Thirteen members of the SGA constituted the meeting of September 22, 1987. Only two members were absent, compared to the average score of five members that showed up for previous meetings.

Chairperson Michael McCartney introduced the meeting to the attendees and asked the SGA members to introduce themselves. All members answered to their names and positions. After introductions, President Deborah Sullivan opened the meeting by stating that all SGA members were present.

Sullivan then proceeded to discuss the current status of the SGA office. She mentioned that the SGA office was located in the basement of the Student Union and that it was open during the day. She also stated that copies of the SGA newsletter, The Comment, were available at the SGA office. Sullivan then asked the SGA members to provide feedback on the SGA office's operations and suggest improvements.

After the discussion, Sullivan adjourned the meeting. The next meeting was scheduled for October 1, 1987.

Ensemble Theater by Jo Kennedy

Did you know that an Ensemble Theater group exists here at Bridgewater State College? Do you know what one is? Well, Ensemble Theater is a group of people interested in conducting theater related activities.

Our misconception that BSC students have is that you have to be a theater major to be a member. This is, however, utter nonsense. Any student interested in participating in Ensemble Theater may participate in Ensemble Theater. One does not need to have been involved in a community theater group, nor a school drama club. One need only have had some remote desire at all to be on stage. Any student interested in Ensemble Theater, may be interested in the news that we are going to be having an open meeting. It will take place on Monday, October 12, at 8 p.m. at the Student Center. Each member of this group will conduct a discussion about the next happenings of the Ensemble Theater group. Each member will be able to express their thoughts and ideas about what they would like to see happen in Ensemble Theater.

Cooking with a hot pot

By Christie Howard

A hot pot is at the top of everyone’s shopping list this fall. They save us time and money when we cook for the dinner or on an outdoor camping trip. If you can’t use a hot pot at home, you can make soup, hot dogs, noodles and more with a frozen dinner that boils in a boiling bag.

Lesson One

Now that you’ve mastered boiling water you are ready to cook a hot pot.

1. Open can.
2. Pour contents into the hot pot.
3. Add one can of water.
4. Let simmer, add hot.

Lesson Two

Now that we’ve mastered boiling water you are ready to cook a hot pot.

1. Boil the water (See Lesson One)
2. Break up the veggies, so they will fit in the hot pot. Note: Do not add peas or carrots.

BSC students head for China
By Mesa R. McNamara

The poem, "The Pard Nun Talko" by Robert Frost, expresses change or shift in time when faced with change. Also in the choice made, the correct one? Melissa Dansereau is a member of the class of 1982. She is facing just that choice. One week she will be half-way around the world, in China.

Dansereau is one of two students who will be representing Bridgewater as an exchange student for a year. Dansereau is just one of her life concerns in Germany. Her father, Roland Dansereau is an exchange student worked for the Department of Defense, as her family moved often. The desire to keep moving is one of the reasons Dansereau decided to go to China.

"It is time to move. I have lived on one place long and it is time for a change." Another reason that the choice was made was because she has never been to Asia. She is a Spanish Communications major with minors in Chinese and History. She hopes in the future to be a full-time business major after graduation. She feels that the experience in China will prepare her for this because, she said, "If I can survive Asia I can survive anywhere."

Dansereau has spent most of her life in and around the United Campus Ministries will be talking about their new ministries.

The Variety of foods that can be cooked in a hot pot is endless, but by following these basic rules you can vary your diet greatly, and will even, by borrowing hot pots from friends or roommates be able to create a full course meal.

Ensemble Theater by Jo Kennedy

Did you know that an Ensemble Theater group exists here at Bridgewater State College? Do you know what one? Well, Ensemble Theater is a group of people interested in conducting theater related activities.

Our misconception that BSC students have is that you have to be a theater major to be a theater major. This is, however, an accurate statement. Any Bridgewater student may participate in Ensemble Theater. One does not have to have been involved in a community theater group near home, or a high school drama club. Not even do you need any remote desire at all to be on stage on Broadway, or anywhere else. In fact, several members of E.T. that wouldn't dream of performing in front of 2000 people, are on a Broadway stage.

The important thing to note is that it doesn't matter if members want to be involved in a theater-related job after graduation. All that matters is whether people are interested in seeing plays, or finding out what goes on behind the curtains, etc.

The next Ensemble Theater meeting will be Wednesday, October 14th at 3:00 pm. They meet in the Green Room located in the Roddick Campus Center. If you can't attend this meeting then visit the Theater Department on the ground floor of the Campus Center. Please ask about the Ensemble Theater organization for they will be interested in you.

Greek Council

This year marks a new beginning for the Greek Council. We would like to make it fun and exciting, the best you possible. We intend to achieve this by doing the following. First, all of the Greek Council would like to bring together all of the organizations and societies and unify them. Secondly, the Greek Council wishes to improve relations with the student body, the school administration, and the town of Bridgewater. And last, we would like to gain the respect of the Bridgewater community as a whole.

The Greek Council would like the Greek Associations to become a integral part of campus life. We are planning many events that are fun as well as beneficial to all people involved with Bridgewater State College. Some of the events may include dances, fairs, fund raisers and many other social events for the Greek Council members.

Dansereau found that because she will be gone for a year the biggest problem will be loneliness. She said, "It's like going to camp for a year. I think China will be exciting, but there is only the other American coming with me. I hope we will get through the year together..."

So we have to keep in touch with America. The other American is BSC Biology major Chris Bert, Bert is a member of the class of 1981. He also will be doing a directed study in biology. He hopes to attend Medical school in the future.

Dansereau also said that the year in China will be a positive experience.

She said, "What I get creative is when I am in a low point in my life. This is an opportunity of a lifetime and change in my life is usually good. Even if it is not what I wanted at first, then, there will be great things about it."

Dansereau will be taking classes while in China, and also working. She said, "I know that even in China, I will be working. Hopefully, I will make some money, because I am not going to graduate and decide to graduate in China as well as bring my family with me."

Do you feel that the current food service is better or worse than Custom Food Management?

"I think this year's worse even though last year, there were a lot of complaints. This year they served the same food night after night and just changed the name and the logo. For example, hamburger is also known as pizza steak and sheep's stew." - Pat Sweeney

"I think it's ten times worse than last year. They try and make it better than what college kids look for." - C.J. Pena

"It's worse because I used to like to eat in the subshop for dinner because I'm in sports, but now you can only eat up to $2.50 and everything over that you pay for. Also, it doesn't make sense that if Tilly they are charging $4.00 for all you can eat. You can't spend up to $4.00 on the subshop." - Bill Marrella

3. Cook until the noodles are soft.
4. Drain and eat.
Now that you have learned the basics of cooking prepackaged foods in your hot pot, you may want to practice a little before moving on to lesson four.

Lesson Four

Now that you are a master at prepackaged foods, you are ready to begin cooking from scratch. Here is a fairly simple menu for a full course meal:

Salad
Potato Soup
Cheese Fondue
Vegetable Medley

Cooking the whole meal requires four hot pots. Last, close up any confusion, the salad is not cooked in the hot pot. It is made cold. Just pick up a few of your favorite vegetables at the grocery store, cut them up, and you have a salad. (Yes, it is possible to buy single tomatoes and cucumbers.)

Potato Soup
Ingredients:
2 medium potatoes
1 tps. butter
1 cup milk
1/2 an onion
salt and pepper

You will need two hot pots for this. In the first hot pot boil the potatoes. Use just enough water to cover the potatoes. Once the potatoes are cooked mash them with a fork, keeping them in the water. (See Lesson One)
You may want to cut up the potatoes before boiling them, unless you have no desire to eat the soup until next week. In the other hot pot melt the butter and the onions. Cook until the onions are soft, about 5 minutes. Add the milk, potatoes, and salt and pepper (to taste) to the onions, and cook for about 15 minutes, stirring constantly.

Congratulations, you've just completed your first course.

Work begun on commuter center

Work has started on a new Commuter Center. The Center will be located on the ground floor of the Campus Center. The purpose of the Center is to provide a central spot to help and assist commuter students. Some of the services will be the use of jumper cables, flashlights, a microwave, refrigerators and telephones. There will also be a bulletin board set up. Students will be held to an 8:00 AM-MID-NOON, and 1:00-5:00 PM.

Cheese Fondue
Ingredients:
1 tsp. milk
1 1/2 cup milk
1/2 an onion
salt and pepper

Vegetable Medley
3 cups mixed vegetables

The food is sweet from p. 1
Now that the vegetables are cooked, this is the Vegetable Medley. This is to be dipped in the Cheese Fondue, to keep that in mind when selecting the vegetables.

Livingston Taylor thrills audience at Campus Center

By Debra Willis

As I walked down the hall towards Livingston Taylor's dressing room, I wanted to laugh and run. It was my first interview and I guess I was nervous, but I really don't know why. After preliminary introductions, I found out that he had done projects for Children Television Workshop, so I asked him about it.

Livingston Taylor talks about cigarettes during his performance last Friday. (Photo by Debra Willis)

Taylor is the son of Taylor Swift and her brother, James Taylor. He believes smoking is bad and makes a point about the use of the school curriculum. He uses cigarettes to teach people about the negative effects of smoking.

Lost Boys—restore your faith!

By Mike O'Connor

This is definitely one of the best soundtracks to come out in recent years. Unlike The Big Chill or Platoon, this one is not filled with dated music.

The album kicks off with a strong, rockin' tune. "Good Time" by INXS and Jimi Hendrix. This one has a great feel and is a perfect start to the album.

The next track, "The Last One to Know," is also by INXS. This one is a bit slower and more acoustic, but it still has a great vibe.

"Mississippi Queen," by Lynyrd Skynyrd, is next. This one is a real crowd pleaser and the lyrics are great.

"Roll Over, Beethoven," by The Beatles, is a classic and is a great way to end the album.

"Happy Flowers" ummumm...

By Max Spalding

The book, written by M. Skye, is a collection of short stories about the beauty of flowers. Each story is accompanied by a beautiful photograph of a flower. The stories range from humorous to serious, but all share a common theme: the beauty of flowers.

The book is divided into three parts: "Flower Power," "Flower Wars," and "Flower Mystery." Each part contains a collection of stories that explore different aspects of the flower world.

For example, in "Flower Power," the stories focus on the power and beauty of flowers in nature. In "Flower Wars," the stories explore the conflict between different flower species and their struggles for survival. And in "Flower Mystery," the stories are about the secrets and mysteries of flowers.

The book is available at most bookstores and online retailers. It's a must-read for anyone who loves flowers or enjoys a good mystery. So pick up your copy today and let the beauty of flowers take you on an unexpected journey.
Liggettstown Thompson thrives audience at Campus Center

By Debra Wilkes

As I walked down the hall towards Livingston Thompson's dressing room, I wanted to make the most of my visit. It was my first interview with him, and I was excited to have been chosen to interview the famous singer-songwriter who had been so influential in my own musical journey. When I knocked on the door and was greeted warmly by Thompson, I knew I was in for a special experience. We talked about his career, his music, and his future plans. It was a truly memorable experience, and I feel very grateful to have had the opportunity to interview one of my favorite musicians.

Montreal, Quebec: A trip to the French capital is a must for any Canadian. The city is alive with culture, history, and sea food. The only downfall is the language barrier. For those who don’t speak French, there are many ways to get around. The most convenient is the metro, which has stops at most main attractions. The metro is clean, efficient, and affordable. Montreal is a city that should not be missed.

Mr. Mister's newest should "go away"
By Dave Spata
I don’t know what to say. My mom told me that I don’t have anything good to say, that I shouldn’t say anything. Yet, I have to review this album. Oh well, here goes.

Mr. Mister breaks on the scene with their hit "Brother Wings" and "It’s Love". Their sound albums Welcome to the Real World and the final album, My Closer View, featured haphazard melodies, and their latest, The Last of the Greats, is nothing different.

This record is a battle for the life of a song. The sound is so out of place that it’s almost funky enough for R&B. The songs are so lifeless that it’s almost as if the band is listening to themselves. The tempo of the music is so wrong that it’s almost as if the band is listening to themselves.

Mr. Mister is broken. It should be titled Go "Zetslee". It’s about as good as Chernobyl the day after the big firework. I won’t even get into the vocals, it’s not worth it. I will only say this: the saxophone player is the only one who can play it. He’s the only one who can make another separate section of the song. The sound is so wrong that it’s almost as if the band is listening to themselves.

Mr. Mister’s newest should "go away".
Had Zetsbee known his mother had frozen the donuts, he never would have attempted such a crazy stunt.

Mr. Mister's newest should "go away"

By Dave Spada

I don't know what to say. My mum told me that I didn't have anything good to say, so I shouldn't say anything. Yet, I have to review this album. Oh, well, here goes.

Mr. Mister breaks on the scene with their hit "Broken Wings" and "It's Love". Their second album, Welcome to the Real World, had an original pop freshness that made the hits take off. But now, with their third album, Outsiders, that definition is lost. It has been stated that a lot of tracks are over five minutes. I think this gives the group a feeling of being listeners.

"Outsiders" has a lot of forgettable and tiresome guitar. "Something Real" is a slow bore of "It's Love". "Outsiders" is almost fake for R&B if Page could only sing with the album member number two. Go back to the name of Mr. Mister's band. It should be called "Outsiders" because the band should take their responsibilities and vacation for fun. It's about as flabby and hollow as a watermelon.

Give me one more with "With and Deliver". Rihanna Paglu would sound no out of place that might think he was in the wrong studio during the overhanging. Speaking of sounding, there are enough of them on this album to make audible sections of charm and background vocals. Also note that the length of most of those tracks is over five minutes. I think this gives the group a feeling of being listeners.
