Vernon Jarrett at BSC
By Timothy DeVoil
Managing Editor

Vernon Jarrett, the nationally syndicated columnist for the Chicago Sun Times, came to Bridgewater State College last Wednesday to join us in the continuing celebration of Black History Month. Mr. Jarrett is a founder and past president of the NAACP-sponsored program promoting black excellence in high schools, the founder and past president of the National Association of Black Journalists, and a former visiting professor of history at Northwestern University. He has been a journalist for twenty-five years and is considered a foremost authority on black history in the United States.

Drunk Driving

Lateral to the Editor,

Drinking and driving is a serious issue. It seems to be getting more and more media attention. It is something that affects us all. Why? Because it's our problem.

The "it won't happen to me" attitude is wrong. Many claim that it can't happen to them. "I'm not drunk," or "I'm not drinking." The fact is people are not taking driving and drinking seriously. It is not like a game, it is not a party, it is not drinking. DON'T DRIVE! You live and die for the actions of others. You are the one driving.

Kiddie Camp

I have a gripe. It's about the Horace Mann Auditorium in Boyden Hall. What's wrong with the Horace Mann Auditorium? It's a mess, that's what. I always believed that this person could have a whatever name. "It's too heavy for you to carry." It's not. It's too heavy for you and me. It is NOT a gimmick to save space. It is NOT a gimmick to save money. It is NOT a gimmick to save labor. It is NOT a gimmick to save time. It is a gimmick to save your butt. It is a gimmick to save yourself. It is a gimmick to save our society.

Senior Portraits

Studio II will be on campus February 26, 27, 28, and March 26 and 27 from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. in the Make-up Room at the Student Union Bldg.

If you are planning to have your portrait taken through Studio II, then your picture will be taken February 26-27. The picture must be a black & white glossy, 5"x7"" size. The four name, major, reports, must be indicated on the back of your picture. Please turn your picture in to the Business Manager by February 25 at 5 p.m. or to the Comment secretary between 9 a.m. & 2 p.m., Mon.-Fri., or mailed to The Comment.

Remember Spring Break is the deadline!
Drunk Driving

Lestal to the Editor, Drinking and driving is a serious social problem that truly seems to be getting extensive media and public awareness. It is something that affects all of us Why aren’t we doing more, or doing anything? The “It won’t happen to me” attitude seems to be the rule. Many claim they don’t drive after drinking. The problem is that there are no taking responsible actions to prevent this behavior. We can do something—stop drinking and driving.

Irish Festival

The second annual Irish Festival will be the sponsored by the Class of 1988. The festival will be held on Friday, March 11, 1985, in the Heritage Room of the Library.

The festival will include the following events:

1. A concert of Irish music by the Bridgewater State College Chamber Orchestra
2. A lecture on the history of Ireland by Dr. John Murphy, a nationally recognized expert on Irish history
3. A display of Irish literature, including works by authors such as W.B. Yeats and James Joyce
4. A food booth offering Irish-themed dishes

The festival is open to the public and admission is free. Donations are suggested to help support future events.

Groundwork by MassPIRG

Groundwork—both literally and figuratively—has been a constant theme for the MassPIRG team. This year, they continued to push for environmental and social justice issues. Here are some highlights:

- The team worked on issues such as climate change, clean energy, and affordable housing.
- They advocated for policies that promote diversity and inclusion, including issues related to race, gender, and sexuality.
- MassPIRG also worked on improving transparency in the political system, including efforts to reform campaign finance laws.

Through their efforts, the team made strides in advancing issues that are important to the Massachusetts community. They continued to engage with policymakers, community leaders, and the public to effect change.

What a clever way to make a fake headline about something that doesn't exist. However, the real headline is about the Irish Festival and the Classic Act. Let's read the content to understand the context.

MassPIRG Update

On February 15, elections were held for the MassPIRG positions, with the following people being elected: President Rebecca Roberston, Chairman, Kathy Hogan, Secretary; John Blair, Treasurer; and class councilors, Richard Fairman and Kelly, Rich Faustor, and Kristina Robbins. The re-elected positions were chosen by the Student Government Association, and new positions were filled in January.

SGA Notebook

From the Blue Ocean

The following press release came from President Lawrence's office on February 19.

Dear SGA:

OH, no! It looks like our Senate meeting this week will be cancelled. Senate Secretary Lawrence, the SGA's new Secretary, has called a special meeting for this Thursday, February 21, at 4 p.m. in the Senate Chambers. The meeting will be held virtually due to the recent snowstorm. All senators are expected to attend.

Sincerely,
[Signature]
President

SGA report for the February 19 Senate meeting.

Chess Club

Initiated At BSC

Shawn Kraus, a Management Science major with a minor in Chinese, announced the formation of a Chess Club here at BSC. The club's first informal meeting will be held on Thursday, February 21, at 5:00 p.m. in the Student Union Great Room.

Sponsorship from the student government and a $250 allocation from the Student Union budget were granted to the club. Support for the club comes from members of the BSC community and a variety of sources.

Kraus, who started playing chess at the age of 12, said that the club will provide a venue for students interested in playing chess to meet and play. The club will offer a variety of events, including tournaments and informal matches.

The meeting was called to order; the minutes approved; and the financial report read. The establishment of the Senate Funding, and the move across the hall. He for certain members of the Ways and Means Committee who had the little boy. Lastly, Lawrence thanked all the senators had attended the Ways and Means committee meeting last Monday. The situation is, a good example of how the commit-tee system and help maintain the good working relationship that the members of the committee must have to work with. As far as construc- tion goes, we call it to allow Election's Director kept her head and worked in the darts "playing" office; she is in the below comments, and her reintroduced. "The certain obviously saning "playing" office is not the same thing as the "real" office. The reasons of the previous meeting were approved and the financial report read. The Elec-tions Committee, Educational Affairs Committee, and Publications Committee submitted reports. The minutes of the previous meetings were approved. The motion to reconsider passed, and the motion to reconsider failed, from conferences to Reserve. The Board of the Darcy Award? asks theSGA. He answered that it will take some time. But it is up to the students themselves to decide whether or not to hold a ceremony.

We are trying to make a few new things work, such as the committee system, and it will take some time to get it up. But it is up to the senators to make these new things work. With innovative ideas and a positive attitude, the Student Government will be made. And if it is not, the certain senators shall be the ones to blame.

Chess Club Initiated At BSC

Sheldon Kraus, a Management Science major with a concentration in Environmental Management, is forming a Chess Club here at BSC. The first informal meeting will be held on Thursday, February 9th from 11:00 am in the Student Union Green Room.

Kraus, who started playing chess seriously in 1972 in the midst of the "Fischer Boom", has had quite a bit of experience in the chess circles. He was director of the Plymouth-Carver High School Chess team in 1979 and is a past president of the Plymouth Rooks, a South Shore area club. As a player, Kraus humbly stated that he is "fairly good", with a United States Chess Federation rating of 1255 and climbing at an average of 42 points per tournament. Most recently, he placed second in the 60th Annual West. em Massachusetts (Connecticut Valley) Open held at A.C. in Springfield. He also expects to participate in the 94th Rhode Island State Tournament in March. The next summer he will play at the Shank's Chess Club in Manchester, New Hampshire and most likely the annual tournament in the fall.

The Chess Club at BSC. Sheldon is hoping to generate more interest in the game and build player strengths and experience. For more information, contact Tom Corbett at 697-5399.

Keep an eye open for flyers around campus in the coming weeks.

Getting by on Less...Again!

By Blue Crew Staff Writer

According to the current advertisements “Call today to find out how you’re going to have to get by with a little less.”

In this land of equality, where all are “called to be a part of the ‘equal opportunity’, just what does this mean?

We are supposed to assume that we will be equally able to get by on less. Are pre-natal offices going to stop offering anything for dinner to an elderly couple on social security? Will our elderly family waning to get by on less still require information because of student loans? Who will be “equally” getting by on less? If we have an official having to give up their car because of the chosen ones between buses and food stamps?

For those that are reasonably employed, disabled, single parents, or poor in every way the person that is poor does not have what the rich have. This is why we as a society have to compete with the “less” that the rich have on offer.

The problem lies not with the individual that finds it necessary to become between less and food. The problem lies with us as a society, as we have not yet overcome this society. The rich can do it for us by giving charity accepting the (horrified) and to actually help the person in need, truly helping, the reality.

Center City. We are supposed to be continuing the tradition that this country was founded on. Freedom, justice, equality. Where are these basic things that are found connecting the elderly to our current generation? Is there any genuine interest in our elders?

Your face about living in a state of poverty because the quality of your life depends on what you can afford. The equality and justice in the choice that the opposite sex have to change their status in this country as things stand now? We don’t have equality.

It’s up to us. Together we can work to change this. Instead of limiting our rule to the smokestacks, let the rich and the poor start the long road to breaking the cycle of poverty. We are supposed to be continuing the tradition that this country was founded on. Freedom, justice, equality. Where are these basic things that are found connecting the elderly to our current generation? Is there any genuine interest in our elders?

The sitting season has ended for winter sports. Post-season play has begun for many of the winter sports.

The women's basketball team (7-8) was game true for the last game of the year with a chance to clinch a national tournament berth. If they did have the chance to clinch a berth in the playoffs, they would have to defeat the #1 seed in the NCAA regionals this Friday (March 15). The tournament should consist of BSC, Salem State (Mass.), WPI (Conn.) and either Clark (16-5) or RIC (12-5). The tournament should not be finalized as of Tuesday. The Lady Bears should be the top seed for the tournament, but you can be sure a few won't be easy pickings with the usual suspects in the mix.

The women's gymnastics team travels to Rhode Island College in the New England Division III Gymnastics Championship. The regular season with an impressive 5-1-2 record. This should do very well at BIC and have an outside chance of winning in the regionals.

The men's soccer team (7-9) is on top of the New England Division III field. The team has won 7 straight games to end the season.

The BSC men's lacrosse club is starting to get ready for the spring season. Anytime anyone interested in joining should see Mike Stanyer in the Kelly Gym. Walking security leaves Leave Freedom in early May for the New England field. So get your team together and have a good season this year.

Spring sports (basketball, softball, and women's lacrosse) have all begun informal practices. Regular practices should begin later this week. Anyone interested or anyone who might have a good season should contact the Athletic Office or Coaches Brian Ruggiero or Chris Cherry. The scheduled times are: March 14 for basketball, March 15 for softball and March 17 for women's lacrosse.

Outdoor sports (baseball, softball, and women's lacrosse) have all begun informal practices. Regular practices should begin later this week. Anyone interested or anyone who might have a good season should contact the Athletic Office or Coaches Brian Ruggiero or Chris Cherry. Dear P.J.,

I am a commuter who just moved into a dorm last fall. I have been going through the same thing that you are. It is not an easy thing that you are doing, and even now I can't swallow another bite, then throw up and not eat food. I know that there is someone who is going through the same thing and that I am not alone. I have been going through this for years, and I am twenty years old. I think I have lost all my friends, and I have bulimia, an eating disorder, and I cry myself to sleep. I have been bulimia, an eating disorder, for many years now and don't have anyone to talk to. If I asked anyone, they would just laugh at me. I know it's not a good thing to do, but it's not easy to stop doing it, and I get very depressed when I can't stop throwing up, but it's not that serious, is it? What should I tell my friends? I need help from the College Center, or you may want to drop by the Plymouth County Room to talk to. The best place to find an opportunity is the Center for Alcohol and Substance Education. You can get help by calling the College Health Center on the 3rd floor of the Student Union Building. Rozz Morrison at the S.G.A. office is best at this.

My name is Jane Smith, and I am a commuter. However, I would be the only person who is interested in talking to you about the weeks' end.

Sincerely,
Jane Smith

On Wednesday, February 13, Brown's G.M. Harry Simond announced that head coach Robert Parker is the starting pitcher. Hopefully there will be no changes. We will see who gets retired.

For the past two weeks, the Celtics have been working overtime to bring back the last time they have had to this point, which is a statistic that means a lot to us. We are happy to see that the Celtics are on the right track, but they still have a lot of work to do.

Senior Corner

Dear Senior,

Before I ask about it... This is it! That’s right, last semester at BC and now we know we will be putting up on our caps and gowns. And there is a whole group of students who are working to make our last semester at BC one to remember. There are many things we can do to make our senior week special and other activities. Some of the traditional senior week ideas such as homecoming dance, a farewell party, and a senior class bus trip to the beach are virtually impossible, but there are still many ideas and work to focus on bringing our senior year to a close and making sure we pass through our senior year smoothly and without too much stress. So here are a few ideas:

1. Senior Picnic: This is a great way to bring the senior class together and enjoy some food and drinks before the end of the school year. It can be held on the school grounds, near the beach, or at a nearby park. Make sure to have plenty of food, drinks, and music.

2. Senior Video: Create a senior video that captures memories from your time at BC. It can include footage of senior events, special moments, and personal messages from students, faculty, and staff. You can make it a collaborative project, involving as many seniors as possible.

3. Senior Class Trip: Organize a class trip to a destination of your choice. It can be a day trip or a longer stay, depending on the distance and logistics. Plan activities that everyone will enjoy, such as sightseeing, hiking, or visiting local attractions.

4. Senior Party: Host a senior party at your residence or on campus. It can be a casual get-together or a more formal event, depending on the occasion. Make sure to have enough food, drinks, and music to ensure a great time.

5. Senior Class Gift: Consider buying a senior class gift that will be a lasting reminder of your time at BC. It can be as simple as a keychain or as elaborate as a custom yearbook or plaque.

Remember, the most important thing is to have fun and enjoy the final semester of your college career. Be sure to take plenty of photos and videos to capture your memories.

Sincerely,

The seniors of BC

Vernon Jarrett, the nationally syndicated columnist for the Chicago Sun Times, came to Bridgewater State College but Wednesday as part of the continuing celebration of Black History Month. Mr. Jarrett is a founding father of "Olympia of the Mind", the NAACP sponsored program promoting black excellence in high schools. This year marks a five year anniversary of that program in the United States.

Black History Month, which began after the death of Frederick Douglass in 1915, started as a way to highlight the achievements of African Americans during the month of February, which was once the anniversary of the birthday of President Abraham Lincoln. The program was started by Carter G. Woodson, a black historian, who wanted to bring awareness to the contributions of black people in history.

Mr. Jarrett spoke to the students about the importance of education and how it can lead to better opportunities in life. He shared stories of his own personal experiences and how they influenced his career as a journalist. Mr. Jarrett also discussed the importance of civil rights and how they have evolved over time.

Mr. Jarrett's message was well-received by the students and his words of encouragement were inspiring. He ended his speech by reminding the students to never give up on their dreams and to always strive for excellence.

The event was sponsored by the Student Government Association and the Black Student Union. It was held in the Student Center on campus. The program was well-attended by students, faculty, and staff.

The February/March issue of THE COMMENT is available in the CP office. Some programs may also be considered. The Student Recruitment Committee is available in the Career Services Office. Some programs will be held throughout the semester.
