Search and Seizure; Student Wants To Know What Is "Reasonable"

By John J. Beaton

Staff Writer

On Tuesday, November 29, 1984, Paul Elsas, President of the Class of '87, discovered that his dorm room had been searched. Elsas had been spotted entering his room at 3:10 a.m. on that day, and by 10 a.m. that morning, the room had been thoroughly searched. The police were even seen combing through the contents of the dorm room, which included clothes, books, and other personal belongings.

Elsas stated, "I felt that to do with (the search) was not reasonable. Under the current legal climate, a search may be unsearchable. My reason for that action. This was because, without a warrant, the police were not entitled to enter the room. I only found the things that they were entitled to.

The incident involving Elsas occurred less than a week after former Student Government president, Daniel Magoon, staged a protest against the Spring Break policy. Magoon's protest was against the one-week Spring Break policy, which he believed did not provide enough time for students to refresh and rejuvenate.

Magoon stated, "I think that the Spring Break policy should be extended to two weeks. This would help students come back refreshed and ready to start the new semester."

Student Leaders Speak Out Against Reduction of Spring Break

The students at Bridgewater State College were polled for their opinions on the Spring Break reduction. The majority of students believed that the Spring Break should be extended to two weeks. They felt that this would help students come back refreshed and ready to start the new semester.

From the students' perspective, the Spring Break policy should be extended to two weeks. They believed that this would help students come back refreshed and ready to start the new semester. The students also expressed their support for the Spring Break policy, which they believed was the best way to ensure that students could properly rest and rejuvenate before the start of the new semester.

Campaign Letters for the Office of First Vice President of the SGA

Ralph Plotke

Dear Student,

We students are the bread and butter of this college. As Senator-at-Large of the Student Government Association, I am working on a plan for improving the quality of the cafeteria service. Each year the Administration has been doing more things to overcrowd the cafeteria. It seems as if the only voice the students bring is falling in its efforts to please the students. Students have been to see the situation in the cafeteria and have not been satisfied. The Handicapped Student Committee has opposed to the outrageous BSC. It is just time to show them that implementing a student body is not going to be done.

Dear Student,

There are many things that I have been interested in this job and want to emphasize the need of the students and as far as I have been a Senator-at-Large of the Student Government Association, I am working on a plan for improving the quality of the cafeteria service. Each year the Administration has been doing more things to overcrowd the cafeteria. It seems as if the only voice the students bring is falling in the efforts to please the students. Dear Senator,

I am writing to you regarding the upcoming election for the First Vice President of the SG A. As a member of the Senate, I would like to express my support for your campaign and encourage you to run for the position.

Under your leadership, the Senate has been able to achieve many important goals. Your dedication to the student body and your commitment to improving the campus experience are truly inspiring. I believe that you have the qualities necessary to be an effective leader and to make a positive impact on the SG A.

If you decide to run, I am confident that you will bring fresh ideas and new perspectives to the office. Your experience and knowledge of campus issues will be invaluable assets in your role as First Vice President. I am certain that you will be able to make significant contributions to the SG A and to the student body.

I would be honored to work with you and support your campaign in any way I can. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or if you would like to discuss your plans for the office.

Sincerely,

The Consequences of Drunk Driving

By Attorney Donald M. Hodge

The holiday season is now upon us and it will be charged with drunk driving. During the holiday season, the accompanying drinking of alcohol is at all time high. In fact, during these times of the year, the police will be out in force and, depending on First of all, make sure your car is in working order and that you are not under the influence of alcohol or drugs. If you are under the influence, you should give up the car and drive sober.

The first and most important thing you should do is to make sure your car is in working order and that you are not under the influence of alcohol or drugs. If you are under the influence, you should give up the car and drive sober.

In conclusion, please remember that drunk driving is not a minor issue. It is a serious problem that can result in serious consequences, including death or injury. So please, be safe and drive sober this holiday season.

Dear Fellow Student:

Since the person you choose to represent you on the Board of Regents of the Bridgewater State College Student Government Association (SGA) will become the SGA President in January, it is important that you have a precise record of leadership accomplishments and limitations.

I am supporting Dennis Lawrence for the position of SGA President. I have known Dennis since I arrived at Bridgewater State College almost two years ago. Dennis is currently serving in the SGA as teammate, and is a recent recipient of the student interest organization of Regents' 15% tuition increase.

Dennis possesses exceptional leadership qualities. He is the President of the Bridgewater/Bridgewater Chapter has been instrumental to casting your vote for the future of our SGA President. The primary consideration of those students who are new to the SGA is that the SGA is better than it has ever been before.

Dennis has been an outstanding student leader. He has worked in this role for the past two years. Dennis is a dedicated, caring person running for this position. He is always the last to pat you on the back after a meeting. Dennis possesses exceptional leadership qualities. He is a dedicated, caring person running for this position. Thank you for your cooperation and support.

Endorsement Letter from the Student Trustee

The SGA President is responsible for the successful functioning of the organization, the SGA President must have a proven track record in the SGA and be a dedicated, caring person running for this position. He is always the last to pat you on the back after a meeting.

position. I would like to openly support Ralph Phillips, and urge you to vote for him for the SGA President. He is a dedicated, caring person running for this position. He is always the last to pat you on the back after a meeting.

Although I have known and liked Ralph Phillips for many years, and am a fraternity brother of Dennis Lawrence, I do not have the experience of the SGA President on our campus. Ralph Phillips has been on the SGA since the 1981-82 academic year, and is the President of the Student Government Committee as well as the Wayne, Music, and Business associations.

I am a student of the SGA and the college community. As a former writer, photographer, staff member (layout, proofreading, typing, etc.), and Contributing Editor for The Comment (1977-79), I have only one expertise in The News Editor—Sound Off! You have to manage to say what every staff member, probably from Vol. 1, No. 1, has always wanted to say in his or her time at the paper. You will also have to take care of the people who have a reasonable right, you, the probable student body doesn’t give a damn. You have to admit that it is a dark day in BSC when the SGA has assigned Dennis to the position of SGA President.

Thank you for your time and let us all think about the people who are about to take over.

Sincerely,

Stevenson, Janet Donahue
Second Vice-President

Christmas in Wales

At the Lyric Stage

For the ninth year in a row, the Lyric Stage presents its special Christmas presentation of Dylan Thomas’ A Child’s Christmas in Wales, adapted and directed by Polly Hogan, opening on December 5 and running through December 23.

A Child’s Christmas in Wales is Dylan Thomas’ remembrance of his childhood, his boyhood companions, his mischievous neighbors, along with a wide assortment of unforgettable relatives. The play is a colorful medley of songs, poetry, and comedy seen through the eyes of a young boy in Wales – Dylan himself – who unravels for us the magical tapestry of a Child’s Christmas.

A Child’s Christmas in Wales runs from December 5 to December 23, with performances Wednesday through Friday at 8:00 p.m. and at 5:00 on Saturday and Sunday. Tickets range from $7.00 to $9.50, depending on seat. For information and reservations, phone 742-7973. Tickets are also available through Theater Charge (497-1118) and at Out-Of-Town Ticket agency.

Knob: This is the second album from this excellent British group, and it's another collection of melodic pop tunes, featuring lots of great guitar playing and Robbie_Franks' rather mellifluous vocals. (I remember how much I liked first album, High Land, Hard Rain, come on, I can't believe that a group this good could be led by a 16-year-old.) Good cuts include "Hurry Up, We're Going to Space," "I Need Everything," "The Break of the True" (just Robby and his guitar) and "To the South," a tune which really shows the influence of guitarist Mark Kyngher. Also, be sure to pick up the single "All I Need is Everything," because the B-side has (not really) cover of Van Hazer's "Jump" -- it's an absolute riot.

Knob: This was one of those 12-inch singles that I absolutely love. Both sides are great, two very good tunes. The vocals are beautiful, and the music is perfect. The lyrics are really cool. "Why can't I live a life for myself?" I just can't keep thinking about things. I just want to be happy. I live a life for myself. I'm just happy. It's a really good album of (mostly) new-wave music, and the vocals and music are beautiful, and the vocals and music are beautiful, and the vocals and music are beautiful.

More than 300,000 Americans - not including members of the armed services - work in new living overseas. These people engage in nearly every possible activity: construction, engineering, automobile, aerospace, commercial, manufacturing, oil refining, mining, government, etc. And the list goes on...

Health care professionals (including dentists, surgeons, nurses, and more) are also needed.

To apply you must be a US citizen and willing to work in one of 5 sections of the country (southeast, northeast, Great Lakes, California) and Pacific Northwest. The positions available range from laboratory assistant to principal investigator.

I could advocate things for the student body. As a SGA senator, I was able to talk to people close to you — people look up to you, even if they think you’re an ass, but they listen. As President I could get things done, like changing our parking policy. I always believed that if you have the power, you should use it for the power. (And, the job took up too much time and I think I was a sensitive guy and I do things all the way, man.) I can’t believe my energy to my students; I don’t have the time to do the job. For example, if a letter was written to Magone, for any reason, he had to respond as soon as possible. It got on my nerves.

Directions may be left through December 1984 at Dr. Baldrate’s office Barrell Avenue Academic Building Room 202. The SGA has a need for these and students’ to be aware of the activities of the SGA. Here are a few:

Magoon: "I have been in this, I don’t want to talk about it, it’s too much."

Murphy: "I don’t want to talk about it, it’s too much."

Magoon: "I will be working on changing the committee so that we can get more people in the room to talk about the activities that are going on."

Murphy: "I don’t want to talk about it, it’s too much."

Magoon: "Now that you are leaving, do you have any sort of parting words or thoughts before you go?"

Magoon: "I enjoyed it — it gained valuable experience but I got to know people, develop friendships which is very, very pleasant.

Murphy: "I didn’t have the luck more than frican when The Committee. I can’t talk about it. I can’t respond to that. He has a few different things that he wanted to accomplish before he left in December.

Magoon: "What do you intend to do in your last three weeks?"

Magoon: "Survive. Things are getting hectic, unnecessarily."

Murphy: "On Tuesday, December 5th, the SGA will have a meeting to present the Budget for the following three months. It is a fantastic budget for the fiscal year 1985 which will enable the SGA to continue all its activities."

The SGA is a committee that has a lot to do, but it’s a very pleasant experience."

The SGA is the committee that has a lot to do, but it’s a very pleasant experience."

Magoon: "You have to be there to know what is presently the Campus organization. I am sure that you are"
Spring Break from p. 1

Seton Hall At-Large Denis Lawrence also agrees with these points, but persists in the tradition of Spring Break in another angle to view this debate. "The idea of Spring Break has been a tradition in just about every university and college in the United States," said Lawrence. "Whether or not you go to Florida, the Bahamas, or just stay home, the end of the semester is the start of that happy period.

Winter Athletic Schedules

By Mike Stoney

The winter sports season is now in full swing with both the wrestling and the basketball programs coming up this past weekend. The men's Wrestling team traveled to Plymouth State where they competed against the Owls away (7-41) and against Brockport (1-31) and Kevin Gardner (126-b) who were both All-Region performers last season. The Women's Basketball team traveled to Negaunee College for their first meet of the season. Versus diver Kim Hill had a solid team that has trained hard to give them the much-needed depth they lacked last season.

The Men's Basketball teams (3-4) are getting ready for the second chance. They captured the Big Ten Invitational over the Thanksgiving Day weekend. During the tournament they achieved fifth寂寞 and third寂寞. They will be facing the University of Illinois Monday night. The tournament has been revolving around the 250 bowlers hitting the lanes on Tuesday afternoon at 4:00. There is still room for more as if you're interested, show up at the Academy Lines and call for Kevin Mason.

The international Bowling team has recently completed the annual bowling tournament. The team won 24 games of the 25 total and is averaging 18 games per match. They won the weekend match, which included a 500 plus dancing to the music of the" Royal Blue Club." As of November 15, the team has already completed a successful season. Please note: all games are played at the famous" Royal Blue Club." They are open every hour! And in our own area...

Lawrence also agrees with these points, but points in the tradition of Spring Break as another angle to view this debate. "The idea of Spring Break has become a tradition is just about every university and college in the United States," said Lawrence. "Whether or not you go to Florida, the Bahama, work or run, the fun of the maturing student looks forward to these weeks in March." Some of the pros of the extended week in January can be balanced off with costs. Studdents argue that the extra week will give them an extra pay check. That is balanced out by others saying that that time could be used up as in the two weeks in March.

Section 32
By Jack Murray

Hoopers Win Tourney

Well as 1984, and this semester comes to an end, so does my contribution to Section 32. Due to academic pressures in the new year, my future奉献s to Section 32 will be minimal. This column along with its writer has changed since its inception. The foundations of this column lay in the early days of September, when everyone was scrambling around preparing for the first edition of the year. Being a sophomore in newspapers, but willing to participate, I was given the task of compile a type of college basketball. The column was self-produced, not self-written. As the column developed, so did I, and Section 32 became a part of myself, a part of my development. I contributed to the inception of this column and in turn, the column has contributed to a part of myself, a part of my development. To my friends who listened to me and praised me along the way, I can never thank you enough. I wish the best with finals, the Holidays, and next season. We put in a lot of work and received little in return. But you were always there for us, and we too were there for you. Thank you.

If the turkey tasted good on Thanksgiving the leftovers tasted even better for the members of the BSC men’s basketball team as they polished off Suffolk University and Babson College to win the annual Babson Invitational in Weekes last weekend.

The Bears, winning going into the tournament, played inspired basketball against Suffolk in the opening round and proceeded to an easy 79-71 win. DiBari led all scorers with 21 points, and Sandy, Providence (19) and se departed from Mady (15) and.

The Bears followed that up with an even better effort against host Babson. After a 22-22 tie halfway through the game, DiBari took scoring over the top with 32 points. Workhorse Steve Pendenza was in form with 10 points and 12 rebounds. The real story of the game was the play of freshman guard Peter Cracknell. Stevens was named to the all-tournament team. Bob Crayton, forward of this group, this is going to be a great year. The team is going to be a great year. The team is going to be a great year.
