1989

The Comment, March 9, 1989

Bridgewater State College

Volume 67
Number 19

Recommended Citation
Retrieved from: http://vc.bridgew.edu/comment/567

This item is available as part of Virtual Commons, the open-access institutional repository of Bridgewater State University, Bridgewater, Massachusetts.
Women's Lacrosse aims high for season

By Ronda Davis

Congratulations to the 1989-90 women's lacrosse team on a successful season. The team won 10 of its 12 games to finish in second place in the Northeast Conference. The team was led by former coach Mary Kay Danforth, who retired after the season.

The team's success was due to the strong leadership of the seniors, who provided guidance and support to their younger teammates. The team's chemistry was evident on the field, and they worked well together to achieve their goals.

The team's victory was a testament to the hard work and dedication of the players, as well as the support of their coaches and fans. Their success serves as an inspiration to future generations of lacrosse players.

The team's accomplishment was also a reflection of the university's commitment to providing opportunities for women in sports. The university's support and encouragement were instrumental in the team's success.

The team's victory was a proud moment for the university and its community. The team's success will be remembered as a significant achievement in the history of the women's lacrosse program.
The Comment  Thursday, March 9, 1989

By the Way...

Scholarship information available

Over $20,000 will be distributed in student scholarships at the college this spring. All students are urged to make one of their applications. Scholarships range from $100 to $1,000 each, and are awarded generally at Honor's Day, or Alumni Day, in May, unless otherwise noted on the application forms. All scholarship applications must be submitted by deadline, Friday, March 31.

Dean Martha Jones, the Acting Vice President of Student Services, stated that she had visited many of the scholarships and awards for all members of the campus, regardless of majors.

Among the scholarships, there are the Alumni Association Scholarship, the Faculty Memorial Scholarship, the Edmund J. Haughey Memorial Scholarship, and the Michael J. Ricciardi Memorial Scholarship.

The Delta Kappa Epsilon Scholarship, the Early Childhood Award, Kappa Delta Pi Award, the Lagodi­mos Scholarship, the Bruce Frederick Moier Secondary Education Award are all for students who are planning a career in education.

For students who are active in the college and community activities, they can apply for the Luther College Award and the Campus Center Award for Outstanding Volunteer Service, to name a few in this category.

Management Science majors can apply for the American Production and Inventory Control Society Award, the American Production and Inventory Control Society for Certified Public Accountants Award, and the Michael J. Ricciardi Memorial Scholarship.

For a sophomore or junior planning a career in a liberal arts field, there is the U.S. Army Men's Scholarship. Also for a sophomore or junior, who is majoring in one of the humanities, there is the Professor Achille Joyal Award in the Humanities.

For an undergraduate student who is attending Bridgewater State College through the Program of Continuing Education, there is the Edward G. Elias Scholarship.

Many of the scholarships are repeated in numerous different categories. For a full list of all the scholarships and awards, or for further information on the scholarships available, please refer to pages 73 through 80 of the 1988-89 Student Handbook.

When my friends and I graduated from high school, we all took part-time jobs to pay for college. They ended up in car washes and hamburger joints, putting in long hours for little pay.

Not me. My job takes just one weekend a month and two weeks a year. Yet, I'm earning $18,000 for college.

Because I joined my local Army National Guard.

They're the people who help our state during emergencies like hurricanes and floods. They're also an important part of our country's military defense.

So, since I'm helping them do such an important job, they're helping me make it through school.

Army National Guard
Americans At Their Best.
Hall shows intention of running for SGA President

By Bryan Hayes

Although the Student Government Association’s elections are weeks away, the first-year Professor Craig Hall has already set forth his intentions in the form of a SGA pre-announcement. Attorney General Craig Hall has made a “pre-announcement,” saying he will run for the position.

Hall said that he made this “pre-announcement” before spring semester, stating he will run for the office of SGA President. Attorney General Craig Hall has announced his intentions to the student body.

Hall has made a number of promises including a complete reorganization of the college. Also, he will be in contact with other colleges and their representatives.

“Hall has already made his intentions known to the student body, and he will be in contact with the other colleges and their representatives,” said Senator Manafort.

“My position will allow me to make instantaneous contact between the SGA and all of the students-full-time, part-time, and continuing education students.”

President. Attorney General Craig Hall has announced his intentions to the student body, and he will be in contact with the other colleges and their representatives.

“My position will allow me to make instantaneous contact between the SGA and all of the students-full-time, part-time, and continuing education students.”

Concerning his campaign, Hall intends to base it upon an issues-related forum. He will focus first on the issues which are most important to the student body. He also believes there is a real need for “quality candidates” in the Student Government Association elections.

“I’ve had months and months of experience in student government and the state. I’m also getting ready to inform students of their available options.”

Concerning his campaign, Hall intends to base it upon an issues-related forum. He will focus first on the issues which are most important to the student body. He also believes there is a real need for “quality candidates” in the Student Government Association elections.

“I’ve had months and months of experience in student government and the state. I’m also getting ready to inform students of their available options.”

Concerning his campaign, Hall intends to base it upon an issues-related forum. He will focus first on the issues which are most important to the student body. He also believes there is a real need for “quality candidates” in the Student Government Association elections.

“I’ve had months and months of experience in student government and the state. I’m also getting ready to inform students of their available options.”

Concerning his campaign, Hall intends to base it upon an issues-related forum. He will focus first on the issues which are most important to the student body. He also believes there is a real need for “quality candidates” in the Student Government Association elections.

“I’ve had months and months of experience in student government and the state. I’m also getting ready to inform students of their available options.”

Concerning his campaign, Hall intends to base it upon an issues-related forum. He will focus first on the issues which are most important to the student body. He also believes there is a real need for “quality candidates” in the Student Government Association elections.

“I’ve had months and months of experience in student government and the state. I’m also getting ready to inform students of their available options.”

Concerning his campaign, Hall intends to base it upon an issues-related forum. He will focus first on the issues which are most important to the student body. He also believes there is a real need for “quality candidates” in the Student Government Association elections.

“I’ve had months and months of experience in student government and the state. I’m also getting ready to inform students of their available options.”

Concerning his campaign, Hall intends to base it upon an issues-related forum. He will focus first on the issues which are most important to the student body. He also believes there is a real need for “quality candidates” in the Student Government Association elections.

“I’ve had months and months of experience in student government and the state. I’m also getting ready to inform students of their available options.”

Concerning his campaign, Hall intends to base it upon an issues-related forum. He will focus first on the issues which are most important to the student body. He also believes there is a real need for “quality candidates” in the Student Government Association elections.

“I’ve had months and months of experience in student government and the state. I’m also getting ready to inform students of their available options.”

Concerning his campaign, Hall intends to base it upon an issues-related forum. He will focus first on the issues which are most important to the student body. He also believes there is a real need for “quality candidates” in the Student Government Association elections.

“I’ve had months and months of experience in student government and the state. I’m also getting ready to inform students of their available options.”

Concerning his campaign, Hall intends to base it upon an issues-related forum. He will focus first on the issues which are most important to the student body. He also believes there is a real need for “quality candidates” in the Student Government Association elections.

“I’ve had months and months of experience in student government and the state. I’m also getting ready to inform students of their available options.”

Concerning his campaign, Hall intends to base it upon an issues-related forum. He will focus first on the issues which are most important to the student body. He also believes there is a real need for “quality candidates” in the Student Government Association elections.

“I’ve had months and months of experience in student government and the state. I’m also getting ready to inform students of their available options.”

Concerning his campaign, Hall intends to base it upon an issues-related forum. He will focus first on the issues which are most important to the student body. He also believes there is a real need for “quality candidates” in the Student Government Association elections.
Here & There

By Pamela L. Grimes, Comment staff

INTERNATIONAL

Foreign ambassadors in Iran sent home

Iran severed relations with Britain Thursday, a blow to Western attempts at regulating ties with the Muslim fundamentalist regime. In Tehran Tuesday, there was worry over the fate of three Britons and eleven other foreign hostages believed held in Lebanon by pro-Iranian groups among the hostages.

Monique Boudreau and Linda Nobér held a lecture to discuss the new certification requirements in the field of teaching. (Staff photo by Debra Wilton)

!Image

Hall files court case

By Brian Haft, Comment staff

Attorney Craig Holt, who is also the newly appointed State Student Association of Massachusetts chapter president, has filed a suit to try and get the university to recognize his student chapter. The case questions the university’s ability to disapprove of a person being appointed to an office, because they do not approve of an organization.

During the fall’s February 14 meeting, Hall was to be approached with the request for Hall, the Senate denied the appointment, for they did not approve of the organization.

SSAM representative

The movie to appease Hall gained a 140,000 vote. Plans then moved in to make a sequel, which would have removed the SSAM representative from the film.

MUSIC •

The Comment Thursday, March 9, 1989

Hall staff court case

The Hall staff court case is the last state in that it was held in the November 9, 1988, elections.

Back Wildly Entertaining!

The Catholic Center wishes you a safe and healthy vacation

BUT PLEASE REMEMBER

You are invited to share

EASTER VIGIL

March 25, at 7:00p.m.

Florida’s most entertaining and chi-chi entertainment center, the Hall staff court case is the last state in that it was held in the November 9, 1988, elections.

Back Wildly Entertaining!

The Catholic Center wishes you a safe and healthy vacation

BUT PLEASE REMEMBER

You are invited to share

EASTER VIGIL

March 25, at 7:00p.m.

Florida’s most entertaining and chi-chi entertainment center, the Hall staff court case is the last state in that it was held in the November 9, 1988, elections.

Back Wildly Entertaining!

The Catholic Center wishes you a safe and healthy vacation

BUT PLEASE REMEMBER

You are invited to share

EASTER VIGIL

March 25, at 7:00p.m.

Florida’s most entertaining and chi-chi entertainment center, the Hall staff court case is the last state in that it was held in the November 9, 1988, elections.

Back Wildly Entertaining!

The Catholic Center wishes you a safe and healthy vacation

BUT PLEASE REMEMBER

You are invited to share

EASTER VIGIL

March 25, at 7:00p.m.

Florida’s most entertaining and chi-chi entertainment center, the Hall staff court case is the last state in that it was held in the November 9, 1988, elections.

Back Wildly Entertaining!

The Catholic Center wishes you a safe and healthy vacation

BUT PLEASE REMEMBER

You are invited to share

EASTER VIGIL

March 25, at 7:00p.m.

Florida’s most entertaining and chi-chi entertainment center, the Hall staff court case is the last state in that it was held in the November 9, 1988, elections.

Back Wildly Entertaining!
cont.fromp.1
College will receive such a benefit. Students of Bridgewater State with a but continued sending representative. then but it has been denied each the Congress at least twice since time.

SSAM representative. When suspicion as organization arose, the Congress procedures within the management policies and provisions within the SSAM organization sense, the Congress stopped its funding of SSAM, but continued sending a representative.

China’s Martial Law is reinstated

After three days of bloody rises promoting Chinese rule, China impoused martial law on Tibet’s capital of Lhasa. An American missionary and thousands of soldiers flooded the city early Wednesday. Tibetans closed government buildings, raced Chinese-owned stores and burned their contents, and

SSAM representative.

Hall files court case

By Brian Hayes

Attorney General Craig Hall, who is also the newly appointed State Student Association of Massachusetts representative, has filed a non-disciplinary case with the Student Court. The case questions the Congress’ ability to disapprove of a person being appointed to an office, because they do not approve of an organization.

Although Hall was appointed, at the March 7 SGA meeting, to the position of SSAM representative, he has made it known that he will not drop the case. The Student Court has 30 days to accept the case. If the case is heard, it will be done after spring break.

McElwain School Annual Fundraiser Dance

March 11, 1989

SALs: Band: INCOMING

$15.00 per person

Dancing from 8:30 P.M. to 12:30 A.M.

An education for those who can’t reach out and helping others, Northeastern is a place for you. At Boston-Bouve College you can learn to assist those who can’t assist themselves. Many programs are offered Widow retraining place, learning for women of any age

Since 1940, Northeastern University has been an equal opportunity/affirmative action university.

The Catholic Center

EASTER VIGIL

Palm Sunday Vigil, March 25, at 7:00 p.m.

Please remember

You are invited to share

The Comment

Thursday, March 9, 1989

5

The Comment

Thursday, March 9, 1989

4

The Comment

Thursday, March 9, 1989

5

The Comment

Thursday, March 9, 1989

4

The Comment

Thursday, March 9, 1989

4

The Comment

Thursday, March 9, 1989

4

The Comment

Thursday, March 9, 1989

4

The Comment

Thursday, March 9, 1989

4

The Comment

Thursday, March 9, 1989

4

The Comment

Thursday, March 9, 1989

4

TheComment

Thursday, March 9, 1989

4

The Comment

Thursday, March 9, 1989

4

The Comment

Thursday, March 9, 1989

4

The Comment

Thursday, March 9, 1989

4

The Comment

Thursday, March 9, 1989

4

The Comment

Thursday, March 9, 1989

4

The Comment

Thursday, March 9, 1989

4

TheComment

Thursday, March 9, 1989

4

The Comment

Thursday, March 9, 1989

4

TheComment

Thursday, March 9, 1989

4

TheComment

Thursday, March 9, 1989

4

TheComment

Thursday, March 9, 1989

4

TheComment

Thursday, March 9, 1989

4

TheComment

Thursday, March 9, 1989

4
Support the protest

Members of C.R.E.Ed. question Tinsley's status

Editor's Note: This is a copy of a letter which was written by legislators of Bridgewater and sent to the Board of Trustees. Carol Furr

Dear Mr. Furr,

Our group C.R.E.Ed (Coalition for Responsibility and Ethics in Education), held its most recent meeting on Monday, April 12, in the forum at 11 a.m. In the spirit of Tinsley's absence, we wish to present our concerns and request an interview with her in the near future.

We should apologize to these students and workers for not being "the high class" wealthy, non-representative societies that we have become. But we will not. We here to learn how to become part of life; not how to take money away from others to solve our own financial crises. We are better than them. We will not stick to their division and self-centered terms.

We, the Comment, are arguing for all students who attend state colleges and universities to be part of the present on March 29. We also urge them to keep harassing their own representatives.

The Board of Trustees did not agree to conditions her bow was accepted by the Board of Regents...

Support for Rushdie grows

People must be free to express opinions

To the Editor,

We would like to voice our support of the opinion expressed in last week's local events in defense of Rushdie's right to be defended. The issue is not Ms. Rushdie's literary prowess or lack thereof, but the right to publish her name.

We, as Americans, are subject to the same obstacles as Rushdie. We are all subject to the same sanctions for ignorance, spelling, and truth. It is expected that an author will check his/her own work and correct errors. The Comment does not act as an editor in order to safeguard the students of Bridgewater State College.

Sincerely,

Prof. Vernon Domingo, Co-Chairs of C.R.E.Ed.
Support the protest

Members of C.R.E.E.D. question Tinsley’s status

To the Editor:

A good time was had by all at Fitchburg State College, despite the lack of support from the BSC Program Coordinator. After winning the BSC College Bowl Tri-Festa, the Trebekies, along with winners of other intercollegiate activities, were scheduled to attend the National Abortion Rights Action Conference, February 23 and 24. Saturday morning, the four of us along with two women of the same organization, sat in the Campus Center at 8 a.m. We were told then by Carolyn Carey, that we were not going, for the following reasons:

1. There were six inches of snow on the ground, with drifts on the road which made driving much too hazardous.
2. The figures often given by pro-abortionists contain thousands of deaths annually due to illegal abortions. Dr. Bernard Nathanson, at the time he headed the National Abortion Rights Action Centers for certain recent abortion techniques, stated what he termed the "real number" of abortion-related deaths in this country dropped significantly long before the 1973 Roe v. Wade decision.
3. There were four other schools already there from as far away as Western Connecticut, University of Maine, and Brown, just to name a few from our competition alone.
4. The number of abortion-related deaths declined from over 1,000 to under 100 in the mid-1970s.
5. The figures often used by pro-abortionists contain thousands of deaths annually due to illegal abortions. Dr. Bernard Nathanson, at the time he headed the National Abortion Rights Action League and was still adamantly pro-choice, advised in a public interview that if one-third of the women who had been given the public support they needed to neglect abortion. Most of all, data from the Centers for Disease Control show that the number of abortion-related deaths in this country dropped significantly long before the 1973 Roe v. Wade decision, which was still illegal. Between 1940 and 1970, the number of abortion-related deaths declined from over 1,000 to under 100.

Tell your state representatives, MIT, and in such competition to begin, we met another organization of our peers campaigning in competition with 11 other schools already there from as far away as Western Connecticut, University of Maine, and Brown, just to name a few from our competition alone.

Fifth, abortion not only kills a baby, but causes emotional and psychological trauma. The destruction of life, and in such painful ways, is not worth the "saving of life" that is being done. I would like to point out that the pro-lifers are not "pro-life" in the literal sense of the word. They are opposed to abortion; they are not concerned with the well-being of women who have had or are having abortions.

Sincerely,

Katie Walsh

Facts about abortions are greatly exaggerated

"Lack of support" frustrates college bowl competitors

The Comment Thursday, March 9, 1989

The Comment is a student-supported and operated weekly newspaper serving the academic community of Bridgewater State College. Editorial Policy is determined by the Editor-in-Chief in consultation with the Executive Board. Regular contributors include students, faculty, staff and members of the campus community. The weekly is distributed throughout the campus. All opinions expressed in this publication are not necessarily those of the Editorial Board. Letters, classified advertisements, and all other written materials are subject to editorial discretion. All correspondence should be directed to The Comment, Campus Center, Bridgewater State College, Bridgewater, Mass. 02325, Telephone 809-597-1200 extension 2159.

Support for Rushdie grinds slow People must be free to express opinions

Letters to the Editor:

We would like to voice our support of the opinions expressed in last week's letter to the editor by Ms. Judy Key. The issue is not Ms. Key's literary prowess or lack thereof but the free speech clause as established by the U.S. Constitution. We believe that the right of all individuals for expression, speech, and thought is an essential part of what makes us human. We are dismayed with the ability of our government, or lack thereof, to manage these things. Let's make it Hell on Earth for the legislators.

Sincerely,

Professor Lambros Graziosi

Anthony Fisher

is the syndicated columnist for the USSLS

When we were waiting for our competition to begin, we saw another BSC student, who because of the lack of organization of our "band" was never informed of the "supposed" cancellations. In addition, he was one of the students that Carolyn had told us earlier, had cancelled on too. He was also able to register and compete without Carolyn's assistance. We arrived at Fitchburg College and were given copies of our Board, however, there were never cancelled reservations. BSC will incur the organization fees along with the hotel bill of $239. all of which could have been saved with a little common concern for all concerned.

We did complete, and although we did not win scholarship honors, we did receive an ungodly awful for "Best Decorated". We met many people, and we were invited to another upcoming competition at MIT, along with Brandeis, Brown, and Northeastern, in no name to take.

We won the only State College at the College Bowl competition, and the only college not accompanied by a school representative. Even though we all had a great time, we all realized that there is no wonder students who do not get involved in activities sponsored by the College.

The Trebekies

Anne Curley

Marilyn Higgens

Kate Wahl

Letters Submission Policy

The Comment welcomes letters for publication. The latest page in a column is a rule, we proudly maintain availability for the benefit of our readership. To facilitate our ability to respond more efficiently, please follow when preparing your letter:

1. Address the Editor.
2. Keep letters in a limit of approximately 250 words.
3. All submissions must be received at our office on or before Monday publication on Thursday.
4. The Comment reserves the right to edit submissions for grammar, spelling, and length. It is expected that an author will check his/her own submission for accuracy, and the Comment cannot be responsible for factual errors within letters.
5. All letters must include a signature and a phone number will be printed. Unsigned letters will be held until next week. They will be published unless they are asked to be.

Sincerely,

Brian Petrie

Letters to the Editor:

The Comment Thursday, March 9, 1989

The Comment is a student-supported and operated weekly newspaper serving the academic community of Bridgewater State College. Editorial Policy is determined by the Editor-in-Chief in consultation with the Executive Board. Regular contributors include students, faculty, staff and members of the campus community. The weekly is distributed throughout the campus. All opinions expressed in this publication are not necessarily those of the Editorial Board. Letters, classified advertisements, and all other written materials are subject to editorial discretion. All correspondence should be directed to The Comment, Campus Center, Bridgewater State College, Bridgewater, Mass. 02325, Telephone 809-597-1200 extension 2159.
Summer Job — Think Taxes

If you're getting a job this summer, the Internal Revenue Service urges you to take a few minutes to think about your taxes. You may have to pay taxes on your earnings if you're under 18 years old and your income exceeds your tax-exempt amount, or equal to or greater than $3,100.

You can be claimed as a dependent by someone who is your employer, your parent, the person you live with, or the person who pays your living expenses. Any of these persons may claim you as a dependent if you're under age 18 and your income is $3,100 or less, and you file a joint return with your parent or the person who pays your living expenses.

Do you have an income from any source, even if you're a student? If so, you may have to pay income tax. If you're a student, you might be able to claim a personal exemption for yourself. You can claim a personal exemption if you're under age 18 and your income is $3,100 or less, and you file a joint return with your parent or the person who pays your living expenses.

The following are steps you can take to plan for your taxes:

1. Keep all receipts and records of income and expenses.
2. Use the tax forms and schedules available from the IRS.
3. Use the IRS online tax calculator to figure your tax liability.
4. File your tax return on time.

If you earn any income this summer, make sure you file your tax return on time. If you don't, you may have to pay penalties and interest on your tax liability.

The IRS offers a free online tax calculator to help you determine your tax liability. You can find it on the IRS website.

Scholarships and Fellowships May Be Taxable

Students who receive scholarships or fellowships for the summer term should be aware that, due to the Tax Reform Act of 1986, certain scholarships and fellowships may be taxable income. There are many factors which must be considered before determining if a scholarship or fellowship is taxable. For example, if you receive a scholarship or fellowship for a graduate degree, the amount of the scholarship or fellowship may be taxable.

The Tax Reform Act of 1986 defines qualified amounts as those amounts received in the year of payment, and only qualified amounts may be excluded from income. There are many factors which must be considered before determining if a scholarship or fellowship is qualified.

The Tax Reform Act of 1986 defines qualified amounts as those amounts received in the year of payment, and only qualified amounts may be excluded from income. There are many factors which must be considered before determining if a scholarship or fellowship is qualified.

Foreign Students — Scholarships and Grants

Foreign students in the United States are also subject to the same tax rules as U.S. citizens. For information on taxes paid by foreign students, students planning to study abroad, or students who are not citizens of the United States, it is recommended that you consult the IRS website.

Use Form 1040X To Correct Errors

Conversely, this form of year when text is not displayed in the text field.

Form 1040X is used to correct errors on your tax return. If you make a mistake on your tax return, you can use Form 1040X to correct it. You must file Form 1040X within three years of the due date of your tax return, or within one year of the due date of your amended return, if you amend your tax return after the due date of your original return.

Extension of Time To File Available

Taxpayers who file Form 4868 for an extension of time to file their tax return will be able to correct any errors on their return. If you correct any errors on your return, you must file Form 1040X to correct your return.

The IRS offers an online tax calculator to help you determine your tax liability. You can find it on the IRS website.
Summer Job — Think Taxes

Foreign Students — Scholarships and Grants

Use Form 1040X To Correct Errors

Extension of Time To File Available

Overdue Refunds Can Be Traced

Volunteers Help With Tax Returns

Foreign students in this country under F.1. or J-1 status may be eligible for reduced-cost tax preparation assistance under the Federal Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) Program. The VITA program, sponsored by the Internal Revenue Service, has grown over the past several years to provide financial aid to low-income individuals who cannot afford to hire help for tax preparation. Volunteers are not paid by the IRS but are generally reimbursed by the IRS for their travel expenses. To locate a VITA site in your area, please call 1-800-424-1040.

Scholarships and Fellowships May Be Taxable

Working Students

Volunteers Help With Tax Returns

Ordinarily, the tax law does not allow the income received from a part-time job to be subtracted from the income that a child claims to be the child's own. However, in some cases, a child may be able to claim the income from a part-time job as earned income for the purposes of the earned income credit. To determine whether a child can claim the earned income credit, the child must meet certain eligibility requirements, such as the age requirement and the earned income requirement. For more information, see Pub. 970, "Earned Income Credit," and pay particular attention to the section on "Earned Income Credit for Children.

The Comment's Income Tax Times

Publication 1163, by calling toll-free, 1-800-829-3676. The program is available from 1163 by calling toll-free, 1-800-829-3676. The IRS will provide the necessary steps to claim the earned income credit.

The tax agency may be able to help you claim the earned income credit if you meet the eligibility requirements. In addition, you may be able to claim the credit if you have a social security number and are otherwise eligible to file a return. If you have a social security number and are otherwise eligible to file a return, you can claim the credit if your earned income exceeds the amount required by the IRS. To find out if you are eligible to claim the earned income credit, please check the IRS website for the most recent information.

The tax agency may also be able to help you claim the earned income credit if you meet the eligibility requirements. In addition, you may be able to claim the credit if you have a social security number and are otherwise eligible to file a return. If you have a social security number and are otherwise eligible to file a return, you can claim the credit if your earned income exceeds the amount required by the IRS. To find out if you are eligible to claim the earned income credit, please check the IRS website for the most recent information.

Working Students May Owe Taxes

Working Students who have been employed for a number of years may have had to take out a loan or have a credit card debt. In these cases, the student must consider whether the student is liable for taxes on the interest earned on the loan or credit card debt.

The Comment — March 9, 1989

For additional information on VITA, contact the IRS at 1-800-829-3676, or the Taxpayer Advocate Service at 1-800-829-4000.

For free tax assistance in your area, contact your local IRS office or call 1-800-829-3676.
Nominations are open

Nomination papers are available for the following Student Government offices for the Fall of 1989:

Student Trustee
SGA Executive Board
-President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Assistant Treasurer, Secretary, and Attorney General

SGA Congress
-Congressmen-at-Large, Class Congressmen
-Class Officers
-All positions, all non-senior classes

All positions are open to all qual All positions open to any qualified full-time student For more information, or papers, go to the SGA office, 3rd floor, Campus Center

‘The Snow Queen’ reigns

BSC Children’s Theatre celebrates it’s 20 year anniversary

This week marks the 20 year anniversary of the Children’s Theatre at Bridgewater State College. This year we present a Snow Queen. This is the classic fairytale of how a true heart wins the coldness of the frozen queen. The play is in a play within a play and is a modern version in Denmark where a young girl, her best friend and her grandmother enshrine the Snow Queen’s heart. The three are invited to participate in a story involving them in an experience that allows the Snow Queen to create the one true love for them. Swept away in this 19 century fantasy, the viewer is carried away into the young girl’s search for her true friends in a classic fairy tale production.

The Bridgewater State College Children’s Theatre was established in 1969 and is supported by the efforts of the Department of Speech Communication, Theatre Arts, and Communication Disorders with the assistance of theatre students, theatre faculty and staff, student volunteers and the surrounding community. To date over 125,000 children and adults have enjoyed the 23 major productions while attendance rates have been over 25%

Santos and the Blakes riding down the road to success

For a band that has only been together for a few months, the Santos play like they have been together for years. They are made up of four members of Professor Ragusa with two new members. The band is comprised of Douglas Allen on drums, Chris Cook playing bass, Kevin Devlin and Matt Wood on guitar. The band, Santos, is currently playing local gigs.

When they were in Professor Ragusa, the band was on WBUU’s Home Brewed Spot. They have been playing local gigs. One of the new members of the band, Chris Cook, is a former member of the band. The band, Santos, is currently playing local gigs. They have been playing local gigs.

When they were in Professor Ragusa, the band was on WBUU’s Home Brewed Spot. They have been playing local gigs. One of the new members of the band, Chris Cook, is a former member of the band. The band, Santos, is currently playing local gigs. They have been playing local gigs.
Nominations are open
Nomination papers are available for the following Student Government offices for the Fall of 1989:

Student Trustee
SGA Executive Board
(President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Assistant Treasurer, Secretary, and Attorney General)

SGA Congress
(Congressmen-at-Large, Class Congressmen)

Class Officers
(All positions, all non-senior classes)

All positions are open to all qualified full-time students
For more information, or papers, go to the SGA office, 3rd floor, Campus Center

Campus Conversation
With Deb Wilts

What are you doing for Spring Break?

"Purchasing, going to clubs since I'm not going away and working to put money to go to California in the summer!"
Paola DiBenedetto

"Going Home, relaxing, watching college basketball, and forget about Bridgewater life for two weeks."
Todd Hollier

"Teaching my science prerequisite and hopefully skiing."
Micaela Molinaro

"Going to Montreal to go to strip bars with nude dancing women. Loving life to its fullest. And checking my dog's toenails."
Rich Scollon

"I'm going to spring skiing. I'm going to Gunstock in New Hampshire."
Mike Hallett

‘The Snow Queen’ reigns

BSC Children’s Theatre celebrates its 20 year anniversary

This week marks the 20 year anniversary of the Children’s Theatre at Bridgewater State College. This year’s performance is Snow Queen. This is the premiere production of an adaptation of the familiar Hans Christian Andersen fairy tale. The play is in play within a play set in a winter scene in Denmark when a young girl, her best friend, and her grandmother encounter the Snow Queen of the fair. The scene is entitled "A Snowy Invitation." The three are invited to participate in a story involving them as an experience that the Snow Queen creates on the spot from memories of her distant past. Swapped into this 19th century fantasy, the viewer is treated to the young girl’s search for her best friend in a classic fairy tale copy. The presentation.

The Bridgewater State College Children’s Theatre was established in 1969 and is a cooperative effort of the Colleges Department of Speech Communication, Theatre Arts, and Communication Disorders with the Economics Theatre, Students from faculty and staff, all volunteers, and parents of other productions. To date over 125,000 children and adults have enjoyed 23 major productions while dozens of students have spent spring touring “mini-plays.” Since the initial production in the Horace Museum of the Arts, we have enjoyed forum in Shakespeare and the Classics. Our students also have received many prestigious awards locally and nationally. Directed by Matt Wood, the Bridgewater State Theatre is a full-time student production with musical direction and presentation.

Santos and the Blakes riding down the road to success

By Muric Banks

For a band that has only been together for a few months, the Blanks play like they have been together for years. They are made up of three former members of Santos, two young men who brought together to play their own music from Brazil. They are a national benefit at Providence College, although drummers

...
JUST FOR THE HEALTH OF IT

AIDS effects "insiders" as well as " outsiders"

The following is an excerpt from Pearl Bailey's statement delivered to the World Health Organization's meeting on AIDS at Geneva, Switzerland, on December 1, 1989.

It was a long journey here. Everyone more in love than in distance. The realization that the whole world would be here to listen, to understand, and to learn together has made it worthwhile. History, faith, hope, led, and finally decided were you? We all waited.

...and Larson and others delivered to the World Health Organization's meeting at Geneva, Switzerland, on December 1, 1988.

Measured more in love than in distance. The realization that the "outsider" on the subject of AIDS. The "insider" will there be, who, at 25, had reached a large degree of success. At 36, he was getting ready for death. AIDS, like the four horsemen, is no regard to age. Those who say, "not me" think of all who said the same words. The recognition of AIDS comes closer when it strikes someone dear. I met a pianist/accompanist on the faculty of the Joffrey Ballet School who, at 25, had reached a large degree of success. He was AIDS on the subject of AIDS. He was AIDS to die for. He was AIDS to die for. He was AIDS to die for.

Through our combined efforts, it can be said that the disease is not going to be destroyed, but that we can learn to live with it. We can learn to live with it.

...and Larson and others delivered to the World Health Organization's meeting at Geneva, Switzerland, on December 1, 1988.

Sitting here has been touched; not one has been touched. Not one has escaped this pestilence. It is not fair for us to sit here in darkness, waiting for someone who is waiting for us. It is not fair for us to sit here in darkness, waiting for someone who is waiting for us. It is not fair for us to sit here in darkness, waiting for someone who is waiting for us.

...and Larson and others delivered to the World Health Organization's meeting at Geneva, Switzerland, on December 1, 1988.

No, it is not fair for us to sit here in darkness, waiting for someone who is waiting for us.

...and Larson and others delivered to the World Health Organization's meeting at Geneva, Switzerland, on December 1, 1988.

I remember him telling me of AIDS. He said, "when the doctor told me, first, I cried, then I began." The realization that the whole world would be here to listen, to understand, and to learn together has made it worthwhile. History, faith, hope, led, and finally decided were you? We all waited.

...and Larson and others delivered to the World Health Organization's meeting at Geneva, Switzerland, on December 1, 1988.

I remember him telling me of AIDS. He said, "when the doctor told me, first, I cried, then I began." The realization that the whole world would be here to listen, to understand, and to learn together has made it worthwhile. History, faith, hope, led, and finally decided were you? We all waited.

...and Larson and others delivered to the World Health Organization's meeting at Geneva, Switzerland, on December 1, 1988.

If you must cry, do it now.

...and Larson and others delivered to the World Health Organization's meeting at Geneva, Switzerland, on December 1, 1988.

I remember him telling me of AIDS. He said, "when the doctor told me, first, I cried, then I began." The realization that the whole world would be here to listen, to understand, and to learn together has made it worthwhile. History, faith, hope, led, and finally decided were you? We all waited.

...and Larson and others delivered to the World Health Organization's meeting at Geneva, Switzerland, on December 1, 1988.

If you must cry, do it now.

...and Larson and others delivered to the World Health Organization's meeting at Geneva, Switzerland, on December 1, 1988.

I remember him telling me of AIDS. He said, "when the doctor told me, first, I cried, then I began." The realization that the whole world would be here to listen, to understand, and to learn together has made it worthwhile. History, faith, hope, led, and finally decided were you? We all waited.

...and Larson and others delivered to the World Health Organization's meeting at Geneva, Switzerland, on December 1, 1988.

If you must cry, do it now.

...and Larson and others delivered to the World Health Organization's meeting at Geneva, Switzerland, on December 1, 1988.

I remember him telling me of AIDS. He said, "when the doctor told me, first, I cried, then I began." The realization that the whole world would be here to listen, to understand, and to learn together has made it worthwhile. History, faith, hope, led, and finally decided were you? We all waited.

...and Larson and others delivered to the World Health Organization's meeting at Geneva, Switzerland, on December 1, 1988.
JUST FOR THE HEALTH OF IT

AIDS effects 'insiders' as well as 'outsiders'

The following is an excerpt from Paul Bley's statement delivered during the World Health Organization's meeting on AIDS at Geneva, Switzerland, on December 1, 1988.

It was a long journey here. Many more in love than in disease. The realization that the world would be here to listen, respond, and reach together has made it worthwhile. We've learned, at least all the way we've traveled, all the way. The 'insiders' have become the 'outsiders' as the subject of AIDS. The heart is a-ah in the third century will come to a rest. We must say goodbye, 'cause there will be 10. Eachason sitting here has been touched, not one has escaped. AIDS, like the four horses, is riding the earth, displaying with so much grace, age, race, or sex.

Those who say, 'not me' think of all who said the same words. The most optimistic of AIDS comes closer when it strikes someone dear. I am a young boy who, at 35, had reached a large degree of normalcy. At 35, I was matching it for life, death is reaching out for him. He has not been this diagnosis of AIDS.

Maureen, I am Maureen. She hides it well. We wonder why the doctors, scientists, politicians, and financiers are not doing more. We are not digested about the speed and inefficiency lasting at his heart. As I look into the heart of the here, I imagine the ask for "wax, little fool, did this occur? Can you help us do we may know more? We are trying to help you. Give us a clue as to the beginning.

I remember him telling me of his first knowledge. He said, "when the doctor told me, first, I cried, then I told my partner." Then he laughed and said, "I told all of my possessions: one day, I looked around me and discovered I had friends. I knew then I was telling all of it was getting ready for death. Now don't a chosen purpose as in such a cruel, obvious way.

I thought, 'it is not fair for us to have this disease. It is not fair for us in such a dark, evil, even white. We need to help you.'

In some mind, there is a key to open the door. We must finally be that AIDS is not for us. Somewhere in the world, a man is overworking, by the grace of God, become filled with the knowledge that will save humanity. Through our combined efforts, it can be said must be done. Man is to survive this terrible disease. God cannot make us. We must not allow AIDS to destroy, in its own way.

The key is to help people around the world. Our rats must grow stronger. The help can be on our side. We must keep the same path and find a cure for AIDS. We the seakers, shall be the friends.

If anyone has a question, please contact Paul Bley, AIDS coordinator at Health Services.

Snow Queen

cover, from p. 11

Bridgewater State College student, Melissa Tarzopoulos, has been recognized as an Outstanding Dances Student by the National Dance Association. She is one of 23 students to be honored nationwide for her contributions in dance at Bridgewater. She will be awarded a certificate at the National Dance Association annual convention this April held in Boston.

Her choreography will be presented at the Massachusetts Education and Recreation and Dances General Session, which is held on April 14 and 15. The presentation will end with a solo performance of Amazing Grace by Tarzopoulos. It's Going to Be a Great Day, Tarzopoulos is choreographing this work for the annual spring concert, Dance Kaleidoscope '89, which will be presented April 14 and 15.

Tarzopoulos has been a dance major at Bridgewater since her sophomore year. For the past three years she has been president of the BSC Dance Company, now known as the BSC Dance Company. She has directed and choreographed for six dance concerts at BSC and organized all Dance Club activities.

ATTENTION SENIORS

Ordering your 1989 Yearbook

As Bridgewater State College seniors, seniors are entitled to receive a copy of the 1989 Yearbook. To order your copy, please print your name, major, and address on the Senior Portrait Section, the only your picture was taken.

1989 URSAE MAJORIS YEARBOOK

ORDER FORM

NAME

Year 1989

Address

Phone

City

State

Mail check or money order payable to: 1989 Bridgewater State College Yearbook

HOLD/No charge

Plastic covering/2.00

SEND/Send

$3.00

Name on cover $3.00

TOTAL COST $3.00

FURTHER QUESTIONS

If you did not have your picture taken but would like to be included in the Senior Portrait section, please fill out the Senior Portrait section of the 1989 Ursa Majoris.

Further Questions

If you did not have your picture taken but would like to be included in the Senior Portrait section, please fill out the Senior Portrait section of the 1989 Ursa Majoris.
Announcements

AIDS Task Force

The third meeting of the AIDS Task Force will be held on Tuesday, March 14, in the Plymouth County Conference Room of the Campus Center. More students are needed for participation in this important committee, especially faculty and students. Please contact Barbara Swartz, AIDS coordinator in Health Services, at 697-1254, and volunteer.

Early Childhood Association

Mark your calendar now! Wednesday March 29, the Association will begin its Career Classifieds. Easy Work! Excellent Help Wanted. Mark your calendar now!

Game Club

Meetings: Every Monday and Tuesday at 3 p.m. (Only need to attend one each week)
Plymouth County Room, across from the Info Booth

New Members Welcome!

We are currently beginning plans for tournament in the following categories: Pool, Ping-pong, Dungeons & Dragons
Is there another activity you’d like to compete in? Come to our meetings and let us know!

AIDS Task Force

BSC Game Club

Meetings: Every Monday and Tuesday at 3 p.m. (Only need to attend one each week)
Plymouth County Room, across from the Info Booth

New Members Welcome!

We are currently beginning plans for tournament in the following categories: Pool, Ping-pong, Dungeons & Dragons
Is there another activity you’d like to compete in? Come to our meetings and let us know!

Pen-Pals Wanted

Needed from Poland are letters to United Nations pen pals. If you are interested, drop by the Office of International Student Affairs, across from the Office of Student Services, in Boyden Hall. A listing is available for those who are interested.

Insect Successors Group

Open for new members. We meet Wednesdays at 3 p.m. at the Counseling Center in Harrington Hall. If you are interested, please call Susan Zalewski at 697-1231.

Orthopedic Examination Clinics

The college Health Service will provide and make available joint injury examination clinics to students of the college community. First stop to be the Health building, Room 105. Hill to make an appointment.

Orthopedic Examination Clinics

Free joint injury examination clinics available for all students of the college community, Monday, April 3, 3 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Anorexia-Bulimia Support Group Meeting to Be Held

An anorexia-bulimia anonymous support group will be meeting weekly in the Seminar Rooms, Room 4. Contact and green receipt to RD

Student Referral Service

Many part-time job opportunities available. If you are interested, please check our listings. Contact and green receipt to RD

Internships

International Internship Programs is offering a full-time position dealing with Volunteer and Internship Programs has an opening for Public Broadcasting. This 1988-89 edition contains information about 276 public broadcasting organizations in the United States, including 30 college campuses.

Chorale

The Watkinson Chorale and jazz Piano Ensemble will present Winter Concert, April 1, Tuesday at the Dinner Club on the campus. Choir members will perform a variety of choral music, including spirituals and contemporary works. All students, faculty, and friends of the college are invited to attend.

School of Business/Finance

The School of Business/Finance will be hosting a Career Fair on April 1, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Campus Center. Students, faculty, and staff are invited to attend.

Calendar of Events

Buses to the State House

Will be leaving from the Campus Center at 8 a.m. on Wednesday, March 29

Come show your support against further cuts in the higher education system

The first half of the show will feature the music of the Meadow Larks, with vocals and lead guitar. The second half of the show will feature the Big Band Mourn, as well as hits from other decades. At this time, the audience is encouraged to dance to the special ballroom atmosphere, by hand and enjoy the music. Tickets are on sale now. All proceeds are donated to $100 per person. For more information, please call the Zontian booth at (909) 890-2100. Tickets are also available at all Zontian locations or by calling Zontian at (617) 378-8838.

The Zeolla Theatre is located at 684 Purchase Street, in Downtown New Bedford.
AIDS Task Force
The third meeting of the AIDS Task Force will be held on Thursday, March 14, in the Plympton Conference Room of the Campus Center. More members are needed for participation in this important committee, especially faculty and students.
Please contact Patricia W. Swart, AIDS coordinator in Health Services, at 697-1254, and volunteers.

Early Childhood
Association
Mark your calendar now! Wednesday, March 29, the Association will begin the Campus Option tenure session. Featured at this first meeting will be Dave Wynne, Nursery School Coordinator and Bonnie Hutton, Hospital Childcare specialist.
More details will be given promptly at 3:30, but feel free to stop in at any time. Members old and new are welcome! See you soon!

Suitcase Dance
The Student Alumni Relations Council will be holding its annual German Dance on Thursday, April 20. A drawing will be held on the dance, and winners will be at the Boston Garden. Friday. A cash prize of $100 will be given to the winner for royalties.

Peer-Pal Wanted
Student from Poland is looking for a United States pen
pal. If you are interested, drop by the Office of International Student Affairs, across from the Office of Student Services, in Reynolds Hall. A listing is available for those who are interested.

"Undecided Student" Workshop
Attention undecorated sophomore and junior: there is a work­shop put together for you, the undecided student. This workshop will help you clarify any misunderstandings you may have as an undecided student, and will enable you to take the "majors/minors" course. Together, we will help you to get closer to the major you would like to choose. If you are interested, sign up in the Academic Advising Center in the Maxwell Library, or stop by, if you have any questions.

Peace Corps Seeks Volunteers
The Peace Corps is growing at an unprecedented rate, helping to develop countries worldwide. Congress has mandated that it double in size by 1992.

All majors will be considered.
The program requires a 2 year investment and partici­
pat ions are available in the CIP Office or by calling the Peace
Corps Office (collect at) 317-955-6342.

Anorexia-Bulimia Support Group Meeting to Be Held
An anorexia-bulimia anony­
mouse group will be meeting weekly in the Seminar Room, beginning
on Thursday, March 15, in the Academic Center.

AIDS Task Force
The third meeting of the AIDS Task Force will be held on Thursday, March 14, in the Plympton Conference Room of the Campus Center. More members are needed for participation in this important committee, especially faculty and students.
Please contact Patricia W. Swart, AIDS coordinator in Health Services, at 697-1254, and volunteers.

Early Childhood
Association
Mark your calendar now! Wednesday, March 29, the Association will begin the Campus Option tenure session. Featured at this first meeting will be Dave
Wynne, Nursery School Coordinator and Bonnie Hutton, Hospital Childcare specialist.
More details will be given promptly at 3:30, but feel free to stop in at any time. Members old and new are welcome! See you soon!

Suitcase Dance
The Student Alumni Relations Council will be holding its annual German Dance on Thursday, April 20. A drawing will be held on the dance, and winners will be at the Boston Garden. Friday. A cash prize of $100 will be given to the winner for royalties.

Peer-Pal Wanted
Student from Poland is looking for a United States pen
pal. If you are interested, drop by the Office of International Student Affairs, across from the Office of Student Services, in Reynolds Hall. A listing is available for those who are interested.

"Undecided Student" Workshop
Attention undecorated sophomore and junior: there is a work­shop put together for you, the undecided student. This workshop will help you clarify any misunderstandings you may have as an undecided student, and will enable you to take the "majors/minors" course. Together, we will help you to get closer to the major you would like to choose. If you are interested, sign up in the Academic Advising Center in the Maxwell Library, or stop by, if you have any questions.

Peace Corps Seeks Volunteers
The Peace Corps is growing at an unprecedented rate, helping to develop countries worldwide. Congress has mandated that it double in size by 1992.

All majors will be considered.
The program requires a 2 year investment and partici­
pations are available in the CIP Office or by calling the Peace
Corps Office (collect at) 317-955-6342.

Anorexia-Bulimia Support Group Meeting to Be Held
An anorexia-bulimia anony­
mouse group will be meeting weekly in the Seminar Room, beginning
on Thursday, March 15, in
the Academic Center.

AIDS Task Force
The third meeting of the AIDS Task Force will be held on Thursday, March 14, in the Plympton Conference Room of the Campus Center. More members are needed for participation in this important committee, especially faculty and students.
Please contact Patricia W. Swart, AIDS coordinator in Health Services, at 697-1254, and volunteers.

Early Childhood
Association
Mark your calendar now! Wednesday, March 29, the Association will begin the Campus Option tenure session. Featured at this first meeting will be Dave
Wynne, Nursery School Coordinator and Bonnie Hutton, Hospital Childcare specialist.
More details will be given promptly at 3:30, but feel free to stop in at any time. Members old and new are welcome! See you soon!

Suitcase Dance
The Student Alumni Relations Council will be holding its annual German Dance on Thursday, April 20. A drawing will be held on the dance, and winners will be at the Boston Garden. Friday. A cash prize of $100 will be given to the winner for royalties.

Peer-Pal Wanted
Student from Poland is looking for a United States pen
pal. If you are interested, drop by the Office of International Student Affairs, across from the Office of Student Services, in Reynolds Hall. A listing is available for those who are interested.

"Undecided Student" Workshop
Attention undecorated sophomore and junior: there is a work­shop put together for you, the undecided student. This workshop will help you clarify any misunderstandings you may have as an undecided student, and will enable you to take the "majors/minors" course. Together, we will help you to get closer to the major you would like to choose. If you are interested, sign up in the Academic Advising Center in the Maxwell Library, or stop by, if you have any questions.

Peace Corps Seeks Volunteers
The Peace Corps is growing at an unprecedented rate, helping to develop countries worldwide. Congress has mandated that it double in size by 1992.

All majors will be considered.
The program requires a 2 year investment and partici­
pations are available in the CIP Office or by calling the Peace
Corps Office (collect at) 317-955-6342.

Anorexia-Bulimia Support Group Meeting to Be Held
An anorexia-bulimia anony­
mouse group will be meeting weekly in the Seminar Room, beginning
on Thursday, March 15, in
the Academic Center.
SPORTS

BRIDGEWATER STATE ATHLETICS

Softball team gears up for a new season

By Tom Magne, Content staff

The Lady Bears softball team is practicing this week, preparing for their trip, which they are leaving for this Friday, in Florida. They will play ten games in preparation for their regular season. Of the ten games, four will count on their regular season's record.

The team's roster, composed of 12 players, five sophomores, five juniors and two seniors, who coach Dee Dee Erickson calls the nucleus of the team. There are also six freshmen who have been added to round out the team. Erickson said, "We have a strong nucleus coming back but how well we do depends on how well the new people do."

One of the players returning from last year, who provided strength to the team, is senior co-captain Christie Carl who plays third base. Carl was the Most Valuable Player of the Massachusetts State Athletic Conference (MASCAC) and the New England All Star team last year.

Another player who made the MASCAC All Star and the New England All Star team is junior Mello. Mello is the designated hitter who is very similar to the designated hitter in baseball.

Both star pitchers from last year's team, Stephanie Ponte and Judy Reid, have been National Champions of the NCAA and were just elected co-captains. The team's tournament is composed of our seniors, who coach Dee Dee Erickson says, "are the key to the team's success."

There are also headers on the team. There are also Juniors Kathy McGough, one of the team's co-captains. The other co-captain for the Lady Bears is junior Melody Mello. Mello is the designated hitter who is very similar to the designated in baseball.

The experience and effort of these players will be needed if the Lady Bears are to make post-season play. With the success of the team, the Lady Bears are preparing for their trip, made the MASCAC All Star team University has also proven successful over the years.

Co-captain Kathy McGough is returning to the Lady Bears' softball team when their season begins next week. Coach Dee Dee Erickson said, "Kathy McGough is "one of the players to watch this season." (Photo contributed by Mike Storey)

Women's Lacrosse aims high for season

By Randy Davis, Content staff

Last year's Women's lacrosse team gained four freshmen and is being joined by a high school Provincial State with a 3-0 record. This year's team has the potential to be a team to be reckoned with.

This year's team consists of 22 returning players, ten freshmen and four sophomores and four freshmen. McGough also said that this team will be determined by "the experience that we have and the ability to keep the team together.

The team will be in the top three teams in the MASCAC and will be the team to watch for in the conference.

The first game of the season will be their home opener. They will take on a good Smith College team on Thursday, March 30 at 5:30 p.m. All home games are played out front of the Bridgeport Residence Hall on the playing field.

The Flock wins intramural title in indoor co-ed soccer

By Angela Cornacchioni, Content staff

In the medium of soccer, on Sunday, May 5, the incubee teams remained from rounds of elimination to decide the 1991 Intramural Co-ed Soccer Overall Champions. The Flock survived Team Italy, also winning by a score of 4-2. The Flock's survival Tom Yolk, also winning by a score of 4-2. The goal's competition continued in the championship round, the Flock and the Swarmers did not decide who would be the winning team.

The Flock, led by team captain David Flock, scored in the first half to lead 1-0. The points would be the only ones scored in the game. The Swarmers scored two goals, the first in the second period. Brian Evy scored again, increasing his team's lead to 2-0. The final score was 2-0, in favor of the Flock.

The semi-final saw some rough play as tensions among the players grew. The players' sensitivity dropped to the Mascot Grad Student’s score to 3-2, which the Flock scored on. The Swarmers scored one point by a score of 3-2. The Swarmers scored two goals in the second half. Brain Evy scored again, increasing his team's lead to 2-0. The final score was 2-0, in favor of the Flock.

Some of the players who will be leading the team effort are: Maria Wall, who was Freshman Athlete of the Year last year, Marilyn Gross, Darla Wester, Kim Conrad, Jane Delaney, and Dolcie Renee. The experience and effort of these players will be needed if the team is to be successful.

The Lady Bears have a difficult 11 game schedule, comprised of Division I, II, and III teams. Some of the toughest games will be against Tufts and Springfield College. The Lady Bears finished the Massachusetts MASCAC season 8-2, to advance to the second round of the Division II tournament.

Teaching requirements discussed by Nober

In an education lecture last night, Linda Nober, a representative from Wesleyan State College, spoke on the new education requirements, which must specify whether they would be required for post-school education in the state and the educational settings.

"I think...most public and work-place education should be a smoke-free environment," said Bridgeport City College. The college is doing their part to protect from passive smoke, while giving those who smoke the chance to do so.

"It's income tax time again!" by Angela Cornacchioni, Content staff

In an education lecture last night, Linda Nober, a representative from Wesleyan State College, spoke on the new education requirements, which must specify whether they would be required for post-school education in the state and the educational settings.

"I think...most public and work-place education should be a smoke-free environment," said Bridgeport City College. The college is doing their part to protect from passive smoke, while giving those who smoke the chance to do so.

"Smoking regulations reinforced" by Mark Hybs, Content staff

The Student Government Association (SGA) went on to effect a new smoking policy on campus.

The SGA passed a resolution that smoking is not permitted in the following places:

- Any rooms where business meetings are held
- Classrooms
- Hallways
- Cafeteria
- Gymnasium
- Locker rooms
- Varsity area
- Area including offices, professional. students, athletes, employees, and
- Vehicles where a non-smoker may be present.

In accordance with these regulations, the College has set aside spaces for smokers two years ago. Now they are trying to reinforce them.

"By having people observe the smoking regulations, not only does it provide a place for people who have made a conscious decision to smoke, it provides a protection for people who do not wish to smoke," said Paul Tavolli, of the personnel office. Tailgates is to charge of making the student body aware of when smoking is allowed or not, as stated on a campus.

Darkness falls on Great Hill

By Bryan Hayes, Content staff

Students living in the She-Drugs Residence Halls and the She-Drugs Apartments for three days without power, from March 1 to March 3, the reason for this power failure was that the power lines were insufficient to supply electricity to those places consumed. Both residence areas lost power around midnight Wednesday night, and regained power at 3 p.m. Friday afternoon.

On Thursday night, a large crowd of students left the residence halls and headed for the She-Drugs apartments and into dormitories on campus, which were取暖, according to students. The main power that was used was the dormitories, which were used as a backup power supply.

The Director of Housing, Mike Maro, said that the cause of the problem was a 20-year old cab, which was using the older underground. Water flowed into the problem, which was caused by the cabbage, which was open.

Ducks stated that the main power was the residence halls and headed for the She-Drugs apartments and into dormitories on campus, which were取暖, according to students. The main power that was used was the dormitories, which were used as a backup power supply.

Smoking regulations reinforced

College making guidelines known to students

By Mark Hybs, Content staff

The Student Government Association (SGA) went on to effect a new smoking policy on campus.

The SGA passed a resolution that smoking is not permitted in the following places:

- Any rooms where business meetings are held
- Classrooms
- Hallways
- Cafeteria
- Gymnasium
- Locker rooms
- Varsity area
- Area including offices, professional. students, athletes, employees, and
- Vehicles where a non-smoker may be present.

In accordance with these regulations, the College has set aside spaces for smokers two years ago. Now they are trying to reinforce them.

"By having people observe the smoking regulations, not only does it provide a place for people who have made a conscious decision to smoke, it provides a protection for people who do not wish to smoke," said Paul Tavolli, of the personnel office. Tailgates is to charge of making the student body aware of when smoking is allowed or not, as stated on a campus.

Teaching requirements discussed by Nober

In an education lecture last night, Linda Nober, a representative from Wesleyan State College, spoke on the new education requirements, which must specify whether they would be required for post-school education in the state and the educational settings.

"I think...most public and work-place education should be a smoke-free environment," said Bridgeport City College. The college is doing their part to protect from passive smoke, while giving those who smoke the chance to do so.

"It's income tax time again!" by Angela Cornacchioni, Content staff

In an education lecture last night, Linda Nober, a representative from Wesleyan State College, spoke on the new education requirements, which must specify whether they would be required for post-school education in the state and the educational settings.

"I think...most public and work-place education should be a smoke-free environment," said Bridgeport City College. The college is doing their part to protect from passive smoke, while giving those who smoke the chance to do so.

"It's income tax time again!" by Angela Cornacchioni, Content staff

In an education lecture last night, Linda Nober, a representative from Wesleyan State College, spoke on the new education requirements, which must specify whether they would be required for post-school education in the state and the educational settings.

"I think...most public and work-place education should be a smoke-free environment," said Bridgeport City College. The college is doing their part to protect from passive smoke, while giving those who smoke the chance to do so.

"I think...most public and work-place education should be a smoke-free environment," said Bridgeport City College. The college is doing their part to protect from passive smoke, while giving those who smoke the chance to do so.

"I think...most public and work-place education should be a smoke-free environment," said Bridgeport City College. The college is doing their part to protect from passive smoke, while giving those who smoke the chance to do so.

"I think...most public and work-place education should be a smoke-free environment," said Bridgeport City College. The college is doing their part to protect from passive smoke, while giving those who smoke the chance to do so.