MASSPIRG survey: BSC students discover defective used cars

By Kathy Hogan

A survey conducted by the Environmental Policy Education Center (EPEC) for the Massachusetts Public Interest Research Group (MASSPIRG) found that one out of four students at Bridgewater State College (BSC) who have bought used cars discovered that they were not filled as advertised or purchased at the time they purchased the automobile. The survey also found that 40% of those tested were "tricked" by the dealers and 40% of all defects occurred within the first month. BSC MASSPIRG conducted the survey as part of its ongoing efforts to pass a Used Car Warranty Bill in the Massachusetts legislature.

"Defective used cars are the number one consumer complaint in the state," states Chris Heilman, BSC MASSPIRG organizer. "That fast, and our survey shows that a lot of consumers are getting ripped off."

Mellor states that used car buyers have little legal protection if they have been sold a defective used car. "Unless they speak up, they may not even know that there's anything wrong with the car," said Mellor. There are at least 30 different reasons why a warranty claim may be denied, and it is up to the consumer to prove that the dealer was at fault. "The car companies are not going to admit their mistake, and it's up to us to prove that there is a problem," he continued.

MASSPIRG SURVEY:
BSC students discover defective used cars

A survey conducted by the BSC Student Political Action Committee (SPAC) public interest research group and MASSPIRG shows that most BSC students who have bought used cars face problems that they were not informed about at the time they purchased the automobile. The survey also found that 40% of the students who used cars were treated with equal respect?

The Chorale Society
Christmas concert revisited

By Vahl M. Margulies

This review was scheduled to be on the air the previous Thursday, January 29, but due to the snowstorm the program was delayed a week. We at the Choral Society regret the inconvenience to our listeners caused by the delayed broadcast.

The Chorale Society of the College of New Jersey presented a joyful Christmas concert to a capacity audience last December 3. The concert was under the direction of Alan Ezring and sponsored by the C.N.J. Men’s Chorus, the Woman’s Chorus and the Mixed Chorus.

Stovall and "Grant, you've got a problem. You got a problem./ From structs and phonies/ From the blues/ From the hell."

The Choral Society is the college’s oldest and longest-running organization. It started in 1937 and has been a part of the campus culture ever since. The group has been led by many notable directors, including John Stovall, who was the director from 1940 to 1947 and again from 1950 to 1958.

Stovall was known for his innovative programming and his emphasis on the importance of choral music. He was also a strong advocate for the music of living composers and was a pioneer in the use of electronic music in choral music. Under his leadership, the Choral Society became a major force in the choral music world.

Stovall’s influence can still be felt today, as the Choral Society continues to present a wide range of music, from early music to contemporary works. The group’s repertoire is diverse, covering a range of genres and styles, and the members are dedicated to the performance of high-quality choral music.

In addition to its regular concerts, the Choral Society also performs at various events and functions throughout the year, including weddings, funerals, and community events. The group is open to all students, and anyone interested in singing or learning about choral music is welcome to join.

The Choral Society of the College of New Jersey is a vibrant and active organization, with a rich history and a bright future. It continues to be a major force in the choral music world and a source of pride for the college and the local community.

  By Vah M. Margarian

  This review was scheduled to run in the December 27, 1986 issue of The Comment. Due to lack of space, it was not published.

  "The Choral Society presented a joyful Christmas concert to a capacity audience. Throughout the evening, members of the Choral Society performed with the usual professionalism and grace.

  "The program included Bach's 'Ave Maria', Handel's 'Hallelujah', and Vivaldi's 'Gloria in Excelsis Deo'. The concert concluded with a popular rendition of 'Silent Night'."

Then the pace of the war stepped up and many of those in the program went overseas to the infanty. While under going intensive training, he met Tommy Dinero in Austin, Texas. During this time his instrument was played and Gunson replied, "This was Tommy's first instrument. He used to be his own rhythm player, and started his own service band when he was 16 and had great range. We had him for a few shows, and after moving in the summer of 1942, he talked to Glenn

Juniors: Study in NYC

Each fall, college juniors have the opportunity to spend a semester in New York City. Hunter’s Junior Year Program allows students to participate in the life of a major urban center. Students have the option to work in internships, engage in artistic and cultural activities, and enjoy all that New York has to offer. Under the guidance of Professor Gannon, students have the chance to make the most of their time in the Big Apple.

Junior Year Program

This wonderful and exciting city and its institutions are a testament to the fact that there is no such thing as a bad year in New York. Whether it’s the Winterthur Museum, the American Museum of Natural History, or the Metropolitan Opera, there is always something to see and do. Students have the opportunity to explore the city, whether it’s by taking a bus tour, visiting a museum, or simply strolling through the streets. The Junior Year Program is the perfect way to experience the magic of New York City, from its cultural institutions to its vibrant nightlife.

Each student is assigned a faculty advisor who helps them navigate the city and its resources. Students have the opportunity to explore the city on their own, but there are also plenty of organized activities available. From art walks to Broadway shows, there is something for everyone.

Student Activities Program

The Student Activities Program is designed to introduce students to the rich and diverse cultural life of New York City. Throughout the year, students have the opportunity to participate in a variety of cultural events, such as museum visits, theater productions, and concerts. The program is also designed to help students develop new skills and learn about different cultures. Students have the chance to experience a wide range of activities, from visiting historic sites to attending concerts. Your Stars This Week

By Stella Widner

The coming week is period in which hidden secrets between the teemless are misplaced. From those who seek it to what they really are, it is very simple. The few must be completely clear who can see the truth, but the majority are in the fog, trying to make sense of what is not quite what it seems in the eye. This week will be most clear to the few. (Mar. 22-Apr. 19) -- You are wise, you will remain in the background while others try to be the center of attention. Know your market. (May 6-20) -- A bout of activity. However, it will be at the background. (June 21-July 5) -- A make things happen week. You won't be fulfilling ambition. It also keeps you from a bit of work. It pays to do a bit of work. It keeps you from overheating. (Aug. 6-20) -- A vacation week. It pays to do a bit of work, but it also pays to keep your head cool. (Sept. 21-Oct. 5) -- A rather inactive week keeps you from fulfilling ambitions. (Oct. 6-Nov. 20) -- A vacation week. It pays to do a bit of work. (Nov. 21-Dec. 5) -- A make things happen week. You won't be fulfilling ambition. It also keeps you from overheating. It keeps you from a bit of work. It pays to do a bit of work. (Dec. 6-20) -- A vacation week. It pays to do a bit of work. (Jan. 7-Feb. 1) -- A make things happen week. You won't be fulfilling ambition. It also keeps you from overheating. (Feb. 2-Feb. 20) -- A vacation week. It pays to do a bit of work. (Feb. 21-March 5) -- A vacation week. It pays to do a bit of work. (March 6-20) -- You are wise, you will remain in the background while others try to be the center of attention. Know your market. (April 21-May 5) -- A make things happen week. You won't be fulfilling ambition. It also keeps you from overheating. (May 6-20) -- A make things happen week. You won't be fulfilling ambition. It also keeps you from overheating. (June 21-July 5) -- A make things happen week. You won't be fulfilling ambition. It also keeps you from overheating. (July 6-21) -- A vacation week. It pays to do a bit of work. (Aug. 1-20) -- A vacation week. It pays to do a bit of work. (Aug. 21-Sept. 1) -- A vacation week. It pays to do a bit of work. (Sept. 2-20) -- A vacation week. It pays to do a bit of work. (Sept. 21-Oct. 1) -- A vacation week. It pays to do a bit of work. (Oct. 2-19) -- A vacation week. It pays to do a bit of work. (Oct. 20-Nov. 1) -- A vacation week. It pays to do a bit of work. (Nov. 2-19) -- A vacation week. It pays to do a bit of work. (Nov. 20-Dec. 1) -- A vacation week. It pays to do a bit of work. (Dec. 2-19) -- A vacation week. It pays to do a bit of work. (Dec. 20-31) -- A vacation week. It pays to do a bit of work.

Your Stars This Week

By Stella White

The coming week is a period in which horoscopes deliver the intimacy of attention from those who seek it as much as they can. Get your horoscope each day. Several signs must be con-muted mentally, but all have the bargaining in their corner. Don't risk the stars in hand. And while some signs, it may be the that Brooklyn rural love tale to a few. The few will rule until the second week, and it is during those you may find yourself in.

AQUARIUS (Feb. 18 - March 20) - Clown associations get together to help you from making the kind of mistake that helps to your long-term goals.
They really are Midwestern normals.

PIECES (Mar. 21 - April 19) -
Though some suggest your goals may be a little too ambitious, you will need these friends. (May 20 - June 20) - The Merovingian attempts to create a new order can be an emotional experience.

GEMINI (May 21 - June 20) -
Believe in yourself. The way you choose your courses for financial gain. Keep Gannon received his education at Boston University where he earned his B.S. degree. He then obtained his M.A. and Ph.D. in humanities at Harvard. Following advanced graduate work, he was taught at Framingham State College before coming to Bridgewater in 1956.

Among other big band musicians that Prof. Gannon recalls, which used to visit mutual friends in Millis, was a singer who played the trumpet. Buddy Rich, who was a real prince, a great critic and always a fine pianist.
Then there was Buddy Rich, who Gannon always found does very well. He was a real classical player and always had a lot of class. There was

Men’s team wins two out of three

The Bridgewater State men’s basketball team took back in two trips as they won two out of the past three. Their overall record is now (9-6) and 2-4 in the MASCAC.

By Michael Storrie

The Bears won their recent three games against Nichols College, Coast Guard, and MIT by a combined score of 164-113. The Bears are now 1-2 in the MASCAC as the season.

Coach Mark Champagne is pleased with the way the team is playing. "We’re playing much better than we did, especially with our defense," he said.

Return of... The Good Sport

By The Comment

Hi, sports fans, this is the Good Sport and I love ya.

Seeing Bill Parcells being doused by Gertie didn’t surprise me. I was not too surprised when Bill got a pat on the back from Coach Ruggiero. I was a little surprised when I got a pat on the back from Coach Ruggiero.

Last season the Bridgewater State men’s basketball team had an outstanding season as they finished with a win percent (75-25) and competed in both the New England (3rd place) and the MASCAC (5th place) tournament. Coach Andrea Kelleher has been with the Bridgewater State women’s gymnastics team for the past nine years and has led the team to many successes.

Coach Andrea Kelleher is pleased with the way the team is performing. "I’m happy with the way the team is playing," she said. "We’re getting better as a team each game."

Bo Ruggiero captures 100th victory

Credits players for success

By Mike Stoye

Recently, women's basketball coach Bo Ruggiero hit the 100- win mark in the Lady Bears' 83-72 victory over Radford on Sunday. Ruggiero, who has spent 23 seasons at the helm, has led the Lady Bears to an impressive 115-79 overall record.

His success rate in wins averages out to well over twenty per season in his time at the helm. Over the last four seasons, Bo has led the Lady Bears to a combined record of 48-10, including a school-record 30-5 in 2017.

When asked what he attributed to his team's success, Bo stated, "The players buy into the system and the culture we've built here. They are committed to one another and to the program. It's about more than just winning games. It's about building character and fostering a life-long love of the game."

Bo is also humble about his accomplishments, stating, "Any coach would tell you that the journey with the players is what makes the most memorable moments. I'm blessed to work with such a talented group of individuals."
