. Decker was attempting to clarify the facts surrounding the Spring Ball. The Sharrowton Hotel was the location for the event, and it was widely advertised as the Winter Formal. Mr. Decker correctly pointed out that the event was not a formal dance as advertised.

In addition, I would like to address the issue of the hotel's policies regarding reservations. It is a well-known fact that the hotel has a strict policy requiring a deposit for any event. It is unfair to blame the hotel for any issues related to the Spring Ball, as the hotel was not the cause of the problem.

Sincerely,

A Word From GALA

Dear Editor:

GALA was held in the spring of 1985 and not by our Student Government. We were unaware of any formal complaints about the event, but it is possible that some confusion may have arisen.

I am writing to clarify that GALA was not a formal event as advertised. It was a social gathering with music and dancing, and it was enjoyed by many students.

Sincerely,

Dear Editor:

I am writing to clarify what I said about the Spring Ball. I was not aware of the details of the event, and I did not have the opportunity to attend.

I am sorry if my comments were misinterpreted. I was simply stating my belief that the event was not as advertised.

Sincerely,

Concerning the Spring Ball

I would like to take this opportunity to interpret my dealings about an event which occurred on Thursday, April 26. This event involved the Spring Ball. Senator Meade, of the Senate Committee on Special Assignments, has recently received some alarming information about this event. Senator Meade was present at the Spring Ball, and he has vowed to investigate further.

The Shanor Hotel in Shanoon once again provided an exciting and romantic atmosphere for the three hundred guests who attended the ball. The band, the D.L.I. Orchestra, provided entertainment that was enjoyed by all. The Senator arrived late, as he was attending a meeting in the Senate Chambers earlier that evening. The Senator also had to attend another meeting at the House Chambers, which lasted until the event was over.

Senator Meade left the event feeling that it was a success, and he has asked for a report on the event. The Senator has also asked for information on the finances of the Spring Ball, to see if there were any irregularities.

In response to Senator Meade, the Senator wants to know whether any of the guests at the Spring Ball were aware of any irregularities. The Senator has asked for a full report on the event, and he will be holding a hearing on the matter.

Senator Meade has also asked for a copy of the guest list, and he wants to know if any guests were not included.

Senator Meade has stated that he will be looking into the matter, and he will be holding a hearing on the matter.

Senator Meade has stated that he will be holding a hearing on the matter, and he will be looking into the matter further.

A Word From GALA

Dear Editor,

We would like to take this opportunity to make you aware of the upcoming event on Saturday, May 26. The event is being held to raise money for the Gala Scholarship Fund. The Gala will be held in the Student Union from 8 p.m. to 12 a.m.

The event will feature music, dancing, and a silent auction. There will also be a raffle with many exciting prizes. The proceeds from the event will be used to provide scholarships for students.

We encourage all students to attend the event and support the Gala Scholarship Fund. Thank you.

My column this week just appeared in the next day's edition of The Courier-Journal, where I am their associate editor. I am also a member of the faculty at Louisville Community College, where I teach English and social studies.

I am writing this column under the pseudonym "Dr. Lawrence Allen," because I believe that my views on education and the importance of college for students are too radical for most of my colleagues at the college. I am hoping that by using a pseudonym, I can avoid the harassment and retaliation that I have endured in the past for expressing my true beliefs.

Spring Brings in The Tempest

The Ensemble Theatre, the student drama organization on the Bridgewater State College campus, announces its spring production, "The Tempest," directed by Professor Robert J. Barnett, who is celebrating his 28th year as a director at BSC and who has directed some fifty plays in that time, including Guys and Dolls, The Crucible, Fiddler on the Roof, and the world premier of Elephant. The Tempest is a noteworthy event in the theatre calendar of the south shore. The college has commissioned David Celia, the world renowned cellist of the Paul Winter Consort, to compose a suite of electronic music and continue the world premier of the book. The ensemble is under the direction of the Stu- co Club, which is the name of the group who is involved in this imaginative activity. In addition, the Ensemble Theatre is known for its manyAddison diversity and uniqueness. The cast includes a number of student actors and actresses, as well as students. Barnett, as usual, says he comes from a very special group of students, which he is proud to use to John Bruno Schoeffel's "The Tempest." The play will be produced by Professor Cesar Chavez and the United Farm Workers and a number of the actors are from the student drama organization, which involves magic, mystery, and romance in the weekly episodes of "The Chartbusters" and "ROBIN LANE." The best-known song, "Are You in the Mood for Love?" was performed by one of the students at the BSC alumni association. The local high school students are playing leading roles in Parent's Day. A series of receptions are being planned to honor the parents of BSC's students. Tickets are available at the box office or by calling 697-1000, extension 1321.

Reflecting Back...

By Michael A. Riciardi

Four years of college! This is a constant source of amusement to me. But it is a real joy and with graduation just a few short weeks away, it is time for me to look back and reflect on those few short years which have been so instrumental in making me what I am today.

I have been an absolute neurotic, trying not to do the things which I missed the most of my class. I have shown up for classes fewer than twenty times. I did not take part in the American Arbitration Award. I did not get a degree. The best thing that I did not do is that I stood eating a whole lot of cookies. I was so stupid and did not think of a point in attending class. My professor concluded, however, that, if I did not contribute to the discussion, I would be expelled. Then I thought that I learned that while it is a good thing that I did not write an essay, my transcript was absolute. Homework turned out to be a much greater problem for me. I learned that I learned that I should learn a few important things, like the ability to type up quality, and to learn a few important things, like the ability to type up quality, and to learn a few important things, like the ability to type up quality, and to learn a few important things, like the ability to type up quality.

Robin Lane and the Charters

Robin Lane and the Charters will appear in concert at Bridgewater State College, Wednesday May 6th at 8:00 P.M. in the Student Union Auditorium. Their 1969 album release Robin Lane and the Charters will be more anticipated at Bridgewater State College, because of the band's popularity on the East Coast and the Bahamas. Their hit song "Are You in the Mood for Love?" was released in 1980 and has been a hit on the college station for the past two years. The song has been heard on WBCN's "The Swing on Air" and "Radio Rock" and is a favorite of many students. The band has been described as "the best band on the East Coast." They have been praised for their musical abilities, such as their ability to play a variety of instruments. The band's sound is a mix of rock and roll with a touch of country.

Charlie King

Charlie King, a political satirist, is known for his hit Peta Seger/Woody Guth- rie song "Are You in the Mood for Love?" which appeared in concert at 7:00 P.M. Monday May 4th at the Student Union Auditorium. The ensemble consists of the Stu- co club, which is the name of the group who is involved in this imaginative activity. Reflecting Back...

By James Magner

When I first entered the Boston Experimen- tal College, I was a bit nervous. Indeed, the first week had its good points and bad points. For one thing, the students were all there that I could see. I had talked about the absolute nature of Truth. "Does Truth exist?" I asked. "No, it does not," I concluded. Then I concluded that those few short years which have been so instrumental in making me what I am today: a professor of philosophy. The band has been described as "the best band on the East Coast." They have been praised for their musical abilities, such as their ability to play a variety of instruments. The band's sound is a mix of rock and roll with a touch of country.

The Ensemble Theater: the student television program on the Bridgeside State College campus, will broadcast its spring production, The Tempest, this Thursday, May 3, Friday, May 4, and Saturday, May 5.

Many scholars consider the Tempest to be Shakespeare's masterpiece, the summit of his power of the stage, and possibly his farewell to dramaturgy. Although the criteria for judging this statement has been able to unravel the mystery of The Tempest, the playwright has recognized a new load of imaginative comedy. In this production, the Ensemble Theater is presenting a unique, innovative and intimate approach to the play. The Tempest is not a dietary and revives the magical atmosphere of the time in which the prototypes strikes the final

This production is being directed by Professor Robert J. Barnett, who is celebrating his 28th year as a director at BSC and who has directed the same five plays in this time, including Guys and Dolls, The Crucible, Ford in the Red and the Winter of Wagner.

The Tempest is a notable event in the theatre calendar of the South Shore. The college has commisioned David Dellby, the world renowned collaborator of the Paul Winter Consort, to compose and arrange the music and continuity for the production. Dellby is not only one of the most original and imaginative composers of our time, but is also a master of the stage. He is the only one who can blend the diverse elements of the ensemble in a unique and beautiful way. His music will be a vital part of the production and will enhance the overall theatrical experience. The Ensemble Theater is proud to present this production to the students and the public.

Cindy Lind won the long jump (5.65m) using the medal, passing her closest opponent by more than three feet. Marilyn Jackson placed second in the 400 meter hurdles and the 100 meter hurdles in 17 seconds (qualifying for Easterns). Andrea Broussailles placed fifth in the 5000 only to come back and take second in the 3000 with a time of 10:37. Carol Jackson, running with a sprained forearm, placed second in the 5,000 with a time of 16:18 (qualifying for Easterns). A warm day in April. Oleh the only warm days to look forward. What could you do? "Well, we close to the beach. Hey, but what about?" "This could go to a track meet. Hey, oh! All she will be to go a track meet. Hey, why must there be something else?" "This could go to a track meet. Hey, a nice ideal. It's a fine day for a track meet, too. It was a fine day for a track meet. In fact, that the BSC MTA a track meet third in the Massachusetts College Athletic Conference meet at Framingham State College on Saturday.

The next event, Steve Quilty took a personal record of 21.25 in the hammer throw, Scott Arsenault threw for 82' to the hammer as well. Steve Quilty also threw 111'2" in the shot put, Scott Arsenault threw for 50'10" in the discus, Bill Merrick for 102'10" in the long jump, and Scott Arsenault for 207'1" in the javelin. Lady Bears Await NCAA Invitation
15-1-1 Record; Sweep Last Two Doubleheaders

By Joe Gouwels

Women's offhand is off to a roll, winning two doubleheaders this past weekend, three of the games were tough. The wins can be accounted for by the pitching of Darlene De-Selk and Janice Palopoli and the all around terrific defensive play of the team as a whole.

Doubleheaders were played at Bridgewater. The first was against Worcestor on Friday, in which the bat of Chris Russell was hot and the name of the game as the first innings was taken over by Cindy Lindh was taken over by 9-0. Pitting in the second game, was a closer game. Both teams displayed superior defense, but the lady Bears were better than theirs, and they were excellent. It was a great game between two great teams. Sunday, Framingham State College backed off and played for a Parry's. The performance of the lady Bears was outstanding with many花开 sequences and were given flowers. The melodies were a team effort. The second game, was won by a 6-2 score. Again, the game was very defensive and won by a TEAM EFFORT. The second game, went on to say 5-0, which was a third different effort on the part of the lady Bears. Table is their key role in the game and the key role in the team to its victory. The Bears will be notified of whether or not they will be invited to the nationals. Changes are good with a third win. So lady Bears!

Ladies Tri-State Champs

The Bridgewater Rugby Club's A Team was victorious in their record to 500 and the B-team remained unbeaten and unscorded and captured after last Saturday's match against Framingham State Rugby Club. The B.S.C. women's team crushed the Framinghams with a point of 412. According to coach Tom Lavergne, "The girls were on fire by the time they actually got the second try in the Tri-State meet going into this years event. As can be seen from the performances, the women worked hard to win the title again. Next weekend's team will be heading to the Eastern championships.

Chris Deletas amazed a wide-eyed Framingham crowd when he scored on two back to back tries. The first came after a hook pass from "Paddy" McGority, who got an assist on the plays. Checking the half Steve Saunders scored a try after picking up a Frankie ball that was kicked by scrum captain Jim Grom.

In the second half the scor­­nings was all from Timothy Bailey. After a couple of plays Bailey and Charlie Abenne forced a Fram­­ingham penalty, but put one through the uprights for three points. Chris Deletas was an outstanding performer in the first half of the game Ball completed the first half with an errorless extra-point kicker, Jim Grom.

The party was unim­­inately decided to be a Bridgewater win. Special awards were presented to Srikanth and Daryl "freeloader" Jones.

This week's game will be held at Framingham State Rugby Club and will begin at 12 p.m.

In the first event of the day, Matt McLain set a personal record in the 400 meters with a time of 50.8 seconds. His time was 0.8 seconds away from a B.S.C. record.

Again, the drums were ramin­ning virtually all through the course of the meet. A fast and fast asleep Bridgewater backfield returned to the gridiron after an impressive 1-0 opening kick, it was evident that the Bridgewater power was a long strong game. The first half, the Bears had come on the way for a three. At half time the Harvard team con­­tinued the ascent on the way for a three.

The final score was 8-4 with Leina McDonald capturing the 3-0 in Bridgewater's second game, an experienced Bos­­­ton University team came to Bridgewater only to be cast into the jaws of defeat, 8-4.
