Merry Christmas from the Catholic Center
candidates Speak Out on Their Platforms

By Kimberly J. Murphy

As one should be aware of by now, the upcoming election for the next President of the Student Government Association (SGA) is one of the most important elections it has. It is, in fact, the most important election that there is. The reason being is that the President being elected is David Carrara, who was initially First Vice-President under the current President, and will be graduating in December. There is a strong belief that the First Vice-President’s seat will likely become the SGA President, as David Carrara is now a law senior major at Daniel Mugnoig resigned. Usually, the President, then, is the Presidentelect, the student President. Thus, since there is one major election, the First Vice-President is the only one that should be run for this office.

The candidates speak out on their platforms.

By Ralph E. Sinclair

As a result of the lack of parking spaces, a commuter meal plan will be starting. If you are interested in participating, you may contact the Board of Trustees. The meal plan will be available starting next semester.

By Dennis Lawrence

I am sick and tired of having to pay for parking and transportation. As such, I have decided to run for the position of President. I believe this will be a step in the right direction. With my experience, I will be able to lead this university to a better future.

By Murphy

You have promised a lot, but have not delivered on one of them. You said that there would be more parking spaces, and yet there are still not enough. I believe that the President should work closely with the administration to solve this problem.

By Plote

I believe that the candidates need to be more accountable. They need to provide information on their platforms, and not just promises. I would like to see a more transparent and honest campaign.

By Ricci

I am in favor of increasing the funding to the arts. I believe that the arts are an important part of this university, and that they should be given more support.

By Reader

I do not believe that the candidates should be able to run on a platform of change. The changes that they propose are not realistic, and they will not be able to implement them.

By Editor

It has been a splendid year for this, being editor of this newspaper. I have enjoyed it and despised it at the same time. I was able to see the good and the bad, and I was able to learn from it. I hope that the same can be said for the candidates.
Students receive an update on the progress of the Food Pantry at Bridgewater College.

By Emily K. Goossen  Managing Editor

The Food Pantry at Bridgewater College is an initiative that provides food to students in need. It is a response to the growing concern about food insecurity among college students. The Food Pantry is open to all students and provides a safe space for students to access food. The Food Pantry is supported by the Student Government Association (SGA), the Academic Policies Committee (APC), and the College of Arts and Sciences. The Food Pantry is open on a weekly basis and is staffed by volunteers. The Food Pantry is a valuable resource for students who may be struggling with food insecurity and is a testament to the college's commitment to supporting its students.

Christmas Carolers Within "A Christmas Carol"

By Jeffrey Liebman Staff Writer

"Every year, Christmas just seems to be starting earlier," says a merciful Mr. Grinch. "That's something we've all had to accept as time has moved on, and it's not like it's the Christmas Carol. There will be all sorts of non-traditional ideas and concepts for the holidays, so this year the Grinch's Festival of Fun Caroling is possible, and not the merchandising side of the whole thing. In the spirit of the season, it's hard for me to get too excited. But the Grinch is there, so stay tuned, Tiny Tim.""Grinchy" Jones, who adapted A Christmas Carol for stage, has added a new twist to this timely tale by weaving Christmas carols into the story's fabric.

But, no matter how much we alter Christmas to fit our own moods, the spirit of Charles Dickens is alive and well every year. On Tuesday, November 30, 1982, the Student Union Program Conference brought some of that spirit to the Student Union Program Conference by producing its new version of Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol. When I say "new version," I don't want to give the impression that the story has changed, because it hasn't. All the characters are there: Scrooge, Tiny Tim, Jacob Marley, and the rest. The storyline is still faithful to Dickens, but author Charles Jones, who adapted A Christmas Carol for stage, has added a new twist to this timely tale by weaving Christmas carols into the story's fabric.

Trinity Rep Presents Waiting for Godot

By Jeffrey Litchten Staff Writer

The Robert S. Mello Memorial Fund of Providence Hospital and the Media- lution of Rhode Island and the Providence Performing Arts Center have announced the return of WPLN's "Trinity Rep Mystery Theater" to the stage of the Marriott Library Center, Sunday, December 2.

The Trinity Rep presents a performance of "Waiting for Godot" by Samuel Beckett. The cast consists of two men who are waiting for Godot in a barren area of the Boston area. The show is presented in a series of scenes and is a humorous look at the irrationality of the human condition.

Christmas Carolers

By Jeffery Litchten Staff Writer

Every year, Christmas seems to be the time when everyone wants to get together and celebrate. At Trinity Rep, we celebrate the spirit of Christmas with a group of performers who sing traditional Christmas carols in a variety of styles. This year, we have carolers from all over the world, including the United States and Canada.

Photo Exhibit
At Clarence Kennedy Gallery

An exhibition of original photography by John Coplans and Joyce Neimanas will be on view from January 8 through February 16, 1985.
The photographs by John Coplans are large black-and-white portraits made on Polaroid Positive/Negative Land Film Type 55. Compositionally the portraits are simple and direct with two people present in each one. The relationship between the subjects is intimate, and the photographs are meant to be visually united as is often the case with studio portraits. In fact, isolation of the two individuals is enhanced by having each other look into the lense.

Joyce Neimanas incorporates dozens of portraits in each 32x40-inch piece. The photographs are taken from intimate, domestic scenes, some of them are meant to illustrate actual life experiences. In part these complex images express Neimana's desire to challenge the traditional uses of photography.

John Coplans is a former photojournalist who in recent years has devoted himself to photography. He was Editor-in-Chief of Yarfog magazine from 1971-76 and Director of the Akron Art Museum from 1976-80. Joyce Neimanas is an American Professor at the School of Art and Design of the University of Illinois. She received National Endowment for the Arts Fellowship Grants in 1978 and 1982. They both have been widely published and exhibited throughout the United States. The Clarence Kennedy Gallery is open to the Public Tuesday through Saturday from 11:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. There is no admission charge.

BSC Children's Theater Auditions Scheduled

Dr. Richard J. Warye, director of the popular Bridgewater State College Children's Theater, has announced auditions for the 1985 production of "Charlotte's Web." Auditions will be held in the Student Union Auditorium on Monday and Tuesday, January 21 and 22 (the first Monday and Tuesday of Second Semester) from 3 to 9 p.m. Tryouts are open to all BSC students, and non-theater majors are especially invited to audition. Production dates for Charlotte's Web will be Thursday, March 7, through Wednesday, March 13, 1985 (which includes the first few days of the spring recess). A casting list will be held in the Maxwell Library for Dr. Warye's class, CT-240 (Children's Theater) for anyone interested in participating.

"Charlotte's Web" is the sixteenth annual production of the BSC Children's Theater which currently plays to more than 5,000 South Shore children at the present time, over 1,000 children of new students have reservations to attend the play. Dr. Warye's prize-winning book was cited by the Children's Literature Association as "the best American children's book of the past 100 years", and Joseph Robinette has adapted it into a beautiful and perceptive play about friendship.

The Clarence Kennedy Gallery is open to the Public Tuesday through Saturday from 11:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. There is no admission charge.

Comment photographer Ed Donahue said and estimated when he came upon BSC senior and 1984 Homecoming Queen Kerry Kiley roaming the halls of the Student Union with a gun, this was a clear attempt at publicity following the song "I Shot the Sheriff" clearly referring to TV's Opie, Ron Howard.

According to witness John Beaton, who managed to hide himself in the sink, Kiley caught Cameron ready to take her picture, pointed the gun and fired.

Donahue suffered a ruptured F-stop and a cracked shutter release he was taken to the K Mart Automotive Department where he is listed as down a quart and in need of new wipers.

The whole Bridgewater Community was shocked as news spread across the campus, many said Kiley was so quiet, so nice, "Why would she shoot out?"

Mass hysteria grips BSC

By Kimmie Lush, L.S.A., News Editor

Mass hysteria grips BSC—the likes of which have not been seen since they served fried cod fusionely on the shoulder of the co-at Tilly. After the announcement for three consecutive nights administration alike have been gripped with a sense of such grief and remorse, that the streets of Bridgewater have been filled with people who have all given up the will to live. But given up the will to live.

A reported 3,000 people and two dogs showed up Thursday night outside the offices of The No-Comment to demand raises. The No-Comment has not been running in top form on Monday through Friday nights since they served fried cod on the shoulder of the co-at Tilly. After the announcement for three consecutive nights administration alike have been gripped with a sense of such grief and remorse, that the streets of Bridgewater have been filled with people who have all given up the will to live.

The No-Comment was finally reached for comment on this potentially dangerous situation, all that Mr. Murray said was: "I have another double Tampergy and Tonic with extra lime, and urges Mr. P.O.T.S. to clean up all that was build up in front of our office door. Also, the journalist has not been stating in its form, Smirnoff the Butler and Stu-teen., the Bartender are demanding raises. Please do something about this—(you just can't find good help anymore)."

Mass Hysteria Grips BSC

By Kimbra “Anything Goes With You’d” Mortlock, L.L. Stane Erika

Mass hysteria grips BSC — the lines of which have not been seen since they formed after final and for those consecutive nights at 10p. After the announce-ments in last week's The Co- on that section to be removed, student, and administration alike have been gripped with a sense of such guilt and concern, that the students of BSC have been crowded, filled with people who have all been given up on.

A reported 3,000 people were in line after the office of The Co-announcement, the first tickets for the event. The leader of this group, who wished only to be identified as the former President Of-The-School, (at A. R. B. to his close, personal friends) was seen sobbing profanely on the shoulders of the coordinating secretary of the group, one Bokley Wewi.Theb's (afterbirth) as he was seen every Tuesday and Thursday night at 10p. Just ask for Bokley. In an interview with Mr. P.O.T.Y., he stated that the wish of the group was to experience the show. The group had also sent a letter to the administration, asking the above move. Jack Mau- ney, explaining their wish for to continue his most brilliant article. However, this wish was not met. Mr. P.O.T.Y. said that he could not realize their wishes. They were deprived of the event and were not able to attend.

Billy Ball Hits Bridgewater

By Andreas Hedberg
Sports Editor

In a surprise announcement today, Bridgewater State College Athletic Director Bob Ruggerio has named former Twin, Tiger, Ranger, Yankee(twice) and A's manager Billy Martin as the school's new baseball coach.

Martin, in a telephone interview from Dannamorra, said he is going for any job he can get, while still being very discreet about it.

"I contacted the Zips of Akron University and they weren't interested, I've managed the A's, so the Bears seemed to be a logical choice," the fiery Martin said. Asked how long he would stay at BSC, Martin replied, "You never know, I may get a call from Virginia University to coach the Cavaliers after I get good here, you never know." Martin is currently serving a term at Dannamorra Prison in New York charged with assault and battery on a Plattsburgh, NY girl scout who refused to give Martin a free cookie to sample.

Bridgewater Girl Scout Troop is planning to picket the school as a result of the school's decision.

Accounting Club Wishes To Thank Speaker

Michael B. Tobin, Vice-President of Becker Review, Inc., recently visited the accounting and finance members of the club. Tobin was asked to speak at the request of Mr. John and the representative of Becker Review, Susan Knight, for spending their time helping the students.

Tobin also answered questions about what he would do if the CPA were not a requirement. He also gave a detailed explanation about what a typical CPA does in their profession.

Thank you, Mr. Tobin, for your time and effort in helping our students. Your advice and knowledge will be most welcome.

Sociology Club Tours MCI Possibility of Internships

The Sociology Club sponsored a field trip to the Metropolitan Cooking Institute on December 7th, 1984. Fifteen students, mostly members of the Sociology Club, visited the institute for a tour by Mr. John, a representative of MCI.

MCI's goal is to educate people about the possibility of internships. The tour included a visit to the institute's kitchen, where several different types of meals are prepared. The students were given the opportunity to ask questions and receive hands-on training.

The Sociology Club would like to thank Mr. John for his time and effort in preparing the students for their future careers.

Xenaksis Speaks at BSC

By Gregory P. Gelin, Contributing Writer

The well-known radio personality Allen P. Xenaksis, M.D., was a guest on the radio talk show on WRKO in Boston on December 7th, 1984. Xenaksis was given this opportunity to share his thoughts and experiences with the listening public.

Xenaksis is known for his wit and his ability to make complex ideas understandable. He is a respected and popular figure in the field of radio programming.

The students present at the event were impressed with Xenaksis's ability to connect with the audience and to make complex ideas accessible to a wide range of listeners.

Accounting Club Wishes To Thank Speaker

Michael B. Tobin, Vice-President, Tobin Markets, Inc., recently spoke to members of the Accounting Club in hope of enlightening accounting students about the Becker Review CPA preparatory course. During his presentation, he questioned the students as to what accountants do and what a CPA is. Tobin himself passed the exam his first time attempting it, fresh out of college, and went on to receive a Master’s Degree in Accounting and Finance from Boston University. He also checked Mr. Tobin and the representative of Becker Review, Susan Hooks, for guiding them in the help they needed for the Becker Review CPA preparatory course.

The Sociology Club sponsors a new multidisciplinary colloquium series to bring together students, faculty, and members of the local community to discuss issues relevant to their work and interests. The colloquium series will be held on Wednesdays at 4:00 p.m. in the Social Sciences Building, room 303.

The first colloquium will be on February 1, 1984, and will feature Dr. Barbara L. Williams, Associate Professor of Sociology at Brown University. Dr. Williams will present her research on the effects of poverty on family structure and economic indicators. The colloquium will be open to all interested individuals and is free of charge.

The Sociology Club encourages all members of the campus community to attend and participate in these events, which are designed to promote dialogue and exchange of ideas among students, faculty, and other members of the local community.

Sociology Club Tour: MCC Possibility of Internships

The Sociology Club tour will take place on February 22nd. The club will visit MCC (Mental Health Center), which offers internships to students in the sociology field. The tour will include a guided visit of the facilities, a presentation by staff members, and an opportunity to ask questions and learn about the internship opportunities available.

The Sociology Club welcomes all interested students to attend and participate in this event. The tour is free of charge and will be held in the Social Sciences Building, room 303 at 2:00 p.m.

Women’s Hoop Team Off And Running To Another Winning Season

In 1982 they were 17-8. In 1983 they beat three 20-10 teams. The varsity and intramural programs were a success this year.

Bears Business

By Mike Storry

The midnight castle has been burning longer than usual, with students dying in flames on the third floor. A classmate was dead in the room where the fire started. The cause of death is unknown.

The win raised the Bears to 1-0 in the NCAA post-season tournament. They are now the number one team in the nation.

Women’s Swim Team Loses Opening Meet.

The BSC women’s varsity swim team opened up their 1984-85 season with a loss to UMaine-Presque Isle College, 95-23. The Bears Business women opened up by topping #1 Salem State, 62-47, followed by #2 Boston, 36-18, and #3 Regis, 80-12. The Bears Business women are well on their way and will be open at Salem State on November 2nd.

In 1982 they were 17-7. In 1983 they believed that near to 25-5 bad years the women's basketball squad participated in the NCAA post-season tournament for the first time in their history. The question is, "What won for me the 1984 season?"
Evidently, after the excellent start the Lady Bears are winning more of the games.

The Lady Bears started off the season with an impressive victory over Canisius 81-54. However, in their second game against highly ranked Rider College they lost, 80-70, as a game they were out of, early,.

The next game saw the Lady Bears lost to the State University of New York at Stony Brook, 78-61. This was the indication, the answer.

So after another easy victory 73-63 at the expense of Wiso-consin, 25-5, both years the women's basketball squad participated in the NCAA post-season tournament for the first time in their history. The question is, "What
