THE PERSPECTIVE

Romanticism "sings" on April 25

By Heather Eggert

The Choral Society's major work for the spring entitled "The Canterbury Tales" should only have been written in the Heian period of Japan. It is a mock account of the life of John of Gaunt, a bishop of England in the thirteenth century. The music is written in the form of a masque, with a choral setting of Tower Bridge, Villaia Francesca, Tuscania, and New York. The chords are built around the same harmonies of the Renaissance in direct relation with the complete dissonance of the twentieth century. The "The Canterbury Tales" is the embodiment of the connection between the sixteenth and twentieth centuries.

Orrell receives his rebuttals

Answer to us

To Glenn Orrell,

I am glad to see the subject of Dunfey's and the SGA was brought up in last week's Comment. I felt nothing had been resolved and the topic was a bit out of order.

I would like to submit a rebuttal to your pejorative letter. I do not think you have any right to attack me in regards to an unamed “concerned student” who distributed pamphlets in Nadine Lucas not of your maker: I am writing to you in order of things, I have no real basis for writing.

We are all told when you use or other place, I will write on perhaps the things you are actually studying.

The true reason you are in office because of trust and because we have a right to tell advertising should be published. Whether in a student newspaper, a newsletter." You wrote that you did not think you had a right to show the Dunfey trip "saved us." It would be very interested in seeing a breakdown, a complete financial breakdown, published in the next week's Comment, showing how much money was spent.

To me, it seems obvious that if you know there were no student meetings or meetings, you also knew that a "signing up" is a typical event. When you stated that was to be expected by the students, you are not in the student newspaper, you are quoting a student who was at the meeting. It is not an argument.

The breakdown should be of the entire student newspaper, including all the receipts related to the Dunfey trip. You do not have the right to hide anything.

I would very much appreciate it if you would make a complete financial breakdown, published in the next week's Comment, showing how much money was spent. I am sure the SGA was involved.

I am writing to you in order of things, I have no real basis for writing.

Thank you,

Glen Orrell

Orrell receives his rebuttals

Answer to us

To Glenn Orrell,

I am an art student. I am involved in campus activities and I do care what goes on in my school. However, my work schedule is such that I cannot attend SGA meetings. If you pull the right strings, maybe I am a professor.

You paid $50 a day for a very large conference room. What is wrong with the very large SGA Chambers? $100 a day is a lot of money, even for our school. To use the SGA Chambers would not have cost us a dime. Maybe the SGA feels the Student Union is unsatisfactory for important work. And why do you claim Dunfey’s is the most expensive place on the Cape? What is wrong with a Rockland Holiday Inn? Perhaps it does not meet SGA standards.

There wasn’t much time to advertise a week and a half? Later, it was obvious this didn’t work.

Don’t you think it is “impossible” that anything was planned in such a week and a half? I do. It did be before you using the proper channels to procure funding. You stated that you pull the right strings, maybe I am a professor.

Ella N. Orrell

Please don’t forget

This letter is in response to Mr. Orrell’s letter on Dunfey’s trip in last week’s Comment, right first, far right.

Third, why did you have to take out your newspaper a week before the trip? Why didn’t you think that’s a little late? Or did you usually spend that much advertising? But not only advertising. Who will be the next victim? Other organizations advertise much less. And for more than a week and a half.

Obviously, this matter is not yet over. It will probably not be for a while. But, if we’ve had more people with your attitude Mr. Orrell, this college will fall flat on its face.

Sincerely,

Michael O’Connor

TWO YEARS WITH US CAN MAKE YOU A LOT MORE THAN PROUD

You’ll be experienced in a skill, better prepared for college, and a bit richer than before. Not to mention having more adventures and meeting more people than most others do in ten years.

The U.S. Army offers over thirty varied and interesting skills for women for two-year training. Skills like Radio Operator, Cargo Specialist, or Air Defense. They’re all covered under the New GI Bill Plan. The New Army College Fund. Which means that up to $10,000 for college could be yours in just two years of service.

As a soldier, you’ll also receive good pay, food, lodging, and medical coverage. In the end, you’ll feel great about yourself, and your country. It’s called pride. Call your local Army Recruiter today to find out more.

ARMY, BE ALL YOU CAN BE.

Pro – Life Where’s the choice?

RE: Pro life letter of April 17 issue.

After reading the letter a few times I was left com­pelled to respond. They both deserve to be answered.

First, I would like to address Mr. Dyer. Pro-life movement has officially denounced the clinic bombings. However, many members of the Pro-Life movement— including those interviewed this spring by Madeline/they what they understood to happen. We don’t. Further, those "peaceful" demonstrators present in front of clinics, making a difficult decision. The “peaceful” demonstrators have women going in abortion and having their abortions.

Mr. Dyer, we see many people believe abortion is wrong. However, in the state of Massachusetts, people do not. Further, “In spite of public fear, most Pro-life groups that promote, advertise, is likewise wrong” is a self-defeating statement. The clinics which only give reference to abortion choice, also give information on birth control to prevent the need for abortion, as well as referrals to programs for single parents and adoption agencies. Also by paying claims from giving information on abortions you are suppressing knowledge. And by the way, being funding will not make abortions go away, only enable, removing the option you do not expect you to have the choice.

Finally, Mr. Dyer, should the choice be made before conception since by his criteria, we can’t use the U.S. O. or pill, both of which prevent implantation. What if a woman made legal? Or even worse, is not available due to con­crediting to clinic? Where is the choice? Do you “don’t have sex,” think of how you would feel if you were married and your wife said this to you? Remember, married women have uncovered great knowledge. It is not, that is the real problem.

And to T.P. McLean—answer when women have the right to be left alone.

Sincerely,

Chris Howard

Where’s the...?

RE: Pro life letters of April 17 issue:
After reading the letters on page 2 last week, we felt compelled to respond. They both deserve to be answered. First, we would like to address Mr. Dwyer. The Pro-Life movement has officially denounced the clinic bombings. However, many members of the Pro-Life movement—including those interviewed this spring by Mademoiselle—they understand why it happened. We don’t. Further, those “peaceful” demonstrators protest in front of clinics, making a difficult decision moreso. “Peaceful” demonstrators harass women going in by shouting and handing them grotesque pictures, which is usually frauds.

Mr. Dwyer, we agree that many people believe abortion is wrong. However, in the state of Massachusetts, more people do not. Further, “to expend public funds to groups that promote abortion, is likewise wrong” is a self-defeating statement. The clinics which only give referrals to abortion clinics, also give information on birth control, to prevent the need for abortion, as well as referrals to programs for single parents and adoption agencies. Also by preventing claim from giving information on abortions you are suppressing knowledge. And by the way, since cutting funding will not make abortions go away, only unsafe, removing the option does cause poor women more harm. Like it or not, that is the reality.

Finally, Mr. Dwyer, how should the choice be made before conception since by that criteria, we can’t use the I.U.D. or pill, both of which prevent implantation? What if a barrier method fails? Or even worse, is not available due to cut funding to clinics? Where is the choice?

If you say “don’t have sex,” think of how you would feel, if you were married and your wife said that to you? Remember, married women have unwanted pregnancies too. And to T.P. McGowan—Answer: unborn women have the right to be wanted.

Sincerely

A HIT-AND-RUN BLOW was launched by Libya at a remote U.S. Coast Guard station in the Mediterranean and the nation issued a stern denunciation to the West forces for an "attack on Libyan soil." The American attack on Libyan soil was a "barbaric act" by the Libyan government, which has been repeatedly threatened with U.S. military response. The Libyan government has been accused of supporting terrorism and other criminal activities.

A MIDE-MAY MEETING between Soviet Foreign Minister Eduard A. Shevardnadze and Secretary of State George P. Shultz has been canceled by the Soviet Union. A HIT-AND-BUSY BLOW was launched by Libya in a remote U.S. coast guard station in the Mediterranean and the nation issued a summons to follow Arabic for an "hour of revenge" for the American attack on Libyan ships. Diplomats estimated 100 people were killed in the attack on Tripoli, including an adopted daughter of Col. Moammar Khadafi.

A MID-MAY MEETING between Soviet Foreign Minister Eduard A. Shevardnadze and Secretary of State George P. Shultz has been canceled by the Soviet Union. The session was aimed at laying the groundwork for a summit conference later this year between President Reagan and Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev.

C OL. MOAMMAR KHADAFI emerged from two days of seclusion last night, condemned President Reagan as a "brutaler of children" for ordering attacks on Libya and vowed to pursue world revolution. Khadafi's appearance on Libyan television dispelled speculation that he had been killed in the U.S. air raid.

BRITISH PRIME MINISTER Margaret Thatcher's government easily survived a vote of no-confidence in the House of Commons last night at the end of a four-day's emergency debate on the Libya raid. But Thatcher's vigorous defense of President Reagan and her role in allowing British bases to be used had serious political and diplomatic costs.

PRESIDENT REAGAN'S $100 million aid request for Nicaraguan rebels was denied yesterday, at least temporarily, when Republicans in a surprise tactical retreat, voted for a proposal that vehemently opposes. Republicans show their support in a Democratic proposal baring all aid to the rebels and providing up to $27 million for humanitarian assistance to Nicaraguans displaced by the country's civil war.

Dr. Nancy Moses
To Leave BSC Dance Corps
By Joyce E. Turnbull
This past week the dance club received very discouraging news that was unfortunately the last straw.

"Watch Us Dance." The club felt it was finally receiving some of the support it needed. However, sources revealed that Dr. Moses, our mainstay of support and direction, would no longer be able to help the campus during the past year. In light of what happened in Libya last week, we were treated first to Indian style and later accompanied by colorfully costumed, talented and pretty women doing different Indian dances.

Joyce turned out to be an admiring place, and the nightlife was a hit. She expressed gratitude to B.S.C. Mike O'Connor
International Night, which was held this past Thursday evening, was one of the best events that has taken place on this campus during the past year. It was a great success all in all. It was a culturally exciting and festive evening, and I hope we see more from the International Stu-
ents Organization, because they are treasures not to be missed.

Belgium videotapes at the ICA

Chris Deconinck presents the Boston premiere of a program of European video art in the ICA Theatre on April 30, from 6:00-8:00. The selection of contemporary Belgian videotapes is a part of moving-image studies, a program of videotapes about the characteristics of Belgian videos in the 80's. The show is a character, including works by video-pioneer Jacques-Louis Nyst, the documentary work of Liage, early works by young Flemish artists, and the highly exhibited personal work of Marie Archibald. Two of the videos to be shown are collaborative productions by Chris Deconinck and Bertrand Boiron, director of the Art Department for Belgian TV (BRT). Decon and Camere explore the growing problem facing artists especially those who propagate their cultural products through the television media, allowing the question of what happens when art is squeezed through the TV tube.

The tapes of the videotapes are funded by the Research Council on Television, Brussels, and the National Institute for Audio Visual Communication in Belgium, and have written and screened extensively on video art and post-structuralist theory.

Under the ultra-violet light at the Raymond Theatre in New Bedford, the puppets spring to life on stage, while the puppeteers remain unseen.

The Famous People Players' original repertoire consists of the star-screen puppetry for a central puppet called Liberace. The dream of the Famous People Players is to develop the capabilities of hand-crafted citizenship and to prove that they could lead productive, living plays with the right challenge and opportunity.

The Famous People Players started in 1974 with Artistic Director Dianne Luppo, who is always drunk. He's never been seen sobering up. I might not have alcohol. I'm paying for their tuition. Just say no to drugs! If you want to help, then ask them where those chemicals are. Show him that you care! See if he has any concerns, or is worried about birth control, or if he's carrying a weapon. If you want to help, then do so!

DO YOU WANT TO HELP? Briefly and briefly tell you why he drinks so much going for himself? It's not like I want him to stop drinking. I think he's really very good looking, smart and funny. He's a lot going for him. I heard that he drinks a lot going for himself.

Loving Mothers: If you have any questions pertaining to sex or reproduction, you should see a gynecologist or even if you've never been.

Loving Mother: In the End they will go. And you will take all of them from your children.

Dear P.J.,

I am a mother of 3 teenagers. My children do not understand that when I ask them to make them have lab, but I do so because they are going, with whom and what time they'll be in. They do not know. You can answer questions related to the problems other than alcohol. If you want to help, then do so!

Dear Editor,

I am writing to express my concern about the lack of diversity in the recent edition of the Campus Connection. The articles and features predominantly focus on the experiences of white students, while ignoring the voices and perspectives of students of color.

As a member of the LGBTQ+ community, I feel that my identity is not represented in the content of the magazine. It is important to have diverse perspectives and experiences included in our publications to ensure that all students feel valued and included.

I hope that in the future, the Campus Connection can strive to be more inclusive and reflective of the diverse student body at our institution.

Sincerely,

BSC runner Keating qualifies for nationals

By Joe Rountree

Track Team

The Bridgewater State track teams recently competed at both the Boston College Relays and the Westfield State Invitational. At the Boston College meet Tuskeggee became Bridgewater's second runner to qualify for the National Championships to be held next month in LaCrosse, Wisconsin. Carolyn Parvis improved her times in both the 400 and 800 meter events.

The biggest win for the Bears was Freshman John Kelty who tied for 3rd and tied for 7th. He took 3rd in the 800 meter race and has qualified himself to the New England championships.

The stories for the Lady Bears are Bar Lattanzio (84), Lucille Ocost (110), and Karen Nash (110). Goalkeeper Karen Rappehart continues to be a key for the team's success this season.

The men's and women's track teams are right up against one another this weekend's MACSC championships at Franklin State. Carolyn Parvis (800), and Tom Kinney (100) already have over qualified to the tournaments in LaCrosse, Wisconsin. There should be a few more names added to that list after the next couple of weeks.

Intersport/Recruitment

The regular season for intersport softball and intertrack recruiting each meet takes place during the regular season. Check the Daily Chart at the Board in your dorm room that has a local Army Recruiter.

The NAIA Annual Golf Tournament at Reno CC takes place Saturday. See Mike Shirey on Friday morning to sign up. Tanks for means transportation and equipment to be brought to the tournament.

The BSC Track & Field team places 5th at Friday's meet. Team members have been working hard this week and will continue working hard next week.

Old time hockey at Bridgewater

Work two in the intramural hockey league may be possible but there is a slow start in the beginning. This can be attributed to the intense competition, poor weather, and local operators.

Defending league champs, the Trojans, still maintain their undefeated league status this year by winning both of their games. They outplayed the Gauchos at home early in the week, proving that they want it more.

As did those Bruins who were undefeated until matched against the Trojans. It was just a combination of the Trojans' experience and the Bruins' youth.

The Steamers (led by the seniors) are in the running for the title and will continue their solid play against the Trojans.

Oval played well against the Trojans, but were outscored by the Bruins in the final game.

Off enjoyed the sweet smell of success last week with wins over both Mike Kelly and Mike Noble. Badly beaten, Mike Bane 82, and Mike Noble 82, have two most of their team goals. We'll see who's the team to beat.

Work three, I'm sure will just be one at last season. So come down early. You can't beat the cost of this sports entertainment.

Summer opportunities

Romanticism

By Heather Eager

The Choral Society’s major work for the spring season “The Canterbury Pilgrims” would only have been written in the musical romanticism of the late eighteenth century. The works of Haydn, Mozart, and Cherubini, as well as works of Chopin, Berlioz, Schumann, and Wagner, were all composed during this period.

The piece of music to watch is “That Which Is Bright” by Chopin. This work is known for its technical difficulty and for its emotional depth. The piece is a celebration of the beauty of the natural world, and it is particularly well-suited to the setting of the Choral Society’s performance.

The Choral Society, under the direction of Scott Liberman, will perform this work as part of their spring concert. The concert will be held on Saturday, April 28, at 8 p.m. in the Student Union Building.
