Rathskeller begins serving alcoholic beverages

By Roger Spring

The eight month drought has ended. On Tuesday, Jan. 14, Bridgewater's popular pub, the Rathskeller, once again began to serve alcoholic beverages.

The drought was caused when the Rat, "the almost all other establishments in Massachusetts, was unable to purchase liquor liability insurance," according to Student Union Director, Richard Veno.

Insurance companies, fearing the potential for huge settlements due to alcohol related accidents, were no longer willing to accept policies for establishments such as the Rat. "There was never a problem with our liquor license," Veno said, "but it would have been foolish to serve alcohol without liquor liability insurance."

This insurance became available when the Massachusetts State Legislature created the Joint Underwriting Association. The J.U.A. is comprised of many insurance companies, each accepting a small part of the risk. It provides liquor liability insurance for those establishments unable to buy it anywhere else. (Unless the legislature takes steps to end this situation in two years. "Hopefully we'll be able to purchase liquor liability insurance elsewhere by then," Veno said.)

The J.U.A. Policy makes the Student Union presently liable for any damages done, whether in the Rathskeller or Dining Room. In the past, other venues, such as full liquor events in either of these two facilities, or events where alcohol has been served in events other than the Rat or Dining Room, were made possible by a single day license. Since this one-day license is not covered by J.U.A. insurance, these events will no longer be held.

The insurance, which would pay up to $100,000 per person and $1,000,000 per incident, cost $1,250 per year. This, plus the cost of general liability insurance, amounts to $5,000.

"It would have been foolish to serve alcohol without liquor liability insurance."

Christopher J. Harwood, Rathskeller manager, greets customers.

You're not 21 you just shouldn't try."

Veno said. "But we're glad that he is pleased with the Rat, saying that it is a "few key, safe, comfortable places for our people - our dorms, faculty and staff - to go and have a little fun, have a drink, or soft drink, and pizza, and to know that they're in an environment that we can control and they can feel good about."

R.S.C. police Chief Frank Orme is also glad to see the Rat open. "It eliminates the danger of driving for workers," he said. "It's a well put together staff and a well behaved crowd."

This issue is dedicated to the memory of Dr. Edmund J. Haughey. Dr. Haughey passed away on Sunday, January 12, 1986. His death deeply saddened the entire college community of Bridgewater.

Dr. Haughey founded and directed the Academic Advising Center as well as to the beautiful town of Bridge- water, and to his historical part of our great nation."

New BSC shuttle bus route for commuters

by Mary Beth McNell

The Bridgewater State College Shuttle Bus Service has expanded its route to better serve commuters, visitors, students, and faculty. The bus route now goes to the Lower Great Hill, better known as the commuter. Parking Lot. The service runs from 7:40 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. This is not a one-time event, but it is a major step toward improving the quality of life for our students and faculty.

All student clubs, organizations, dorm councils, fraternities/sororities and other student groups welcome.
Many farewells to and from your S.G.A.

By Cindy Napier

The SGA meeting started off on the right foot as the minutes of the previous meeting failed 3-4 due to lack of quorum.

Several areas of the Gymnasium or Woodlawn Pool were mentioned in the discussion of the Safety and Security Committee's proposals for improvements. The following regulations will save you time:

1. The fact that you are away or asleep is not a valid reason to permit the plowing of walkways and parking areas of the Gymnasium or Woodlawn Pool. The plowing of these areas is necessary for the safety of the students. The bus route now goes to the Lower Great Hill Lot, or to the second anniversary this month. Ten new drivers have been trained, bringing the number of student drivers to 24, to accommodate the 1800 to 2400 passengers they transport daily.

The service has experienced an overall increase in ridership, and full capacity for the 1986 college year. The shuttle service celebrates its 2nd anniversary this month. Ensemble students compete for scholarship award

By Barbara J. Murphy

Four students from the Ensemble Theatre were chosen to compete for the Irene Ryan Scholarship Award at the Regional Festival on January 22-24 at the University of New Hampshire. Rondileau will make his last trip, as he said, "You can get on your career choice. Good luck!"

BLOOM COUNTY

Dear P.J.,

I am presently a junior here at Bridgewater State College, and I have no idea as to what I would like my career to be. I have to decide because I've completed all my general education requirements, and I am having trouble finding courses to take. Any advice?

Signed, Joanna Jordan

Dear P.J.,

I was driven absolutely insane by teachers and peers in high school. She is the biggest pride I have ever met! But we've been looking for a while now that we want to do until later.

Roniddle reflects

By Stella Wider

The coming week brings alternating periods of satisfaction and disappointment. Whether involved in career matters, social functions of social-timeorientation, individuals will be aware of the one-step-forward-two-steps-backward syndrome that is prevalent. The weeks will simply ebb and flow with the flux, instinctively discovering that it is frustrating to try to increase, setting, and energy. Toward week's end, however, there is an observable shift in the patterns.

Personal relationships need not suffer if efforts from the up-at-the-end, forward-and-back nature of the next five or six days. However, rational, distance may return. Children may have special needs for guidance this week and, accordingly, may lose self-entanglements to responsibility and rearing up.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) - Moodswings on the parts of those with whom you must work closely. The week may diminish your joy. (Feb. 4-Feb. 10) - Don't allow pride in stand in the way of the help from it for one more being more fortunate than you.

PIECES (Feb. 19-March 5) - Any grandiose ideas will have to go by the board this week. Stick strictly to the more common causes. March 6-March 12 - Change of occupation leads to a much-needed change of perspective. See matters of truth.

ARIES (March 21-April 3) - Don't worry about periods of unproductivity. Be content with slow, even steady, progress. (April 3-April 18) - You can improve young people to their best attitudes this week, even though their week may bring on no self-mockery.

Taurus (April 20-May 20) - High ideals are not the answer to frustrations this week. Lower your sights a bit and enjoy the results. (May 6-May 20) - Shills in mood and lighting up. Try to keep even. (May 27-June 2) - Be on the look out for your future and life may be a bit of a self-mockery.

GEMINI (June 21-June 26) - Your natural versatility should enable you to be a bit of a self-mockery with whatever comes your way. Subdue emotional responses. (June 26-June 27) - Your improvement in emotional stability can make up for the past week in the week.

Cancer (June 21-July) - It is necessary that you judge characters this week. Your wisdom depends upon your choice of companions. (July 4-July 22) - Reconsider any decisions that would take you away from loved ones. This is a week for cultivating 'for the self'

Leo (July 23-Aug. 8) - You will be judged for your mental and moral character this week. All things physical back break (Aug. 8-Aug. 22) - Use your discerning faculties to advantage. You can put another's error to work for you.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) - The general run of the self-mockery is optimistic - though it may not seem so until the weekend rolls around. (Sept. 2, Sept. 16) - You have a marked influence on the young people this week, if you can be kept at to talk to them.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 2) - You can't get away from this week without being true to your talents or your energy. Be bold and determined. (Oct. 4- Oct. 22) - Friends appear behind the game or too jaded. You would do well to keep plans and options for this week.

Scorpio (Oct. 22-Nov. 7) - Don't doubt your own ability to succeed - make no move until the time is ripe for action. (Nov. 8-Nov. 21) - Discard belief in the work if you are in love. Otherwise, he or she will take advantage of the self-mockery.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) - You may find yourself victim of a mental disposal this week. Try to remain open to change. (Dec. 3-Jan. 18) - Give full attention to the jobs at hand. Look neither forward or back, but stick distinctly to the present.

Capricorn (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) - Settle arguments among family members. If done well, this will consume the week. (Mar. 20-Mar. 21) - Personal property causes tension between you and an old friend. Give up material objects to preserve relationship.

Goldberg makes her golden debut

The Color Purple

Alisa Walker's comedy, Pulitzer Prize-winning novel The Color Purple comes to the screen as Steven Spielberg's most powerful, personal film to date and represents a marked departure for the director. Danny Glover and Whoopi Goldberg star in the film, which Spielberg directed from the screenplay adapted by Mensa Meza, Kathleen Kennedy, Frank Marshall and Quincy Jones. Goldberg played with Spielberg for Joe Pesci and Peter O'Toole were the executive producers. Music for the Warner Bros. release is by Quincy Jones.

This is a powerful, specific story about one family, in the South of the early 20th century, and the peculiar story they endure because of circumstance, tradition and hand-down tradition.

About the Story:

In a small Georgia town in 1930, young Celie, hardly more than a child herself, gives birth to a child by the man she calls "Papa," who takes the infant from her at birth, and will tell her no more about her son. For 14 years she must bear her pain in silence. One day, Celie meets an older woman, Nettie, who tells her an astonishing secret - her sister Nettie has written to her, using the letters of a white man. Reclaiming the truth of her own identity and her existence, Celie makes her way to what is now a small town in Africa.

About the Film:

For The Color Purple was released on 24 March 1985 and grossed over $280 million worldwide. The film was nominated for 11 Academy Awards, including Best Picture, Best Director, and Best Actress (Whoopi Goldberg). Goldberg's performance was particularly praised, and she went on to win the Academy Award for Best Actress for her role in the film.

Goldberg makes her golden debut

The Color Purple

Alice Walker’s joyous, Pulitzer Prize-winning novel The Color Purple comes to the screen as Steven Spielberg’s most powerful, personal film to date and represents a marked departure for the noted filmmaker.

Denny Glenn and Whoopi Goldberg are in the film, which Spielberg directed from the screenplay adapted by Menno Meyjes. Kathleen Kennedy, Frank Marshall, and Quincy Jones produced with Spielberg. Jon Peters and Peter Oeter were the executive producers. Music for the Warner Bros. release is by Quincy Jones.

Strengthening with Gloria and Goldberg are Alakhil Caesar, Margaret Avery and Ron Davis. Chaka Wofford, Wilford Pugh and Aloma Beck Scott.

It is a powerful, specific story about one family, in the South of the early 20th century, and the perilous story they endure because of circumstance, tradition and hand-down victimization.

Rounding out the distinguished cast, in supporting roles, are Carl Anderson, Susan Beashal, Lynn Fildon, Benet Gulllcey, Dana Ivey, Donna Jackson, Lennard Jackson and Joel Patton.

About the Story...

In a small Georgia town in 1966, young Celie, hardly more than a child herself, gives birth to a baby boy, and is forced by the man she calls “Mr.,” who takes the infants from her at birth, and will tell her no more about their fate.

Her blossoming finds full flower when Mr., comes into Celie’s life, that she begins to heal with the healing power of love.

Sustained by the close bond with her younger sister Nettie, Celie submerges her life in the 19th century, and the particular story they endure because of circumstance, tradition and hand-down victimization.

Whoppee Goldberg, as Celie, confers with producer/director Steven Spielberg.

About the Filming...

The Color Purple was filmed on locations in North Carolina, where an authentic historic structure was restored and reconstructed as Mr. ‘s house, on a former plantation near Wadesboro. A 66-year-old church, scheduled for demolition, was relocated to the property and Mr. ‘s house and Hattie’s house were constructed nearby, all nearly within sight of each other.

Also on the same property, the Maggie-Flanders home that later becomes Mr. ‘s house was reconstructed exactly on the site on a hillside which was saved with fences scheduled the bloom of flowers, and the waving, vivid purple carpet that served as backdrop for two of the film’s memorable scenes.

A full street in nearby Marshville was reconstructed as the main street of a small Georgia town. This called for the printing of a Georgia-city street over modern pavement, and the widening of the street to authentically represent its appearance in years ranging from 1890 to 1907.

Other scenes were filmed in the Los Angeles area and in Nairobi, Kenya, in East Africa.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

On Friday, December 6, the Bridgewater community came together to a splendid Christmas concert in the Mason Music Pavilion, conducted by Dr. Jacob Liberman. The choir program opened with the Chamber Singers presenting "O Come, All Ye Faithful," and concluded with "Adeste Fideles" and "Silent Night." The program included a variety of music, the style of classics and plainsong by the entire ensemble in those moving numbers was admirable, as were the singing style of the soloists Edward Vigo (Vocal), Nancy Egan (Vocal), and Andrew Osborn (Vocal). The second set of Christmas music included modern pieces, sung by the choir, with solos Michael Hurst and Tawanya. The first half of the program concludes with the audience joining the choir in a sing three Christmas carols.

The second half of this concert was devoted to a single work: Glorias by the Italian Baroque composer Antonio Vivaldi. The text is derived from Luke 2:14, when angels announced Christ's birth, and the musical style corresponds to the second part of the Roman Mass. The 12-part open eyes and closes with a spirited Christmas cheer, and the musical style corresponds to the second part of the Roman Mass. These services are all printed in program and will remain strictly a light and hopeful message of the "Mission Note," which should be a voice in a song a month or so from now.

The instrumentalists accompanied by the first time of the Mass, the full ensemble of the church, accompanied by the second voice, and the assembly by a harmonized sound. Parsley and Dias reach career milestones

By Anthony Fagen

Carolyn Parsley scored her 1,000th point last Thursday night in the Bears (68-66) win over Western New England to give her 1,000-point career plateau. Parsley and Mark Dias, who have both conquered the 1,000-point plateau this season.

Parsley, a 57th Physical Education major, has been a freshman for the Bears. As a senior with great ball movement and a keen sense of place where to shoot from the floor, she has 117 goals out of 268 shots from beyond the arc, showing that she has a good eye for driving to the hoop. She has 131 field goals out of 298 shots from the floor, giving her an 80.3% field goal percentage. Parsley has three goals and five assists as she passes the ball to her teammates. She has a 20.6 assists per game average, and she has been a key player in the Bears' success in the MASCAC.

Dias has been a senior at Framingham State University since he began his college career. He is double figures with 11-2 wins so far this semester. They have had decisive victories over Castleton (81-43), Westfield State (74-40), and North Adams (77-52). Dias has been a member of the Eastern Mass/Boston Athletic Conference All-Star Team.

Framingham State took the right first half, but the Bears took over in the second half of the game to beat Framingham State, 65-43.

The Bears held a 38-30 first half lead, thanks in part to sophomore Steve Fagen popping in 11 points, and Senior Lopes and Bob Dibari hitting 8 points each. The game was made close with Doug Fagen's scoring, Peach's 3-point shot, and Bob Dibari's free throw. The Bears took the lead in the second half, but the Bears held on for a 38-point margin. The game was made close with Doug Fagen's scoring, Peach's 3-point shot, and Bob Dibari's free throw.

The Bears' scoring was distributed among the team, with seven players scoring in double figures. Steve Fagen led with 16 points, followed by Bob Dibari with 14 points, and Doug Fagen with 13 points. The Bears' defense was strong, holding Framingham State to only 43 points. Despite the loss, Framingham State's offense was strong, with six players scoring in double figures. Parsley and Dias reach career milestones

By Anthony Fagen

Senior Caroline Parsley became the second woman's basketball player in Bridgewater State history to reach the 1000 point plateau, as the Bears came back in the second half to romp the Framingham State Rams, 79-33. Parsley's historic night was highlighted by her 1000th career point, which came when she passed the milestone in the third quarter against Anna Maria College.

The Bears (12-2) overcame a 13-point deficit to win their 10th straight game, with junior Amanda Runge hitting a three-pointer with 34 seconds remaining in the game to set the record.

Parsley scored 21 points in the game, with 10 of her points coming in the third quarter, where she surpassed the 1000-point mark. She finished with 12 rebounds, five assists, and two steals, becoming the second woman's basketball player in Bridgewater State history to reach the 1000 point plateau.

Caroline Parsley scored her 1000th career point in the game against Anna Maria College. She is currently averaging 17.7 points and rebounding with seven assists per game.

As a team, the Bears are averaging 77.4 points per game and shooting 46.3 percent from the field. They also lead the country in three-point shooting with 4.3 per game.

The Bears have four players scoring in double figures with Steve Ponzano (14.0), Fisher (13.4), Mazzicato (13.3), and DaVitt (10.5). DaVitt leads all assist leaders with 8 (8) per game. Also among the Bears are averaging (8.5) per game and allowing (67.5) per game.

The Bears are currently (1-2) in the MASCAC conference with their next MASCAC opponent being Western New England on Saturday, January 28. The conference is extremely competitive this year with at least four teams in the running for a spot. With a few more conference wins, the Bears could be part of that mix.

The gymnastics team started off their season in fine form. With a score of 132.5, the gymnasts topped both Smith College and Babson College in their first performance of the year.

The Bears are back-to-back MACAC tournament champions and are looking for their first win of the season. Both teams lose to SUNY New Paltz in the past.

The men's and women's teams have a few free weeks to recover before their next MASCAC tournament game.

The men's basketball team (6-0) are looking to go over the 20-win mark and string a few victories together. For this season, the Bears have won 26 games in a row and are back to back in the conference.

The Bears are averaging 80.2 points per game and shooting 45.5 percent from the field. They also lead the country in three-point shooting with 4.3 per game.

The Bears have four players scoring in double figures with Steve Ponzano (14.0), Fisher (13.4), Mazzicato (13.3), and DaVitt (10.5). DaVitt leads all assist leaders with 8 (8) per game. Also among the Bears are averaging (8.5) per game and allowing (67.5) per game.

Rondleau resigns

BSC's Pres. Rondleau resigns

Rondleau's resignation was noted on and accepted by the Board of Trustees and the establishment of a screening and search committee will begin shortly. This committee, which will be chosen by the Board, will include members of the administration, faculty, student body, alumni, and trustees. They will interview all applicants. After they make their recommendations to the Board, the Board, in turn, will make their recommendations to the Massachusetts Board of Regents.

BSC President, who has been in office during what has been a period of great diversification and enrollment of college, pledged in his letter of resignation that he would "always have a deep and lasting commitment this college community, to the beautiful stages of Bridge­ water, and to this historical part of our great nation."
