

Announcement

Submissions for Volume VII of The Graduate Review

Dear Graduate Students:

Have you written an exemplary graduate paper during spring semester 2021 or during summer sessions 2021? If you have, please consider submitting this work for publication in Volume VII of The Graduate Review. A publication timeline has been developed. This timeline along with submission guidelines are posted to The Graduate Review site (http://vc.bridgew.edu/grad_rev/) on Virtual Commons. The fall submissions deadline for Volume VII of The Graduate Review is December 17, 2021 and the spring submissions deadline is February 28, 2022. These submissions will be uploaded to Virtual Commons.

Submissions will consist of research studies, creative writing, poetry, commentaries, book reviews, and artistic works. Submissions that are written by one author or more than one author will be accepted. Authors for The Graduate Review must be matriculated graduate students, or students who recently received their graduate degrees from Bridgewater State University. For co-authored works, at least one author must be a graduate student at Bridgewater State University.

We look forward to many exciting submissions for Volume VII of The Graduate Review. If you have any questions, please contact Dr. Elaine Bukowiecki (ebukowiecki@bridgew.edu), Principal Editor for The Graduate Review.

With thanks for your participation,

Lisa Krissoff Boehm

Dean, College of Graduate Studies