Endorsement Letter

As an open letter to [College Name],

I want to take this opportunity to support [College Name].

As a [College Name] graduate, I have been following developments in [College Name] closely. I believe that [College Name] is the logical choice. [College Name] offers a unique and exciting environment for students to pursue their passions and achieve their goals. I have always admired the dedication and commitment of [College Name] faculty and staff. I believe that [College Name] is the right place for me.

Thank you for considering my letter.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]
$100,000

Last March, a group of interested citizens, town and village residents, and alumni of the College met over breakfast to decide whether to raise $100,000 in honor of the 100th anniversary of the Bridgate College Foundation. Dr. Gerald T. Finkleberg, President of Bridgewater College, said, "I was in the position of the Board of Trustees, and in the mood that the College was serious in the commitment of all members of the Board to the cause of the College. We were determined to do everything within our power to raise the money." The campaign was launched, and on Thursday, May 4, 1985, the goal was reached.

Endorsement Letter

An open letter to the . . .

I want to take this opportunity to endorse the Bridgate State College for their efforts in raising funds to help the College. I have been a member of the Board of Trustees, and I am very pleased with the results of their efforts. I am certain that the success of this campaign is due to the hard work of all involved.

The position of Trustee is one that carries with it a great deal of responsibility. The Board of Trustees must be willing to make difficult decisions. I believe that the Board of Trustees is working hard to make the College successful.

Bridgewater State College is an excellent institution of higher education. It is a great place to receive an education. I am very proud of the work that is being done at the College.

Sincerely,

Parks and Recreation

I don’t know if this information is true, but someone told me the other day at the park that if you park your car in the parking lot, the campus police can give you a ticket.

Since people are parking in this area, it shouldn’t be allowed. When asked about parking, the administration claims they don’t have a policy. Apparently, people can do what they want. I feel this is an issue that should be brought to the attention of the community.

I was told that if you park your car on the street, you can still get a ticket. I hope this information is true, but I am not sure. If it is true, I hope the administration does something about it.

Sincerely,

The SGA Notebook

Mike Lombardo, News Editor

This week’s SGA President Denis Lawrence addressed the Senate on several issues concerned with student government. Lawrence began by saying that any changes for the office moves are coming as a result of the vote on the new Senate meeting area, which is not making any input. He was also introduced to SGA members to the new meeting area, but he doesn’t want to see him in the current meeting area. Lawrence then moved to talk about the Senate. The SGA is a relaxing and fun break.

WBIM Exclusive Interview with The Nails

By Mark Avery

The following is an interview with Mark Avery and the Nails, recorded in the studio of Mark Avery in New York City. The interview is conducted by Mark Avery, the Director of WBIM, and is distributed on the radio. The Nails are composed of members from various parts of the United States and have been together for several years. Their music is characterized by a fusion of rock and country elements.

WBIM: How do you enjoy Boston?
Mark Avery: We've been there a few times and it's always a good time. The people are friendly and the food is great.

WBIM: What is your favorite thing about Boston?
Mark Avery: It's the people! Everyone is so welcoming and friendly. It's a great city.

WBIM: Have you played any of your favorite venues in Boston?
Mark Avery: We've played at the House of Blues and the Paradise. It's always a blast playing there.

WBIM: What is your favorite memory from a show in Boston?
Mark Avery: One time we played at the Boston Marathon and the energy was incredible. It was a great experience.

WBIM: What is your favorite thing about being on tour?
Mark Avery: It's being on the road and meeting new people. It's always exciting to see where we'll be tomorrow.

WBIM: What is your goal for the rest of the tour?
Mark Avery: Our goal is to continue playing and making people smile with our music. We want to keep spreading our message and connecting with our fans.

WBIM: What is your favorite song to play live?
Mark Avery: It really depends on the crowd and the atmosphere, but our song 'The Nails' is always a favorite.

USA for Africa 46 Superstars Band Together

By Gregory Mathis Staff Writer

The making of the super star band to benefit the continent of Africa has been in the planning stages for several months. With the first formal announcement coming out of London on Wednesday, March 3, it was announced that 46 artists from 17 countries around the world would be joining forces in a live television special scheduled for February 26 in Los Angeles.

The band, designated as "USA for Africa," will be led by such superstars as Cyndi Lauper, Bruce Springsteen, Queen, Michael Jackson, Paul McCartney, Elton John, and many others. The band will perform "We Are the World," a song written by Lionel Richie and barricade to be released later this month.

The proceeds will be used to finance the construction of schools in Africa, and the band will also tour Africa, performing in 20 countries in the next 12 months.

The news has been welcomed by many, as the music industry has long been criticized for its lack of involvement in social causes. The band's commitment to using its platform for good is seen as a significant move forward.

The band's tour will take them to South Africa, Nigeria, Kenya, and many other countries in the next 12 months, with the goal of raising awareness and funds for the construction of schools and other projects. The tour is scheduled to begin in May and continue through the end of the year.

The news has been met with enthusiasm by many, with many individuals and organizations expressing their support for the band's efforts. The band's commitment to using its platform for good is seen as a significant move forward, and the news has been welcomed by many as a symbol of hope and progress.

It's been another outstanding year for the Bridgewater State Colonials women's basketball team. They have compiled a winning season and are still playing in the NCAA tournament. Their team has surpassed expectations and has become one of the best teams in the nation.

The team's goal was to make it to the NCAA tournament, and they have not disappointed. They have won their first two tournament games, defeating Curry College and Salem State University. They are now playing against the University of Rhode Island in the third round.

The Colonials are led by head coach Jim Aiken, who has guided the team to success. He has built a strong team with great chemistry and a strong work ethic.

The Colonials have a deep bench with many players contributing to the team's success. They have a strong defense and a potent offense, and they are a team to watch in the tournament.

Bridgewater State University is a great place to receive a great education and to be a part of a strong sports program. If you are looking for a great college experience, then Bridgewater State is the place for you.
DEAR P.J.

Dear P.J.,

A few days ago I get into a fight with one of my best friends and I haven't spoken to her since. I don't know how, but I don't want to lose her. I've been friends too long. I am too afraid to ask her forgiveness. I want to try to be a better friend. I've been friends with her for a long time and I don't want her to be upset. I want to make sure that we are friends again. I really want to apologize.

Sincerely,

P.J.
